HOLSTEIN LEADER

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Holstein won their first protest but the 2nd protest of the game here was thrown out. Holstein play again in Mildmay, Friday, July 20, 1923, when Sammy Law, Galt, will referee. Turn out and support the boys.

Special mention of Whyte's individual rushes must be made when in his whirlwind rushes he would elude five and six players in a row.

Over 5000 Celebrated the 12th in Holstein

13 Lodges with 500 Orangemen and True Blues in the Walk

Thursday, July 12th, was Holstein's biggest day in history. In the line of celebrations, it is quite a number of years since an "Orange" walk was previously staged in this busy little village. At the head of the parade was a loyal bunch of workers in the local lodge left no stone unturned to make the day the complete success it was.

EGREMENT COUNCIL

Council met July 9th, members all present, minutes adopted. The Clerk reported that the parties in the church basements. The Presbyterians were crowded for both meals and realized $231. The Methodists and the hotel were also liberally patronized.

Great credit is due the managing Committee and the Director of Ceremonies for the way the whole program of the day was carried out. The best of order prevailed and not a single accident occurred to mar the day's proceedings. Men were appointed to direct the visitors, where to receive accommodation and all homes were open to receive. We might state that it is 28 years since a similar event took place in the village and it is now hinted that in future several such events will likely take place here in the same period of time.

Though teaching in Caledonia for the past 13 years, he owns a farm near Heslip in New Ontario, where they lost 13 head of cattle, 8 pigs, besides poultry and valuables in the house. DON'T BE A LAMB

Young men of Orangeville, because of persistent kidding on the part of a number of married ladies, have decided to abandon the practice of waiting outside the churches of this town on Sabbath evenings to meet their lady loves and escort them to their homes. The ladies who have interested themselves in causing the young men to arrive at such a conclusion, have also paid no little attention to the young ladies, urging them not to keep company with the young men who would not accompany them to divine worship.

The following little skit did much to bring an end to the practice:

Mary had a little lamb:
It followed her to church,
And then he stood around the door
Like an owl upon a perch.
"Why don't the little lamb come in?"
The watchful people cried.
"To wait for her outside."
So you each gentle maiden
May one and all still find
Some muton-head outside the door,
If you're looking for that kind.
