For every 9 or 10 pounds of cheese be ready for use in about 6 or required, use 100 pounds of milk (10 weeks.

Take the fresh morning's milk and to keep them from drying too much, gallons). mix it with the night's milk in a vat, they may be dipped in hot paraffine or some vessel suitable for holding wax. Another method to prevent milk; a clean wash boiler will answer mould is to put a double cloth on the the purpose. Heat the milk to 86 deg. cheese until ready for use. The mould F. by placing a clean can of hot water will be on the extra cloth, leaving the in it, or by setting the vessel contain- cheese clean when removed. ing the milk on the stove and stirring Packing Butter on the Farm until the desired temperature is reached.

angle of 45 deg. until the thumb touch- trouble of pasteurizing the cream tural, succulent feeds and work proes it, make a slight break in the curd when the butter is going to be held mote healthy functioning. A mare in not be fed to broken-winded horses, the finger forward. If the curd breaks To pasteurize, place the can of foal she is carrying is likely in a simiclean across the finger without any cream in a larger vessel containing lar condition. flakes remaining on it, it is ready to hot water. Stir the cream gently until

For cutting, regular curd knives are F. Hold it at that temperature for at hest. Use the horizontal knife first, least ten minutes, then cool it quickcutting lengthwise of the vat, then ly to a low temperature. Hold it cold cut both lengthwise and crosswise for a few hours before churning it. with the perpendicular knife. This Churn at a temperature low enough gives small cubes or even size. to bring the butter in nice firm gran-wise of the vat in strips about one- salt, then let it stand in a suitable erally, and may supply just what some moved from a damp, muggy climate women. Where Jesus had appointed terity, and we are to move things out a long-bladed knife may be used, cut- butter twice and salt in the usual way. third of an inch wide, then cut hori- place for a few hours before finishzontally. By this method it is difficult ing the working.

After the curd has been cut, it that it will stand sufficient working provide for obscure possibilities. should be gently stirred with the hand, so that the salt will be evenly disor with a small wooden rake for ten tributed and that it will be close in body and not show water pockets. Heat the curd to 98 deg. F., taking As butter keeps best in large packabout thirty minutes to do so. Con- ages, crocks, tubs and boxes are used. tinue stirring until the curd is ready. The crocks should be in good condifor dipping; this is usually about two tion, free from breaks in the glazing, and one-half to three hours from the and should be well scalded before using. Tubs and boxes should be coated

When the curd becomes firm and with paraffine wax and lined with springy and falls apart when a hand- heavy parchment paper. ful is pressed together, it is ready to Put the butter in in small pieces, pack solidly, using a butter packer or have the whey removed.

After drawing off the whey stir the a wooden potato masher. Pack each curd over once, then pile it evenly at piece by working from the centre outone end of the vat and cover it with ward. Pound well around the edges and in the corners so as to avoid hav-

In about twenty minutes the curd ing holes. will be well matted when it should be When the box is filled, level off the cut into blocks about four inches top and fold the ends of the paper

Turn the blocks about every twenty a circle of parchment paper on tops minutes until the curd becomes flaky. Make a paste by moistening some This is usually about one and a half salt with a little cold water and

and a knife can be used in place of a If using crocks it will be necessary This will remove the dirt and at the card mill. Cut the curd into strips to cover the lid with two or three ply about the thickness of your finger, stir of clean wrapping paper and tie it well, then apply the salt at the rate securely. of one ounce of salt for every twenty- Butter to keep must be protected from air, light and heat, so after the five pounds of mlik. Sprinkle the salt over the curd, mix packages have been made secure they It thoroughly and when the salt is must be placed in a clean, cool, dark breast and the coating will come off man whose pocket is empty enough mount duty, by Christ. dissolved the curd will be ready to put place. The temperature should be to press. Between 80 deg. and 84 deg. low and even. Butter made in Sepwill be a suitable temperature to have tember is not subjected to heat like the June butter. Those who make vutthe curd at this stage.

The cheese hoop, or hoops, should ter in June for holding and have not be made of heavy tin with two handles a good place for keeping it would find on the outside. A suitable size for it to their advantage to place it in a diameter and 12 or 14 inches high, vicinity. The saving in quality would It is also necessary to have a wooden more than pay the storage fees. follower, which will fit nicely on the inside of the hoop.

Place a piece of cotton at the bottom of the hoop, as a temporary cap, then put the cheesecloth bandage inside the hoop. Carefully pack in the Ordinarily my steers will bolt a curd, fold over the end of the bandage, good percentage of grain when fed place on top a piece of cotton similar shelled corn. This means I must have to the one at the bottom, then put on hogs behind them to save a part of the wooden follower and put to press, this waste. It is sometimes hard to

If a press with a screw is not avail- get enough hogs. I have lessened able, use a lever press. Take a piece, this waste to some extent by mixing of scantling 10 or 12 feet long for a a little oats and oil meal in with the fever. Place the cheese hoop on a grain. I find this combination causes strong box about three feet from the the steers to relish the grain more, wall. Nail to the wall a piece of and they eat it more slowly, scantling and under it put one end This idea came to me about three of the lever. Put a block of wood on years ago when I was feeding corn top of the followed for the lever to containing a lot of moisture. Apparrest on. A pail containing stones or ently the cattle were getting little iron may be used for the weight. Do good out of it. I tried the oats and not apply full pressure at first. | oil meal. Now I use this mixture no

In three-quarters of an hour the matter what kind of corn I have, cheese may be taken from the press. In starting cattle I use ear corn, the bandages wet with hot water, pull- in which I mix a little shelled grain. ed up smoothly and trimmed neatly. This prevents the cattle from eating allowing one-half an inch to lap at too much grain at the start. As they the ends. Cover the ends with circles become accustomed to heavy feeding, of stiffened cheesecloth, over that I gradually change over to shelled place a piece of cotton dipped in hot corn, oats, and oil meal. Plenty of water. Return the cheese to the press clover hay and good clean water comuntil the following morning, when pletes my ration, and I can average they should be turned in the hoops two pounds gain a day with steers and pressure continued a few hours that are halfway well bred .- T. J. D.

After vemoving the cheese from the Not a bit too early to get set on an press, place them in a cool, dry cellar ice house. With one filled it will not be difficult to keep the milk right and Turn the cheese end for end on the the cream sweet during the hot days shelf every day for a month and after- of 1924.

Care of the Brood Mare.

The horse is a necessity on the farm, and increasing interest in his breeding has been apparent during The term Heaves, or Broken-Wind, the past year, says Mr. G. B. Roth- is applied to a condition affecting never a worse time to raise "scrubs" the lungs becoming over-distended. It

To prevent the cheese moulding and only to careless breeding that animals ach is full is always liable to produce unmistakable clearness.

ing of but little grain to the brood feeding or drinking. Broken-winded sion. So have I also sent them. As survive the persecutions and control times held "sick call," a term familiar by stirring with a dipper for about lected should be clean and free from advocates the feeding of a fair am-miss cure-all. The mare should get a handful of Glauber salts, or flax tell the brethren to go into Galilee midst of all his followers. Here is are sick enough to be below par they the temperature comes up to 170 deg. salt regularly. A tablespoonful of seed meal. Heaves is usually bene- where they would see him. Into a one of Browning's shouts: "Shakesthe feed two or three times a week is two tablespoons of Fowler's Solution Some think of the Mount of Trans- Burns, Shelly were with us,—they apt to think that if we are not sick beneficial. A box in the yard containing a readily accessible mixture of water each morning and evening for When curd knives are not available, ules. Avoid overchurning. Wash the suggested, will be found particularly brood mares require in the way of to a dry climate. not require the same, and it is well to Have the butter of such firmness will result if the breeders are not valuable constituent will be lost. lowers. The giving of the commission tein in the mash is sufficient.

pedigree record, stamina and body of the weed seeds in the interior por- inating fountain. Go . . teach all naconformation; the most expensive one tion of the pile. It is necessary, then, tions . . baptizing them. To teach hog with Sam Brown, the tailor; he find out why, and tell you what to do. is the scrub which one usually gets to take down the pile and rebuild it means "make disciples of." In the has a big family and could surely use If he finds nothing whatever wrong when exchanging with a neighbor. Re- with the portions that were outside name; rather, into the name of the a hog," said Mirandy. member that egg production must be in the centre, so that they may under- Father. Baptism is a symbol of the "You are sure one born manager," glorious certificate and then you will bred in, in order to be fed out. go the same heating process and have forgiveness of sins. It is also a seal cried John. "I will see what can be go out to the open, jump five feet into den fright affects the egg crop. If found that very few weed seeds surlover. If a tub or crock is used place humane considerations do not influ- vive in a viable condition. ence the poultryman, that of financial spread an even layer over the top of The next process is milling the curd the package, then fasten down the lid. with lard or butter, and wiping them. dried has been patented.

and keep it air-tight. ducks, coat the ducks completely with "Which ones give the cream?" paraffin, then start to remove the parwith the pin-feathers embedded in the that he may put his pride in it if III. THE GREAT ENDOWMENT, -- POWER, his wife was reading the latest maga- sold under different variety names, it when you stop fertilizng.

healthy, natural shape means that the as it will aggravate the symptoms, be destroyed by the addition of lime wildered with the wonder of it all. "John," said Mirandy, "I am asham- be a thorough man. He will test the to manure. This is a very wasteful But they love even if they do not ed of your old suit. You ought to get weight, pulse, temperature, blood presprocedure, however, inasmuch as quicklime put in the manure will drive me. Jesus now proceeds to give his High fertility and stronger chicks off the ammonia and thus the most last and great commission to his folto keep them below 50 per cent. pro- made in various places and it has of him who gives it. It is an em- clothes just now; the interest on the that you are eliminating all poisons, duction. Twelve per cent, animal pro- been found that where the manure is powered and authoritative commis- loan is almost due, and there is the If you are beginning to have too high sufficiently fresh so as to develop sion. Christ is supreme in heaven note I gave when we bought that ma- blood pressure, too rapid a pulse, ab-The cheapest male is the one with a considerable heat this will destroy all and earth. Christ is not the convey-chinery."

necessary." This leads us to conclude You start drawing on your capital he has plenty of room in his pocket together. Jesus has showed himself observed O. B. for his pride.

The Sunday School Lesson

NOVEMBER 25

at the same time, he adds, there was ness of breath due to the air cells of never a worse time to raise "sample" the lungs beautiful of t 28: 16-20; Acts 1: 6-8. Golden Text—Go ye there- mas" or "Happy New Year," because, fore, and teach all nation s .- Matt. 28: 19.

production and poor judgment in after feeding and just before going and expressed will that his followers Jehovah's by right, was handed on to have? Do you realize that it is largebreeding have brought about recent discouraging conditions.

While strength about about about recent with bulky food always preministry. Chairly a food a f While strongly advocating the use disposes to the development of heaves, the world is the field of that from the dead in triumph. That king-will you have many or few?

Will you have many or few?

If life is sufficiently to your the world is the gift of God to dom must be won, however, at the ministry. Christ is the gift of God to dom must be won, however, at the ministry. The Christ is the gift of God to dom must be won, however, at the ministry. The Christ is the gift of God to dom must be won, however, at the ministry. The Christ is the gift of God to dom must be won, however, at the ministry. The Christ is the gift of God to dom must be won, however, at the ministry. The Christ is the gift of God to dom must be won, however, at the ministry. The Christ is the gift of God to dom must be won, however, at the ministry. of good stallions, Mr. Rothwell directs hence the condition is met with most attention to the importance of choosing a fitting mate. Still it is a choosattention to the importance of choosing a fitting mate. Still, it is due not feeders. Over exertion when the stoming a fitting mate. Still, it is due not feeders. Over exertion when the stom- words of unchangeable authority and great movement for world evangelist them, you will seek to learn the careless breeding that animals ach is full is always liable to produce teaspoonful of cheese coloring to cheese coloring to a dipperful of milk and mix it thoroughly with the milk in the vat before adding the rennet.

The best is none too good." This appear not cheese coloring to a dipperful of milk and mix it thoroughly with the milk in the vat before adding the rennet.

Use one teaspoonful of rennet for we want to have something good for the content of the cont Use one teaspoonful of rennet for we want to have something good for Speaking of feeding, the Dominion symptom is the presence of a chronic first reaffirms that he had been sent hades shall not prevail against it. An birthday? every 25 pounds of milk. Dilute the using later on, as no butter improves Animal Husbandman advises the givmineral salts. All mares, however, do not require the same, and it is well to Killing Weeds in the Manure worshipped . . some doubted. Some ye the way of the Lord." are so fully persuaded of the resurrection that they give to Christ the There are very few seeds that will worship due to him. Others are be-

Vs. 18, 19. All power is given unto

Vs. 20. Teaching them to observe about such things." A metal band to surround a stove The teaching of Jesus is to be the stitching at a new pair of pants. He Dirty eggs should be cleaned by pipe from which extend wire racks the final revelation as he is the final and of all the little Browns that had ent varieties of corn and five varieties taking a greasy cloth, one greased on which utensils or clothing can be authority. I am with you alway .. to be fed. "I wish I could get a nice or strains of sunflowers were made Master goes with them always and This will remove the dirt and at the same time close the pores in the shell she evinced keen interest in all she with promise as well as program, with clothes, and not have to hand out the ling the Mammoth or Giant Pussion saw. Being shown the dairy herd, companionship as well as authority. clothes, and not have to hand out the ing the Mammoth or Giant Russian To remove the pin-feathers from saw. Being shown the dairy nerd, companionship as well as additionally cash. I will talk with O. B. Middle- sunflower, if it is desired to sow sun-World-wide evangelization has been such things than I do." affin right down the middle of the Somebody has said, "Happy is the thrust upon the Church as a para- O. B. Middleman was sitting in a Rostie, in hi s annual report, suggests

ACTS 1: 6-8. fallible proofs, and had given com- ness to-day?" asked his wife. Spirit. It was this gift that would met together. Wilt thou at this time be done.' sessed by the idea of a temporal king- a nice hog for the winter. veil of the future. But Jesus turns some farmer?" God. They are his concern.

Stephen this was the sphere of wit- ness to-day." nessing. In Samaria. This marks a step. Philip was the first to go there. Acts 8: 5. The uttermost part of the earth. It was Paul who blazed the world trail for the gospel.

APPLICATION.

The Mission of Christ and the Christian Are Similar, John 17: 18.

Mount had been preached, now re- mutton.

which will continue, provided the othy and clover hay. Allowing horses right kind of horse is produced. Over to drink an excessive amount of water right kind of horse is produced. Over to drink an excessive amount of water to-day we see that it is God's clear The kingdom of this world which was many birthdays would you like to production, and poor indement in often fooding and poor indement in often foodi ness of the milk; the sweeter the milk, A cream with high acidity will not oat hay will be found excellent. Turnips, carrots or mangels should form chiefly on grain and mashes and regu- it gives the missionary field. They are what was eternal in the law, and cre- duty and marked "sick in quarters," To ascertain when the curd is suf- As pasteurized cream butter will at least one feed daily, there being lating the supply of water to the mini- sent into the world as Christ was sent ated some new commandments, all of and there were others so seriously ill ficiently coagulated for cutting, push keep very much better than raw cream no better winter feed than roots. As ficiently coagulated for cutting, push keep very much better than raw cream to exercising, plenty of fresh air, nather the forefinger into the curd at an butter it would pay to go to the extra with a glorious ethic about which he missed from the company; "sick in II. THE GREAT FIELD,—THE WORLD, was profoundly concerned. "If ye love hospital." It is estimated that some me, keep my commandments. men, had appointed a meeting. They cries out of the wilderness, "Prepare > a new one before Christmas, so many sure; he will examine condition of of our folks may come to see us at heart, lungs, kidneys and every im-

"But, Mirandy," cried John, "I can cretions to see if you are in vigorous forced during the winter. It is best A number of experiments have been is based on the power and authority not spare the money for a suit of function, and your excretions to see

"Shooing" hens is a bad practice. the weed seeds destroyed. Also where of the fellowship with Father, Son and done. I am going to town and will the atmosphere, crack your heels to-All movements should be quiet. Sud- this method is practiced it has been Holy Spirit into which the disciple is talk with O. B. Middleman; he knows gether, and shake your fists into the

. . whatsoever I have commanded. Sam Brown sat with legs crossed, content of all their gospel. Jesus is was thinking of the winter coming on Tests of sixteen samples of differunto the end. The disciples go. The hog for the winter; if some farmer last year by the Division of Forage would trade one for a suit of clothes, plants of the Dominion Experimental marching orders of Christianity. man; he seems to know more about flowers as an ensilage crop, the Do-

minds of the disciples were still pos- the tailor, and asked if he could use that their high yield of green fodder It is not for you to know the "Just what I have been thinking of," a value on them, in comparison with time. It was a natural question to Brown said. 'Do you think I could corn and other ensilage crops, much and . . Judaea. Up to the death of suit of clothes. A nice piece of busi- about three tons less dry matter.

Exports of Live Stock and Products.

present year, Canada exported to the sunflower plant being greater than Great Britain 29,470 more cattle, 1,- that of the corn plant the former, As thou has sent me into the world, 489,600 pounds more beef, 2,946,400 however, offers an opportunity to obeven so have I also sent them into the pounds of bacon, 1,823,000 pounds tain a good quality and quantity of world. He was able to do that which more pork, and 4,600 pounds less mut- silage in districts where corn cannot no followers could hope to attempt, ton than during the same period in as yet be profitably cultivated. but there was nevertheless a similar- 1922. To the United States in the The report, which is to be had free same period we exported 59,713 fewer on application to the Publications The Mission of All Disciples to Discattle, 4,594 more calves, 51,580 fewer Branch, Ottawa, records a large numciple All the Nations, Matt. 28: 16-20. sheep, 3,369,700 pounds less beef, 10,- ber of tests with varieties of hay dred who met at an appointed mountain where perhaps the Sermon on the more pork and 2,465,700 pounds less work with field roots, grasses, clovers,

"Happy birthday" is a much more significant wish than "Merry Christand forth among the crowd, it is for

I. THE GREAT EXAMPLE,—CHRIST, JOHN 1. Teach the gospel of the kingdom. the rules of the "health game." When Superstition and error were to be rollyear-olds are the result of hot summers, of flies, bare pastures, trudging after hard-worked mothers, and incomplete the sum and the sum and the result of hot sum and the result of hot sum and the result of hot sum the mers, of flies, bare pastures, trudging keep the nostrils dilated or wide open after hard-worked mothers, and inso, and have a hurried, wheezing breathafter hard-worked mothers, and, inso- and have a hurried, wheezing breath- prayer of Jesus. He prays for him- women think about God will color all this skilled physician go over you per-If colored cheese is wanted, use one

We have all heard the expression of a little grain, choice hay, and a few or pumping of the flanks which be. Shall afterwards believe in his name.

2. Baptize in the name of the triume they cause illness, knowing that it is concerned, to a lack or pumping of the flanks which be. Shall afterwards believe in his name.

The best is recommended by a double inting sell, for mis disciples, for more than the color of a little grain, choice hay, and a few or pumping of the flanks which be. Shall afterwards believe in the name of the triume they cause illness, knowing that it is not concerned, to a lack or pumping of the flanks which be. Shall afterwards believe in his name.

The best is recommended by a double inting sell, for mis disciples, for mis di mix it thoroughly through the milk The can in which the cream is col- mare during the winter months, but horses keep the anus relaxed and pass has the Son cont big disciples into the world. This verse gives first to the tails, was a part of Christ's plan from given C. C. pills and marked on the Cover the vat until coagulation The cream should be good flavored clover or peas, oats and vetches. One lakes place, which will be in about and should be churned sweet, or with feed a day, he suggests, of well-cured heaves is to alleviate the condition by were cent. takes place, which will be in about twenty minutes, depending on the ripetwenty minutes, depen Vs. 16, 17. The eleven disciples went 4. They were to lean for inspiration Canada are sick enough to be excused hay should be dampened. The bowels away into Galilee. In v. 10 Jesus upon him who would be with them al-Medicines should be used only where should be kept regulated by feeding gave commandment to the women to ways, even unto the end of the ages. choose to inquire. But at the same indicated and not as a general hit-and- bran mashes, to which may be added whom he appeared, that they should Jesus the missionary is still in the time if four million of the remainder chick-size or pulverized charcoal in fited also by giving them from one to mountain. The hill is not known, peare was of us, Milton was for us, aren't what they ought to be. We are the food two on the contract of two toblesses aren't what they ought to be. ing a readily accessible mixture of water each morning and evening for ed. It would doubtless be some well liveth and watched from his throne,— between being sick and well is the difhorses become more serviceable when mention the place specifically to the way he is going, down through pos- illness that goes unchecked will eventthem; where Jesus, through the wo- of the way for him. A voice still ually bring us to the horizontal posithe ailment and gets it in check before it has any such chance. Have a health examination on your How the Trade was Made. birthday! The examining dactor must portant organ. He will test the se normalties in weight, murmurs of the "I wonder if you could not trade a heart, he will go deep in the matter. you will be glad to pay his fee for this face of the whole wide world .-- C. H. L. Corn and Sunflowers.

minion Astrologist, Dr. G. P. Mebig easy chair, smoking a fine cigar; that while sunflowers are listed and would be well to keep in mind that that the farmer must be happy, as Vs. 6, 7. When they . . were come "Had a nice day's business to-day," there are as yet no pure varieties. Each of the so-called varieties is a alive after his passion by many in- "What was the nature of the busi- mixture of a great many types. This, the report says, accounts in part for mand to the disciples that they should "Oh, Farmer John dropped in the the wide variation in yield and renot depart from Jerusalem, but wait office and wanted to know if I thought ported value of many of our named for the promised gift of the Holy he could trade a nice hog for a new commercial varieties. The report enable the disciples to fulfil the great suit of clothes. 'You might get a suit goes on to say that there seems to be commission entrusted to them. In ac- of clothes for two nice hogs,' I said. a lack of appreciation of the fact that cordance with that command they are 'Get your hogs and I will see what can sunflowers, at the time they are harvested for silage purposes, contain a restore? This question shows that the "I stepped in to see Sam Brown, very large per cent. of water, and has resulted in many growers placing curiosity that desires to penetrate the trade a suit of clothes for one with greater than they deserve, when considered in the light of their air-dry the question aside. The great issues "'You would need two suits of or absolute dry matter content. Tables of the future are in the keeping of clothes for a nice hog, Sam,' I said, are given in the report of yields, 'Hogs are high just now. Bring the green and air-dryed per zere, both of Vs. 8, 9. But ye shall receive power, suits to the office and I will see what corn and sunflower, an examination The disciples desire information of I can do. I know a lot of farmers,' of which indicates that while the receive inspiration for the present. Ye "The result is, my dear, John has a highest yielding sunflower types show shall be witnesses. This is the su- nice new suit. Sam has a nice fat hog over twelve tons more green fodder preme duty of the disciple. He points and we, by my up-to-date methods, per acre than the highest yielding to some one else. In Jerusalem . . have a nice fat hog, and I have a new corn varieties, yet the former contain

In agreement with other varieties, the conclusion is reached that in districts where both corn and sunflowers can be produced with equal success. corn is the more desirable crop to During the first nine months of the grow. It is added that the range of and alfalfa.

STORIES OF WELL KNOWN PEOPLE

The Amazing Song-Write

World-conquering songs co in ten minutes or so! Ernest R. Ball, who is now in from New York.

The following are only a fer off a few dead leaves. A ol man, observing the

- -This Old Emi truth and upon het rea ....

When a man wakes self famous *1 is a sig

ONTARIO ANCHIVE. TORONTO