Their Fame Goeth Abroad. Durham Band were gratified this week to receive an enquiry from Sing-Lampton, 30 miles east of us on the Grey-Simcoe boundary, wishing to engage their services for a garden party to be held there. Visitors from that locality were in Durham on the 12th, and were greatly impressed with the excellent music rendered by the Band that day.

No Horticultural Show. The meeting of the Horticultural Society in the Library on Monday night, it was decided to hold no flower exhibition in Durham this year. The season is three weeks later than usual this year and this is said to be the principal factor in not staging a show. At the meeting Mrs. Thos. Brown gave an excellent paper on the "Perennial Border."

Cleared $200. As a result of the meals served on Saturday and their share of the proceeds from the concert in the rink, the Red Cross Society anticipate to add approximately $200 to its treasury. The sum of $213 resulted from the concert and $60 from the 25 cent supper repeat in the Town Hall. Almost 400 dinners were served to visitors at noon. The members of the Society are to be complimented on their energy and work and the Society deserves the success it has won.

Spoke on Formosa. Featuring the monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church at the home of Mrs. John McGill on Thursday of last week, was a splendid address by Miss Margaret McGill dealing with Formosa and missionary work in that island in the far East. During her weakness training course in Toronto, Miss McGill was thrown much in contact with missionaries from Formosa and is well informed on conditions there. The Bible reading was by Mrs. W. Derby, while Misses Jessie and Mary Bell favored with a duet. Mrs. N. McKechnie also gave a missionary story. There was an attendance of 38 at this meeting, the next one being due at the home of Mrs. Murray Ritchie on Aug. 14th.

On Monday the biggest festive event in the history of the lake town will be formally opened with an address of welcome by the Reeve, and short speeches by prominent speakers. The key of the town will then be thrown away and the stage set for five days and nights of solid fun and hilarity. Every day now, by rail and auto, the Old Boys and Girls are drifting back from distant parts to join in the frolic and marvel at the splendid program of sports and amusements which has been prepared for their entertainment each day of the big week. This festival however, is not for Port Elgin's sons and daughters alone, but the town will be thrown open to all who care to join in celebrating its jubilee.

LOST—On Friday night last, between McCabe's garage and Allan Park store, a man's watch. Finder will please leave it at either of above places.

Found Lost Tire. While running the mower in a field next the road this week, Mr. Milford Matthews struck against W. H. Hunter's lost car tire lying six or seven pounds in from the fence. Mr. Hunter resides only two lots distant on the 20th con., Egrement. The thief evidently meant to play a mean trick, or became afraid of it being found in his possession.

An Historic Sword. In the 12th of July parade, Mr. Peter McQueen of Egrement carried a sword which is a relic of the Indian Mutiny. This sabre was the one worn by Sir Colin Campbell, leader of the British forces, when he relieved the garrison at Lucknow in 1857. The present owner who values the weapon very highly purchased it a few years ago from an Egrement lady, now deceased, who was a relative of Sir Colin Campbell.

Institute Competition. Three young ladies who pride themselves on their skill in cooking will be given a free trip and visit to Toronto Exhibition this fall at the expense of the Ontario Gov't. The Dept. of Agriculture has told the Women's Institute, it is prepared to send an instructor to meet them, the organization to receive applications from five young ladies who wish to enter a local contest and receive any points of instruction desired in the culinary art from the instructor, who will select the best three to go to Toronto and enter a Provincial competition. Mrs. Jno. A. Graham, President of the Durham Branch, says that names must be in their hands by July 20th. There are many good cooks in this district and this is an opportunity for some of them to "set their names up."

May Reduce Teaching Staff

Seven Teachers Instead of Eight may Serve for Next Term. Owing to the good showing of Principal J. A. Graham and staff in passing children over the barriers of a public school education, the enrollment of this institution has been lessened materially and may mean a reduction of the teaching staff from eight teachers to seven for next term. At least an effort is being made to have this effective if possible.

Owing to the resignation of Miss A. C. McKenzie, who has been engaged in Fairbanks, near Toronto, next year, the Board is trying to arrange classes so as to avoid securing another teacher. It is planned to have Miss Sadie McDonald take Miss McKenzie's room and the other teachers move up one, leaving but one instructor for the primer classes instead of two, as at present.

If the scheme is feasible, the tax payer will welcome same. Over half of Durham's taxes is spent on education and any monetary reduction would be generally appreciated. But the step would certainly not be warranted if it interferes with teaching efficiency and if educational training is to be sacrificed. In order to save a few dollars on the town tax bill.

Who will be the preacher at the Anniversary Services at St. Paul's, Egrement, on Sunday next, July 20th, speaking twice at 3 and 7:30 o'clock. In the morning he will occupy the pulpit of the Anglican Church in Durham and also speak at St. Paul's Garden Party on the following Monday night at Mr. Thos. Tucker's, where refreshments will be served, and a good programme given.

Monster Crowd Celebrated the 12th in Durham

Over 4000 in Town—24 Lodges Represented in the Parade

After 14 years the Orangemen of South Grey and district staged a day in Durham and the result by attendance, interest and enthusiasm, was second to none of the days of the past. The weather was superb and motor conveyance brought Orangemen and their friends out in large numbers, it being estimated that the crowd numbered between 4000 and 5000. Fire and drum bands were much in evidence all day at various points, and a special attraction was the Highland Pipe Band of Mt. Forest, who gave splendid music at intervals.

A new feature (at least to us) was the presence of lady groups of True Blues, there being four of these from Arthur, Durham, Mt. Forest and Cederville respectively. The first named also having a Lady Orange Lodge. These, mostly in white, with bright trimming, added a delightful feature to the procession.

The Marshals, George Noble and Joseph Brown on horseback, succeeded shortly after one o'clock in completing arrangements for the "walk," and this took place from the Town Hall by way of Bruce St., Lambton St., Carfax St., ending up at the Town Hall where on the green adjoining the speaking took place. The procession was orderly and creditable, groups of ladies at intervals, and the flags of the various lodges, the bright regalia, shirts and sashes, collars, ribbons, etc., of the entire membership, made a colorful pageant seldom seen. Some quite elderly people were in the line of march, all taking part in what is almost a religious ceremony. Not a few, men as well as ladies, must have been tired by the unwonted exercise.

Tribute must be paid to officials and the membership for the orderly way the walk was carried out. Indeed there was not a hitch nor an accident the whole day, and the good-natured demeanor of the crowd could not be excelled. Hoary remembrances of old time Walks accompanied them with drunkenness and ribaldry, but this occasion was dignified and decorous, everybody on the parade, and we congratulate all and sundry on the success.

Seating arrangements had been made for a crowd, but of course were entirely inadequate for the number present. Mr. Joseph Brown, County Master, and of Allan Park, who called the Assembly to order and asked Dr. Jamieson, M. P. P. to preside. The Doctor was in his happiest mood. He missed, he said, some of the old veterans who, on such days, as well as their successors of to-day, wanted only equal rights, and the purpose of all should be to conciliate all classes. He caused a laugh saying that while the Order was mostly fishermen when they wanted really good music they sent for the pipes, which compliment the pipers would appreciate.

Mayor Smith on behalf of the town, gave the official welcome. He welcomed them for what they are and what they have done. He stressed the virtue of patriotism as they had shown in the war, no fewer than 12,000 of them having fallen.

Rev. W. H. Smith, B. A., gave a welcome from the church. Orangemen, he said, was born out of a religious revival. The struggle for civil and religious liberty taught lessons which the Orangemen grasped. We have often misunderstood the aims of Orangemen. When they truly understand these aims they will flock by thousands to harmony and social progress. Especially should we try to impress foreign peoples and he called upon Orangemen to support every good movement. "When you and us pull together we will succeed in leading men out of darkness."

—in its fullness in Jesus Christ. Human progress depended on a variety of mental processes. All men can't think alike and must have liberty to shape their own course. The liberty the Orangemen and all of us prize, has been achieved by human blood. He closed by extending congratulations.

W. L. Clark, ex-M. P. for North Wellington was an Orangeman, born of Orange ancestors. He gave a dressing to those Protestants who criticize Orangemen without understanding their principles. The speaker's member for Wellington, he alleged, was not particular about Orange celebrations. He had praise for the women for joining hands with them, and urged young women to join.

The next speaker was Mr. Henry Irving of Arthur, a merchant there and full of humor. He is patriotic and just to put the big audience into a receptive mood, he asked all to stand up and sing twice the chorus of "Rule Britannia" which was heartily done. He had a fling at the ministers present, who could sing and laugh and pray and preach to Orange yet were not Orange themselves. A few years ago, he said, the liquor traffic was our greatest enemy, and some said our Order would die out if abolished. This celebration proved it wasn't true. He made protest against the proposal in some quarters to take another plebiscite, as a wholly unnecessary expenditure of thousands of dollars and made a strong appeal to men and women, if the vote should be brought on, to vote right and bury the liquor traffic. He hoped all Orangemen were church members: "if not you should be, if not you should be ashamed of it." Touching on church union he said, much spoken of, he said we can sing as never before "Like a mighty army, moves the church of God."

All the speakers were well received and frequently applauded and Mr. Irving's little speech in some quarters humiliated with sound advice, made a happy closing to a fine afternoon. "God Save the King" followed and the meeting broke up.

Of course between the speeches there was enjoyment of pipe band music.

The Lodges present were in the following order, led by the Kilie Band: Mt. Forest True Blues, No. 336. Mt. Forest Lodge, No. 633. Cederville True Blue, No. 394. Durham True Blues. Cederville Lodge, "Pride of Grey," No. 1258. Normanby Lodge, No. 607. Holstein Lodge, No. 2296. Wellington, Conn. No. 956. Arthur (Lady Orange) No. 512. Arthur Lodge, No. 681. Damascus, West Luther, No. 787. Alma, No. 2687. Allan Park, No. 668. Cornwall, Ont., No. 1185. Enniskillen, (Rothsay) No. 615. Loyal True Blues, Arthur, No. 427. True Blues, Durham. Durham Band. Durham Lodge, No. 632. Glenelg, No. 1192. Louise, No. No. 2772. Hanover, No. 547. Farewell, No. 777. Victoria, (North Egrement) No. 861. Varney, No. 689.

RED CROSS CONCERT

The concert in line with the day, was a grand success. It was held in the rink and the seating capacity provided was about twice that of the Town Hall. The talent secured was the Brunswick trio of London and they are three of the snappiest male performers Durham has had the pleasure of hearing in some time. No time was lost between numbers and their selections were given with a vim and a go that characterize popular stage performers. The latter section of the program they appeared in the Highland regalia and their Scotch numbers were perhaps appreciated the most. This trio will command a full house, should they again appear in Durham. On Sunday Dr. Jamieson was their host at his summer home.

Preserve the Fish

At the instigation of Dr. Jamieson, M. P. P., a Convention of sportsmen has been called to take place in Durham on Wednesday of next week, to discuss ways and means of restoring and conserving the fish in Grey County streams.

This is a step in the right direction, and it should have been done two or three years ago. The supply of speckled trout in our streams has been reduced at an alarming rate of late years, and the principal reason advanced has been that the rivers are drained by fishmen come from great numbers and take a large toll with the rod. Sunday fishing is not uncommon and it is even hinted that nets have been used to make a large catch. A basket of ten or twelve fish is considered a good catch now, whereas it was no trick to obtain thirty beauties, the limit by law, a few years ago.

Entrance Results in South Grey Centres

Durham and Holstein Schools make Excellent Showing

The Entrance results were given to the Review on Monday, the earliest in history in South Grey to our recollection, for which credit must be given the local examiners.

Durham Schools maintained its usual record of 100 per cent successful, or almost so, under Principal John A. Graham's tuition. 24 wrote and all passed, 4 with honors, Miss Christine Goodchild winning the medal for highest Durham pupil. Mortley passed 2 writing from Latona School and Miss F. Kerr the only one at No. 9, Glenelg. Of 49 rural students writing at Durham, 29 were successful.

Miss Davidson of Holstein School, has a brilliant record. She sent up 12 pupils and 11 were successful, 7 taking honors. She is re-engaged for next year.

Mr. Angus McIntosh, teacher at Townsend Lake School, passed all 3 who wrote at Markdale, 2 of them taking honors.

ROAD WORK STOPS

Starting to-day, activity on the grading of the Durham Road in Glenelg Township, will practically cease for a period of two weeks in order that the men may "make hay while the sun shines" in the hay fields. The large number of men employed on this extensive road construction are almost all farmers in Glenelg and Egrement Townships. When August 15th most of them will be back on the highway.

May! Are you going to have enough for your cattle and horses next winter and spring? If not, Jno. A. Graham has about 30 acres under hay and 8 acres under grain which he will sell or have cut on shares or by the acre. If interested see him about it soon.
