We are waiting patiently from a number whom we sent notices to. To those who responded so promptly our heartfelt thanks are due.

Men's Class Next Sunday, Dec. 31st, we will study the problem of Narcotic drugs. It was prophesied that prohibition would greatly increase the use of drugs. Dr. J. A. Amyot, Dep. Minister of Health, stated last week that there were in Canada between 12,000 and 15,000 drug addicts. This surely constitutes a big problem from the standpoints of health, crime and morality. New legislation was enacted last session and further legislation is being considered. What ought we to do to help the police, social workers and doctors in the solution of this problem?

A Serious Charge Dr. E. C. Leonard of Hanover, was sent up for trial by County Police Magistrate Creason on Friday last, on the very serious charge of seduction of a girl 17 years of age. He had sold his household effects and was about to move away from Hanover, when he was arrested on this serious charge. The case was heard on Wednesday and also on Friday and after the evidence was in he was sent up for trial at the next court of competent jurisdiction which will be at the Spring Assizes in Owen Sound in March. Dr. Leonard has been released on bail of $1000 cash. Water is Scarce

Not for many years has the district surrounding Durham, and right in town itself, been so short of water supply as at present. Farmers and town citizens alike report that wells and streams which have yielded liquid refreshment in abundance for a generation or more, now hold out a "high dry" sign. Especially does this condition prevail in districts covered by spring water, and an excellent example is the Rocky Saugeen River which is at the lowest ebb in its history. Farmers in Glenelg and Bentinck drive their cattle or haul water to the Saugeen from distances up to three miles. Silver sees farmers gather on the banks daily and in Glenelg, a similar situation exists. Lack of rain fall during the fall months is of course the cause of drought.

Misses Adeline Graham and Sarah McCallum, visited Mr. Forest friends this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Scarf, Toronto, were in town last week at the funeral of the latter's brother-in-law, Mr. Wm. Ritchie.

Death of Miss Beith The death took place in Owen Sound Saturday last of Miss Elizabeth Beith, sister of Mrs. Arch. Davidson, of town. Davidson, Port McNicholl and Miss Frank Davidson, Toronto, attended the funeral of their aunt Sunday at O. Sound.

Former Bentinck Men On Trial for Firing Barn Harry Redford, who a few years ago was married to Mrs. Leake of Walkerton, was arrested at his home in Elderslie by Prov. Constables Shaw and Blood last Thursday, on the charge of setting fire to the barn of his neighbor, Mr. Andrew Munro, of the 14th con., Brant, on Dec. 1st when the building together with nineteen head of cattle and two horses and all the implements and season's crop went up in smoke, entailing a loss estimated at $10,500. As there was only $1500 insurance on the contents and nothing whatever on the contents, Munro sustained a terrific financial setback by the blaze. It seems that Redford's barn had shortly before been burned to the ground and that Munro who had a mortgage on the place, collected the insurance money. The mysterious burning later of Munro's barn led to suspicion being thrown on Redford and an investigation by the Prov. Fire Marshall, who came on Tuesday of last week and spent a few days in that neighborhood trying to solve the mystery, resulted in the summary arrest on Thursday of Redford. The prisoner was brought to Walkerton, and on being ushered before Magistrate McKeen was remanded to the cells in the County Jail in the local police court on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Crown Attorney Dixon will look after the interests of the prosecution and Lawyer Klein will defend the prisoner at the trial—Waikarot Times.
