Newspaper Decisions.
The following interesting decisions respecting newspapers are worthy of note:—1. Any person who takes a paper regularly from the post office, whether addressed in his name or another's, or whether he has subscribed or not, is responsible for payment. 2. If a person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrears, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and then collect the whole amount whether the paper is taken or not.

On Sunday evening Mr Geo. Scarrow had a car stolen from his garage on Second ave. east. About midnight Mr. Dean noticed the garage doors open and saw a car being backed out. The driver came across and got gasoline from Mr. Dean. Thinking things did not look just right, Mr Dean phoned Mr. Scarrow, but by that time the car was gone, heading towards the south. Unsuccessful attempts were made to follow him. The thief, in his haste to get away, had the misfortune to run into Constable Pembroke's car, the constable returning from investigating the fire at Mr Roy Whieldon's. Mr. Pembroke's car was damaged about fenders and radiator. But he gave chase and the thief abandoned the car and took to the fields. Mr. Pembroke brought Mr. Scarrow's car back to town uninjured.

On Wednesday morning Roy Cross appeared in Police Court charged with theft of the car. He pleaded guilty and was remanded in custody until Monday for sentence.—Owen Sound Advertiser.

HOLSTEIN LEADER

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

News is scarce. Everyone is busy. The Egremont School Fair will take place in Holstein, Friday, Sept. 15th. Come out and encourage the young agriculturalists.

The County officials have let the contract of what is known as the Naismith bridge to Mr. Hill of Mount Forest. He expects to be on the job shortly.

The heavy rains of Saturday and Sunday have put on a different appearance and the cooler weather will be appreciated.

Mr. C. McMillan attended the annual convention of the Ontario Undertakers' Association in Toronto last week.

Mr. McMillan also arranged for and is putting in a stock of up-to-date beds and mattresses. He intends making a display at the Fair, when all can inspect them.

Yes, everyone will meet everyone at Holstein Fair. Come and compete for Fenton's prize of $5.00 for the largest family buying tickets for the Fair.

The concert given on Tuesday night by the Cameron children under the auspices of the Durham hospital fund was well rendered, and although the attendance was not large, those who were there enjoyed every selection.

R. Wishtman and Sons are busy building a new telephone line east of Ayton, having put on 84 six pin cross arms, and two miles of side blocks with five miles of new wire and 12 new telephones.

Postal Information.

The Post Office Department will shortly issue a combination stamp book for the benefit of patrons on the rural routes as well as the general public—each book will contain four one-cent stamps, four two-cent stamps and four three-cent stamps, and sell for twenty-five cents. Sealed parcels will now be accepted at parcel post rates provided they bear a printed label stating in a general way the nature of the enclosed and "This parcel may be opened for postal inspection if necessary." If desired, room or space may be left on the label for the address. When necessary to open a sealed parcel for inspection, the postal official will carefully repack contents, reseal and endorse the inspection over his signature. The public are warned against placing unauthorized enclosures in sealed parcels mailed at parcel post rates as violation will not only lead to fines being imposed but to the withdrawal of the privilege.

The new four-cent stamp in yellow has now been issued.

NORTH EGREMONT

Miss Ila C. Lind, of Moose Jaw Sask., is on a holiday trip with Miss Ella Renton, Supr. of Moose Jaw Hospital, at the latter's home in Dromore.

Mr. Wm. Watson and son Campbell took in Toronto Exhibition last week.

Mrs. Jas B. Tucker also attended the Exhibition and visited her son James and family in Toronto.

Messrs. Alex. Henderson Sr. and Jr. and Jas. Henderson and son Robert of the 16th con. kindly assisted at the threshing of Mr. Wm. Lawrence's crop last week in the absence of near neighbors who were otherwise busily engaged. Four days were taken up in the act, and a half day is yet required, we are told. Some 240 lbs. of twine were used.

Mr. Robt. Renwick, Sr., took in the Exhibition and visited his brother Wm. at St. Catharines on his return, whom he had not seen for 15 years. Mrs. Renwick Sr. visited relatives in Galt at the same time.

No. 13 school has again reopened with an attendance of 24 under the tuition of Miss Eva Renton.

BLYTH'S CORNERS

The magnificent rains on Saturday last and again on Monday were a decided boon to the country. The land was so hard and dry, many farmers had abandoned their intention of ploughing for fall wheat, but now are busy preparing the land.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Watson and daughter of Detroit spent the week end over, visiting the former's father and brother Bert and family at the old home in Normandy.

A happy event took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr and Mrs Hill of Toronto on Tuesday last Sept. 4th, when Mr. Harry Victor Caisley of Toronto, but formerly a resident of this locality for a number of years and a trusted employe of your scribe most of that time, was united in holy wedlock with Miss Emma, eldest daughter of the above named parents. They spent part of their honeymoon with us from Saturday until Tuesday. Victor is a splendid fellow and a brave soldier, having spent 29 months in France as patrol scout and came through it all without a scratch. We hope for them a long and prosperous life of wedded bliss.

Threshing is pretty much the order of the day. Grain is turning out well and a splendid quality, but unfortunately being unable to set the price as in other callings in life, the farmers are not feeling any ways too jubilant with wheat selling at 90c and other products equally low.

Miss Browning of Durham, began her duties as teacher in our school on Monday last with a vim and enthusiasm which easily speaks success.

We thought we would buy from the Rob Roy Milling Co. lately some of their milling feed which they advertise in both Durham papers but alas, after enquiring, found out there wasn't a pound of what we wanted to be had. It doubtless does pay to advertise, but it is a huge bluff to continue to advertise goods they know they haven't got.

We have a young mother sow (Biddy Maloney) nursing her 2nd litter who evidently does not believe that hogs will not be worth raising by spring, as she brought forth 14 beautiful piglets a couple weeks ago and is raising them all very creditably.

Did You Ever Stop to Think?

That the town that gets the publicity gets the business.

That the town that gets advertising grows.

That people will go miles to get into a live town to trade.

That property will increase in value when the outside world knows a town is wide-awake.

That people from the neighboring towns will come where there is something doing.

That now is the time your town and your business needs advertising more than ever before.

That if you don't get out and go after trade, someone else will.

That if they do, they will get the business you should get.

That advertising should be done steadily and not by fits and starts—advertising does not yank, it pulls.

That the only one who does not need to advertise is the one who has nothing to offer in the way of service—and that such a one is a dead one whether he knows it or not.

More loving than ever before.

Throw from Rig was Fatal.

Jos. Murray, a well-known Culross farmer near Teeswater, was driving home on Sept. 1st, and turning into his own barnyard, around the pump house, the buggy upset and he was thrown out, his head striking against the stone wall of the bank barn, causing a fracture at the base of the skull which rendered him unconscious. The barking of the dog caused his wife and one of the boys to investigate and they found him lying in an unconscious condition. He lived only three days after, and leaves a wife and twelve children, seven under 16 years of age.

A Glimpse of Denver

Physically a Paradise, Morally?

(We are not sure if we are doing right in publishing the following letter, which reached us editor and wife last week from an old friend of both. The description Denver's charming climate may seduce Canadians whose climatic range is 20 or 25 deg. below zero to 90 and odd above and we don't want any more rural depopulation!—Ed.)

2905 Osceola St. Denver, Colo.
To Mr and Mrs Chas. Ramage

Dear Friends:—We are here at present visiting and enjoying the fine clear air of Colorado. Not a dull morning all through Aug., and although showers fell quite frequently the water wagons were kept going as it dried up so quickly. We received a copy of "The Review" on Sat. and read it with much interest. Pleased to learn of the appointment of a former Egremont boy to so important a position out here at Boulder (not Boulder) University. It is connected with Denver by a suburban Railway and tourists go there sight seeing, as also auto trips to Rocky Mountains, National Park, Pike's Creek, Platte Canon, Eldorado Springs, Cripple Creek and the many Denver Mountain Parks.

Denver itself, the youngest of the country's large cities is known as a charming place of residence with a population now of 286,000 and recognized as the metropolis of the Rocky Mountain Region. Formerly dependant upon the output of Colorado's mines it has now become an important agricultural, manufacturing, commercial and financial centre and distributing headquarters for eastern concerns.

As to climatic conditions, Denver can almost claim the ideal. Tests have proven that the temperature at which a man is at his physical best is 60 degrees Fahrenheit. The one which he is at his mental best is 40 degrees Fahrenheit. He is therefore at his best physically and mentally at a mean of 50 degrees, which is only one half degree more than Denver's annual average temperature. It has long been known as a health centre and has many sanitoriums and hospitals equipped with every facility for the conservation of health, situated 14 miles from the ranges of the Rocky Mountains with an altitude of over 5000 ft. It is also the middle of the west being half way between the Canadian border and the Gulf of Mexico, and half way between the Mississippi river and the Pacific Coast.

One line railroads radiate from Denver to all parts of the west and is itself served by nine: Atchison Topeka and Santa Fe, Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific, Colorado and Southern, Denver and Inter-mountain, Denver and Interurban, Denver and Rio Grande, Denver and Salt Lake and the Union Pacific. It passenger service is supplied by 104 regular trains in and out daily in addition to many interurban lines.

Besides all this there are over 3500 autos and many thousands of motor trucks. The Windsor Dairy Farm owns 100 wagons which leave shortly after midnight to deliver their goods.

The per centage of foreign population is low and there is no "slum" district so called and many of the workers own their homes. Of course there are crooks and "con" men, aplenty, a ring being recently broken up and 50 or more arrested and held for trial some day this month. Married couples divorced every day on complaint of one or other for trivial reasons sometimes, and most frequently among the wealthy.

The Educational institutions are of the highest standing and many schools, public and High are being built each year to keep pace with the fast growing population.

A recent census showed 317 churches in Denver but although we have met many fine church going people we see others going about their daily avocations without anyone interfering, many of the shops being open all day.

We were down at "Sunshine Mission" on Sunday morning to hear Jim Goodhart, who has been the means of reclaiming many of the "down and outs" by his plain and earnest message assisted by his devoted wife. The Salvation Army are also a factor in rescue work.

Fleming-Findlay Nuptials

A wedding of much interest took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Findlay, Toronto, at six o'clock, Wednesday evening, September 6th, when their only daughter, Mary Middleton, was married to William Ivan Fleming, son of the late Mr. William Fleming and Mrs. Fleming of Ellsworth Ave., Toronto, by the Rev. D. P. Smith of India, cousin of the bride. While "The Voice that Breathed o'er Eden" was being sung by Miss Flora Greig, the groom took his place before a bank of palms and ferns. Mendelsohn's wedding march was played by Mrs. Walter McCormack, sister of the groom.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of silk crepe romaine with a net veil caught to a coronet of orange blossoms and Brussels rose point lace and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley. Little Jean McCormack, niece of the groom, in a dainty white frock and carrying a basket of roses, was flower girl.

During the signing of the register, Miss Greig sang "For You Alone," after which a dainty luncheon was served. Mr. and Mrs. Fleming left later for Algonquin Park, the bride wearing a Russian blouse suit of navy tricotine, with hat to match, and an Isabella fox fur, the gift of the groom. On their return, they will reside at 10 Watford Ave., Toronto.

Among the out-of-town guests were the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Smith and Miss Smith of Glen Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Walter McCormack of Galt, Miss Marion Calder, Durham, and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Findlay, Regina, Sask.

With the bride's many friends in her old home township of Egremont, and in Durham, the Review joins in extending to the young couple best wishes for a happy and prosperous future.

ORCHARD

(Intended for last week.)
The Anniversary Services in our church here on Sept. 3rd were well attended both morning and night. Mr. King, a former pastor, preached two very acceptable sermons which were appreciated by everyone. The Varney choir rendered some good numbers at the evening service. The weather was ideal and continued so for the garden party Monday night on the lawn of P. Cornish, which drew a large crowd. The proceeds amounted to about $90.

Mrs. Falkingham and two children visited Mr. and Mrs. Cornish last week.

Mrs. John G. Smith of Mt. Forest spent week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Robertson, of the village.

Miss Luttrell returned from her home near Chesley last Tuesday to resume her duties as teacher here. We understand there is an increase of four in the attendance this term.

We extend a welcome to Mr and Mrs. Rahn and family, who have recently come into our section.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Pinder and family attended the Toronto Exhibition this year and report the fair to be very good.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robertson visited his brother in Ripley recently.
