PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

The January thaw we had last week did not continue long enough to wet the snow to the ground. Some wells are still short of a proper supply of water.

Bad colds have been the general ailment about here, but the majority of people are getting back to normal health again.

Mr Geo. Rutherford, insurance agent of Shelburne, was around here last week on business.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Priceville Methodist Church purpose holding a Valentine Social on the evening of St. Valentine's Day, Feb. 14. Watson's Hall will be suitably decorated for the occasion.

Each person on entering will receive a red heart, the purpose of which is unexplained. A very interesting program will be given, after which a Valentine post-office will be opened, with real couriers to deliver the love messages to any part of the hall.

The Valentines will be on sale at the office for all ages and at all prices. Pie will be served to all but there will be extra pies on sale at the restaurant. An admission fee of 25c and 15c will be charged. The ladies are preparing for a very comfortable and homelike social evening, where friends can meet and really enjoy themselves.

The Annual Meeting of Priceville Agricultural Society was held on Saturday last week. The attendance was not as large as it should have been but the members present did considerable business.

The financial report, as read by the auditor, seemed to please the meeting. The Directors were recommended to revise the Prize list, and as there is a good substantial balance in the Treasury, they intend to increase the cash prizes in classes of live stock exhibited at the Fall Fair next Oct. 4 and 5, 1923.

Two Field Crop Competitions are on the program for this season. The regular field crop competition and also the combined field crop and threshing grain competition which offers $275.00 in seven prizes, ranging from $75 to $10. The total prizes for the two competitions will total $350.00.

Mail a card at once to Secretary Fall Fair, Priceville, asking for full instructions where to get pure seed and all other particulars. He has a limited supply of instructions on hand and will get more if necessary in a few days. So go to it and make money.

(Intended for last week.) Mr Willie MacLeod is drawing brick from Frotton Station.

Mr Willie Hincks and sister Gladys visited one day last week at Mr Joe Black's, and spent Sunday at Rock Mills.

A number of our youth and beauty attended the box social Friday night at Bunnissan.

The young people are enjoying themselves on the skating rink these nights.

PRICEVILLE AND SOUTH LINE

We thank those that appreciated our last write up on the New Year and the passing of the old year. It is certainly gratifying to us to see that our feeble efforts in giving a few of the innumerable changes during the past year are appreciated by readers of the Review.

To the lady who requested the Editor, we send our best wishes and thank her very much. If she has seen many new years passing and cannot expect the returns to be as numerous as she has experienced in the past, or if she is a lady yet in the prime of youth and naturally expects to see as many returns as she has passed, to her we extend our best wishes for the return of many New Years in future and accompanied by much happiness.

Grip or some kind of an epidemic is prevalent in the locality, in some instances nearly all the family being laid up with it.

The roads on the South Line are bad in some places with pitch holes and slides and some parts of the road are icy.

Reeve McCuaig of Glenelg is attending County Council at O Sound this week.

The annual meeting was held in the Presbyterian church on Monday, 15th inst and was fairly well attended. The congregation is also in fairly good shape. Mr Thos Nichol tendered his resignation as superintendent of the Sunday School, an office he has filled faithfully for a good number of years. Mr A B McDonald is likely to be his successor. Miss Vickie McMillan is still the organist, although tendering her resignation.

Some of the young people enjoyed the dance at Hopeville Friday night and report a good time.

We welcome Mr and Mrs Bob Knox and family, of Bethel, to our neighborhood.

Messrs R. J. MacMillan and Lorne Wragget are working at Bob Knox's cutting wood.

Mr and Mrs Byers of Corbetton, were up to see Mr Mason's farm recently.

Mr Dave Johnston left for Montreal Friday to spend a month with friends. Mr and Mrs Roy MacNalty Sundayed with Ceylon friends.

Mr Arch. MacVicar is cutting wood. Mr Wm Moody's. Mr Bert Haw was a caller in our burg one day this week.

Annual Meeting of U. F. O. Political Ass'n

Those hundreds of years, down to the industrial workers of the present day it is the same, be they in the field, the yard, the office or the factory. She emphatically protested against any man or woman making any apology for being a farmer.

She then went into a resume of the work done in the last session, reviewing the votes taken in the following order. In listening to the speech from the throne she said the gras in Artemesia and after the discussion or debate on the reply was over, the first division of vote was taken on somebody's bill to give a few thousand dollars cash bonus to each returned soldier.

The 2nd Division was on the utility of having so many Royal N. W. Mounted Police loafing around Ottawa. They were intended to patrol the North west territories.

The 3rd Division was on the famous McMaster Bill on which the whole Liberal party flunked since 1921. Why? Because the outs were in in 1922 and the ins were out. She said Hon Arthur Meighan gave Premier King the most complete trimming ever mortal man received. He literally wiped the floor of the House of Commons with him and wiped it clean at that.

Div. No 4 was over the completion of some C P R contracts.

Div. No 5 was on the Crows' Nest Pass agreement and in the debate on this Bill, the Hon. T. A. Crerar showed up at his best. His candor and sincerity were commendable and the Progressive members were a unit behind their leader on this occasion.

No 6 was on the Oriental situation on the Pacific Coast and in the course of the debates, one member whom she was glad to state was not a farmer, made the ungrammatical remark that "them there Orientals aren't humans."

This phrase became the by-word of the House for the remainder of the Session.

Div. No 7 was a Bill to prohibit oomargarine from coming into Canada and Sir Henry Drayton's manifest interest in the case was good guidance to the farmers how they ought to vote.

Div. No 8 was on the Budget and No 9 was on the amendment to the Budget speech. Owing to the fact that a third party was in Parliament, the Progressives endeavored to put through an amendment to the amendment, but the Speaker ruled them out of order. They therefore had to choose the lesser of two evils and she said, she voted against the Budget and for the amendment.

Any downward revision in the tariff might happen to help the farmers, was more than offset by the increased sales tax, with the result that the last state of that individual was worse than the first.

She paid her compliments to Mr. Binette, whose absence from the farmer group, she described as being good company and regarding his assertion that the Farmers' organization was built on sand, she replied that he was floundering in a bag of quicksand and would sink into oblivion at the next general election if he held out until then.

She said her party did not want either Hammett or Binette, as it was strength of will, strength of purpose, strength of principle and of honor that counted far more than strength in numbers.

There was a whole lot more but we did not catch it all.

DEPT. OF AGRICULTURE

A letter from President J. B. Reynolds, O. A. C. Guelph, recently received announces the fact that the June excursions to the Model Farm will be resumed in the month of June this year. By special arrangements with the Canadian Passenger Association the rates will be one fare and a third for the round trip. In addition lunch will be provided for visitors if the schedule is rearranged.

The Dept. of Agriculture, Markdale would be glad to assist any Clubs, Society, or Boards of Agriculture to make arrangements for such Excursions. These are educational trips which should be patronized by every farmer. Write about these trips early.

Short Course Work

During the past week only one special speaker—Mr G H Dickson, Pomologist Specialist, Vineland Horticultural Experimental Station, was present. Apple Orcharding in all its phases was discussed. Many points of practical benefit to the Apple men in the district were given and the young men were given pointers in the matter of starting orchards—varieties to select, etc.

The varieties suggested are as follows: Duchess and Wealthy as filers; Snow, Spy and Stark and Baldwin for the main crop with a few local men thought it was not advisable to get too far from the Ben Davis owing to the possibility of developing an export trade with South Africa.

It may be interesting to the people of Grey County to know that there are 30,000 acres in the Georgian Bay District which is fit for apple production at the present time. Very little of this is actually producing at the present. The potentialities of the district is thus almost unlimited, therefore possibilities of the Georgian Bay District for the young men of Grey County, are well worth considering when they are contemplating their life work.
