thought it a strange farewell sermon. The preacher pointed out how some of the rich depended on their wealth to bring them future happiness while those in poor circumstances were resting on the promises that the Lord would provide for them. The preacher finished his discourse by repeating the text coming down with full power on the desk before him.

We expect a farewell sermon from our good and faithful minister, Rev. C. S. Jones of the Presbyterian Ch., Priceville, in the near future. To his congregation and all classes of people his text will be the very opposite, for all were endeared to him by his manner of delivery and causing regret at his leaving after four years of faithful service.

Our school re-opens Tuesday with Miss Cook in charge.

Mr. Jim Hooper was renewing old acquaintances in our burg Sunday.

Well, Mr. Editor, as we promised to write to several of our friends and neighbors while on our trip through the West, and being very busy and continually on the move, we decided to do so through the Review.

We left Bolton on the 15th Aug. about 5 in the evening, with 22 cars of passengers, there being 5 or 6 trains of excursionists. The trip was slow as one train has to wait on another to save collisions or accidents.

Nevertheless we had a pleasant trip and the C. P. R. deserves credit for the way they handled and furnished accommodation for so many, especially the coaches furnished for ladies and children and escorts. Our car was not at all crowded and was a well mixed crowd and from between Owen Sound and Shelburne. So we became a very sociable party and enjoyed every moment.

We arrived in Winnipeg Saturday morning early spent the day in the city from where everyone took their own way. We left there at 11 o'clock that evening again, securing an excellent coach and heading for Carbo, a small place about 80 miles from Calgary, but found out on our way we could not make connections direct, as trains run only on certain days on that branch. We dropped off at Gleichen, which is 2,200 miles west from Toronto. We called by phone Mr. George Campbell, an old friend from Swinton Park and he was soon there with his car and gave us a most hearty welcome, also his wife, formerly Miss Gertie Ray, well known in Proton and Egremont.

Reginald Campbell is also here and Mrs. Campbell's brother, Leo Ray, so that we had to answer many questions. George is manager of a 14 section ranch and is very busy. Although doing no actual work there is a great responsibility. There are at present 22 men here, the harvest is scarcely ready but some cutting is being done. I counted 42 horses at work yesterday, 4 binders with 4 horse teams, 16 horses in a 1000 acre sun-drier follow others choring around fixing fences, drawing supplies and so on. There are about 500 cattle and a number of horses in the pasture with the land all fenced and a general appearance of thrift. John, Herbert and George Campbell, all Swinton Park boys, each have an interest in the ranch and along with two others are the company which own it.

Although everyone is busy George has devoted the last three days to the entertainment of his friends. We have driven some hundreds of miles called on Neil Campbell, Wilson Oldfield and was glad to meet his father, also his sister from the back line, Melancthon who have spent some months in the West. We also called on Dick Parslow and wife at Vulcan, Rhona Richardson and Jack McLean from Swinton Park and Angus Sinclair of Ventry. All are well and the crops are the very best—no rust, but just a little bit too heavy and liable to go down in a storm.

We also attended a sale of horses, near Cluna. These horses are strays and have been picked up, placed in a pound on the Blackfoot Indian Reserve. They were of an inferior quality and sold from $2.00 to $31.00 per head. We enjoyed seeing them roped as many of them were unbroken and the buyers each branded the ones they had bought. In all there were 75 horses and some cattle sold. The Indians—men and women were there in numbers and some of the men are expert riders. We then visited an Indian cemetery and were astonished at their mode of burial, but will tell you better when we get back.

Time is up. We are in a few moments leaving here for Calgary and from there we go north to Edmonton. We have also enjoyed the company of Miss Isabel Turnbull while here, formerly of Dornoch, Ontario.

Fifty years ago we attended Boston Presbyterian Church in Equeusing in the Scotch block. For a couple of months the minister, a Rev Mr Stewart, was generally criticized by some of the wealthy old farmers, as his style of preaching didn't suit them, as he always touched that the rich were not giving according to their means.

On the last Sunday we attended it happened that he was preaching his farewell sermon and he took for his text, "The rich man died and in Hell he lifted up his eyes, &c." We

IN DAYS OF YORE
15 YEARS AGO

From the Review file of Sept. 3, 1908
At Krug Bros. Factory picnic in Chesley, Mr. Jno. A. Black formerly of town, captured third place in the fat man's race and assisted his side in winning the tug of war.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hinds was severely burned Tuesday over one side of the body, including arm and leg. It appears Mrs. Hinds had been lifting a boiler of clothes off the kitchen stove when her foot slipped; meanwhile the baby had crept from another room behind her unnoticed, and to avoid being scalded herself Mrs. Hinds jumped aside, unaware of the baby's presence.

A quiet wedding took place on Aug. 26th, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. T. Allan, near Varney, when her youngest daughter, Edith Annie was united in hymen's bonds to Mr. Jas. Gray, son of Mrs. Chas. Gray, Rev. Mr. Jamieson of Durham performed the ceremony in the presence of about 45 guests.

Edwards—McCracken — At Hilburn, Sask. on July 25th, Dr. P. Edwards of Aldrie, Alta., to Miss Annie McCracken, daughter of Mr. Robert McCracken of Aberdeen.

Pawson—Sharp—In Durham on Monday, Aug. 31st, by the Rev. Mr. Jamieson, Mr. Sam Pawson, now of Stratford, to Miss Mary Sharp, daughter of Mr. Ben Sharp of Durham.

25 YEARS AGO
From the Review file of Sept. 8, 1898
The grounds and fine stone residence of Mr. David Leith, Normanby, were alive with youth and beauty last week in the interests of the Sabbath School.

The local choir with Mrs. Jas. Watson at the organ made fine music and speeches were made by the chairman, Rev. Mr. Kitching, Wm. Allan and C. Ramage. Some time next century (we suppose) Knox Ch. parties and picnics will have to do with out Mr. R. Watson Sr. but in the meantime he is so good at a story or a Scotch song that he must be utilized. It was a song this time and given with as much vim as if the figures of his 83 years were reversed.

Principal Allan has again a good class in preparation for teachers. While some Model schools seem to go a-begging for pupils, Durham generally has a good list. Following are the names: Misses Lezie Anderson, M. Andrews, Maud Banks, Maggie Caldwell, Norma Ewing, Lizzie Fee, Lizzie Laidlaw, Jessie McIntyre, Mary McGow, Etie Robinson, Agnes Tully, Lena Wolfe, Messrs S. Beatty, C. McEachnie, Jno Sibley, Josiah Thompson, Robt. Whitmore, — Young.

Died, at her son's residence, Mr. A. McCuaig, South Line, Glenelg, Tuesday, Aug. 30th, after a brief illness, Mary McCannel, relict of the late Findlay McCuaig, at the age of 75 years.

Married on Tuesday last, one of Wilder's Lake bright maidens, Miss M. A. McFadden to Mr. Chas. Watson. Best wishes from old friends.—Wilder's Lake corr.

Murdoch corr.: Mr. Wm Allan has been appointed township organizer in the great plebiscite campaign. Mr. Allan is the right man in the right place as is shown by the energy and zeal in which he is entering the work.
