Try it in Durham
Some wide-awake citizens of Dundalk and community, have formed a Publicity Committee to remove the alousness that too often exists in a community. They are offering prizes of $3 and $2 for the two best suggested names for their organization. Who will move in Durham along similar lines?

We would also be very thankful for any donations of fancy work, home made baking, candy, etc. for Red Cross Bazaar to be held on Saturday, Dec. 2nd in town hall. Proceeds in aid of the Red Cross Memorial Hospital.

Concert was Called Off.
The True Blues on Monday morning called off their concert for that evening, for which Owen Sound entertainers had been billed. Very few tickets had been sold, and coming in between Methodist and English Ch. Concerts, which were assured of full houses, it looked like a small crowd and a considerable deficit. As the town will seemingly be charged with concerts until Christmas, they wisely withdrew in the meantime.

Watchful Council
An emergency meeting of the Town Council was held on Monday evening. The urgency was to investigate the imminent shipping by train of appliances used in the Clark Metals factory, and alleged to be part of the security under the mortgage held by the town. The shipment was made next day to Galt, we believe, and we have not heard what further is being done about it, if anything.

Men's Glass
Next Sunday, Nov. 26th, the topic will be "Hours of Employment." Any one who has studied the matter knows well that the length, danger and hardship of the day's toil has a great effect on productive efficiency, health, social and moral well-being and progress. What is ideally desirable, is however very different from what is practically possible under present world conditions. The main point is—are we travelling in the right direction and making progress? This is a matter of vital importance to the workman and Christian.

50 Nations Represented
Representatives of 50 nations are in session in Toronto this week planning to make the world "icy." Men of international repute will be present and all phases of the war against alcohol will be discussed. We have not heard of any church or society in Durham or neighborhood sending a delegate to this monster Convention.
Poppies Sold Fairly Well
Canadian Greys' I. O. D. E. have returns from the sale of poppies that was undertaken Armistice week and find that about 800 poppies were sold, from 1900 secured. The unsold ones cannot be returned as in former years, and are consequently money tied up. The Chapter from this sale realized $75.00 and of this amount about one half will go in helping disabled soldiers throughout Canada. This work is controlled by the War Veterans' Association, but the Association here being disorganized, have left it in O. D. E. hands. Can. Greys' will use the profits in distributing Christmas cheer to the sick in town at that festive season.
Lions in the Way
Lx. Groves' generous bequest to the town of Ferguson, of his well equipped hospital, which was reported last week, has met with a snag. The Council have turned it down in the meantime, seeing lions in the way. One of these is the request of the donor that he should have the privilege of retaining a consulting room in the building, which other doctors think is not fair, if they are expected to give it generous support. Another lion is the fact that there might be a yearly deficit to be made up by the town. A motion was moved in Council that the offer be not accepted; it was put by the chairman, but the I. News-Record says no person voted either way, the chairman left the platform, declaring the meeting adjourned, so the offer is all in the air in the meantime.
That Council wants more light, possibly leading.

Mission Band Concert
The Presbyterian Mission Band under the guidance of Miss Margaret McGill, held a very pleasing concert in the Sunday School room last Tuesday. A short program by some of the girls of the Band, then an interesting exhibit of lantern views showing the work of the Women's Missionary Society in mission homes and schools in Quebec and the West. The views of St. Christopher—Social Service in Toronto was especially fine and a great work is being carried on among the foreign population there. The Story of Christ's birth, the flight into Egypt and return to Nazareth was also given on screen. Altogether a very informative and interesting evening was spent which cannot fail to teach the need of missions to old and young. The lantern views were from the Presbyterian Publications.

Trinity Ch. Concert a Success
The first of the four concerts that are to take place monthly under Trinity Church auspices, was voted by a who heard the performers, an unqualified success. The artists were "artists" in their respective art, and it was only one's personal fondness for any one of the artists, especially those of Pauline Johnson and Longfellow's "Hiawatha" but her repertoire is an extensive one and the range of her selections is surprising. A musical program in addition will make a delightful entertainment. Little Mira Lam and Eben Cameron will fill the program with song and recitation, during rest periods and while changing costumes.

Southern Music was a Change and a Treat
Mid an atmosphere redolent with the mellow music of the sunny Southland I find its native character and scenery, a Durham audience which packed the hall, fully enjoyed the concert staged by the Methodist choir and young people on Friday night.
It was an evening when the color-ful race held its sway, for the whole program comprised drabkey or southern melodies, and the negro dialect, the entire company being darkey artists. The opening number was a proposal from a husky swain to his dark lady, which was successfully culminated with the latter's assistance. It was well enacted by Mr. Wes Smith and Miss Gertrude Cole. Two little pikaninies sang catchy songs, Norma Gagnon in "Hush my little coon", and Wilma Smith in "Stop yer tickling me." A pantomime "Way down upon the Swallow River" was presented by four pikaninies—Norma Gagnon, Ellen Hay, Wilma Smith and Orma Burnett. Mrs. Earl McDonald and sister, Miss Annie Smith singing the duet sweetly to mandolin accompaniment. Aunt Dilly (Marie Cole) was the central figure in an amusing plantation sketch where she bossed around Uncle Toly (R. L. Saunders) and the four laborers on the place who much preferred singing to work. They were the male quartette—Messrs. Glass, Benson, McCracken and Saunders—who, grieved at want to work no more, and several other delightful numbers before Aunt Dilly broke in on their fun.
The second part of the program saw an old fashioned camp meeting in full swing with Uncle Ebenezer (Wes Smith) as energetic leader. The darkeys kept dropping in and joining heartily in the songs until the benches were full and all sang apparently cause they loved it. "Been a'listenin' all the night long" was perhaps the best camp song. The sudden announcement of arrival of a load of watermelons quickly disrupted the meeting.
Especially well depicted were the characters of Aunt Dilly and Uncle Toly, who were semi-circled by the entertainers, gathered for the old log cabin concert. Many of the old favorites were sung in fine harmony—"Old Black Joe," "Far away in the South," etc. A lively number was "Hear dem bells" given by Cleopatra (Mrs. E. McDonald) and her troupe. A ladies' quartette never previously heard—Mrs. E. McDonald, Misses Stella McCracken, Gertrude and Marie Cole—rendered "Massa's in de cold, cold ground" very effectively. Prominent in this part of the program was the male quartette, whose several numbers were featured with the true blending and melody of Southern airs. W. Benson's song with imitation piano accompaniment by Bert Saunders brought down the house.
Others in the troupe not previously mentioned were Mrs. Cole, Mrs. E. Gagnon, Mrs. Geo Burnett, Mrs. Mel. Storrey, Misses Cora Wilson, Etta Twamley, Lizzie Kinca, Messrs E. McDonald, James H. C. To Mrs. Cole, the moving spirit in the concert.

Lucas—Trees
On Saturday in All Saints' Church, Toronto, the wedding was solemnized of Mrs. Benson Lucas, K. C. formerly of Markdale, to Edith Jane, daughter of the late Mr Samuel Trees and Mrs. Trees of "Mayfield," Suerbourne St. Toronto. The Right Rev. Bishop Reeve, Rev Canon Cody D.D. and the Rev T. W. Murphy, rector of All Saints' was the officiating clergyman. The ushers were Mr. Fred Lucas, Mr. Kendall Lucas, Mr. W. E. J. Dixon and Mr. Samuel L. Trees. The bride entered the church on the arm of her brother, Mr. Jas D Trees and proceeded slowly up the aisle to the bride looked charming in a silver metal gown draped in silk net hand made French lace caught at the sides with silver ribbon and grapes. A reception was afterwards held at the residence of the bride's mother, where a host of relatives and friends were assembled to offer their hearty congratulations. The bride in going away, wore a smart suit of navy blue embroidered Canton crepe and a blue and grey hat with wrap trimmed with squirrel fur. On their return Mr and Mrs Lucas will reside in Toronto.

Indispensable for Home-Makers
It is not simply because it gives all the news and farming information that the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal is so highly valued throughout the Dominion. The housewives and home-makers are more carefully and thoughtfully considered in it than in any other similar publication, young people and children have pages specially provided for them, and there is provision made for all tastes and circumstances. Music, photography, natural history, biography, literature, travel, mineralogy, wireless (radio) telegraphy, astronomy, philately, pedagogy, all find place in it. Many a young person has had the first impulse towards a life's success come from some or other of these departments, which encouraged to strike light in his mind and changed a whole course of life. You can never tell of what chance those who are depriving their young people who have not yet become subscribers to the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal. The subscription price is only $2.00 per year. It is the great investment of the times.

Frances Nickawa, Indian Entertainer
A treat is in store for those who hear Frances Nickawa, the famous Cree Indian singer, who will give one of her unique programs in the Baptist Church on Thursday, Nov. 30th. Miss Nickawa is a product of our great North West, having been born on the shores of Hudson's Bay and educated in Norway House Methodist Mission School where she developed a remarkable talent for dramatic recitals. Since then she has delighted large audiences all across the Canadian West. In many United States centres and recently in the British Isles where the Press speak in highest terms of her rare gifts. She is giving the present season to Ontario and already the demands for her time are beyond filling. Part of her program will be given in a striking Indian costume of Indians dressed in the clothing of Pauline Johnson and Longfellow's "Hiawatha" but her repertoire is an extensive one and the range of her selections is surprising. A musical program in addition will make a delightful entertainment. Little Mira Lam and Eben Cameron will fill the program with song and recitation, during rest periods and while changing costumes.

STRAIGHT PARTY FIGHT
The election in Lanark in a few days will have no Progressive representative, Duncan R. Gemmill, the Progressive nominee having withdrawn, being, he says, "convinced that I could not possibly do justice to the Progressive Party or myself, because of the short period in which to carry on the campaign." He considers the nomination the "greatest honor of his life" and concludes by saying, "I shall continue to work for a better understanding and mutual cooperation between urban and rural dwellers."
David Findlay is the Liberal candidate and R. F. Preston, the Conservative standard bearer.
