

NORTH EGREMONT

The Judge of the combined field crop and granary competition in threshed grain, a Mr Switzer by name was around these parts on Saturday last accompanied by the genial Sec. of Egremont Agricultural society, Mr J. R. Philp and found things probably not all to his liking but fairly good. Mr Harry Gray, the capable carpenter of Mr G. Hargreaves barn, will finish in a couple of days this week. 'Tis a fine trig little barn which shows up well from the road. Mr and Mrs Wm. Ramage and family journeyed to the home of Mr and Mrs Thos. Harrison at the mill in the fine car of their brother-in-law Mr Victor Adams, Mr and Mrs Jas Weir and Miss Belle Weir, the latter up on her holidays from Toronto, were also present. Needless to say a pleasant time was had in mirth and music.

Harvest is just hardly begun here yet though well on near your town.

Right here was probably the dividing line on Monday between Durham and Pricerville celebrations.

Through the kindness of Hon. Dr. Jamieson we enjoyed the drive to Swinton Park Social where we both took part, the former at least pleasing in his reminiscent talk of early days, Rev. Mr Kendell, Dundalk was chairman, Revs Mr Burnett and Mr Bushell also spoke the latter finishing off with a solo. The choir some 21 strong, were pleasing notwithstanding the short time for preparation and many new beginners among them. Many regretted the absence of their minister who found it impossible to be present. The Basket Ball match between Swinton Park and Bothville drew the largest crowd and the football match between the same two centres resulted in a victory for the former in both cases, scores are mislaid.

Mr and Mrs David Hamilton and son John were at Amos Church on Sunday last and renewed old acquaintances. The Dromore Institute will meet at the home of Mrs W. Hunter Jr. on Aug. 18 at half past two. Durham Institute will provide programme. All ladies are invited.

Messrs Archie Clark and John McCannell journeyed to Barrie on Saturday last, visiting the Richardson family, two of the latter returning with them, one of them a one time teacher in the locality on a visit to old friends and true friends.

Miss Belle Weir is home from Toronto on her holidays at the home of her parents, Mr and Mrs John Weir.

Mr Alfred Tucker has lately erected a fine veranda in front of his house, a model of neatness and comfort.

A fairly large congregation attended the Ebenezer Sunday last to hear the new Minister, Rev. Mr Bushell.

HOLSTEIN LEADER

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Ada Rice is spending her vacation at her home. Mr. C. Rice of Oshawa, is home helping with the harvest.

All parties interested in the Holstein Cemetery (Reid's) are hereby notified that on and after Aug. 1st, 1922, Mr. Jas. McInnes, Holstein, has been engaged as caretaker. Those wishing to secure plots, have graves dug, or plots cared for, can make arrangements with him.

Mr. W. Dingwall, Hopeville, was a recent caller on his brother here. Quite a number wedded their way to Durham on Civic Holiday, amongst them being Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Coburn and Master Jack, who was winner of first prize in the baby show.

Saturday afternoon was pleasantly spent when a number of old friends and acquaintances, along with children, gathered to celebrate with Mrs. J. Durrant, her 90th birthday. Mrs. Durrant, although so advanced in years, is hale and hearty and is pleased to talk of long ago noting the many changes. All join in wishing her much sunshine in her declining years.

Mrs. J. D. Main and Miss Margaret Main, Waterford, are visiting friends and attended the Reid-Carrs wedding.

Misses Phair of Brantford, are visiting Mrs. Petrie.

Mrs. Philip, Sr., is spending a few days in the village.

Miss Maimie Rocks of Toronto, and Mrs. D. Leith, Durham, are visitors at Mrs. W. Nelson's.

Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford of Toronto, are visiting their friends, the Aitken's families.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ireland and Mr. and Mrs. Payne of Mossback, Sask. spent an afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Philp last week.

In common with the whole Bell system throughout Canada, the local telephoning central ceased operating at 6.25 p. m. for one minute last Friday as a tribute of respect to Dr. Alexander Graham Bell, the inventor of the Telephone, whose funeral was taking place in Cape Breton this afternoon.

Owing to the County Convention at Kemble, on the day of the regular meeting of the Women's Institute, the date has been changed to Wednesday, Aug. 16th. The meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Brebner. Miss Sharp will give paper on music and Miss Fleet of Mt. Forest will be present to give a talk. Arrangements will be made at this meeting for those wishing to attend the County Convention.

Mr. Switzer, Streetsville, scored the crop for those competing in the Field Crop and Threshed Grain Competition. The following are the seven who are ahead with the first score:

- 1. R. Aitken
2. J. Stevenson
3. A. Hunter
4. W. Ramage
5. J. Smith
6. C. Harrison
7. J. Dixon

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McInnis visited Minto friends last week.

The heavy rains are causing the farmers to think seriously of getting their grain into stooks although a little green in some cases.

Crops generally are good in quantity and quality.

Reid-Carrs Nuptials

A very pretty wedding took place in Holstein on Tuesday, Aug. 8th at 2 o'clock in the afternoon in the Methodist church, when Annabelle Carrs, niece of Mrs. W. T. Petrie, became the wife of Mr. Arthur Reid.

The ceremony was conducted by Rev. L. West, pastor of the bride, and the church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The bride who was given away by her uncle, Mr. J. W. Brown, of Regina, looked charming in a beautiful gown of ivory satin with veil caught by a band of pearls and carried a shower bouquet of sweetheart roses and ferns. The bridesmaids were Miss Rita Roberts, who wore orchid swiss and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and the bride's sister, Miss Kathleen Carrs of Ottawa, who wore yellow organdie and who also carried sweet peas. The groom was attended by Mr. Powers of Mt. Forest. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Nicholson. During the signing of the register, Miss Kerr of Varney sang "O Promise Me" very beautifully.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mrs. Petrie where the bride and groom received the congratulations and good wishes of their many friends. A dainty buffet luncheon was served, the table being covered with a very handsome Mexican drawn cloth, decorated with white tulle and pink flowers and streamers. After the luncheon Mr. and Mrs. Reid left by motor to spend their honeymoon at Lake Rosseau, Muskoka, the bride travelling in a very becoming suit and hat.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Reid are very popular with the young people and were the recipients of many beautiful gifts. Messages of congratulation were received from Regina, Banff, Point au Baril, and Saratoga Springs.

Among the out-of-town guests were the Misses Phair and Master James Harley of Brantford, Mr. J. W. Brown of Regina, Miss Kathleen Carrs of Ottawa, Mrs. Main and Miss Margaret Main of Waterford, Miss Clara Underhill of Claremont, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Brown of Durham, Mrs. Yule, Mrs. C. Gardner, Mr. Seaman, Miss E. Seaman and Mr. Powers of Mt. Forest.

YEOVIL

Mrs. W. Sterch (formerly Miss Nancy Galloway) and her little niece, Miss Dorothy Galloway, both of Detroit, visited their aunt, Mrs. W. Groat last week. Dorothy is Ward G's daughter.

Mr. Chas. Drimble, teacher at Sack, is visiting his parents and brother.

Miss Bertha Mutch of Regina, who has been visiting her uncle, left for Toronto, Ottawa and other places of interest before returning to her Western home.

Miss Mary Mutch spent last week at Ailsfeld with her sister, Mrs. W. Crispin.

Miss Rita Roberts recently called on friends in the section.

SOUTH BEND

The farmers are feeling anxious about the recent heavy rains, which are bad for the standing grain.

After months of waiting, the telephones are in at last. The Bend is now in touch with the outer world. Radio next.

The sound of the binder is heard in the land and Mr. Wes. Holliday has threshed his fall wheat.

The Ladies' Aid afternoon tea at Mrs. Will Cowan's last Friday was a most enjoyable affair. A good number were present. At the close a buffet lunch was served by the Mesdames Cowan.

Mrs. W. H. Sim, Yeoivil, visited her old home here on Saturday. Her sister, Miss L. Rawn, returned with her for a few weeks' visit.

Mr. John Boulding, Guelph, is visiting his sister, Mrs. J. F. Rawn.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Dowling, accompanied by Mrs. Rawn, took a motor trip to Markdale and Berkeley last week, visiting friends there.

Obituary

MRS. GEORGE RAWN.

Mary Schell was born near Mono Mills in Albion township on April 20, 1830, and came to Egremont township with her parents in 1846. We have been told that for many years she was the one who had resided longest in this township. She married George Rawn on Nov. 21, 1852 and went with him to his farm, lot 55, con. 3, where she lived nearly seventy years. There she spent many years of the strenuous life of the early pioneer doing all most every kind of work, both in the house and outside. Early Sunday morning, July 23rd, 1922, she peacefully passed into the Greater Life Beyond.

She was converted to God in her early married life. Although she then united with the Wesleyan church she later joined heartily in the union of the different Methodist bodies. When Letter Breen church was built in 1876, she and her husband joined therein and were faithful members until they entered God's sanctuary. She dearly loved God's sacrament and was a constant attendant until five years before her death, when her health failed. The last time she was able to go to the service was Communion Sunday in August, 1917. She was indeed a mother in Israel, loving and beloved by all. Her home was always cordially open to the ministers of the gospel. Her assurance of the Comforter's presence helped her during the many trying experiences of her long life. She was a great reader but her more a first and became more and more a source of joy to her as her strength declined. Her remarkably good memory and all her faculties continued to the last.

Her husband, three sons and three daughters predeceased her. Three daughters are left: Mrs. Priscilla Horsburgh, Mrs. W. H. Rawn, (Elzie) at Yeoivil and Miss Lavina, who lovingly looked after her parents in their declining years. There are also six grandchildren, three grandsons and three granddaughters and two sisters. She was very affectionate, kind and thoughtful and is greatly missed in her home and by the neighbors and friends, all of whom were so very good to her. She bore the many long weary days and nights with Christian patience, often praising her heavenly father.

The funeral service at her home was conducted by her pastor, Rev. Mr. Mercer, who took for his text, "The remembrance therefore a rest to the people of God." The pall bearers were W. Stevenson, W. Owens, F. Sharp, G. Hunt, N. McDougall and J. Dowling. A large cortege of friends from far and near came to show their last respect to one beloved and respected by all for she was everyone's friend. The floral tributes from family, church and friends were beautiful.

All that was mortal of her was laid tenderly to rest beside her husband in Mt. Forest cemetery to await the resurrection of the just.

Of her during her long life it could aptly have been said, "She stretcheth forth her hands to the needy. She openeth her mouth with wisdom, and in her tongue is the law of kindness. She looketh well to the ways of her household and eateth not the bread of idleness. Her children rise up and call her blessed: her husband also and he praiseth her."

MRS W. J. MITCHELL

The funeral of the late Mrs. W. J. Mitchell, whose death was reported last week, took place on Tuesday July 25th, and was attended by a large number of sympathizing friends in this district. After a short religious service at

The home conducted by Rev. G. W. Rose of Corbetton, the remains were conveyed by motor hearse to Mount Forest Cemetery, and laid beside those of her parents. This was carrying out a wish she had expressed many years ago. The pall-bearers were: Thomas Fraser, James Fraser, Albert Fraser, R. S. Fraser, Thomas Laughlin, Martin Merklinger. The casket was literally covered by beautiful floral wreaths by the ladies of Riverview Church, of which she was a member, and by her many personal friends. The deceased lady's maiden name was Miss Elizabeth Roberts. She was born in Egremont 56 years ago and was married to Mr Mitchell in 1866. In 1907 they purchased the farm formerly owned by the late J. A. Cooper and since that time she has been a good citizen and a kind and helpful neighbor. She will be missed. Among the old friends from a distance who attended the funeral were: Mr Richard Pick and daughter, Ferguson; Mrs Spence, son and two daughters, Toronto; Mrs Armstrong and Miss Nancy Mitchell, Toronto. Besides her husband she leaves to mourn her loss—two brothers, John of Holstein, James of Mt. Forest; and two sisters, Mrs Merklinger, of Proton, and Mrs Caulfield, Vancouver.

The sound of the binder is heard in the land and Mr. Wes. Holliday has threshed his fall wheat. The Ladies' Aid afternoon tea at Mrs. Will Cowan's last Friday was a most enjoyable affair. A good number were present. At the close a buffet lunch was served by the Mesdames Cowan. Mrs. W. H. Sim, Yeoivil, visited her old home here on Saturday. Her sister, Miss L. Civic Holiday in Durham

Continued from Page 1. They were eight entries for the half mile race, three Durham players and three of the Elora team and the Saugenee boys appear to have more speed than the Grand River boys, Bluebirds in the lead in this order: Cliff Buschlen, Sherwood Rowe, Willet Snell.

There were four entries for the fat man's race, or men over 200 lbs., going to Arnold Noble, John McGirr and E. A. Hay next in order. Great credit is due the Firemen for their part in the day. At no small trouble, engine and reels were got to the ground in a depressing day. Divulging themselves into two sets they gave with keen rivalry, an exhibition of hose laying, changing one length and rolling up again. Then later two long stretches of hose were laid facing each other and in fine full engine, near the river, was then put on to full steam, water turned on at the two sets of men fired away at each other amid the blinding spray in amusing fashion to those looking on and to the hilarious delight of the small boy who easily grasped the situation. Geo. Burnett and Jas. Lloyd guided the winning nozzle, driving back Wm. Hewitt and Arthur Ritchie who handled the other nozzle, until they reached the given line.

Further amusement was caused in the effort to catch the greasy pig. His pig-ship was taken in a box to the middle of the campus and at the proper time was treated to a dose of some kind of lubricant, at the same time entering his protest in orthodox fashion. There were four entries, and had given one look around, he made for the hill and instead of four there appeared to be forty after him. After several slips he was captured by Royden Burnett, whose property he becomes.

Henderson's famous Kittle Banc of London, four pretty lassies and two lads, all in highland costume, did much to enliven the day, and stood it out even in the dropping weather. Three of them were pipers, and all of them were dancers. Their playing and dancing exhibitions left nothing to be desired. It is too bad the platform hasn't a covering of some kind in which to retire in a shower. This should be provided in future.

To Mr. John Graham fell the duty of introducing some of the features and he was particularly happy in being, as he said, the first chairman to introduce to a Durham outside audience, a lady M. P., who had braved the weather to be present, and he called on Miss Agnes McPhail, M. P. She remarked that she feared there would be work for the doctors to-morrow from the effects of the exposure of so many in inclement weather. She commended the town and community for their enterprise in planning for a hospital and it spoke well for its success that so many had braved the weather to participate. She did not attempt a speech nor was it expected. She moved about among the crowd during fair spells, meeting many of her constituents.

Durham Band was present and rendered fine music under direction of Mr. Bunce. We regretted to hear that it was likely to be their last performance before disbanding. Last, but by no means least, was the baby show, this conducted in the Exhibition Hall. There were no fewer than 27 first-class babies competing for the prizes. They were all good-looking and the judges had a delicate and difficult task to decide among them. Looks and development were the chief points considered and the judges gave 1st prize to Mrs. Wm. Coburn's cherub from Holstein: two tied for 2nd place be-

ORCHARD

Mr and Mrs J. S. Robertson and Tom Donnelly of Ripley spent from Saturday to Tuesday at R. Robertson's and other friends. Miss Nellie Robertson accompanied them home.

Mr and Mrs A. Kellar entertained a carload from Mt. Forest one evening last week. All report a good time. Some of the farmers around here have started cutting their oats. We are glad to report that Erma Johns was successful in passing her Entrance.
