

TWELVE THOUSAND MILES
 Twelve thousand miles at least must be travelled to bring "SALADA" to your table. Yet so skillfully is it prepared, so carefully is it protected that the delicate leaves reach you (but a few weeks later) in all their tender freshness. To really enjoy tea at its best, insist upon "SALADA". Your grocer has this delicious tea. Ask for it to-day.

PRICEVILLE VILLAGE
 Many heavy crops of hay have been gathered in this season here about. The people of town and vicinity are preparing to receive a large gathering of visitors on Monday 7. The Hotel and committees of both churches here will be prepared to furnish lunches or good meals, and various other refreshments for old and young.
 Rev. C. S. Jones preached in college St. Presbyterian Ch., Toronto, on Sunday, July 23 to a good congregation and naturally enough numbers of former Pricevillians now living in the city were attracted there to meet him.
 Mrs. N. McKinnon and daughters, Ella and Laura, of Toronto also H. B. McKinnon of the globe staff are summering here for a time at their country home.
 Postmaster R. Conkey has been in one of the Toronto Hospitals for a few days, his overseas injuries occasionally require expert attention. Bert Ausum makes a genial and expert assistant in the Post Office.
 Mr. and Mrs. Phil. Schryers of Cheboygan, Mich., have been spending a few days with the latter's friends here, they will also visit her relatives in Owen Sound, Toronto and Huntsville, before returning to their Michigan home.
 I. W. Fleck of Shelburne erected a granite monument of very neat design last week in the Public Cemetery here for Mr. and Mrs. Farquhar McKinnon and family in the plot where their late son and brother is laid.
 Guess one of the boys was poking the "puff adder" at Riverdale, he was spitting out matted dictionary last week.

PRICEVILLE AND SOUTHLINE
 This week we will confine our remarks in a condensed manner as we have other lamentable matter to write upon. In a home almost adjacent to our residence, this beautiful morning, the 25th July 1922 a home is sadly in mourning for yesterday the wife and mother was laid to rest in McNeals Cemetery, Priceville. This is the comfortable home of Mr. Hugh McKinnon and family, where a large family assembled with father and mother to greet them when occasion brought them to the old home. This morning the lonely life partner is left as a ship stripped of her sails tossed on the ocean of life for she who stood by him in prosperity and adversity has passed to the great beyond for she had fought a good fight and finished her course. According to the natural course of life it will not be many years till the lonely husband will be called to meet his beloved in the home where there is no parting. Shall they know each other there? It is quite natural to suppose that friends will know one another, but in that beautiful home of many mansions all are as one family.

Buessan U. F. O. Picnic
 This annual affair came off Wednesday in ideal conditions of weather and crowds, the latter being of respectable dimensions considering that it was a fine harvest day.
 There was a tinge of disappointment that Hon. F. C. Biggs had failed to turn up. However, Mr. Geo. Binnie, M.P., was present and no meeting is ever a failure with her on deck. Mr. G. M. Leeson, M.P.P., was appointed chairman and made appropriate introductory remarks. Brief addresses were given by Mr. John Graham, Reeve Arch. McQuain, Mr. Geo. Binnie, with interludes of music by Swinton Park orchestra and an exhibition of artistic step-dancing by Messrs John McGrath and John Murdoch.
 Miss McPhail's address was largely an interesting resume of the work of the session, and of the various votes that had been of a controversial nature. She made a fine presentation of the McMaster resolution, which condemned the interlocking of cabinet ministers with Railway Directors, Bank Presidents, Xc., and did not fail to impress the right-about-face of the Liberal party from the year previous but then, she asserted, neither of the two old parties ever take their thoughts with them across the green carpet. Only McMaster and the Progressives voted against the interlocking. They had been however "a rock in a storm" to several men of independent minds and that had been a feature of the session, a growth of the spirit of independence. "To smile at the government is no good" she asserted, you had to come to grips with them, and she rejoiced that they had pretty nearly beaten the powerful C. P. R. influence.

PRICEVILLE VILLAGE
 Whatever the name "Wasaga Beach" may convey to many people in town and country, it has a particular and alluring charm to the members of Durham Presbyterian choir after Tuesday last. This aggregation to the number of sixteen, made it an all-day affair by leaving at 7 a. m. and reaching this charming spot at 10.30 a. m. Wasaga Beach has an unbroken view of Georgian Bay for many miles, and with a sand beach that rivals anything we have ever seen. For over one hundred yards out one can "play" in the water and at a temperature that does not cause a wince or a shiver. The driveway is within a yard of the shoreline and all day a constant promenade of cars is in evidence.
 Then for the picnicker, there are tables, seats and all conveniences, and these were fully taken advantage of by the choir. In the afternoon the party went on a motor launch ride, some miles up the Nottawasaga River (which empties into the Bay at this point) and the many pretty cottages which dot the shore line, is self-evident that several more people think Wasaga Beach a good place to spend a summer. There there is a merry-go-round with erratic horses in its make up and bowling alleys, dancing pavilions, bathing houses, restaurant and supply houses and in fact everything that is essential to the needs of a summer resort. It is fifteen miles east of Collingwood and the summer home of a great many of its citizens, as well as from different points in Ontario and United States.
 The personnel of the party were: Mrs. A. W. H. Lauder, Mrs. T. M. McFadden, Miss M. L. Hunter, Vaddie Caldwell, Alice Ramage, Jessie Bell, Beulah Stonehouse, Belle Lauder, Winnie Blythe, Esther McComb, Winnie Binnie, Messrs Moore McFadden Thos. Bell, Peter Ramage, Jack McKechnie and George Bell.

The Cameron Concert
 A fair audience gathered in the Town Hall on Tuesday evening. The attraction was the first appearance in Durham of little Miriam and Eben Cameron, who with their father, Rev. E. Cameron, B. A. B. Th. quite recently installed as Baptist pastor here, put on a chaste and attractive program. Mr. Wm. Irwin introduced the performers whose fame had preceded them and he had no doubt would be enhanced here. He also introduced a lady pianist who had never played in Durham before and the audience caught on hilariously as his own daughter was implied, it being the first time for "Mrs. Kearney."
 The young singers have fine voices and even attempt character songs in which they excel. Their humor is delightful and is of a brand quite new here and free-of-course—from vulgarisms. We liked Eben best in his portrayal of the little boy of 8 years, ambitious to be a man, but fretting that he had so long to wait. There is a good lesson in the ending when he discovers that it is nice to be a boy after all. Miriam in her "Comin' thro' the Rye," clad in regulation kilts, fairly captured the audience. The humor of Eben in capturing the mouse and Miriam's monkey monkey man roused hearty laughter. They were frequently encored.
 Rev. Mr. Cameron took his audience on a long trip to California through the Canadian Rockies and south. He touched on the climate, the methods of raising fruit by irrigation and a host of other topics dealing with the people in their social life, business life, &c. He summed up its advantages and defects, and drew applause as he told them that in all his travels he had found no place to equal beautiful Ontario.

Hydro Municipalities of Severn System Organize
 A deputation from the counties of Simcoe, Dufferin, Wellington and Grey requested the Provincial Gov't for a cross-country road through these counties from Cooksville, through Alton and Shelburne to Mt. Forest and to reach Lake Huron at Goderich or Kincardine. The Minister of Highways was non-committal in reply, merely suggesting the Highway should be a Provincial-County one.
 The Hydro Municipalities on the Eugenia System, which organized for the first time last May, are not the only ones to do so. Last week representatives of the Severn System, met in Barrie and elected officers to form an Association.
 Engineers R. T. Jeffrey, T. C. James, Don Carlos, McCallum and Parker were present, and after many grievances had been aired, and explanations given, the following resolution was passed:
 "We, the representatives of the municipalities of the Severn system do condemn in the strongest terms newspapers that publish statements regarding the workings of the Hydro Commission without first ascertaining whether said statements are erroneous or otherwise. Also that the Government should not pass legislation affecting this system without first consulting representatives of the System or this Association."

Durham Ball Team Won Right in Owen Sound
 Durham Junior baseball boys made a strong bid for the district when they defeated Owen Sound 10 to 6 on the latter's own grounds yesterday. H. Mountain pitched for Durham, held the home team well in hand except in the 7th when they secured 4 runs and almost pulled up even, the count then being 6 to 5. Durham added 4 more runs the last two innings and made it safe. Norman Wilson pitched six innings and McDonald the last three for Owen Sound. Corbett and Muir were Durham's leading sluggers. The Durham line-up was: Pitcher—Harold Mountain; catcher—Muir; 1st—Erben Schutz; 2nd—Willett Snell; 3rd—Dow; s. s.—McLeod; l. f.—Corbett; c. f.—Bill Vollet; r. f.—G. Moorhead.
 The standing now is:

Durham	won	lost	to play
O. Sound	1	1	1

 The last game will be played here probably next Wednesday afternoon.

Mr and Mrs. J. L. Yule Honored
 Friday evening last the members and ex-members of Division Street Presbyterian Church, Owen Sound, Ontario, about 60, gave a dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Yule who are leaving soon for Kitchener. Mrs. Max Telford received the guests. The table was in the form of a hollow square. French marigolds, nasturtiums and baby's breath in any number of baskets and small glasses were prettily used in the decorating of it. The girls of the choir committee were in charge of the charming meal. After the dinner came the speeches and the presentation to Mr. Yule. Mr. E. T. McDonald made the presentation speech. He spoke very feelingly of the loss the church as a whole sustained in the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Yule. Not only would they be greatly missed from the choir but other organizations of the church would be affected as well. Mr. Lyall Ireland and Mr. Robt. Robb made the presentation of a beautiful dinner set of court china. Mr. Yule thanked the choir members for the handsome gift. He spoke in appreciation of what the choir had done for him, how they had always been behind him in any undertaking. Many of the successives which were credited to him could be attributed directly to their efforts and co-operation. He was sorry to leave Owen Sound and no matter where he would always regard it as a second home. Mrs. Yule also made a charming little speech, thanking the choir for their kindness. Rev. J. L. McInnis spoke of the remarkable assistance Mr. Yule had been to him in the various organizations of the church. Not only would his removal be felt in the choir but every department of the church would miss him very much. He felt a personal regret at losing Mr. and Mrs. Yule. Mr. D. B. Patterson made one of his far-famed humorous speeches. Mr. J. C. Telford made the last speech of the evening. He spoke of some of Mr. Yule's experiences when he first came to Owen Sound, the many discouragements he had to meet with, how he overcame them and made the remarkable successes he did. Owen Sound couldn't hold Mr. Yule. He was made for bigger things than possibly Owen Sound could offer. Mr. Telford predicted for Mr. Yule, a Dominion-wide success in musical affairs.
