Closing the Pool Rooms

By unanimous vote of the Town Council of Alliston, the pool room in that place which has been paying a license fee of $200 a year, will be closed at the end of next month. The Herald reports that one member of the Council said he had talked to a great many people regarding it and had not found any one who favored it continuing open. He had been told by boys who frequented the pool room that they would like to see it closed, as they are enticed into it and spend their money. Mayor Mitchell said: "Alliston was not the only place that was showing hostility to pool rooms. The town of Orangeville and the city of Peterborough were closing them up.

NORTH EGREMONT

It is our sad duty this week to record the death of Mr and Mrs. Jno. McKenzie's little baby boy, E. W. McKenzie, their only boy, around which so much love and affection centred, not only by the parents themselves, but by the entire community. Oh, the heart breaking sorrow to the parents of a loss of a child—so young, so innocent and so angelic looking in death. They have the heartfelt sympathy of the whole neighborhood.

The funeral was largely attended on Saturday last and conducted by Mr. Robt. Renwick, an efficient elder of the Presbyterian church, in the absence of Pastor Rev. W. J. Burnett, who was taken suddenly ill, requiring medical attendance. The remains were laid to rest in a beautiful white coffin in Amos cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Ramage journeyed to Harrison last week on a visit to Mr and Mrs. Alex Darroch, who recently lost their little daughter. Mrs. R. remained over to this week.

Rev. W. J. Burnett was so far recovered as to take the service efficiently on Sunday last.

Any one wishing to drop out of Tartan beef ring, or reducing their present share, please notify the Sec'y as soon as possible.

All parties interested in a musical education or having music taught in our public schools, should hear Miss Mae Skilling in a free lecture and demonstration at Holstein on Tuesday evening, April 17th. We had the pleasure some time ago of listening to her at Palmerston and was well worth while on that occasion.

Douglas Kendall, son of Rev. Geo. Kendall of Dundalk, will take charge of a mission field in Alberta this coming summer.

Boots, Tea and Whiskey

The Orillia Packet notes the discovery of an account for various provisions purchased in 1867—the year of Confederation. They included a pair of boots at 75c, a pound of tea at $1, and a half pound of tea at 45c.

That a pound of tea should cost more than a pair of boots seems rather strange to us at the present time, but it is doubtless explained by the difficulties of transportation during that period. Boots were a home product.

More than half a century earlier in the Gazette and Oracle of 1799, advertisements appear which quote the price of tea in Toronto at 19c per lb for Hyslop, 14c for Souchong and 8c for Bohea. Even if the New York shilling of sevenpence halfpenny was meant, these prices would range from $1.20 to $2.25 per lb.

But beverages were not all priced accordingly. Even in the Orillia account of 1867, there was itemized a half gallon of whiskey at 60c. It was sold as a matter of course along with other "groceries." Times have changed when the price of whiskey at a Government Dispensary is to-day 25c per quart.

In the "good old days" 75c would buy a pair of boots, three quarters of a pound of tea, or five cents of whiskey. No doubt it lay between the boots and the whiskey as to which gave the most "kick" for the money.

DEPT. OF AGRICULTURE

Egg Marketing

Farmers in the vicinity of Markdale have become intensely interested in an improved system of Egg Marketing. On several occasions the Grey Co. Branch, Dept. of Agriculture, have been requested for information on the subject. In compliance with this request, Mr. T. A. Benson, Egg Marketing expert, Poultry Branch Dominion Dept. of Agriculture, was brought to address the farmers on the subject Co-operative Egg Marketing on April 2nd. A representative audience greeted the speaker.

In his opening remarks he defined a Co-operative Association as an Association organized primarily for the purpose of marketing farm products along co-operative lines in the interest of the producing and consuming public, and without particular or any regard to profit, but in the expectation that through the standardization and stabilization of the products marketed, the eliminating of waste and speculation in so far as conditions of the market will permit, its stockholders might be assured of a fair return upon their labor and investment and the consumer assured a constant supply of said products of uniform and standard quality at a price reasonably commensurate with the cost of production.

The definition as given will never affect an individual adversely but will redound to the benefit of every person, be he producer or consumer. The fundamental principle of any co-operative Association is that of "Service."

Mr. Benson emphasized the following needs to assure success of any co-operative organization:—

1. A recognized necessity for improving marketing conditions and the establishment of a better service.

2. The possibility of controlling a sufficient volume of the products to be handled to justify engaging competent management and meeting necessary overhead charges.

3. A cast iron contract between individual members and the Association on binding each member to market all his marketable crop of the product, to be handled through the Association.

4. Experts, energetic management and strictly expert and accurate methods of accounting.

5. Loyalty on the part of all members in reference to all details effecting rules and regulations of the Association.

Briefly the organization is composed of local egg circles in each district. The management of these are left in the hands of a body of directors who were picked out of the various farmers selling their eggs through their own Association. These local organizations are combined in one great selling centre. This main centre employs the manager. Each local has its own representative in the selling Association.

The above is sufficient to show that help is being given to any farmer who feel that improvement could be made in marketing their eggs. Any farmer interested can get Mr. Benson's services free of charge by writing to the Dept. of Agriculture, Markdale.

In passing it might be stated that Oxford County has 25 circles organized. The members of these have been asked to be federated or combined under one selling agency at Woodstock. Mr. R. G. Green, Agricultural Representative, Oxford Co., is now having T. A. Benson to work out the details of the central organization.

Oxford Co. farmers must be delighted with the results by selling their poultry products through egg circles when they are asking for the federation of these circles. It is time Grey Co. farmers have taken the matter up. B. Columbia, Prince Edward Is. and New Brunswick are now all organized. Mr. Benson who was chiefly instrumental in getting those Provinces organized, is now in Ontario engaged in similar work. All the provinces now organized are delighted with the results. Ontario would be if they tried the work. Let Grey Co. follow Oxford's lead.

Golden, B.C.—That the provincial government will commence work on the Golden-Leanchoil road early in the spring, is announced by J. A. Buckham, M.L.A. A survey will be made as soon as possible and the work will be done by contract. The cost is estimated at $250,000. That portion of the road to be constructed by the Parks branch of the Dominion Government will also be got under way this year, it is stated.

The completion of this road will create a large amount of tourist traffic through Golden, and will also afford a loop whereby local cars may travel to Calgary and return in Alberta, and return over the newly completed Banff-Windermere road to Golden, passing some of the most magnificent mountain scenery on the continent.

London, England—Shareholders of the Canadian Pacific Railway here have been officially informed that a measure of relief has been granted them from the British income tax for the fiscal years 1919 and 1920 in respect of the company shares of the Canadian income tax. This is the first official word on the subject of Canadian Pacific shares. By the Finance Act of 1920, however, all British subjects who are resident in Canada were granted for 1920, in some cases for 1919, and in the future, the right of reclaiming the British income tax as though actually resident in Britain. This affected Canadians deriving income from which the British income tax had been deducted. It is estimated that the amount saved by Canadians so situated, if they did not neglect to file their claims under the Act, would be over $1,000,000.
