Three basic principles will be observed (1) Observance of County lines (2) equality in representation, (3) a larger unit for urban than for rural areas. Harry Leader a Progressive from Portage la Prair ie, caused amusement, it is said, by suggesting that before beginning the work, the membership in the Senate and Commons be reduced by one third in each case. It is a pity that such a suggestion should cause a musement-economy lies that way and efficiency would not suffer. If the Senate could be reduced by three thirds, few outside the members would complain.

A POSTAL STRIKE ?

There are indications that posta emloyees, rural mail carriers, and city delivery men may strike on April 14 The matter has been entrusted to the Civil Service Commission, who will make a study of the claims for in crease of wages, and no doubt also of the chances for securing substitutes. Many men, idle at present would, it is thought, jump at the chance of postal employment even present rates which certainly will not make millionaires of them.

If there is a sufficient number requesting hens culled this year, there might be a possibility of holding a training school so that quite a number of Grey Co. people could be taught the simple art of poultry cul ling. What do farmers think of this proposition?

Wool Shipping Season Last year 2700 shippers sent their wool to the Canadian Co-operative George Falconer. Wool Growers, Weston. This organization has followed the recognized system of Commodity Marketing, Group Marketing, Standardizing the product of grading, extending the per iod of marketing and extending the field of Markets. Because of the work done by the Canadian Co-operative Wool Growers it was possible last year not only to sell large quantities of Canadian wool to Canadian manufacturers but dispose of 600,000 pounds to manufacturers in England, 50,000 to the Continental buyers of Europe and considerable to the U.S. in spite of the heavy Fordney on wools.
