Hall Crowded at Nomination Instantly Killed

It is an old story now. Everyone knows that at the close of the two silent hours last Thursday, Returning Officer Murray had before him two candidates, Mr. G. M. Leeson and Dr. Jamieson. Mr. Murray was made chairman, and Mr. Leeson, as late member, was asked to speak first, each was to have an hour, and Mr. Leeson 15 minutes to reply.

Mr. Leeson was glad to know he was being opposed by a gentleman, and then entered upon a review of his work. Four years ago things were found in bad condition, and the farmers' party had to tackle it. He claimed the debt increase was not really a debt, much of it was repayable. The Hydro enters which they had to continue at great expense. The revenue had increased, but not by taxation. He justified the race track tax and the tax upon winners, and gave the figures it amounted to. He repeated the well known story of the million and a half returned from Ferguson's timber sales. Besides the prices now being received were greater than formerly. The cost of the Commission to find out the funds did not amount to 10 per cent of the money recovered. "Who would not spend 10c to get back 50c?"

He dealt with the road grants; gave illustrations of the usefulness of Commissions (by which the Govt. did not delegate its power); showed illustrations of their four years less than the four previous years; lauded Doherty on the embargo removal. "Your cattle to-day are worth from four to eight dollars more because of it."

They had got cheaper markers for cars he averred; he had been there four years and never saw the famous $100 coal scuttles, which false gory opponents keep repeating. "If Howard Ferguson had not taken the furniture and left his check, there would have been no need of re-furnishing."

Mr. Leeson may be pardoned for his boast of having missed only five days in four sessions, while Matthew M. P. P., of timber scandal fame, had attended twelve days in two years.

The meeting got excited over the fees paid election officers, and Mr. Leeson's statement should satisfy every one. "The figures now are the same as we found them."

Dr. Jamieson reciprocated the kind words of his opponent. He had no objection to clubs, the old Govt. had made grants to help clubs, community halls, etc.

He insisted we were paying taxes, in an indirect way and didn't know it. Accused the Govt. of keeping books open longer than they should to show a surplus, and said "they are going to make a shortage that will prevent us from showing a surplus."

He condemned the expense of the Biggs' road in his own riding, and said it was folly to say as Mr. Leeson did that auto licenses would cover the cost of roads. He denounced the claim that Doherty aided in the removal of the embargo. "This Province has nothing to do with it." He also had a diling at rural credits, claiming they would have got markers for 11½c instead of 22c. Condemned commissions, sometimes men go on junketing tours in Michigan, New York, etc.

He asserted there was manoeuvring by opponents to cast odium on Howard Ferguson, and claimed it was hard to avoid mistakes in great timber areas. He made the charge that the government withheld information that would show they paid twice as much lumber as they paid for logs.

The Dr. indulged in the story of differences between Drury and Morrison. Both the old parties had helped farmers, and he read a lot of things the old parties did. He pointed out a condemned increase of govt. employes, proposed when elected to ask that car license fees should be regulated by available weather. He closed by promising to do as he did before. No man asking a favor from him was ever asked if he had voted for Jamieson.

Mr. Leeson in reply said the Backus deal was only a quarter of the area sold or attempted to be sold by the former govt., and they never mentioned the development work Backus had to do. Bringing up the Backus deal was simply a smoke screen to hide their own rascality. So far from being wrong, the Backus affair was one of the best timber deals ever negotiated in the Province.

Mr. Leeson read an article from the Financial Post in praise of Drury and his administration, stating that praise from such a source was worth something.

Both speakers got applause, but it was plain there was a preponderance of Leeson friends in the audience.

The spouting will soon be over, men have their minds made up, and if there are any that haven't, we would certainly advise them to cast their ballot for Leeson, who has a D. C. Town's Jewelry Store will receive prompt attention.

Instantly Killed at Varney Crossing

Harry Semple Mangled to Death when Freight Train crashes into Auto

Last Friday morning about 6.45 a.m., one of the worst level crossing accidents ever in this district occurred at Varney, when Harry Semple, engineer on the steam shovel on the Good Roads, was crushed to death and his companion in the car, Chas. Moore, his fireman, escaped with bruises and a shaking up.

They had just left their boarding house, Kellar's in Varney, to proceed north to work in their car, and it is thought they did not notice the north-bound freight train till it was upon them. It was hauling 22 empty cars to the Durham Stone & Sand plant (John E. Russell Co.) and was travelling at about 20 miles per hour. Their auto had partially cleared the track when it was struck by the engine, and Semple, who had stood up, probably to jump, was jolted onto the track and torn to pieces beneath the wheels. The car was carried a few feet with Moore, the driver, then pitched into ditch.

A coroner's jury was empanelled by Constable Falconer, who viewed the scene of the accident, and adjourned to meet Friday, June 22nd, at 2 o'clock, when an inquest will be held.

The men were employed by the Britannia Construction Co., of Toronto who have the contract for grading and widening the Garraway south of Durham, a Provincial highway. Semple's remains were gathered up, and forwarded to Toronto for burial, where his wife and two children reside. He was about forty years of age.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Hooper and son Isaac of Eremont, took in the Dominion picnic last week and spent the evening with Mr. and Mrs. A. Middleton.

Miss Annie Macdonald of the Public School staff, motored home for over Sunday to see her father, who is recovering after an operation.

Misses Mary and Alice Edge, High School teachers of St. Thomas and St. Catharines, are home for the vacation.

Mr. John McLachlan of Pricewell was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Burgess last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Burgess, Mrs. A. McKinnon, Mrs. Tucker and Mrs. N. McCannell were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Neil McMillan, Proton, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Henderson and children, with her mother and sisters, attended the funeral of Mr. C. Stephen of Walkerton on Sunday.

Those from this vicinity taking in the Press trip to Halifax and the Maritime Provinces this week are Mr. W. Irwin, Mrs. Frank Irwin, and Mrs. Alex. Kearney, of the Chronicle, Miss Alice Ramage, of the Review, Mr. A. W. Wright and two daughters of the Mt. Forest Confd. Rep., Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mitchell of the Post, Hanover.

Death of John Harvey

A quiet and well-known citizen of Durham passed away Saturday morning in the person of John Harvey, after four years illness from pernicious anaemia, the last two of which he was unable to work. He gradually grew weaker, and slept away, faithfully tended by his wife.

He was born in Gleneig fifty years ago next August and worked in Toronto in young manhood, where he was married 27 years ago to Maggie Erwin, who survives him. Several years after, they removed to Durham on Queen St. south, and here they have since resided. There are no children living.

Four sisters and two brothers survive: Tillie, and Alice of New York, Kate (Mrs. Bowman) and Mary (Mrs. Roy Wilson) of Toronto, Nat. of Burlington, formerly of Durham, and Wm. in Toronto. The latter and other relatives from Toronto were present at the funeral on Monday, conducted by his pastor, Rev. E. Cameron. Interment took place in Durham Cemetery.

Re Election Fees Paid

The following letter from Clerk Chittick, Bentock, to Mr. And. Derby Hanover, explains itself:

Dear Sir:

The fees paid to Deputy Returning Officers appears to be in the minds of a number of voters and that no one seems to know what was paid at the last election. I have looked up the matter and we were paid: D. R. O's $9; Poll Clerks $6; Constable $4 Use of hall $5. At that election two clerks were on hand on account of the vote taken on the temperance question and they were paid each $6 making a total of $30 to each poll. The polling time was 8 hours where now it is 10 hours. When you figure the question by hours, the pay is lower than four years ago.

Yours truly, Herb. Chittick
