PRICEVILLE A N D VICINITY

PRICEVILLE VILLAGE

We are just getting around again after a severe illness of nearly two months duration. Dr. Carr of town has succeeded in getting us on our feet again, a fact that we deemed a few weeks ago impossible. The doctor has had several very serious cases since he came here, but so far he has been very successful.

We have had very nice fall weather up to a few days ago and we noticed a man plowing a sod field on Monday of last week, Dec. 4th.

Donald McLachlan of town, met with a serious accident beginning several weeks ago. He was up in the hay loft above the driving house and something caused him to fall and he came down head first through the trap door and was found at noon on the lower floor unconscious. But we are glad to hear that toward the end of the week he was improving somewhat.

Fred Pinkerton, a returned soldier, has been quite poorly since he returned from the hospital in Toronto several weeks ago. The Women's Institute became interested in the case last week and had the sick man with his wife and child removed from the shack on the hill to a small house on Kilross Street, where he can be better cared for.

Rev. A. Bushel and some of the teachers of the public school have been training a number of young folks after school hours in the school preparing for S. S. entertainment on Friday.

Mrs. T. A. Ferguson who has again been under the doctor's care, during all last week is considerably improved, although still confined to bed.

"When I want to know what kind of man a young fellow is going to make" says an old citizen of Little Lot in the Youth's Companion. "I just find out what he does between seven and nine o'clock in the evening."

Rural Empty Schools

Some interesting and suggestive figures were quoted recently by the Ontario Minister of Education. He said there are 1,932 schools in the Province with an attendance below 12 pupils and 1,800 with an average attendance of 12. Six schools with an attendance of 1 pupil each, 27 schools with 2, and 50 with 3.

Found Still Near Allenford

License Inspector Jos. White and Matt Beckett and Constables Blood and Shaw of Walkerton, were on the "still hunt" in Arran Tp., Bruce Co. last week and located a whiskey still in the attic of Lewis Porter's house, near Allenford. They also found a couple of barrels of mash at his house. Stanley Porter's house, the second farm away. The two men were arrested and taken to Southampton where they were released on bail of $2000 each. They came up for trial at Southampton this week.

Gives Land for War Monuments

France has granted the Canadian Government the perpetual use of several acres of land on Vimy Ridge, where Canada may erect monuments to the Canadian soldiers who lost their lives in the memorable assault which carried that eminence for the Allies. An agreement has been signed by M. Ribot, Minister of the department of Home Affairs, and Rodolphe Lemieux, Speaker of the Canadian House of Commons, under which this privilege has been granted.

Newell-Betts Nuptials.

On Wednesday, Nov. 29th, a pretty wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. H. Betts, Sunny Brook Farm, Flesher-ton, when their daughter Annie Rosella, became the bride of Wm. J. Newell, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Newell, Glenelg, and formerly of Jar-row, Alberta.

To the strains of the wedding march which was rendered by the bride's sister, Miss Edith Betts, the bridal party entered the parlor, which was prettily decorated in pink and white streamers, and took their places beneath an evergreen arch from which suspended a large white bell, with background of autumn flowers. The stately bride looked nice in a gown of flesh colored satin charmeuse with overdress of silk radium lace, with corsage trimming, and a pretty embroidered tulle veil, held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms and carrying a shower bouquet of pink and white carnations and maiden hair fern.

Miss Mabel Betts, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, wearing pink organdy, and the ceremony and good wishes, the company number 35, entered the dining room, which wore a festive air for the occasion, done in pink and white streamers and flowers. A beautiful three story wedding cake centered the table. When all had partaken of the sumptuous wedding dinner, Rev. Mr. Oke proposed a toast to the bride, which was responded to by the groom. During the signing of the register, Mrs. Walter Akitt sang very sweetly.

Those present from a distance were: Mrs. Geo. Newell, the groom's mother; Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Newell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Whitmore, Messrs. George and Lewis and Miss Margaret Newell, all of Durham. The bride received many beautiful gifts, showing the high esteem in which she is held.

The young people gathered at the bride's home on Thursday evening and gave a large kitchen shower. They will be home to their many friends after Dec. 15th, residing at the Little Mill, Artemesia, which the groom recently purchased from Mr. F. Loucks, Flesher-ton.

The Review as a Xmas Gift.

Christmas is again around the corner and you like to remember your friends at that season. Thinking about Christmas presents for relatives or friends, why not send the Review for one year and keep them posted on the old home town and district? It's like a letter from home, $2.00 a year anywhere in Canada, $2.50 a year to the United States.

BAND CONCERT WAS GOOD

Though local concerts are numerous at this season, the band was greeted with a well filled house for their concert last Thursday under joint auspices of the Band and the Junior Hockey Club. Many deemed it one of the best here in recent years, it being unique in having several new and spicy features.

Three numbers were rendered by the Band as a whole, and in splendid harmony, showing that though instruments were out of use for a time, practice soon produced the best of music. Their closing number "Southern Breezes," a medley of southern airs, was a treat.

The hit of the night was the skit, "Raffety and Raffes," a horse owner and his colored jockey, taken by Hary Huggill and Ronald Giles. Raffety led his race horse "Spark Plug" to the stage and assisted his jockey to mount, which he accomplished backwards. On the owner demanding why he rode thus, Raffes explained he was "backing his horse both ways." The "horse" was a cleverly improvised steed, with plenty of action and its antics rocked the crowd with laughter, especially as its jockey attempted to "train" it as a circus horse.

Another amusing sketch was "Caught with the Goods"—the Irishman and the coon—the parts being well enacted by Wm. Benson and Wes Smith.

A bright humorous play was "Thirty minutes for Refreshments" where a bachelor's interruptions and delays in securing a good 20 minute dinner were finally explained. All the characters were well depicted, these being taken by Misses Irene Whittaker, Annie Smith, Katie Kelsey and Peter Ramage, R. L. Saunders, Royden Burnett and James Lloyd.

An oddly attired bunch was the jazz band with just an assortment of instruments. Led by an eccentric professor—George Huggill, they produced a new brand of music, and also accompanied the professor while he executed some fancy steps.

A male quartette by Messrs. Geo. Huggill, J. Rainford, Ed. Buschlen, and F. Giles was an enjoyable number as were also the solos by Master Eric Clark. Piano and cornet solos by Mr. Jos. Rainford and Bandmaster F. Bunce, lent more variety to the novel program.

The proceeds were about $121.00.

Don't forget the Box Social and Concert to be held in Aberdeen School house on the 15th of Dec. Ladies bringing boxes free. Proceeds in aid of Hospital.

Where He Belonged

H. G. Wells, the historian, came in at the foot of the poll in a three cornered contest in the recent British elections. Wells is a believer in the Darwinian theory that our first parents were apes, and the voters took him at his own theory and made a monkey of him by putting him where he belonged, at the tail of the race.

Honors for Canada

It is gratifying to patriotic Canadians to read that Canada at the great International Stock, Grain and Seed Show at Chicago, was carrying off many prizes. In grain, Saskatchewan and Alberta are prominent with first prizes, while Ontario cattle stock are also showing up well. In another sphere Canada has broken world records for shipments of grain, no less than 200,000,000 bushels having been shipped this season from the elevators at Port Arthur and Fort William.

THE FAX FUN COMPANY

Any or all who were present at the second of the series of monthly concerts arranged by Trinity Church will feel that the above heading is no misnomer. The irresistible "Jimmy" Fax is still the big drawing card and the head of his own party. The night was a cold and blustery one, and the hall inside was a warm and cozy one, but that was of secondary importance for the audience forgot the cold, basking in the warm smiles, due to the antics of "Jimmy" and his assisting artists.

It is many years since Mr. Fax has been on a Durham platform, and it is hard to see any wear or tear, years bring, on his genial countenance. His voice is in good shape yet and his numbers are given with assurance that is born of long experience on the concert platform. One is always sure too, that no vulgarly works in, and his old motto still holds good: "My humor may cease to be instructive but will never cease to be innocent."

He was assisted by Miss Lina Craine, a most charming soprano and comedienne. Her high, clear notes were a delight to listen to. She is also a good comedienne and in her trios and duets with Mr. Fax and Mr. Stanley, fully upheld her end of the work.

Miss Maimie Mason, elocutionist and pianist, was very proficient in her respective arts and shone especially in her work as accompanist. The other artists in no small degree can attribute their success to her sympathetic work at the piano.

Mr. Charles Stanley, baritone, made his first appearance here, and has left a favorable impression. His tonal qualities in different registers of his voice left nothing to be desired, and his solo selections were of the best character.

Perhaps the ensemble numbers of the company were enjoyed more than anything else and at least put the audience in the best of humor. Durham can stand many evenings of the calibre of this concert.
