HOLSTEIN LEADER

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Helen Seatter, Toronto, was a holiday visitor with Mr and Mrs Garesin Mr. and Mrs. Matt. Barber, Mr. and Mrs. Will Allan and Mr and Mrs. Robt. Gadd of Holstein, attended the funeral last Wednesday of Miss Charlotte Ellen Rudolph of Walkerton, an old family friend.

Holstein's first football game of the season comes next Tuesday night, June 12th, when the strong Midway eleven will be here. It should be a great game. It starts at 6 p. m. on new grounds east of the Park. Don't miss it.

Will Preach in Saskatchewan Douglas Kendall, son of Rev. Geo. Kendall of Dundalk, has finished his first year in Theology in Knox College, Toronto, and was home for a few days previous to leaving for Denholm, Sask., where he enters as a student missionary on practical church work for the summer months.

Rev. Mr Little in Holstein

Large congregations turned out on Sunday last to hear a former pastor, Rev. John Little of Rockwood. His presence was secured for the re-opening of the Presbyterian church after a chaste interior decoration. Beautiful floral offerings were banked in front of the pulpit, and large congregations filled the pews, to overflowing in the morning.

The evening discourse from Matt. 4: 4 "Man shall not live by bread alone." He drew a picture of the early life of Christ, who uttered these words, and who no doubt knew, physically, the need of bread. Thousands to-day, he said, were trying to live on bread alone and not as the context said "but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." Just as artists, painters, etc., can express themselves without words, so God can speak to us in nature and revelation, and this pre-thought led up to his topic "Obedience to God's command" which he exemplified by many and apt illustrations, clinching his facts and counsel by pointing to the fine example of the obedience of Jesus.

Mr. Little is still the earnest gospel preacher and with some feature of that gospel as his theme, shows all his old time vigor. Many old friends that day enjoyed his cordial hand shake as well as his pulpit exposition.

SOUTH BEND

Rev. Winfield Hunt and family are visiting his relatives here and calling on old friends.

Mr. Alvin Rawn and a couple of friends, Waterloo, spent Sunday at his home here.

Mr and Mrs Gordon Legge and two children, Kitchener, spent the week end with her mother, Mrs Dowling and other friends.

Mr Murray McKenzie, also of Kitchener, motored by and spent Sunday at his home here.

The W. M. S. of Holstein are holding their meeting this week at the home of Mrs George Hunt.

Quite a number from the Bend attended the re-opening services in the Presbyterian Church, Holstein last Sunday and enjoyed the privilege of listening to Rev. J. Little again. The church, when finished, will present a very fine appearance.

Seeding is over, everything growing fine. Some have potatoes in and are getting their corn and root ground ready.

YEOVIL

The majority of our homes were represented last Sunday at the re-opening services of Holstein Presbyterian church, the people being glad to once more see and hear the Rev. J. Little. Miss Hood, last year's school teacher in S. S. No. 10, was present, being a guest at the Personage and contributed a solo in the evening. She teaches in Listowel this year.

Mesdames Alles, Grant, Swanton and Misses B. McArthur and J. Calder attended the W. M. S. Presbyterian in Drayton last Thursday and spent a pleasant and profitable time.

N. Calder, District Supervisor and Mesdames Rogers, Philip, Henderson, and Messrs H. Lamont and J. A. Ferguson, delegates from our Club, attended the U. F. O. Convention in Durham last Wednesday and report a very enthusiastic meeting.

Mr and Mrs F. Watson are holiday guests of her parents, Mr and Mrs. W. H. Rogers.

Miss Anna Rice of Oshawa came home last week for her holidays.

Mr and Mrs Mutch recently visited their daughters, Mesdames Crispin and Withrow in Normanby.

Mrs. Brown of Rouleau, Sask., who was attending her father's funeral, visited her aunt, Mrs T. Weir and her uncle, F. Hopkins last week.

Miss L. Bain spent the holidays at her parental home near Pastry.

Miss J. Clark visited her mother and sisters in O. Sound for the holidays.

Miss F. Hattie was the week end guest of her sister Mrs Arthur Eccle. We are glad that the latter's little daughter is recovering from an attack of bronchitis.

Pretty Holstein Wedding

A pretty church wedding was solemnized in Holstein Presbyterian Church on Tuesday, 5th June, when Pearl Clara, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Drumm was united in holy wedlock's bonds to Norman McLaughlin, son of Mr and Mrs. Jaa. McLaughlin of Palmerston. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. S. Scott, pastor.

The bride, on the arm of her father entered the church, looking raptantly beautiful in a gown of white kitten's ear crepe, trimmed with Spanish lace and pearl ornaments with which she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lily of the valley. Her bridal veil was caught in by a wreath of orange blossoms forming a cap and her train was carried by Miss Irene Ellis.

The bride had as her bridesmaid, her sister, Miss Irene and she chose for this occasion a gown of peach canton crepe, trimmed with robin's egg blue with hat to match and carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses.

The groomsmen was supported by Mr. G. M. Bely, Mt. Forest, Ont.

Miss Maimie Pettigrew of Toronto, of former Holstein girl, sang "All Joy be Thine" while the register was being signed while Miss Gertrude Pettigrew rendered the wedding march and also played softly through the ceremony.

The soloist was prettily attired in peach crepe de chene with hat to match, while the organist wore French crepe, trimmed with Spanish lace and hat to match.

The happy couple left on the 3.36 train for Toronto and will tour the States to California and expect to be absent about a month. For her traveling dress the bride wore a suit of navy blue tulle and with this wore a Russian fox fur, the gift of the groom. Her hat was one of burnt orange shade covered with a "King Tut" design in crepe.

The ushers at the church were two uncles of the bride, Messrs Emerson Ruppel and Howard Drumm, Waterloo. The church was finely decorated for the occasion with ferns, apple blossoms and lilacs.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held on the lawn at the home of the bride's parents and about fifty guests were present to wish the bride and bridegroom much happiness in life. The tables were decorated with narcissus and lilacs, the bride's table holding the central place of honor, while smaller tables were arranged around it.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Drumm wore a gown of mauve French crepe with hat to match.

There were many beautiful bridal gifts on display, among them being a silver basket and candle sticks, tea pot stand, hot sugar dish, cake and cheese plate two salad dishes, linen table cloth and napkins to match, bed spread, clock, table silver, picture, set glass, mahogany chesterfield table and cheques aggregating to a substantial amount.

The groom's gift to the groomsmen as a pair of white gold cuff links, to the bridesmaid a white gold brooch, set with a diamond, while to the soloist and organist, he gave handkerchief brackets.

Among those present were guests from Detroit, Orillia, Kincardine, Le-towel, Guelph, Brantford, Waterloo, and Toronto.

The Review wishes to add its quota of good wishes to the young couple.

The U. F. O. Convention Crowded out last Week.

As we told last week, Mr. G. M. Leeson is again the candidate of the U. F. O. Association. (We had nearly said "Party") but Riding Director "Tom" made a very good speech, declaring that indifference was the main obstacle to farmers' progress, and it seemed to be proved when our two hands were held up in answer to the question, "How many of you have written to Mr Leeson, either to thank him or criticize him." He (innocent) respected Dr. Jamieson but his leader, Ferguson—never. Wellington Hay's business, he alleged, was to pay Mr Leeson's expenses, seeing there was no party funds to draw from, and the handful of bills in the hands of the collectors seemed to indicate the appeal was successful.

Mr. W. Amos, Provincial President, opened with congratulations to Mr. Leeson in being the unanimous choice. Farmers hitherto, he said, had not attended to public business and the old parties were quite willing they should keep this attitude of indifference. The practice of the parties in the past had been to arouse excitement at election time, get the political pulse up to 100 deg. instead of normal 98 and just as a patient with high bodily temperature is apt to run a fever when he gets the fever up, "Approach every election in a normal intelligent way. Go into this campaign without flag waving or excitement," was his advice.

He scored the daily press for not giving unbiased information and alleged there was a motive behind to arouse antagonism, to drive in a poisonous wedge to separate us. The Globe, he said, for two years, has been going on thus, and "it will take a long time before it re-establishes the respect once held for it."

The old line parties saw it was a mistake to put leaders like Dewar in office, so "they (the Liberals) elected the dagger, mill, half a woman, Hay, to try to turn us over, but he will never succeed. Enough came out in the House that steps were taken to woo the U. F. O. to the Liberal side, but no union was possible with either party," at which declaration there was great applause.

He was particularly hard on Hay, for never raising his voice in criticism in the House or elsewhere, until he saw his courtship failing. Four years without criticism! He had severe criticism for G. Howard Ferguson, on four occasions. Judges of patriotism, but his mistakes or worse, led the courts to decide that a million and a half of dollars came back to the Province, for his shady timber deal.

"The farmer has perforce to be a business man" said Mr Amos, in answer to Hay's charge that this government is not a business government. He closed by predicting amid applause that there was going to be many others elected to stand beside Mr Leeson.

Mr. Leeson said he came before them with diffidence seeing so many kind things had been said of him. In the future as in the past, he said, neither nationality, religion or any other interest would receive special favor from him. He hoped for a sane campaign and he was not going to throw slurs on anybody.

He went into Provincial finances, holding that there was really a surplus of $1,000,000. All monies must be voted and he was proud to say they never had a division on finances proud also of such measures as Motter's Allowances, one of the most humane acts ever passed.

He had warm praise for Mr Drury, fair, frank and able, head and shoulders above any man in the political limelight, and able in debate to meet the best of his opponents and he made the important declaration that "no Legislation they had passed had adversely affected the poor man." The Succession Duties "doesn't hurt anybody here." He defended Corporation Tax, Race Track gambling and similar legislation, the only man complaining was the gambler.

All the debt increase since 1913 was an investment and will look after itself. Gravel pits, road machinery, etc, are now provided, so in future these costs would decrease. They had employed fewer lawyers and spent less money on litigation than their predecessors had done. He defended the Commissions as having done valuable work and instanced the Gregory Commission on Hydro enterprises, maintaining that "if Drury had not outstooed against Hydro agitation, it would have cost the Province $200,000,000." The Chippewa Canal was begun by their opponents and ten million paid on it before the Farmers' government was elected. In the Shevlin-Clark deal Ferguson said he was above the law, yet there had been repayments secured by the Farmers' government of a million and a half of dollars and there was more of the same kind, besides dues on pulpwood per cord, are now increased 100 per cent. On pine timber dues have been increased from $7 to $17.60 per 1000 feet. This government also at a cost of a million dollars, brought out the soldiers from the district where they had been stalled by the Conservative government and neglected.

He had much to say on the Good Roads policy of the Government. For the first time townships and counties got money from a government and he impressed the point that this money was all gained without a cent of taxation. Then the expenses of the 1912 elections, Returning officers, etc, were not paid by the Conservative party, but left for the new Government. "This year we intend to pay our own bills," a statement received with applause.

The foregoing is not all that Mr. Leeson touched upon, but it is enough to show that he has a good grip on public questions and enabled him, as he said, to promise better service, built on his experience.

Mr. Harry Shaw, Artemesia, followed in a vigorous, practical speech. He has an amount of platform confidence and a good command of language. He had compliments to the many ladies present, he had worked to get them and believed they would be more and more a force in the uplift of the country. No one can say a word against Dr. Jamieson, but politically his name is "Independent Liberal Conservative," the "Independent" tucked to enable him to shun Howard Ferguson and such like men.

He had praise for the Rural Credits System (the 14 savings banks) and the removal of the embargo on Canadian cattle. On this latter question he said all governments had done nothing till a farmers' government sent a man like Manning, Deberry. Mr. Shaw made the serious charge that members of both the old parties had cabled to Britain, their motive being to prevent the removal of the embargo, so that the U. F. O. would not get credit.

As for the O. T. A. he declared that Roney had done more for the uplift of Ontario amidst opposition, ridicule and scorn than any other man. Moral uplift, he declared, began on the sidelines and concessions.

After the singing of the National Anthem, the meeting adjourned to the great Drury gathering on June 13.

The full flavor of the fruit Now you can make jam or jelly so easily that you will put up all your favorite fruits throughout the season. By using CERTO (Sure-Jell) Pat. Off. you reach the "jell" point with only one minute's boiling, thus retaining the full flavor of your fruit. Certo is pectin—the natural jellifying substance of fruits. Your jams or jellies will keep perfectly. Complete Booklet of Recipes with every bottle. If your grocer does not have Certo send his name and 40c and we will send you a bottle.

Mother Nature's own jam and jelly maker How to Make Delicious Strawberry Jam Select small or medium-sized, fully ripe berries. After hulling, weigh out 2 lbs. berries. Measure 7 level cups (3 lbs.) sugar into small quart jar. Spread about one-quarter of the berries on their sides in single layer on a platter and gently press each berry to a thickness of 1/4 inch with bottom of Certo bottle. (This leaves skins nearly intact, but ruptures fruit inside and makes it hollow, allowing boiling sugar to saturate berries to large extent. Repeat this operation with all the berries, placing layers of pressed berries and sugar alternately in kettle, putting balance of sugar on top, then add juice of one lemon, or preferably 1 teaspoon of powdered tartaric or citric acid. This addition promotes a quicker set, thus keeping the fruit evenly distributed in the jam. Let stand over night, or at least 5 hours, so that part of the sugar will be dissolved and mixture can be stirred and cooked without crushing fruit. Use hottest fire and stir constantly before and while boiling. Boil hard for three minutes, remove from fire and stir in 1/2 bottle (scant 1/2 cup) Certo. From time jam is 5 minutes, by the clock, before pouring into jars. In the meantime, pour occasionally to cool slightly, then pour quickly. If in open glasses seal at once, and invert 10 minutes to sterilize the tops. For crushed Strawberry Jam see Certo recipe booklet.
