PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE VILLAGE

Priceville Presbyterians were favored with a fine, though cool evening for their annual garden party last Friday night. The opening attraction was a baseball exhibition match between Ceylon and Fisherton.

The game was played on the school grounds and on repairing to the manse, well-laden tables outside were soon cleared by the large attendance. The program was in the hands of the pastor, Rev. C. S. Jones, who gave a brief address and in his duties as chairman, sustained the best of order and interest. Good addresses were also given by John McDonald, of the Ottawa schools staff, a former Priceville boy who has a warm spot in his heart for his native hills and streams, and by Rev. Mr. Bushel the new Methodist pastor, who gives promise of being a real force and power for good in the church and social life of village and district.

Miss Esther McLean gave a splendid recitation, her enunciation and inflections making it a pleasure to listen to her. A pleasing piano instrumental was rendered by Miss Bessie Jones, daughter of the pastor, and Mr. R. McKee of Cwen Sound, captivated the gathering with two fine violin numbers. The vocal side of the program was given by Mrs. H. McLean in a well rendered solo, and by a quartette from Durham, Misses Vaddie Caldwell and Jessie Bell, Thos. Bell and Peter Ramage, with Miss Alice Ramage, accompanist. They rendered several quartettes in good harmony. Misses Bell and Caldwell, Messrs Ramage and Bell each duets. It was after eleven when "God Save the King" concluded a bright program. The proceeds at gate were $91.70.

The electrical storm accompanied by a gale of wind that passed over here on the afternoon of July 12, did considerable damage about a mile north of village, fences were swept down and the masons had the brick walls of a dwelling house for D. Campbell up about 11 ft., the lightning struck the front wall and it was thrown into the cellar.

The civic holiday committee are exerting every effort to put up a great day of games and sports to interest and amuse the gathering. The Toronto Police pipe band is expected to be on the ground and the city is combed to procure the best of entertainers for the concert in the evening when we expect to have a varied program, that will interest and amuse all intelligent Canadians, not merely temper the clamish taste of a few persons of any particular nationality.

Earle McLean while working in a gravel pit here was caught by a cave in of the perpendicular bank and was very severely injured.

PRICEVILLE AND SOUTH LINE

Monday, 17th July. Rained again and some that were expecting a big haul taking in hay or sweet clover, was disappointed by the rain coming in early forenoon. However the regular timothy and clover is standing yet and does not suffer. Other crops are doing well and in general are all headed out and promises an early harvest. Picnics are suspended for a while as the next two weeks will be busy ones.

A party was held at the residence of Colin McLean, Priceville, one evening last week in honor of Mr and Mrs Runciman of Toronto, and all enjoyed themselves. Mrs Runciman is a sister of Mrs McLean, and they left for Toronto this week.

All concerned will remember Civic Holiday in Priceville on August 7th, 1922 when a good day and a good time is expected for the occasion.

The night and evening of July 14th was fine and as ordered for the occasion. This was a garden party at the Presbyterian manse, Priceville, and the occasion was quite a success. As the junior Editor of the Review and sister were there, we need not say much, but the affair was quite a success. Those from Durham and vicinity, Mr Peter Ramage and sister, Miss Alice, contributed largely to the entertainment as did the Bell family and Miss V. Caldwell. The ladies provided a good supper for all and for the program side of it Rev. C. B. Jones was chairman.

Rev Mr Bushel, the new Methodist minister, gave a good address and Jno L McDonald who is never behind in giving his share in making the occasion a success. Mr and Mrs McDonald and little son just arrived from Ottawa that day to spend their holidays with Mr McD's parents, Mr and Mrs Alex McDonald of Priceville.

Earl McLean received some injuries to his leg from the effects of a slide in a gravel pit beside the Presby'n church shed where he was working for the good roads. However there are no bones broken though he will be laid up for some time.

During the electric storm one evening last week, Dan Campbell's brick house in course of erection was struck by lightning, and one corner badly damaged.

Mrs Neil McKinnon, daughter Ella and son Hector of Toronto but formerly of this place, are visiting old friends for a while. Hector being a member of the Glob's staff, has returned. Dr Lane also paid a flying visit.
