The bride who entered the drawing room on the arm of her father, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding music, and carried a sheaf of white mums looked charming in a French gown of Kings blue brocaded crepe with silver trimmings and silver shoes to match. She wore a wreath of orange blossoms and carried a sheaf of white mums and Boston fern. Little Misses Edith Drimmie and Myrta Alles, cousins of the bride, made dainty flower girls in gowns of white silk mull with pale blue ribbon bows, carrying baskets of white carnations and narcissus. Miss Ethel Alles, sister of the bride, who played the wedding music, was tired very becomingly in a maize talfeta gown. During the signing of the register, "Oh Promise Me" was beautifully rendered by Mr and Mrs Geo. Bartley of Toronto. Then all partook of a dainty luncheon, the dining and living rooms being decorated in silver and white for the occasion.

A New Ford Body Type -The Judor Sedan The Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited, announces a new two-door type closed car which will be known as the Tudor Sedan. It differs materially in seating arrangement from the four-door type recently announced. It is also lower in price. Among the other noteworthy features of this latest Ford model is the coach type body-never before available in a low priced car. The Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited, is considerably behind in its manufacturing schedule on this type of body. Consequently we are not able to state definitely when this model will be on display in our showrooms. Watch for its appearance.
