PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE AND SOUTH LINE This is Thanksgiving Day and we are thankful we have wood enough to keep the stove full and sometimes very disagreeable. However we must not be too selfish in being thankful for our own comforts when we think of those so lately bereft of all their belongings and are on this disagreeable day huddled in a small shack. To those so recently in comfortable circumstances, it will be a change of living.

Thanksgiving Day is over for another year and the reason is always the same. Plowed, others took to the bush with dog and gun. Some have spent the day in feasting, either at home or with friends. But all seemed thankful and in a pleasant mood.

Some of those home for the holiday are Erin W. Parslow from her school in Erin, W. McLeod from St. David's, Mary Kinnell from Toronto, and the three sisters of Hugh McLean, all from Toronto—Annie and Christena, who are married and Kate, forelady Company, spent the week end at their old home and rejoiced to find their mother along with other friends.

Mr. McNulty of the city spent the week end with his aunts and families, the McLeod's and Clark's here. Richard Hardy took a trip to Owen Sound. His business or intentions are not known as yet but just wait. R. J. McNulty and family spent Sunday with Mr. Jos. Whyte on the townline.

A Mr. Brown and companion of Guelph, have spent a week with Mr. Howard Watson and Geo. Haw rabbit shooting. Mrs. Watson Sr. has suffered intense pain for a week now from blood poisoning in her left hand and arm. Dr. Sneath has been treating it, and although not spreading, it does not improve much.

Misses Kathleen and Peggy Ferguson and Margaret Aldcorn are going to Toronto Tuesday to spend sometime. The Young People's Social in the Presbyterian church last Thursday evening, was very enjoyable and well attended. Rev. Mr. Jones occupied the chair, and a program of songs, readings and debate were enjoyed by all. The debate "Resolved that boys are more expensive to their parents than girls" was thoroughly thrashed out, Misses Kathleen McMillan and Cora Richardson for the affirmative, Messrs Cranston and Watson on the negative. The boys won by a slight margin, but all showed ability and thought, and held the attention of the audience throughout.

We hope for more of those pleasant and instructive events during the winter. All kinds of home made candy was served and after the program, a series of games were enjoyed in the school room.

On Sunday the Thanksgiving services in Salem Methodist Church were enjoyed by all the people that could crowd into the church both afternoon and evening. We are sorry that so many could not get in and had to return to their homes. The good roads and fine day brought the people from a long distance.

Rev. Mr. Jones of the Presbyterian church, preached in the afternoon, and delivered a fine discourse on Thanksgiving, taking for his text Psalm 107. Ebenezer choir furnished the music at this service. Then in the evening the pastor, Rev. Mr. Bushel, took for his text, the 103rd Psalm and brought out the many things that Canadians should be thankful for, more especially the reason for the endeavor to follow the teaching of the word of God. On Monday evening a supper in the basement of the church, was much enjoyed, after which a program of music, readings and a play, all by home talent, was enjoyed by a large audience, the church again being full.

HOPEVILLE The Hopeville Missionary Society are busy working on quilts for the Northern Ontario homeless, a quilting to be held at Mrs. C. Wale's on Friday afternoon. Mrs. E. E. Hockridge took a business trip to Toronto Friday last. Mr. A. H. Burnett is at present visiting relatives around Priceville and Durham.

Mr. Jas. Riddell has bought Mr. Wm. Burnett's house that was somewhat damaged by a recent fire and is busy repairing it. Miss Peg. Ferguson entertained a number of her young friends last Thursday evening. Our local institute expect to have the pleasure of entertaining members of Dromore branch on Wednesday of this week at the home of Mrs. Geo. Gilkes.

Mr. Neil McEachnie and family, were recent visitors at Mr. Pete McEachern's, Egremont. Mrs. W. L. Dixon, Mrs. W. Weir and Mr. Joe Dixon, were visiting at Mr. J. Sinclair's the first of the week. The Ladies' Aid of Esplan Church, met at the home of Mr. Jno. Bittori recently. Mr. D. S. McDonald's fine new residence is nearing completion, and adds to the beauty of the surrounding country.

Mrs. W. McKinney was visiting Mrs. Fred Sageman a day last week. A goodly number took in the special services at Salem on Sunday evening. Thanksgiving day passed off quietly. Every one has reason to be thankful to the Great Giver for a bountiful harvest this year.

Proceeds (over expenses) election night, town hall 30.00 Loose collection unveiling of monument 170.85 Accrued interest on deposits 90.79 Total $437.07

The Monument Committee in acknowledging the above subscriptions, feel very grateful to the municipalities, Societies, parents, relatives, citizens and friends for their contributions which has made it possible to erect a splendid monument to the memory of those who gave their lives for us and for justice and liberty for future generations.

We also have to thank W. A. McGowan in placing the site at the disposal of the Council at a price of $200 less than it cost him. The Committee are planning to have the grounds planted with trees and shrubs and beautified with flowers and extend an invitation to the citizens of both town and country to take an interest in this work with subscriptions of money or work. Acknowledgement will be made from time to time of funds received for this purpose.
