Hereditary Legislators.

The Fleisherton Advance gives currency to the rumor that, contrary to expectation, Hon. I. B. Lucas will not again attempt to capture East Grey from Hon. Col. Carmichael, the only man who ever beat him. Instead it is hinted that Hon. I. B. would not be averse to having the affections of the Conservative party rest upon his son, now a barrister in Toronto, and no doubt inheriting some of his father's ability.

However it is surmised that there will be lack of harmony in the party over the suggestion. The northern district, Meaford, especially, feels that the South has had its share of the "orange son" ready to step into the breach, without calling in a non-resident.

From East Grey to South Grey is only a step, and no such division between North and South or East and West exists here. Hon. Dr. J. ... the defeated candidate in last election has a resident son who also has ability, and it might be that his father's mantle may fall on his shoulders. We are not suggesting this, nor have we heard rumors in that direction, but the parallel in the two Ridings is quite marked, and we leave it there.

Miss MacPhail's Trade Questions Answered by Premier King

Miss MacPhail's Questions: 1. How many Consuls and Commercial Agents has the United States resident in Canada? 2. How many Consuls and Commercial Agents has Canada in U. S. States? 3. Is it the intention of the Government to appoint enough Commercial Agents in the United States to adequately take care of Canadian trade interests and foster Canadian trade?

Right Hon. Mr. MacKenzie King: 1. There are ninety-one consular representatives of the United States in Canada. So far as the government is informed there are no officials of the United States resident in Canada designated as Consular Agents.

2. Canada has no foreign consular representation distinct from Great Britain. The Department of Trade and Commerce has no commercial agents in the United States. It has, however, one trade commissioner's office in New York City.

3 and 4. The question of appointing trade commissioners in the United States has been considered at various times. Up to the present, owing to the proximity of the two countries and the cost of maintaining trade commissioners, appointments have been confined to foreign countries where commercial information is not so accessible to Canadian exporters.

Miss MacPhail: In view of the fact that a large volume of trade is done between Canada and the United Kingdom, what steps has the government taken to appoint representatives in Great Britain to foster and encourage Anglo-Canadian commerce? 2. What officials with technical knowledge of Canadian trade are attached to the High Commissioner's office in London?

Right Hon. Mr. MacKenzie King: 1. The Department of Trade and Commerce have established officers and trade commissioners in the United Kingdom as follows: London, Liverpool, Manchester, Bristol, Glasgow. The trade commissioners and their assistants foster and encourage Anglo-Canadian commerce.

2. On the staff of the High Commissioner there are two officers with long association with Canadian trade who are able to deal effectively with any commercial enquiries received. They are also attached to the office a special customs investigation officer. The Dominion trade commissioner in London and trade commissioners throughout the United Kingdom are also in immediate association and close touch with the High Commissioner's office.

TUTANAHAMEN'S TOMBS Mid wars and rumors of war, Franco-German troubles, Turkish duplicity, &c. the world these days turns to the great Egyptian discovery in the valley of the kings of a royal death chamber, surpassing in interest and magnificence any thing of the kind yet discovered. 2000 years ago when Britain and most of Europe were in savage state, when even Rome and Greece had not been heard of, there was a civilization in Egypt which made it rank as one of the chief countries of the then known world or at least one of the wealthiest. A great desire must have existed among the rulers for immortal life. It wasn't a great pyramid then it was an underground tomb erected and excavated no doubt by the labor of thousands of slaves.

us of a cat was placed in charge, the cat being one of the sacred animals. Some articles show skill and excellent workmanship and all wonderfully preserved. Entrance into the innermost chamber has not yet been effected, where no doubt the mummy will be found, of what was a living man 3000 years ago who was worshipped as a kind of deity.

Owen Sound Won the Round

Owen Sound 7, Hanover 9 Hanover 5, Owen Sound 5 Were the scores of the second round Junior Northern semi-finals on Friday and Monday Against the staid and speedy Southerners, the expected Hanover would have a chance, but they managed to lose, even in the home contest Monday night. The Durham had supply half the Hanover line up, E. Elvidge, W. Snell and Martin Lauder back the forward line in O. Sound, while Elvidge Snell and Schutz played in Hanover. In the latter game it was a 1-1 at first period, 4 to 2 in favor of O. Sound at 2nd and Hanover scored 3 to 1 on Monday, making it a 5-5 tie. Had a Durham Junior team entered, it could doubtless have gone as far in the race as Hanover has done, but financing it was the great drawback. But look out for a speedy Durham Junior outfit on next winter's ice!

Elmwood Harnessm'r Suicided

One of the saddest tragedies ever enacted in this section took place at Elmwood about 7.30 o'clock on Monday morning, Feb. 12th, when Mr Wm Evers, a well-known young harness merchant of that village, slashed his throat with a butcher knife, severing his wind-pipe and causing death a short time afterwards. His wife, dying in another room with pneumonia, succumbed some hours later, without knowing that her husband had preceded her in death. By this double fatality, six children, ranging in age from 2 to 11 years, are left orphans, one of them being at present critically ill with the flu. It seems that Mr Evers was convalescing, himself, from a week's illness of influenza, and being distracted by the critical condition of his wife, who was dying from pneumonia, besides, it is said, being burdened with financial worries, became temporarily deranged and, proceeding to the kitchen, seized a butcher knife, and slashed his throat. His little daughter, on beholding the blood gushing from her father's wound, ran screaming to the street for help, and Mr Thos. Henderson, a general merchant of Elmwood, who was attracted by the girl's cries, rushed to her aid, and found Mr Evers on his hands and knees in a pool of blood on the kitchen floor, with a butcher knife at his side. Surmising what had happened, he assisted the prostrate man to a chair, and had the village doctor hurriedly summoned to the scene. An examination of the wound revealed that his throat had been cut almost from ear to ear, and the wind-pipe severed. Lapsing in an unconscious state, the unfortunate man passed away a short time later.—Walkerton Herald-Times.

"Baby."

(The following verses appeared lately in the Mail & Empire. The author is Mrs Phoebe Hendry, Toronto, (nee Locheed) whose youth was spent on 2nd con., Glenelg, and she has still warm memories of people in Glenelg and Bentinck for their sympathy and kindness to "the little orphan in their midst". She says "Mr. John Graham, teacher in your town, was the very first one to encourage me to write. I wrote two very badly spelled and badly written autographs in his autograph album. Thus did his kindness live forever." Other creditable pieces by Mrs Hendry have been published, and we may find space for others.)

Darling little baby, Sweet as any rose, The light of heaven is in your eyes, And Cupid in your nose, Your little dimpled hands, And tiny little feet, So full of life and Merriment, Your loving friends to greet, Most precious in all the world, Between the earth and skies, Nothing that can be compared, Unto your laughing eyes, The selfish dame, the wicked man, The bondman and the free, The Christian and the infidel, They all bow down to thee, Of all the works of Providence, Most perfect and complete, Is the stirring beauty of your form, From crown of head to feet.

ABERDEEN

A large number from this line took in the box social at the Rocky school last week and all state that a good time was on. Miss Lamb had an especially interesting program prepared and everything went off splendidly. Messrs. Gordon, Jim and John McDonald of Proton, visited at Mr Hugh McDonald's this week and attended the sale of Wm Cooke.

We are sorry to hear that Mr Arch. McLean is seriously ill with pleurisy and we look for an improvement soon. Mr Roy and Miss Mary-Lamb and Messrs Willie and Elias and Miss Earl Edge, took in the dance at Mr Earl Vessie's last Friday and state they had a pleasant time. Miss Bella McKillop of Durham, is spending a few days with Mr and Mrs Duncan McLean.

ROCKY SAUGEEN

We have had very stormy weather the past week and an abundance of snow. Miss Mary McQuarrie spent the week end with her friend, Miss Sadie Lawrence.

Sorry to hear Mrs D. McArthur has been under the Dr's care and glad latest reports find her improving. The W. M. S. held their last meeting at the home of Mrs L. McLean, with a fair attendance. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs John Vessie on Wednesday, March 7.

Mr and Mrs. Murray Ritchie have been seriously ill the past week. Hope soon to hear of their recovery. Mr and Mrs L. McLean were recent guests with Mr and Mrs R. Lawson. His and Mrs. Earl Vessie entertained a number of friends last Friday night and all report a very enjoyable time.

Mr Jas. Lawrence was detained with the storm last week, not being able to ship till Saturday, and this Tuesday has shipped four carloads. The Box Social was a decided success, but owing to so many other entertainments on the same night, the crowd was not as large as would otherwise have been. Mr Jas. Lawrence made a capable auctioneer and these taking the play acquired themselves splendidly.

Mrs Robt. Marshall and Mr. and Mrs Albert Livingstone of Durham, spent Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mr and Mrs L. McLean.

EBENEZER

We are having some very cold stormy weather. The roads are almost impassable, this being the severest winter for some years. Mr. H. W. Hunt attended Council, meeting at Lamash Monday of last week.

Sorry to hear of Mrs. T. Slee, operator of Telephone Central, Allan Park, having the misfortune to break her ankle one evening last week. Hope to hear of her speedy recovery. Mr. G. H. Torry spent the week end in Hanover, visiting his sister, Mrs. Robt. Cripps.

Mr and Mrs. David Adlam and family spent Sunday with Muleck friends. Miss Rita Bailey of the Durham H. School spent the week end at her home here.

Not How Little for How Much But How Much for How Little

The Chiropractor is not a mere Thinker or Dreamer. He is a doer of things. By giving Chiropractic Vertebral Adjustments with the bare hands alone, he restores you to Health.

If you have been told that your case is serious and that your only chance of being restored to health is by undergoing a surgical operation, ascertain the cause of your sickness. You can do this by consulting the Chiropractor, who will locate the cause and adjust same.

You will then be getting Much for Little, whereas if you submit to a surgical operation, you will be getting Little for Much.

You will be minus some part of your God-given anatomy, the Effect will have been treated, but the Cause will still remain, and any relief obtained will be but temporary. The relief obtained from taking Chiropractic Vertebral Adjustments will, however, be permanent, for where there is no Cause, there can be no Effect, and Disease is an Effect.

FIFTY MILLIONS

This is the amount Finance Minister Fielding has lopped off the estimates as compared with last year, which is a satisfactory announcement. The savings are chiefly in the Department of Railways and in "Miscellaneous." If this could be kept up for a year or two, the burden of a debt could be tackled and reduced, though few now living will see it liquidated.

FORD Salesmen have been instructed to call upon every family in the Dominion. Everyone who wants to own a Ford this year must be given the chance to buy at the low figure, whether for immediate or future delivery. This is a duty the Ford organization owes to the public. For the tendency is toward increased prices. But if a Ford Salesman does not reach you at once so that you may buy a Ford at these low prices, we suggest that you protect yourself. Don't wait for the salesman. Phone! Make sure of getting your Ford at the $445 figure.
