PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

Halloween passed off without any serious pranks this year. Our school teachers put on a concert in the school, consisting of a splendid program and lunch and everyone tells of a good time.

A very enjoyable evening was spent Friday last at the home of Mr and Mrs W. A. Aldcorn, when a party was given in honor of Miss Berta who expects to soon return to Moose Jaw, Miss Ella McKinnon of Toronto, spent the week end at Mr W. A. Aldcorn's.

Mr Ed. Watson and family of Durham, spent Sunday at the former's old home in town.

Mr and Mrs Chas. Gilby and Mr. Jack Gilby of Chatsworth were the guests of Mr and Mrs Dave McDonald on Sunday.

Miss Berta James is visiting with friends at St. George.

Miss Lizzie Mather is spending this week with friends at Hanover. Word was received here of the death of Miss Adele Brawley, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs W. Brawley, who resided here for a couple of years when Mr Brawley was C. P. R. agent. We believe we are voicing the sentiments of the community when we extend our sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mrs Hazard is in Ceylon nursing her sister-in-law, Mrs Corrigan. Miss Doris McLean spent the week end with her aunt Mrs W. J. Bowes of Markdale.

Rev. P. McLeod occupied the pulpit in the Presbyterian church Sunday. Mr McLeod is an able speaker and delivered excellent sermons morning and evening. We haven't heard who will preach next Sabbath but after that the congregation will be asked to make a choice. We have had six excellent speakers, but we understand two of them have received calls elsewhere.

Dromore Anniversary Services Anniversary services will be held in Amos Church Dromore, Sunday, Nov. 11th when Rev J. A. Matheson, of near Orangeville new Moderator of the Synod of Toronto and former Priceville pastor, will preach at 11 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Fowl supper Monday, the 12th, followed by fine program by Durham and other outside talent.

SWINTON PARK

Mrs John Ferguson is visiting Mrs Hickling and other friends in Flesherton this week.

Gordon McLeod, who underwent an operation in Fergus Hospital a couple of weeks ago, is improving and will soon be able to return home.

Mrs Alex. Ferguson who had a sale last Friday, intends moving to Toronto to live with her daughter Margaret.

We notice Dick Hardy home working on the farm again. No place like the farm Dick.

IN MEMORIAM

In ever loving memory of our dear son and brother, Private Archibald Arthur McKinnon, who was killed in action, Nov. 6th, 1917.

Just a thought of sweet remembrance Just a memory fond and true, Just a token of affection Just to show we think of you. —Father, mother and sisters

HYMENEAL

COFFIELD-McDONALD RYAN-McDONALD

On Tuesday morning, October 16th, pretty Autumn weddings were solemnized in St. John's Roman Catholic Church, Glenelg, when Catherine, second daughter of Mrs G. McDonald, was united in marriage to Joseph Coffield of Detroit and Christena, youngest daughter, to Mr Edward Ryan of Toronto.

The nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. Father McGoey at ten thirty o'clock.

The charming brides entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, Miss Catherine, escorted charming in a suit of brown duvety with hat to match and fur of ermine. Miss Christena look equally well in a navy blue suit of point twill and suited hat and shoes to match, with brown martin choker. They both carried bouquets of sweethearts and maiden hair fern.

Little Evelyn McGrath and Margaret Eddy made two very pretty flower girls in dresses of white organdy and veils and carried baskets of forget-me-nots. After the ceremony a dainty wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother. The dining room was decorated with streamers of white from every angle of the room, hung a white wedding bell.

Mr Coffield's gift to his bride was a string of pearls and that of Mr Ryan to his bride a bar pin of white gold set with diamonds. Only near relatives and friends being present at the nuptials, the happy couple left on the 4 p. m. train for Detroit, Buffalo and Niagara Falls, after which Mr and Mrs Coffield will make their home in Detroit and Mr and Mrs Ryan in Toronto.

The fair brides are real homemakers and the good wishes of a wide circle of friends are extended to them in their new sphere of life.

IN DAYS OF YORE

25 YEARS AGO

From the Review file of Nov. 3, 1898 McQuarrie—McCormack—At the residence of the bride's father, Alex. McCormack, on Tuesday, 25th Oct. by the Rev Jno. Little, Duncan McQuarrie to Miss Eliza McCormack, both of Bentinck.

Hinks—McLeod—At the residence of the bride's father, on Oct. 25th by Rev J. A. Matheson, David T. Hinks to Mary J. McLeod, all of Glenelg.

Varon—McLean—At the Manse, Leonoeh, on Oct. 26th, Wm James Watson of Mimico, to Miss Jessie Ann, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs A. McLean, Rocky Saugeen. Died, near Bervie, Bruce Co. on 25th October, Benjamin Peterburgh, brother of Mrs B. Male, Durham, aged 65 years.

Mr M. N. Clark, Aberdeen, has left for Alliston to assume the Principalship of the Public School there. Messrs Calvert and Geo. McKechnie are about closing up the season's business in the buying and selling of cattle. Their transactions for this season have been mainly on Manitoulin Id., having handled only about 150 head from the County of Grey. They have made 7 shipments of cattle and 4 of sheep from the Island and the amount of money changing hands has been over $30,000. This must have been a good thing for the Islanders and we have no doubt the firm's enterprise has also been rewarded.

On Friday, 21st Oct., an old pioneer of Glenelg Tp, Mrs Angus McIntyre, passed over to the greater number, surviving her husband by about 5 mos. only. A family of 3 sons and 3 daughters survive her. The only son at home is Peter who lives on the old homestead.

Edge Hill corr.: Glenelg promises to furnish in least one new aspirant for County Commissioner in the person of John Staples. Mr Jos. Firth, Jr. is in the field for Township Council and is likely to be returned.

15 YEARS AGO

From the Review file of Nov. 5, 1908 Mr and Mrs Robt. Lawson and family, who for some years have been in Milton, returned to Durham this week and have taken up residence in the Latimer building in upper town.

Died, at his residence near Allan Park, on Oct. 29th, Wm. E. Hunt, He had been in poor health for some time but the end came quite unexpectedly. He was twice married, his first wife predeceasing him 16 years ago and 5 years ago he married Elizabeth Bailey of Allan Park. He leaves to mourn his loss 4 sons and 1 daughter, Emily, Mrs W. D. Mills of Durham, Herbert Norman and Arthur at Vickers and Wesley in Edmonton.
