ALLAN'S CORNERS

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McFadden of Durham, visited with the latter's mother on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Allan and son John, spent an enjoyable evening last week at the home of Mr. Matthew Barber of Knox Corners.

Mrs. Robt. Webber who was indisposed for a time, is progressing favorably.

Mr. McFadden of Dundalk, spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. W. J. Allan.

The Marney Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. Jos. Lennox on Thursday last, despite the inclement weather and a large number of ladies were present.

A successful meeting was held and an enjoyable afternoon was spent. A bazaar will be held later on when these ladies intend to dispose of their goods.

Don't forget on the evening of Dec. 26th, a bonfire social is to be held in Allan's School house, in addition to a play entitled "Safety First," to be given by the young people of the section. Admission 25c. Ladies bringing boxes free. Proceeds in aid of the Hospital. A good time as usual, is expected.

Mr. Alex. Allan, along with a number of other council delegates, made a business trip to Toronto Thursday last.

On Sunday last, the afternoon service in St. Paul's Church, was conducted by Rev. D. N. Abyaner, a priest of India which was of great interest to his hearers—also bringing with him from his native land a collection of images and gods which are worshipped by the natives of that country, and of which he allowed the congregation to view with interest at the close of the service.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hann, N Egremont, visited at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Wm. Gordon, one day last week.

ORCHARD

The weather man has certainly been favoring us with the most delightful weather; and that the monotony of wheeling should not become too heavy, we were treated to enough snow for almost a week's sleighing. Now that has gone and at time of writing the motoring is splendid again.

HOLSTEIN LEADER

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Philip of Arthur, spent an afternoon recently with J. R. Philip.

Mrs. J. Hamilton, Mt. Forest, spent over the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hiscock.

Norman Hershey spent Sunday with his brother Alf. here.

Alex. Main returned to his home in Saskatchewan last week.

Mrs. M. Burrows is under the Dr's care. Her daughter from Riverview is with her. Her many friends wish for her a speedy recovery.

Quite a number attended the shooting match on Tuesday.

It is reported that R. Nicholson & Sons have purchased the Walmesley

United Farmers Broadening Out

On a solid foundation by co-operation,

We're building a nation, both virile and strong;

We're steadily fighting, great wrongs to be righting;

All hands we're inviting to help us along.

Chorus:

So here's to the farmer, whose heart there's none warmer,

And here's to the charmer with Spring on her brow:

And here's to the lady, who works hard and steady:

Who always is ready to show you just now.

We want every worker, so don't be a shirker,

Nor don't be a lurker who hangs on behind;

But while the wheel's turning and while the lamp's burning,

Be ever-a-learning—it's good for the mind.

Wakes up from your noddin' and watch how we broaden

To fit the world round 'n set them up right:

For we've got your number, on the Banks of the Number,

So wake from your slumber and walk in the light.

The wise and the witty, we'll bring from the city,

And men who are gritty, we'll bring from the farm:

We'll all work together, in fair and foul weather,

Old parties well tether, to keep them from harm.

So while we're a-ruiling, don't be your selves fooling,

But take to the schooling and fair into line:

Forget Grit and Tory, and share in the glory,

Keep telling the story, you'll soon think it's fine.

The land we'll keep tilling, if everyone's willing.

And for a half shilling, you all may come in:

To help store the fodder, grow 'broad'er and 'broader'.

The plumber and rodder will mend all the tin.

The soldier, the sailor, the fisher and whaler,

The merchant, the tailor are all of our kind:

And those who are not sir, and those who forgot sir:

They'd feel mighty hor sir, for lagging behind.

John A. Ferguson,
R. I. Holstein

W. Wm. Groat has been nursing a very sore knee the past couple of weeks, but we hope it will soon be quite well.

We were sorry to hear Mrs. Trout had a hemorrhage of the lungs on Saturday, but glad to hear she is doing nicely. She has been indisposed for some time but her friends and neighbors are hoping that she will soon be better.

Miss Roberta Philip is enjoying a few weeks rest at the parental home before returning to her duties in Guelph Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip of Arthur, accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Ed. McRobb, were recent visitors at J. Mather's.

Jas. Nicholson has purchased the Walmsley farm.

Jas. Brown commenced his studies at Mt. Forest Business College last week.

Willibert Ross and Tom McDougall arrived home from the West. Earl Bunton stopped off on Toronto.

Our mail courier's horse took a sudden and violent notion to go northward through Moen's sid road, one day last week, leaving his driver and the mail by the roadside. After a jaunt of four miles or so, he was captured and returned to his regular path of duty. He was the greatest sufferer for his misbehavior, having scraped his leg pretty badly. Bert and the mail were none the worse for their adventure.

This week's budget

News is scarce. Neither births, deaths or marriages. Some one get busy please.

Mr. John Marshall has had the telephone taken out of the Foerster home in which he purchased last fall and installed in his own home. Ayton is the first to do this.

Mr. John Marshall, is reported to say, is suffering much pain from an affliction in the artery of her right arm which seems to baffle the Dr's skill.

If this fifth day of December is a foretaste of the predicted mild winter, all who can had better go south.

Thos. Park is one of our big farmers in this locality, having had over 4 days thrashing this season, and it is said he has his big barn propped in direcet places to keep the grain from bursting away. Tom is a hard working man although somewhat handicapped by an old toy seem which has been growing over his hips for years and getting worse.

Mr. McFadden of Dundalk, spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. W. J. Allan.
