Durham Methodist Church also honored the heroic dead on Memorial Sunday, Sept. 24th, when they placed a handsome wreath upon the monument. This was accidentally omitted from the printed list two weeks ago.

Dr. and Mrs. Ross Jamieson of Toronto, made a gift of an elaborate baptismal font to Westminster Presbyterian Church, Mt. Forest, as a memorial to the former's parents, the late Alex. and Mrs. Jamieson of that town. This font was dedicated on Sunday last.

Last week's Review referred to the serious illness of Mr. J. L. Stedman's father in Weston. On Tuesday evening last he passed away. Mrs. Stedman left on the Tuesday p.m. train to join her husband there but did not arrive in time.

Master Clarence Noble, son of Mr. Arnold Noble, was taken to Guelph Monday to have his nose treated in the hospital there. Clarence playfully at school was tripping up Donald Graham and the latter's elbow which went out suddenly to balance himself, ran against his (Clarence's) nose with considerable force.

BOOTHVILLE

Potato picking and threshing are almost finished in this locality and everyone reports a bountiful crop. Miss Agnes Wilson of Toronto, has returned after spending several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wilson.

Miss C. Cameron is returning to Toronto on Friday, having spent the summer months at her home here. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Wilson and family motored to Flesherston on Friday. Mrs. K. Patton and Miss King returned with them and spent the week end.

Miss Agnes McPhail, M.P., was a caller in our vicinity lately and we were delighted to see her again. Mr. and Mrs. John Hill and family, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Goheen, Hopeville.

A number from here attended Anniversary services at Fairbairn last Sunday. Our teacher, Miss Ethel Hamill, is attending Teachers' Convention at Markdale this week and is also spending the week end at her home near Chateaufort.

Boothville is appearing more and more home-like since Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wilson have moved to one of the corner houses which has been remodelled. Mr. Harvey Williams is recently moving shortly to the house recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Wilson.

Last Friday afternoon many from Boothville attended Priceville Fall Fair. An interesting event of the afternoon was the basket ball match between Durham third form High School girls and Boothville. Judging from the cheers and "rooting" of both sides, we know that everyone was interested. Excitement was intense, the teams being so evenly matched. However when time was called, the score was 11-10 in favor of Durham.

HOLSTEIN LEADER

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Rev. Mr. Scott took charge of Mr. Dadds' pulpit at Cheltenham on Sunday.

Rev. G. S. Scott went to Toronto the beginning of the week to attend Synod meeting. Mr. R. Nelson, O. Sound, spent over the week end with Mr. W. Nelson.

Some one with apparently more ammunition than brains, have been shooting grebe (better known as divers) on the river. We wonder what sport anyone can get by destroying our harmless birds.

Considerable inconvenience has been caused by the road north of the burg closed on account of constructing a bridge. A road has now been made through R. Aitken's field, which will remedy matters.

Miss J. Adams left Friday morning for Detroit. Rev. Mr. Stevenson of Moose Jaw, at one time minister at Forget, Sask., while Mr. R. Sim was resident there, is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Sim at present.

Messrs Hershey motored to Artemesa on Monday to attend the funeral of their aunt. While the weather was not of the brightest, all roads appeared to be towards Fairbairn on Sunday and Monday last. Services were conducted by Rev. Capt. T. Dadds of Cheltenham. Being a brother of R. T. Dadds and spending some of his boyhood days in Egremont, he appeared to be pretty well known, making a pleasant change for both pastor and people. On Monday evening the usual fowl supper was provided in the usual good style the Fairbairn ladies are capable of, after which, a program of music by the choir, solos by Rev. Fairbairn Anniversary Services

The Anniversary Services in connection with Fairbairn Pres. Church on Sunday and Monday last were well attended. The Rev. T. Dadds of Cheltenham, brother of our own R. T., took the services in the morning and evening. A returned Chaplain Capt., his discourses were exceedingly interesting, touched as they were with experiences and reminiscences at the front. The Monday evening fowl supper was held in the shed fitted up for the occasion, repairing to the church thereafter for the intellectual feast. Rev. Mr. Dadds again addressed the meeting in a vivacious manner, in which he was equally at home. Rev. Mr. Stewart both spoke and sang "My ain folk."

"The wee house 'ang the heather" and "It's nice to get your breakfast in your bed on Sunday morning." Mr. Ivan Seim, a divinity student, also spoke. Rev. G. S. Scott acted as chairman. Mrs. (Rev.) Dadds, an excellentist and singer as well, favored the audience with a couple of selections in each branch of entertainment. The choir also rendered some selections very sweetly. Miss Mary Belle McEachern accompanying on the organ very creditably. Votes of thanks were moved by R. T. Dadds and Mr. Robb, to the speakers, the singers, to Mr. Ramage assisting the choir and to all who had taken part in making the meeting a success.

The proceeds were so near $200.00 that we might almost call it that, according to Mr. Dadds.

BLYTH'S CORNERS

The dry spell of weather has been broken at last and the rain is much needed, so that the Teachers' Convention will be "out of it" for getting the credit. The concert given in Knox Church on Friday evening last under the auspices of the Cameron family of Durham, in aid of the proposed Hospital, was a fair success. The various numbers given by the entertainers, considering their youth, was quite creditable and showed considerable drilling. Rev. Mr. Cameron relieved the young people by a rather interesting talk on his trip to California, its climate, its products, &c. It is a most wonderful man-made state, exceedingly productive but also uncomfortably hot during certain seasons. He rather disliked the climate in comparison with our own great Canadian climate inasmuch as it is summer, summer, summer all the time, and spring, summer, autumn, winter are all jumbled up into one season over there, which alone would be somewhat monotonous.

A great many of its inhabitants are Canadians and many of them hold the highest positions. Canadians generally are noted for their high moral standing and are wanted the world over. Vancouver, he considered, one of the finest cities in his travels for beauty and scenery. In concluding, the Rev. gentlemen said he had travelled from the rough Atlantic to the calm Pacific, but nowhere could be found a more ideal country to live in than good old Canada and pressed upon his hearers to take a greater delight and enthusiasm in boosting fair Canada. The proceeds at the door were $24.35.

Mr. Geo. Webber of Bentinck, has been doing a few of the farmers' thrashing on the line with his gasoline outfit and has given splendid satisfaction. Inspector Wright visited our school last week and we are sure he could both be excused and believed if he gave a very flattering report.

Johnny McVean and Bobbie have for the past two years been hunters of renown but they decided lately they would cut out a lot of the travelling over hill and dale, and have purchased two pairs of lovely black foxes, one of them a silver black, costing we are told, in the neighborhood of $1700.00 for the lot.

Rev. Henry Caldwell Honored

Last week's Christian Guardian has a fine cut of Rev. Henry Caldwell, an old Normanby boy and brother of Mr. Wm. Caldwell of the 3rd con. Normanby. Mr. Caldwell's photo is one of a dozen "Presidents of Conferences," he being President of the important Hamilton Conference.

ORCHARD

Lots of rain just now. That will help the root crop which was suffering before this came. It was surely also a welcome in the fire swept districts of Northern Ontario.

Our road seems unfortunate for car wrecks—three in two weeks between Orchard and Mt. Forest, but no one killed yet. Surely it should be a lesson for some of the speed exceders. Some of them certainly drive at a furious rate.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Pinder visited with Mr. and Mrs. Donald McPhee on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dickson and Mrs. J. Smith, spent a day in Durham last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carmont and Mr. and Mrs. Halladay of Gleneden, visited at Mr. Jno. Kirby's the first of the week.

Mrs. Jas. McIlvride is spending a few days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Donald McPhee.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Schenk of Egremont, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Nelson McGuire recently.

Stratford by the Guelph Conference under the Presidency of the late Rev. W. S. Griffin. In 1895 he married Elizabeth J. Kitching, daughter of the late John Kitching of Nassagaweya and sister of Rev's J.W. Kitching of Hamilton Conference and G.R. Kitching of Toronto Conference, who has been a faithful co-laborer on all his circuits as well as caring for a family of five daughters. He has been honored by his brethren as chairman of district and was a member of 1914 General Conference.

YEOVIL

With regret we chronicle the death of George Walmesley, George, son of the late Jonathan and Margaret Walmesley, was born Oct. 20th, 1862, on the farm where he died and where he spent his life with the exception of five childhood years at the little town in Minto. He had been under medical attention for several months and was confined to bed the last six weeks. A tumor had formed and developed very rapidly the last few weeks but the immediate cause of his death was congestion of the lungs. He died on Tuesday, Oct. 3rd and was buried on Thursday in Reid's cemetery where his parents, two sisters, Janet and Marian and brother Thomas are lying. The services at the house and the grave were conducted by the Rev's Scott and West. Mr. Scott spoke particularly of the sleeplessness and the activity of the soul dwelling on the thought of the need of preparation so expressed in the chorus of the hymn read "Then O my Lord prepare My soul for that great day, O wash me in Thy precious blood And take my cares away."

The pall bearers were his neighbors—F. Couits, W. Smith, George Schram, A. Haas, P. Mutch and W. Sim. The friends attending from a distance were Jno. Walmesley, and family and George Wallace from Wingham, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Plume and children from Gorrie; Geo. Wallace, Jno. Wallace, Mr. Heagy, Mrs. Whyte, Mrs. Ballantyne and Mrs. Murray from Stratford.

And so another familiar figure has passed from our midst. We shall miss seeing George and extend our sympathy to the bereaved friends. One brother John of Wingham and two sisters, Mrs. Horney on the old homestead and Mrs. Brooks in Holstein survive him.

Inspector Wright of Hanover has making his semi-annual official visit. These, through sequence of ideas, recall recollections of Inspector Campbell who though gone is not forgotten.

Our teachers expect to attend their Convention in Markdale on Thursday and Friday. We hope they will have an interesting session and not be the Umbrella Brigade this year.

Our beefings have closed for the year. Pleasant social evenings were spent at A. Calder's and A. Ross' while the summer's business affairs were being attended to.

The Secretary of Yevvil Club is loading a carload of No. 1 oats on Friday and Saturday of this week. Enquire as to prices if you wish to sell. A car of barrel or bulk salt on order now. Get your order in at once. We were shocked and grieved to hear of the sudden death of our old friend, Mrs. Wm. Hunt of Holstein. She was a good mother and our sympathy goes to her family now mourning her departure. Mothers have their unique pedestals in the home and heart and no other one can ever take that place.

Those attending Fairbairn Anniversary services report good times. Dr. T. Urquhart of Maple, visited visited his sister, Mrs. Fleming Reid last week. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Reid have returned to Durham. Mr. and Mrs. Willis of Paisley, have moved into John Henwick's house, where they expect to remain for the winter.

Mrs. F. Watson, Toronto is visiting her father, Mr. W. H. Rogers and sister Rena.

Provincial Constable Blood, who has been located at Walkerton since the spring, received notice on Thursday transferring him to Wlarton, for which point he left the following day and is now located. The Constable is a live sleuth, and proved a regular terror to lawbreakers throughout the county. The moonshine whiskey industry, which is reported to be flourishing like a bay tree in the recesses of the Bruce Peninsula, probably incited the Dept. to transfer him to the north and have him in close juxtaposition with the illicit distillery game. Hunting these grog makers in the swamps and morasses of the north is one of the most exciting and hazardous jobs that one could wish for, and if Constable Blood can successfully round up the quarry and come through with a whole skin, he will need have recourse to all the strategy and dexterity of an Indian scout. The men engaged in distilling the poison are not as a rule any little Lord Fauntleroy's, but on the other hand are rough necks who wouldn't hesitate to lift the constable full of daylight if surprised at their occupation and brought to bay by the sleuth. Whether separating the forces of justice by removing Constable Blood to the north will prove a judicious move, when he and Inspector White, Crown Attorney Dixon and other officials were doing such excellent team work here in running offenders throughout the county, remains to be seen.—Walkerton Herald-Times.

Married in Durham A quiet wedding took place at the Methodist Church, last Oct. 12th, at 10 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Black of Hopeville, when Mr. J. A. Black of Hopeville and Miss M. J. A. Black of Hopeville were united in holy matrimony. The couple are now residing in Hopeville. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Black of Hopeville. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Black of Hopeville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. J. A. Black of Hopeville. The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and other relatives. The reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Black of Hopeville. The wedding was a most successful one and all enjoyed it very much.
