PRICEVILLE AND SOUTH LINE

The Passing Away of a Veteran

As was seen in last week's paper, the death has taken place of one of the oldest residents of the locality of Priceville, in the person of Sarah McLachlan, relict of the late Dugald McCormick, who passed away on Monday, 16th April, 1923, from old age in her 91st year.

Mrs. McCormick came to the Durham Road, Glenelg, with her father and mother's family in the latter part of 1849 when she was a girl of 15 or 16 years of age, consequently she experienced the hardships to be contended with in entering the woods of the Durham Road, which was then being guided chiefly by the "blazing" on the trees by the late surveyors.

Mrs. McCormick was born in the Isle of Mull, Scotland, in 1832. The family resided in Lochabar, Quebec, for some time, then moved to Kleinberg, Ontario, where the family spent a few years and from thence to the Durham Road, Glenelg. In May 1861 she was united in marriage to Mr. Dugald McCormick who predeceased her four years ago. They walked pleasantly hand in hand for 58 years till death made a separation. Mr. and Mrs. McCormick had no family but in her later years, she was tenderly cared for by her faithful nephew and niece, Mr and Mrs. Colin McLean, 31 Line.

Mrs. McCormick was a woman with a kind and cheerful manner, always ready to help those in need. She was a very consistent member of the Presbyterian church, where with her husband, her seat was never vacant till affected by the infirmities of old age. Pleasantly they walked up the aisles of the church to their seat at the corner and now like David and Jonathan, in life they walked pleasantly together and in death they were not divided.

The funeral on Wednesday, 18th April, was largely attended to the old cemetery, her late pastor, Rev. Mr. Matheson of Mono Mills, preaching the funeral obsequies, assisted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Jones, who kindly gave the privilege to her late pastor. For 20 years she faithfully listened to Mr. Matheson, Sabbath after Sabbath and naturally he knew of all her faithful duties as a devoted member of his church. The pall bearers were six of the elders. Thus ended the career of another of the old pioneers who are passing away one by one, till very few are to be found now who entered the woods of the surroundings, scores of years ago. Mr. and Mrs. McCormick were residents of Priceville for nearly thirty years.

IN MEMORIAM

The midnight stars are gleaming On a lone and silent grave Beneath sleeps one I love, But one I could not save. His weary hours, his days of pain, His troubled nights are past, His ever patient worn out frame Has found sweet rest at last. —Parents and Sisters

Grey Co. Dept. of Agriculture

Hog Ear Tags

For some time the Dept. of Agriculture, Markdale, have been hearing criticisms regarding the efficiency of Hog Ear Tags. Many claimed they are torn out of the ear by the hogs.

Accordingly we wrote to A. B. McDonald, Director Ontario Hog Graders, last week. His reply is as follows: "Regarding tags I do not see any other satisfactory method of marking hogs than by the use of these tags. There has been some complaints regarding these tags coming out of the ears in transit, but this, I believe, is due to the fact that they have not been properly inserted. Last week we made a test on the suitability of these tags and found that after tagging thirty five hogs securely, not one of them was out when the shipment arrived at the packing plant. I think it is sound policy to advise farmers to purchase this means of marking their hogs so that they can be identified when the grader is grading them at the point of market. When this is done the farmers can get a copy of the grading certificate which will show the individual grading of every marked hog."

It will thus be seen that the tags if properly placed are satisfactory. It pays to get them indeed.

Grey County Farmers Produce Select Hogs

That Grey County farmers can produce select Hogs, is shown by Mr. Harry Shaw, Markdale. He sold 9 Hogs on April 19th. They were graded as all Hogs are at the present time whether shipped to the Stock Yards or directly to the Abattoirs. Out of the nine, eight graded select for which he was paid the select price as he had the hogs marked.

The following were the prices received: For the 8 select which weighed 1550 pounds—$12.37 per 100 and for the one heavy 250 pounds—$10.25 was given. The net total received after paying 50c per 100 for expenses and $14.4 for insurance, government inspection and stamp tax was $206.71.

Grey County can produce select bacon hogs. Had Mr. Shaw not marked his hogs he would not have received the premium. Moreover because he is producing the property type hogs, he received $12.37 when the flat rate was $11.25.

Third Anniversary

Three years ago—April 27th—the office at Markdale was given to me. They have been strenuous years. Considerable has been done but not nearly what should have been accomplished—had the full measure of co-operation been accorded. I, however, offer thanks to all who have sought assistance. My only hope is that any help given has been fully satisfactory.

We are here to serve. Every farmer has not taken advantage of that service. We know not your difficulties if you do not take us into your confidence. Let us get together more in the future. You can help me. I will endeavor to give my best and trust I may never prove unworthy of any confidence reposed in me.

Farmers—Do you know

That Danish farmers import nearly all their hog feed from Canada and United States;

That Danish farmers produce 80 per cent of Select Bacon Hogs because of skill in breeding and feeding;

That Danish Bacon sold in England for 88—105 shillings whereas Canadian sold for 75—85 shillings per cwt. on March 17th;

That if Canadian farmers were able to sell their bacon for the same as the Danish farmers, they would be getting from $1.50 to $3.00 per hundred live weight more than present prices right now?

Then why not produce select Bacon Hogs to capture the British market and secure the extra prices?

The whole matter is in your hands. Do you want better prices? If you do, supply the which the market demands. Have your hogs graded. It pays.

Reform Convention

The nominations for the Dominion House was a proceeding soon settled by the re-nomination of H. H. Miller with a unanimous voice and great applause. There was a general and strong feeling that Dr. Mearns should be the candidate for the local but that gentleman, while acknowledging and recognizing the depth of the feeling, had for private reasons and very regretfully, to decline the nomination. A number of other candidates were then nominated, all making brief speeches and withdrawing gracefully leaving the field to Mr. Neil McCannell.

Glenelg Minutes of Council: Weir—McMillan: That this council agree to pay at the rate of 35c per hour for teams to work on the grader during the season of 1908. Carried.

Priceville Cor.: On this Monday morning, 20th April, there is about 3 inches of snow and has the appearance of having more before it is done. The C. P. R. Company is busy during the past week, ballasting the road from here to Durham. The Company has bought ten acres from Mr. John McArthur in the Glen for travelling purposes, which they will apply east and west on the road.

25 YEARS AGO

From Review file of April 21st, 1898

Last week the old Sandy Hunter farm which was sold to Wilcoxon, and subsequently to Mr. T. Lauder, has again changed hands. The purchaser is Mr. Con. Knapp, our enterprising hotel keeper and the purchase price is $4,500.

Mr. Jas. Castell, after nearly four years in Durham, and about four years in the employ of Ramsay and Morlock, Durham and Chesley, leaves this week for Brandon. A send off was tendered him in the Presbyterian Church at which Mr. Allan was made chairman and appreciative remarks to the departing member were given by Rev. Mr. Jansen, Dr. Gun and C. Ramage.

Mr. A. W. H. Lauder crawled down to the office on Monday looking rather ill after 3 or 4 day's illness with a high fever. His convalescence will, we hope, continue.

C. McArthur, Upper Town, is paying 9c per dozen for eggs and the highest price for butter.

An effort is being made to bring about 6 o'clock closing for the summer months, but is not being supported very heartily.

Bunston—Manary—At the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. J. M. Millar, on the 6th inst., Mr. Thos. Bunston, to Minnie, daughter of John Manary, all of Egremont.

The returns to the Education Department, gives the population of the surrounding towns and townships as follows:

North East Normanby Cor.: Our boys are succeeding out west. Tom Gad dhas secured a good position in the Creamery. Dave Marshall has made a 7 mos. contract at a good figure and Joe Moore and John Morice have each got remunerative employment. Now watch how the P. Office revenue will increase!
