

PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE VILLAGE

(Intended for last week)

This Tuesday morning July 11th 1922 is cool, lots of rain, but not very good hay weather but the most of farmers around here are starting this morning.

The Sacrament in the Presbyterian Church last Sunday was the largest for many years. All the individual cups were used and we had to use the old fashioned cup to serve some. The Rev. Mr. Jones gave a good sermon on the occasion. The Rev. Mr. Scott of Holstein preached the preparatory sermon on Friday evening owing to the threatening rain the crowd was not so large as it should be. Mrs. Scott and little baby accompanied Mr. Scott and took advantage of visiting friends of Mrs. Scott in this vicinity.

Mrs. Duncan McDonald and daughter, Louise are taking the advantage of visiting friends in their old neighborhood before leaving for their new home at Letbridge, but the memory of years gone by will not be forgotten by Mrs. McDonald and family in leaving the locality where once an unbroken family, consisting of father and mother and four daughters assembled at the old home, Durham Road Glenelg but that small plot on the face of the brow in McNeal's cemetery will not be forgotten by them, where father and sister are peacefully laid to rest but the memory of the departed ones will never be forgotten by the living.

We unintentionally omitted in last week's correspondence giving an account of the ladies gathering in the Presbyterian church for the purpose of aiding the needy in sending from their labors their share of the necessities which will be appreciated by the recipients. The ladies are never behind in doing their share for the good of suffering humanity. Miss Patterson, the late teacher at Top Cliff School entertained her pupils by having a small picnic on Friday afternoon, where the older ones who were invited were there also. All wish Miss Patterson success in her future career as missionary, warning the careless to be prepared for their future destination.

We congratulate our mail man Mr. Robert Shortreed on the entrance of his third-term of courier on the 1st July.

(This week's budget)
When a body meets a body, Civic Day, Priceville, If a body greets a body, then two hearts may thrill.

We have scarcely had any tropical heat yet this season, but we are still blessed with what some persons term "good agricultural" weather.

Dr. O. E. Carr, B. A., has taken up residence in Priceville and commenced practice this week. He has recently been in Parry Sound. We welcome him to our burg.

Mr. Bushell and family moved into the Methodist Parsonage on the last day of June and the new pastor conducted service Sunday morning, July 2nd. The congregation were much pleased with the sermon.

Miss Louise Watson has gone to Toronto to take a course in physical culture and will return to her school in Beeton after vacation with a rise in salary. Miss Margaret Tryon, who teaches in West Toronto, is spending her holidays at the old home with her father.

Mrs. Wm. Watson is spending a week or two with her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Drimmie, Yeovil.

Mrs. J. F. Rudd of — has been visiting with her father, Wm. Taylor here.

Mr. and Mrs. Chisholm of Lion's Head, accompanied by Mrs. P. Muir, Six Corners, called on a number of old friends in town one day last week.

Mrs. C. was formerly a Miss Robertson of Priceville.

Swinton Park Orangeners and near everyone else will spend the 12th in Markdale. The football boys will also be there for the game although they have not practised any this year but they consented to go to help out the sports committee.

Wm. J. McLeod has gone to Toronto to undergo a surgical operation of the eye on account of his war eye. We wish him a permanent recovery, as many of the boys who served overseas are sufferers and deserve all sympathy from those for whom they fought.

The Swinton Park Presbyterians intend having the outside of their church repainted and fixed up in general and may in the near future hold a general party or some form of entertainment to help raise the needed funds for the same.

What fine showers of rain we are having! Everything is looking fine and seems to be coming ahead earlier than last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McArthur, of Niagara Falls, are visiting at Mr. A. B. McArthur's.

Mr. Davis of Toronto, motored up to Mr. Donald McFarlane's to spend the week end. Mrs. Davis and children returning home with him on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boak of King and Mr. and Mrs. Will Boak of Portage La Prairie, Man., motored to Mr. Archie Beaton's to spend the week end. Mr. and Mrs. Will Boak remaining to visit relatives and friends before leaving for their home in the West. Both couples were also visitors at Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Browne's.

Mrs. Walter Ewing left Monday for Toronto to visit friends and relatives.

The annual Glenelg Centre garden party was held on Mr. Walter Ewing's lawn Thursday evening. Owing to weather conditions, the crowd was not so large as other years. The ladies provided well-laden tables of eats and all did justice to a grand supper. After an address by the chairman, Mr. George Binnie, recitations were given by Miss Mary Beaton and Miss Fallaise, a splendid reading by Miss Winnie Binnie, violin selections by Mr. Stewart McArthur, accompanied by his sister, Miss M. McArthur, choruses by the choir and by the Misses Bell and Mr. Thos. Bell, brief addresses by Rev. E. Cameron, Messrs. T. H. Binnie and F. Irwin. About $28 was taken in at the gate.

Mr. J. A. Browne left Friday for Hamilton to spend the week end with his sister, Mrs. Will Harding.

Orange Brethren at Baptist Ch. A large representation of the Orange Order met for their annual worship in Durham Baptist Church on Sunday evening. There were about 100 members present, from Durham, Glenelg, Allan Park, Varney and Crozier farm, west of Aberdeen. He- sides the bereaved husband, one daughter, Mrs. Jas. McDonald, and two sons Gilbert and Cecil at home, will deeply mourn the loss of a loving wife and mother. One brother, Thos. Atkins in Muskoka and three sisters, Mrs. George Noble, Mrs. Thos. Reay and Mrs. Murray also survive. The funeral took place on Tuesday to Durham cemetery, Rev. Cole of Durham, assisted by Rev. Mr. Aird, performing the last sad rites.

Death of Mrs. Jos. Noble About five o'clock Saturday last, the spirit of Mrs. Joseph Noble, Aberdeen took its flight, after being some years in poor health. She was only 48 years of age and was not seriously ill until after an attack of influenza this spring. Recently she was taken to Fergus hospital, where she spent a month, and was operated upon for cancer. She had been home three weeks since, but never recuperated.

The deceased lady was born in Brant township, her maiden name being Jane Alkins. Since her marriage to Mr. Noble, twenty-eight years ago, she has resided in Glenelg near Varney, in Owen Sound and for quite a number of years past at the present home, the Crozier farm, west of Aberdeen. Besides the bereaved husband, one daughter, Mrs. Jas. McDonald, and two sons Gilbert and Cecil at home, will deeply mourn the loss of a loving wife and mother. One brother, Thos. Atkins in Muskoka and three sisters, Mrs. George Noble, Mrs. Thos. Reay and Mrs. Murray also survive. The funeral took place on Tuesday to Durham cemetery, Rev. Cole of Durham, assisted by Rev. Mr. Aird, performing the last sad rites.

Very reasonable weather for the season as the 12th of July invariably brings its thunder storms and good growing weather. After that the weather becomes more settled for the day harvest.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mason, Friday last, when a number of the older people gathered there to do birthday honors to Grandpa Mason who happens to be holidaying with his son here. Mr. Mason spent some years in this township, about 60
