Dear Miss Lawrence: We your scholars are sorry that you are going to leave us as a teacher. We have appreciated and enjoyed your efforts to instruct us in the various subjects with which we must be acquainted.

We have tried to please and encourage you by our attention and interest in the lessons taught.

We thank you for your patience, love, and sympathy and for your interest in our learning. You have been a faithful teacher trying to help all as much as possible in our education.

As a friend we shall also miss you in our school life. We are glad that you are not going very far away so our friendship does not need to be broken up by distance. We trust that the friends you have made in this school will not soon be forgotten.

Our hope is that our friendship will last forever. As a small sign of our love for you and in appreciation of your services as our teacher, we ask you to accept of this meeklet as a memento and hoping that as you use it you will remember the pupils of Mulock school. We wish you every success in your future and trust you will have much encouragement in all your labours. We will often think of you as our friend and teacher.

Signed by your pupils. Lottie Reay Mae McCallum

The annual Mulock garden party on S. Hopkins' grounds, Tuesday night was an all-round success. From towns and country for miles around, a bumper crowd gathered; the ladies provided well laden tables of eats which the crowd rapidly did away with.

The program was supplied almost entirely by Hanover talent and every number was enjoyed. A great drawing card was the presence of Miss Agnes McPhail, our lady M. P., who spoke at Winton in the afternoon, and did her best to reach Mulock in time. She arrived during the program and gave a fine address, with no political coloring. M. J. Muter, bank manager of Hanover, made a capable chairman. Excellent addresses were heard from Revs. Facey and Harris of Hanover, and Rev. Ald. Wm. Ruttie sang an Irish song, Jas. Park Jr., was the Harry Lauder of the night and 10 or 11 Hanover young ladies with splendid voices, furnished several lively choruses, quartettes, etc. Miss I. Whitton told in rhyme "The latest gossip." Reeve Hunt also spoke briefly. A sale of quilts and fancy work at booth and by auction realized a considerable sum. The proceeds at gate were $94.50.
