Philp—Lawrence

At high noon on Wednesday, Sept. 20th, the marriage of Hattie I. Lawrence, elder daughter of Mr. Thos. Lawrence, Vickers, and Mr. Newton R. Philp, of Park Head, was solemnized at the home of the bride's father. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. F. G. Cole of Durham, while the wedding march was played by the groom's sister, Mrs. James Kirkland of Allanford. They were unattended.

The bride was attractively dressed in ivory crepe Theresa with silver trimmings and wore an embroidered silk net veil held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. During the signing of the register, Mr. F. J. Philp of Owen Sound, brother of the groom, sang an appropriate solo.

The other guests present from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Kirkland and son Arthur of Allanford and Norman and Mrs. Sydney Smith and son Mr. of Park Head.

Mr. and Mrs. Philp left on the afternoon train for a trip to Toronto, Hamilton, Grimsby and immediately returned to the Niagara peninsula, the bride travelling in a suit of navy tulle with hat to match.

On their return they will reside on the groom's farm near Park Head. The Review joins the many in extending hearty good wishes for a happy future to the young couple.

Weaver—Gray

A wedding of interest to several friends of the bride and her parents in Durham, was quietly celebrated in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, Ft. William, on Saturday, Sept. 9th, when Miss Eva Cochrane Gray, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Gray, Cummer, St. Ft. William, and Allen H. Weaver, manager of the Imperial Bank of Canada, Port Arthur, were united in marriage.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Hector L. McKinnon, the bride was attended by her sister, Miss Jean Gray as bridesmaid and the bridegroom was supported by Mr. J. A. McKay. Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Weaver took passage on the Steamer Hamone for a honeymoon tour which will include a trip down the St. Lawrence and Saguenay rivers.

An immense crowd saw Orangeville win 9 to 4 from Mimico in the first final intermediate lacrosse match Wednesday. The last game takes place in Mimico Saturday. Ten cars of lacrosse fans were present from Durham. The gate receipts were $2,300.00.

An important Hydro meeting was held in Toronto on Monday, the municipalities in the Eugenia system voicing great complaints at excessive charges, false representations and inefficient management. Prominent names mentioned in the discussion were Wm. Calder of Durham and Dr. Roy Hacking of Tara who "presented grievances in a forceful and emphatic manner."

Of course if not surrendered they are still payable interest and principal on Dec'ber 1st, but those taking exchange method get a bonus of a month's interest.

The September meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church, was held last Thursday. After the opening exercises and business proceedings, Mrs. John Bell gave the Bible reading and Miss Maggie Edge read an instructive paper on "The Mission Hospitals of Western Canada," of which the W. M. S. have the oversight. Mrs. Jas. Hepburn also read an interesting account of troubles and vicissitudes of Chinese Missions as told by Rev. J. Goforth.

Rising Hanover Soloist
The following flattering write-up comes from the Toronto Sunday World. Is Engel has been heard with pleasure at various times in Durham Presbyterian Church and is a niece of Mrs. Jno. McKechnie of town. "Miss Dorothy Engel was a soloist at the Allan Theatre last week and is a dramatic soprano of very great promise and ability and high hopes of her future are entertained by great artists in the musical world of this continent. For the past three years Miss Engel has been singing in Detroit where she made a name for herself in that city's exclusive musical centre. Previous to her work in Detroit she was a student at Toronto Conservatory of Music. Miss Engel is a Canadian, her home being in Hanover. Her program will include "Harlequin" by Frederick Clay and "Dawning" by Cadman. The overture will be Nicolai's well known "Merry wives of Windsor."

Publishers Meet in Owen Sound.
About twenty five of the publishers of Grey and Bruce Counties, met at Harrison Park Inn, Owen Sound, on Saturday last, to discuss problems relating to the craft. They were entertained to a sumptuous luncheon there by the Fleming Publishing Co. of that city, after which Mayor Harris, Matt. Duncan, M. P., and Jack Miner, the famous bird man, delivered addresses. At the sessions E. Roy Sayles, Manager of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers' Ass'n, spoke on publishing conditions throughout the Dominion, and A. Stanley Thurston, of Meaford Mirror, recently of the Farmers' sun, on "How the weekly can be best adapted to farmers' needs." To the Publishers, the "Mace in Owen Sound" exhibition held in the curling rink was an eye opener. There were some magnificent displays of home-made products, and a wide range of articles on exhibition, the most imposing being the North American Bent Chair Co's great furniture display. Fifty different manufacturers exhibited, and with many visitors the show was a good advertisement for, and a credit to the enterprise of our nearest city. W. Irwin and P. Ramage were in attendance from Durham.

The Roll Call

GEORGE SMITH

The sudden death occurred on Sept. 20th at his late residence, 40 Omar St. Guelph, of Mr. George Smith.

The deceased had for a few days previous been suffering from a severe cold and on Wednesday morning was found dead in bed. Physicians' opinion was that death was caused by a stroke of paralysis.

He was born 59 years ago in the Paisley Block, Guelph Twp. and in his early childhood his parents, the late William and Mrs. Smith moved to Glencoe, where the deceased grew up to manhood. In 1890 he married Miss Jennie Hamilton of Wintbourne and settled on lot 54, 3rd con. of Glencoe. 14 years ago they sold their farm and moved to Mt. Forest where they resided until two years ago.

Besides his widow he leaves a daughter Winnifred and son Rennie, both of Toronto; one sister, Mrs. H. K. Hamilton of Wintbourne and five brothers, John in Regina; Wm. at Durham; James at Holstein; Chas. and Albert at Guelph. Another sister, Mrs. A. M. Hamilton died in July 1921.

The funeral was held on Friday and interment was made in Guelph cemetery, the service being conducted by Rev. Mr. Little of Chalmers' Church. The pall bearers were H. K. Hamilton, Frank Rennie of Walkerton (a cousin) and the four brothers who were present.

ROCKY SAUGEEN

Several from here attended the Hanover Fall Fair and all report a good time.

We are having beautiful weather, most of the threshing is done for this season in this neighborhood.

Mr. Joe Davison left for Toronto last week to accept a position. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Lawrence and Mr. and Mrs. L. McLean took in Hanover fair last week.

Mrs. F. Kelsey has been spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. H. Gloin at Bismarck. A large number from here attended the unveiling of the monument in Durham Sunday.

Miss Ada Middleton is spending a few days with Mrs. W. Clark. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Lawrence were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. McGillr the first of the week.

The W. M. S. will hold their thank offering in the church next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. (Rev.) Lane of Hanover is expected to address the meeting.

HAMPDEN

Miss Nellie Anderson returned last Wednesday from London where she had been visiting with her brother for a couple of weeks.

Miss Gerlie Livingstone of Toronto is spending a few days with her brother Herb on the 16th.

There was a large turnout at the prayer meeting held last Wednesday evening at Mr. Wm. Sharp's. Rev. Mr. Lane is having it at Mr. Alex. McLean's this week.

Hampden was well represented at the Fair in Hanover Friday. Mrs. Anderson we believe, captured a few prizes in the dairy line.

A number from this part attended the memorial service in Durham on Sunday.

Threshing is still the fashion but in another week the corn cutting will be taking the lead and going some if weather permits.

The school fair held at Ayton on Monday was an event that the children won't soon forget. The day was fine, an improvement to former years, but no matter what kind of weather, that school fair can boast of one big grand rush, equal to any city when it comes to viewing the exhibits and work for the children in the building.

The teachers had certainly worked when one considered the training in drills and marches that were shown. No. 1 Normanby, carried off first prize. Mr. Cooper, the agricultural enthusiast, is certainly to be congratulated on his unceasing energy in making the Fair the success it is to the children.

DARKIES' CORNERS

A large number from this community attended the unveiling of the Soldiers Memorial in Durham on Sunday last. A big crowd was present though the day was rather cool. The ceremony was very impressive and the monument is one with which the town and surroundings have good reason to be proud.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Hamilton and son John, visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Brown.

Mrs. Geo. Collinson spent the week end in Hamilton, visiting relatives and renewing girlhood acquaintances. Mr. and Mrs. John Pratt of Louise, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Pratt.

Miss Josephine McNab returned home last week after spending a couple of months at the Jacques home. We wish Mr. Oscar Bell every success in his Normal training course which he has entered upon at North Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Brown spent a day at the first of the week with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hargrave.
