Says that is His intention when he Learns of Chaplin's Salary

The Hon. John Oliver, Premier British Columbia, is a blunt old farm er who has never shown the slightest disposition to mince his words A short while ago he gave bimself nation wide publicity by stating publicly and seriously, that as Premier, he was now holding down the best! paying job he had ever had in his career, and it was his intention of hanging on to it as long as possible, or at

There is a possibility of an election in British Columbia the word "carried" was published. early next year, but that has nothing to do with John Oliver's proposed change. If he goes to the country he fully expects to be returned to power, but he won't worry if he isn't. He has just heard of a most lucrative occupation down south.

A delegation of moving picture owners went to Victoria recently protest against a ten per cent tax on movie tickets, suggesting this be cut in half. Delegations protesting against taxes are nothing new to Premier Oliver: he looks upon these as so much routine business to be attended to between ten and twelve every other morning, and to be dismissed as soon as possible with a promise that their suggestions will be given careful consideration.

In this particular case, the Hon. On Tuesday last the above well John Hart, Minister of Finance, did ey,-which he very much doubted,the sensible thing to do would be to

"How much do they pay those movie actors?" he enquired. The members of the delegation hesitated just long enough for the Minister of Finance to take full advantage of the opportunity.

"That comedian, Charlie Chaplin, gets a million dollars a year," he said "just think of it!" A million a year." John Oliver drew a deep breath, arm pits of his waist coat and announced his intentions as to the fut
