NORTH EGREMONT

After many years of frailty, there passed away Mrs. Jno. Laughton, on Monday, July 30th. The funeral was held on 1st Aug. Rev. W. J. Burnett conducting the services at the house and in the church and made reference to the struggles of the early pioneers, as she was, to her kindliness of spirit and goodness of soul. Born in the Co. Tyrone, Ireland, 92 years ago her husband predeceased her some 30 years. To them were born one son James still on the homestead. Undertaker W. G. Watson of Priceville was in charge of the funeral and had his new motor hearse lately added to his establishment out for the first time. The pall bearers were N. A. McQueen, W. J. and Jas. Wilson, W. Leith, Jas. Geddes and J. McCannel. Mrs. Spence, a niece from Thirord, was in attendance during her illness and added much help and comfort. The neighbors were also very kind and attentive to the last.

There gathered at Amos Church on Wednesday, the 1st of Aug., some 45 men and women to a bee, in fixing up the cemetery, levelling mounds, repairing fences, straightening up tomb stones and otherwise improving the appearance of God's acre. The lunch at the close, generously provided by the ladies, was heartily appreciated.

Word was sent around last Friday that the Durham Band would be at the Lake that evening and notwithstanding the short notice, a goodly number turned out and needless to say enjoyed the fine concert given by the "Boys" whom we are glad to note are quite proficient in the heavenly art. Though eight minutes or more distant from Durham, yet we take a decided interest in anything pertaining thereto, and glad to note the improvement being made, not only in the Band's playing but in the fact of having a band at all. We were glad to be assured by the genial Peter Gagnon, manager of the Furniture Co., whose acquaintance we renewed on this occasion, that every encouragement would be given to have occasions of this nature repeated. The Band has been largely benefitted by his Company, we are told by some other source.

Among men of note (as we mean promissory notes, as to distinguish them from the band who are all men of notes) were Bankers Kelly and Rowland of town, Moore McFadden, J. H. Harding, Rev. W. H. Smith and many others. We were glad to meet the good old reliable, stand-by, Joe Brown, who has played as long as we can remember. He was the only bass present, through some unavoidable happening. The Band showed up well in attack, in rhythm, time, tone and harmony and altogether a rare finesse was shown in their selections.

We were no doubt a little under-monstrous in our applause, perhaps, but rest assured, though we were much appreciated, though we all stood around with our hands in our pockets holding on (perish the thought) to our money, as one of the bankers suggested, and saying "We must all be Scotch as they kept the Scotch and everything else they could lay their hands on."

Lunch was served by the good people at the Lake, after which we had more music, finishing up with the National Anthem. Dr. Jamieson thanked the Band for their presence and generosity of music and expressed the hope of having them again, and desired on the request of several that Mr. Burns sing something with a chorus to it, so they could join in. "Rule Britannia" was given.

The play "Home Acres" given at Drumore Tuesday evening, Aug. 7th, was a fine success, each one doing and acting their part with life like and natural expression. A very fine moral was contained in the play as well as mirth and humor by the "fresh air kid." They were much appreciated.

Rev. Mr. Burns opened the meeting by explaining the reasons for the entertainment and thanked the audience for their attendance and called upon Rev. Mr. Kendall, who gave a synopsis of the play. Between acts solos were sung by Mrs. Jean Lister, Miss Nellie Bunston and W. Ramajon, the audience joining in the chorus of the Red, White and Blue with the latter. A reading by Mrs. Hugh Renwick, the winner of the prize given at Ottawa for elocution, was highly appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Taylor and family journeyed to Wasaga Beach on Thursday last. Mr. Taylor returned on Sunday, Miss Bessie Drimmie going up that day to spend the remainder of the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Borthwick and sister of Guelph, motored up on Monday and are visiting his aunts and cousins near Drumore, the Williams and Reid families.

Standard Bank of Canada

Directors Announce Plan of Drawing on Large Reserve to Provide for Changes.—Dividend Policy.

The Board of Directors of The Standard Bank of Canada, in a notice going forward to shareholders, announce a plan for a readjustment of the assets of the Bank. The advisability of carrying out the plan has been suggested and agricultural depression, which has so severely affected the operations and standing of some of the customers of the Bank.

In order to effectively meet the situation, the Directors recommend drawing on the large Reserves of the Bank for an amount of $1,250,000 and suggest further the creation of a contingent fund of $1,000,000 and a paid-up capital of $4,000,000. The Bank will then have a Reserve of $2,250,000, a contingent fund of $1,000,000 and a paid-up Capital of $4,000,000.

As regards the dividend policy the Board suggests that future distributions should be on the more conservative basis of 12 per cent in place of the present 14 p.c. and that any additional distribution should take the form of bonuses from time to time.

In banking circles this action on the part of the bank, which places it in an absolutely sound position, is much commended and considered that it will do much to inspire confidence in our Canadian Banking System.
