PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE VILLAGE

The recent showers will be of immense benefit to this vicinity.
 Rev. C. S. Jones went to Winnipeg to attend the Presbyterian General Assembly and Rev. R. J. McCarten conducted the services in the morning and Major J. McGillivray in the evening of June 4 in the Presbyterian church. Services in the Methodist church were withdrawn.

Rev. R. J. McCarten has been attending the Methodist Conference during last week.
 One day last week a year old son of Mr and Mrs Wm. Aldcorn, followed some children into the millpond and was run over by a team of horses and wagon. Some persons thought the wheel passed over the child's body but such may not be the case. One hand is injured, and it was a close call.

Practical joking—One evening lately, a number of buyers, and perhaps the usual proportion of loafers were in a store, a young rural joker present, spied a pile of work gloves on the counter and figured on making some fun for the crowd. He inquired of the merchant "How much for the gloves?" the answer was 20c, he put down a quarter, got his change and then put his arm around the pile of gloves and left his counter claiming that he bought the lot. The merchant's wrath waxed exceeding hot and he hustled around and put the young fellow out of the door afterward admitting that he sometimes made a d—n fool of himself, but did not like to see others do it too.

Robt Knox and family seem to be vacating the house they had rented on Durham road St.
 The proximity of county road construction has caused quite an influx of boarders in town.

PRICEVILLE AND SOUTH
 (Intended for last week)
 This Monday morning the 5th of June 1922, there are clouds on the firmament and hopes are entertained that we may have rain soon as it is needed badly now, although crops are not suffering much yet. In a certain church the minister was praying for rain in a dry spell of weather, asking the Author to uncork the clouds and let the rain pour down. During the following week the rain came down heavily, next Sunday the good man reversed his prayers asking the Lord, not to throw the corks away as they had rain enough now. Query: How well we would do all things if we had the doing of them!

Everybody is done now in general, potatoes planted, and those putting in roots are busy at them this week, but the farmer hasn't much time to rest, after one kind of work is done, another as it were sitting on the fence hurrying him up to attend to it. There are cows to be milked and calves to be fed. The pigs are all squealing if feed is too bad, the hens are all cackling when an egg they lay, no matter if price falls their feed to pay.

The Rev. Mr McCarten preached to a crowded church in the Presbyterian church last Sunday. Mr McCarten will be going to Conference this week and probably will be appointed as some other charge. Mr McCarten served faithfully for four years in the Methodist Church here and elsewhere and his many friends of all classes of denominational differences regret his removal from this locality. Consequently Mr and Mrs McCarten carry with them the prayers of their many friends on their career wherever their lot may be cast in the future.

At a recent meeting of Presbyterians and Methodists held simultaneously at both churches for the purpose of voting on union, the result was unanimous in favor of union in both congregations in Priceville. We cannot vouch for the agreeableness of the other branches of both churches elsewhere, but for long experience of knowing the friendship that always existed between Methodist and Presbyterians we predict, consequently, harmonious results and brotherly feeling in the future as one body in Priceville.

Captain John McGillivray preached in the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening to an appreciative audience.

The Rev. Mr Jones is away to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church held at Winnipeg this week. Mr Jones left last week so as to have time to visit an aunt of his 250 miles from Winnipeg. Mr Jones during his 3 years as Pastor of the Presbyterian church here acted faithfully in the performance of the solemn duties entrusted to him. During the short time Mr Jones has been here he stood beside many a deathbed side and uttered many comforting words to the bereaved ones while addressing the living, young, aged and middle aged at the many funerals he attended.

Lately he attended the funerals of two young men, Donald McKinnon and Lauchy McTaggart, one 28 years the other 23, and the mother, Mrs Allen McLean aged 42 years, and the old veteran lady of 90 years, Miss Margaret Currie and many others besides. It is an easy matter to find fault but if we could see ourselves as others see us we would hold our tongues.

Mrs McQuarrie, north line, fell down stairs recently and is recovering from the effects of the fall. Mrs McQuarrie is one of those gritty aged ladies that don't get up a complaint till necessitated to do so. We are pleased to hear she is about all right again.

Word has been received that Angus McEachern's oldest girl of nine years old died in Cleveland. She was a grand daughter of Mr Roger McEachern of Priceville.

Karsstedt Bros of Priceville are buying all the cream they can get and are paying the ruling price for same.

The U. F. O. Club shipped some hogs from here last Saturday.

Mrs McDermaid of Toronto visited her sisters, the Misses McPhail, South Glenelg and brother Hugh McPhail lately.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs Thos. McKeown is not feeling very well this summer.

Some stranger will occupy the Presbyterian pulpit here next Sunday at the usual hours.

The sick ones are all getting better now.

Donald Campbell, North Line is busy at the erection of his brick house. Hector McLean, brick-layer doing the work.

Miss McPhail, our M. P. lady attended the Presbyterian church here a week ago and had a lot of hearty shake hands from her many supporters in this locality. She didn't question anyone if they voted for her or not for she treated all alike.

We are a law abiding class of people in Priceville. It is not necessary to charge our constable for being too officious in attending to his duties. Great improvement since fifty years ago. Then there was some extra spirit put inside the bibulous individual which give him extra strength for a time which made the persons indulging unruly. We had no motors to look for the numbers thereon, our J. P. S. were lenient in their convictions when on duty.

HOPEVILLE

Mr E. E. Hoekridge has returned to his duties at Manitoulin Island.
 Miss Tena Christie is home from Toronto enjoying a few holidays.
 Mr D. S. McDonald is busy putting up the cellar for his new house. Mr J. Dyce has the contract.

Over a week ago Mr G. McKinnon received injuries in a football game at Hopeville and was taken to Ferguson Hospital. Latest reports state he is getting along nicely and able to sit up a while although still [very] weak.

Mr John Russell has treated himself and family with a new Ford car and are all enjoying this convenience.

Born at Hopeville, June 8th to Mr and Mrs Roy Dingwall, a daughter. Every one is cordially invited to attend the Women's Institute Centre Grey District annual meeting to be held at the hall Hopeville, June 27.

BOOTHVILLE

Miss Pearl Williams is spending a few days with friends near Varney.
 Mrs James Wilson has left for a three weeks visit to Fort William and other places.

Mr and Mrs W. Lane and baby visited with Mr and Mrs Ferguson of Dromore on Sunday and were accompanied by friends from Flesherton.

Mr and Mrs N. G. Wilson and baby Irene, motored to Shelburne last Sunday.

Mr Wallace Hooper was a recent visitor in the vicinity.

We are pleased to say that Master John MacDonald is improving in health.

Mr Gordon MacCannel was home for the week end from Priceville where he is working on the good roads.

Misses Mary Cameron and A. M. McCannel are holidaying at their parental homes.

Boothville Junior Football Team played a friendly game with Swinton Park Juniors last Friday evening but neither side scored a goal. We hope to see these teams play again as all the spectators were quite interested.

Miss Mary Kinsman of Belleville is holidaying at her home here.

A basket ball team has been organized by the young ladies of this vicinity, and some very exciting games take place in Mr S. William's field these long evenings.

Remember the date of Boothville picnic, June 22nd.

SWINTON PARK

Mr J. W. Richardson and friends have returned from their trip up through New Ontario. They travelled a hundred miles and enjoyed it very much. The rivers, lakes and mountains are all very nice to look at but for making a home they prefer the Counties of Grey and Huron.

Road work is now in order and George Wright is on the grader around the Park stirring up quite a dust these dry days. There is some doubt as to whether it is for better or worse it will at least interfere with motoring for a time.

Mr and Mrs Fred Maxwell are holidaying around the Park with their uncle John Aldcorn and cousins the Haw families. Fred is enjoying it to the full having spent his teen year here for sometime attending school and working as a boy in the neighborhood and is meeting many old acquaintances. 23 years ago he went west and has only been back once since about 16 years ago. Mrs Maxwell is making her first visit to Ontario having been born in Manitoba and is a worthy sample of western citizens. Their home is at Radison, Saskatchewan. They intend visiting friends at Woodbridge, Toronto, Hamilton Niagara, Renfrew, Pembroke and Carleton Place and expect to return home in time for harvest.

John Haw, Robert Watson and J. H. Richardson each received a few small fishes to place in their respective fishing ponds. They are of the brook trout variety.

There was no service here last Sunday Rev. Mr Jones being away to Assembly in Winnipeg and a number of the Presbyterians enjoyed the evening service in Salem Methodist church.

Rev. Mr McCarten is this week away to Conference.

Mr Cranstone with his girls and boys loaded on the Watson truck made a visit to Swamp College Friday afternoon and had a football game between the pupils of the two schools. Only one goal was scored and Swinton Park lost it. They had a good time and enjoyed their ride on the truck.

Ford is now Uncle Sam's biggest taxpayer. His income tax bill alone for 1921 was about $27,000,000. His total net income evidently was about $50,000,000. The law is so fixed that for every dollar that Ford makes for himself he has to pay more than a dollar to the Government.

With the Press Party at Ottawa and Montreal

It was our privilege to spend a few most enjoyable days the past week attending the annual meeting of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers' Association at Ottawa, while side trips were also taken in to Montreal and the Thousand Islands. Through the courtesy of the Grand Trunk, C. P. R. and Canadian National Railways, transportation was provided the members and ladies and the officials who accompanied some of the party from Toronto, proved entertaining hosts.

After an all-night train journey we arrived in Ottawa's fine Union Station 7 a. m. Thursday and it was just across the street—at the imposing Chateau Laurier Hotel, that the Convention was held in attendance, but with the ladies the party would total nearly 400. All the provinces were represented—British Columbia to Prince Edward Island and to the latter Province fell the honor of claiming the new President of the Weeklies—Mr Brennan of Summerside.

President W. C. French of Alberta, in opening the sessions, called upon Mayor Plant of Ottawa who extended a hearty welcome and jocularly hinted that if any of the members wished to visit Hull for refreshments, he would do his best to steer them clear of trouble on returning.

The gathering next was delighted to hear Hon. Arthur Meighen and Hon. T. A. Crerar, the Conservative and Progressive leaders, who paid tribute to the power and influence of the weekly press and the latter claimed to have newspaper experience. Hon. MacKenzie King did not attend at the time but was also given an ovation on arrival a little later. The Premier was in a happy mood, and besides welcoming all to the city, invited them to visit Parliament in session. All three leaders gave thoughtful addresses and received an attentive hearing.

To narrate the business of the sessions would not be of general interest and the interesting feature was a competition for best make-up, general arrangement and neatness of a weekly newspaper. About 40 papers entered and the judges gave the prize to the Weyburn, Sask. Review, edited by H. B. Cullough. Recently of the Chatsworth News is editor.

For the ladies of the party it was one round of entertainment and sightseeing on Thursday they were taken to Riverdale Golf Club for luncheon, several miles beyond the city. The commodious dining hall commanded a magnificent view of the city and the club house was an ideal location and gave an interesting account of the Genoa Peace Conference which she attended with her husband, Sir George. Friday a. m. the party was divided for seeing the Royal Mint where our good Canadian money is made and the National Gallery, and in the afternoon the same parties exchanged.

In response to an invitation from the Gov. General, Lord Byng and Lady Byng the whole party visited Government House, where each in turn was presented to their Excellencies and all were royally entertained. The beautiful rooms were inspected and refreshments served to all in the ball room and the party next were taken outside to the spacious lawns where all was seated and enjoyed a musical program from the Governor General's Band, Guards Band, Lord Byng is very democratic, and they made themselves solid with the pressmen. In the evening a social dance was held in the Chateau Laurier ball room which many attended.

Both evenings many of the visitors toured the Parliament Buildings and heard Parliament in session. Liberals are on one side of the chamber while Conservatives and Progressives occupy the opposite seats. While present we heard H. C. Hocken of Toronto and the Nova Scotia member on the Budget debate. Miss Agnes McPhail, M. P. gave us a cordial welcome and took us along with Editor Wright of Mt. Road, Editor and Mrs Colgan of Markdale and J. L. McDonald of Ottawa, to her official room on sixth floor, where we discussed and listened to her breezy opinions of Parliamentary issues and life.

In front of Parliament Buildings we had the pleasure of witnessing a military review of the boy students attending De la Salle Academy (Roman Catholic) in Hull. Almost 200 boys with their large bugle band were in uniform. They were addressed in French by Hon. Dr. Beland, M. P., and it was a treat to hear them sing several French songs. They are certainly well-trained vocalists.

Friday we visited the large Dominion Experimental Farm, west of Ottawa where lunch was again served and photos of the party taken. Time permitted we saw a little of the beautiful plots, grounds and flowers.

Then on Saturday the great Eddy pulp and paper mills in Hull was an eye opener. We couldn't describe the various processes in which we saw the logs floated in and turned out as finished product in various grades of paper. The box and bag making machines are also wonderful pieces of mechanism.

While in Ottawa we were the guests of Mr John L. McDonald, formerly of Priceville and Mrs McDonald. John is assistant principal of a large city school and Superintendent of Chalmers Sunday School there. They have a fine home in Ottawa south and did all in their power to make our visit a pleasant one.

Off to Montreal Saturday noon, we passed through the famous 3-mile tunnel beneath the mountain. In the city we made good use of our time in the few hours there. Taking a drive up Mount Royal we enjoyed the magnificent view of city and river from the summit, the Victoria Bridge 2 miles long, St James and Notre Dame cathedrals were visited. They are wonderful architecture and the latter seating 10,000 is the largest church in Canada. Montreal has many large substantial buildings, some fine parks, but in general attractiveness, it has not so inviting an appearance as Ottawa or Toronto.

En route home we stopped off at Gananoque to visit Mr and Mrs John Ferguson who is now principal of the high school there and who spent three mos. in Durham school. One of the most delightful experiences of our trip was a two hour cruise in a motor launch there amongst the beautiful Thousand Islands. Many of the Islands are privately owned and we noticed a number whose owners came from Indiana, Virginia and New York. Motor-boating and golfing are the great diversions of Gananoque citizens. But we must close our sketch as time and space forbid further detail.

Obituary

MISS JANET CLARK

There passed away at Aberdeen on Wednesday, June 14th Miss Janet Clark, aged 77 years, and daughter of the late Mr and Mrs Douglas Clark of Aberdeen. Deceased was born in Vaughan, Ont., and for many years has been a resident of Woodbridge, coming to Bentick about 4 years ago, where she is well and favorably known. Miss Clark has been ill for only two weeks from pleurisy, but at her advanced age, was unable to rally from its effects. With her sister Miss Ellen, she has made her home with her nephew, Douglas Clark and from here she will be buried on Friday at 1.30 p. m., burial to take place at Durham cemetery. Her sister Ellen is the surviving member of the family, her brother, the late Neil Clark passing away about two years ago.

MRS DONALD MORRISON

There died on Monday last in Vancouver, Mrs Donald Morrison and daughter of Mrs Geo. Campbell, formerly of Aberdeen. For some time back she has been a sufferer from stomach trouble, and though every care and attention was given her relief proved unable to rally from any relief given. Last winter in company with her husband, she went to California, hoping to regain strength. Mrs Morrison was married 15 years ago at the old homestead at Aberdeen, by their old pastor and friend, Rev. Jno Little, now of Rockwood, and went to Manitoba, where they farmed successfully for some years. For the past four or five years they have lived in Vancouver. Her death is mourned by a large circle of old friends and relatives. Bentick, where she was for so long favorably known. Besides her husband and mother, there are two sisters and five brothers remain viz: Mrs Jno. Morrison, Durham; Neil, Douglas, Geo. and Donald of North Dakota, and Peter of Saskatoon.

The funeral took place Wednesday in Vancouver and the Review joins in extending sympathy to the bereaved family.
