Miss Esther McLean Honored

A goodly representation of the residents of Rocky Sauguen school section met at the home of Mr and Mrs Lachlan McLean last Wednesday evening, the occasion being a presentation to their daughter, Miss Esther, on her leaving their home section after two successful years as teacher. On behalf of the neighborhood Miss Sadie Lawrence presented her with a white ivory toilet set and a pearl manicure set, while Miss Helen Watson read the following address:

Dear Friend:
We your friends of this neighborhood desire in a small degree at least, to testify to your worth of character and of our regret at your leaving this community and have gathered to spend an evening in your home before your departure from our midst.

During the two years you have taught in our school and always lived in the neighborhood, we have one and all learned to love and respect you.

As a small token of our esteem to you, we ask you to accept this gift, and may it ever bring to your mind the pleasant and profitable times spent in Rocky Sauguen School Section. Signed on behalf of the neighborhood
Sadie Lawrence
Helen Watson

Miss Esther appropriately replied, thanking all for their kindness and appreciation of her services. Coun. Thomas Turnbull was chairman and several others gave brief addresses. An enjoyable time followed with music games and dancing.

Sullivan Man in Trouble

On Saturday, July 1st, Inspector Matt Becker, accompanied by two Durham constables, paid a visit to the home of Chris. Schridder who lives in Sullivan Tp., 1 1/4 miles north of Dornoch and the same distance west where a vile preparation that analyzed 6.68 per cent of proof spirit. It was found that the proprietor's son admitted having taken two bottles of the hilarity-producer to a football match at Dornoch on June 17th and that's how it became noised about that the man with 8 consonants and only one vowel in his name was making hooch. The presence of hooch brew is nearly always recognized by its odor—just the same as a polecat gives itself away. The Schridders, father and son, will be up before the court one of these warm days and will doubtless pay more in fines than they will make off the old homestead this summer. The moonshiner and bootlegger have large profits while their nefarious business lasts, but all crooks get in the toils at last.

There's a young man in Bentinck who has been going around to garden parties offering a drink of swap whiskey to the guests who wouldn't mind sampling the poisonous stuff and he will be nabbed one of these days and will be running to this office to have his name kept out of the paper. A hint to one who hasn't gone entirely bug-house should be sufficient.—Chesley Enterprise
