Election Notes.

The election campaign is fairly open throughout the Province, and three parties putting candidates into the field, in most places each regardless of what the others are doing.

from the government party.

There is a split in the Tory ranks in St. Catharines. Two candidates of that stripe, are each blaming the other for lukewarmness towards Hydro.

The New Fielding Budget

The great event of the Session—the bringing in of the Budget—was staged last Friday and as expected, has had its admirers and detractors.

marine requirements public debt increased in year by $49,293,086.

Combines, Trusts and Mergers in Canada, taking advantage of the tariff to raise the price of life's necessities, are to be investigated with a view to putting an end to their exploitation of consumers.

Hard on Toronto

The Liberals of Temiskaming riding held a meeting recently at which Mr. Angus McKelvey figured prominently. He and a few others spoke against bringing out a man, as a Druryite would represent the district in the next house better than a supporter of "that man Ferguson."

THE ROLL CALL

MRS ROBT TRAFFORD

There passed away on Saturday last, May 12th, at her home in Lower Town, Mrs Robert Trafford, aged 62 years. Deceased was formerly Miss Martha Hopkins, daughter of Mr and Mrs Charles Hopkins, and was born at Hutton Hill. Mrs Trafford had been a sufferer for many months with pneumonia, and an outcome of the flu and pneumonia.

After her marriage she resided on a farm about two and a half miles north of Allan Park. Here she lived for many years and about seven years ago came to town to reside. She was always an active woman and her cheery manner and disposition made for her many friends.

She leaves to mourn her loss her sorrowing husband and six children, viz: Mrs Fred Staples (Mary) Edis Hill; Mrs Alfred Noble, (Margaret) Bentick; Mrs Fleming, (Christine) Hanover; Mrs Carl Fry, (Eva) Durham; Joseph on the home farm, Bentick and Prosper, also in Bentick. William, another son, was suddenly killed by lightning some years ago. Also two sisters and two brothers will mourn her loss, viz: Mrs Caudie, (Eliza) Lakelet; Mrs R. B. Hopkins, (Jennie) Bentick; Richard and James of Swan Lake, Man.

Mrs Trafford was buried Monday in Durham cemetery, Rev. C. G. Coe having charge of the services at home and grave. Many old neighbors and friends from Allan Park, were present to pay the last respect to the dead and the pall bearers were relatives and old friends: Thos. and Spencer Hopkins, nephews; Richard Hopkins, brother-in-law; Samuel Vickers, George Brown and Wm Adlam.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful, the family contributing a large pillow and also a wreath from the Trafford family.

Mrs John Patterson, Harriston, a niece; Mr. D. Caudie, Lakelet and George Trafford, Kitchener, were visitors from a distance for the funeral.

The Review extends to the family and sorrowing husband, its sympathy in their severe loss.
