The worst storm of wind and rain of the summer passed over on Tuesday afternoon. The grain was pretty well flattened down. Owing to the storm the baseball game between Holstein and Varney was not played.

Anniversary services will be held in the Presbyterian church on Sunday, July 23rd, when Rev. Mr. Gallagher of Harrison will be the preacher of the day. An entertainment will be held on the following Monday, 24th inst.

Main for the visitors pitched well, up to the 5th inning which was a disastrous one for him, letting in 8 runs for the home team.

With two of their regulars off the line-up, Varney playing at home, defeated Maple Leafs 11 runs to 8 last Friday. It was Varney's closest call yet, and they only gained their lead in the final innings.

Many Barns Unroofed in Tuesday's Wind Storm

A terrific wind gust on Tuesday afternoon, while not so violent in town, did considerable damage along the 2nd con., Egremont, east of Varney. At Earl Meads', a chimney was blown off the house, and the roof taken off an old barn, wherein the cattle had taken refuge. Two or three of them were slightly lamed, and a hen-house was also demolished. J. Ros. Lennox's, Marshall had barn roofs partially torn off, while Robt. Barbour and Mrs. Robt. McMeichen had chimneys blown off their homes. David Marshall in Knox neighborhood, Normanby, is a heavy loser, having his roof blown over and barn partially unroofed. Trees in both town and country have also suffered.

In South Gleneig, John Eckhardt suffered a heavy loss in having his old barn blown down and parts of roof of new one off. Wm. Court had a woodshed levelled and Angus Hooper's barn roof was carried off plates and all.

NORTH EGREMONT

The raising of Geo. Hargrave's barn took place on Friday last under the captaincy of Frank Scott and Gordon Geddes, the latter winning by the placing of the collar tie after a tight race; (the former losing by having one of his best men) knocked out by his opponents, accidentally of course. The part enclosed in brackets, put in jokingly, is, like the railway freight bill, subject to correction, according to the whim or fancy of the reader.

Mr. Harry Gray is the framer, and showed himself an adept up aloft, windy though it was. The raising was over by 4.30 and supper partaken of before the rain came down in copious, christening showers. 'Twas a sight to see the tables cleared outside making towards the house, which reminded us of the disturbed ant's nest.

Mr. Peter Ramage, who has been assisting Mr. Hargrave for the past month, left on Saturday for the West, his 90 days' leave of absence expiring on the 15th of this month.

Mr. Robt. Renwick conducted services on Sunday last, receiving notice on the Saturday only, that the minister expected could not come. However, Mr. Renwick proved capable supply.

Mr. Irvine Geddes with his wife and boy, returned from Guelph and Galt, feeling much improved by the trip.

Mr. John McDonald, Promore, we are sorry to say, is getting very weak and feeble, confined now to his bed for over a month. Verily "the sands of time are sinking." The cordiality behind his iron grip is still there, but the grip is gone. His age is around 82.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. M. Lawrence, have purchased Mr. David Ritchie's cottage and property on Lambton St., east of Durham. They will not take possession this year.

BLYTH'S CORNERS

(Arrived too late for last week)

And how are you all?

Copious showers quite frequently combined with most genial weather is producing a remarkable growth, and prospects for a bountiful harvest is a most inspiring and almost an assured thing.

Editor Chas. Ramage of the Review and Mrs. Ramage, Miss Alice and Peter attended Knox Church on Sunday last and we have no doubt were much inspired by the scholarly sermon of Rev. J. W. Burnett.

Mr Donald Barrett of Muskoka, but formerly a long number of years ago was a resident of this locality, visited a day or two with his aunt and uncle, Mr Thos. and sister, Mary MacNamara.

Mr Archie Watson and Mrs. Watson of Detroit spent the week end over with the former's father, Mr Jas. Watson and brother, Bert and family.

Miss Flo McIlride returned home from Agincourt last week where she has been attending High School there for the past six months.

Mostly all have completed their road work for another year, some of which is a credit to the path masters but others we are not saying all we think.

Writing on this fifth day of July we are reminded of it being the 23rd Anniversary of our wedding. We intend celebrating the event by a short motor trip to Mt. Forest, as this date happened on the birthday of Mrs J. Hoeflin.

The Normanby Tp. Sunday School Convention was held in Hampden church on Friday last. Lessons in the afternoon and evening. Mr Archie McPhee, the President, occupied the chair. Miss Winnie Blyth of Varney, Secy. Treas. gave a very good account of the business and showed the Association to be in a growthy state.

The interest taken in the various subjects was quite spirited and witnessed by a fine solo by the Misses Florence and Janette Kerr, of Varney and also one by Miss Winnie Blyth.

The principal address during the afternoon was given by Rev. Mr. Lae pastor of the congregation. At the close the ladies of the church furnished a very sumptuous dinner.

The officers for the ensuing year are Mr Terrell of Aytou, Pres.; Mr John Whiteford, Vice. Pres.; Miss Winnie Blyth, Sec. Treas. The next convention will be held in Aytou.
