Passing of John R. Philp

One of Egremont's Foremost and Best Loved Citizens Died early Saturday Morning.

Rarely has a death awakened such widespread sorrow as that of John R. Philp, who passed away on Saturday last at his home in Holstein from what is called pernicious anaemia.

In the summer of 1923 he was in poor health, but last winter he revived wonderfully and seemed to have recovered his stamina, but some time ago symptoms of a return of the old ailment developed and for four or five weeks before the end he took to bed and those near and dear to him saw with sorrow what was approaching. Yet through it all he was cheery, he had confided to friends that he thought ultimate recovery was doubtful, yet he faced the grim destroyer with the confidence and courage of the Christian and he has entered into his reward.

Mr David Cameron of London spent a few hours in the village Monday. Several years ago Mr Cameron conducted a blacksmithing business but has now retired from much of the activities of life.

A very generous offering is solicited in place of charging an admission fee. The lecture will be under the auspices of the W. M. S. and Dr. Stafford holds a unique reputation as a lecturer. Be sure to not miss this treat. This affords a grand opportunity to hear one who is well known on both sides of the Atlantic.

Some Foundation Stones

Among the friends from a distance who were present at the funeral were Rev. Dr. Joseph Philp, Hamilton, an uncle; Mr Robert Philp of Burketon, a niece; Dr. Phillip Greaves, of Galt, a nephew; Mrs J. E. Greaves, of Miss Madoc; Rev. Jno. Little, Rockwood; Mr J. W. and Mrs Philp, Mr and Miss Bailey of Arthur, Mr and Mrs Gordon, Mr and Mrs Duncaan, Mr and Mrs Farlane of Shelburne; Mr and Mrs John Widdis (a cousin) and Mr and Mrs Chas. Duncan, east of Conn.

Let us see then the different objects which she brings into her life that this need may be supplied. First, she needs some organization through which she may work to give full expression to her real self.

Having arrived at the years of understanding, a woman feels within herself the desire to make a home and being of ordinarily good looks and having some aptitude for work, together with some common sense, it usually is not long before she becomes a magnet for one of the opposite sex.

However if she is wise, she does not rush immediately into matrimony, but fills those early years with some occupation such as teaching, nursing, a business course, etc., that will prepare her for the riper years of life.

These two of whom we have been speaking, have been drawn together by mutual interests of similar tastes, have each been gathering knowledge that will ripen into the closest bond of mutual love and forbearance and they are now in a position to know whether the regard they now have for each other will stand the strain of every day association and whether their chief desire is to make a home in which they may dwell in peace and happiness.

Back of the desire to make money, to dress attractively, to prove herself capable in whatever calling she has chosen is this desire, which in general terms we speak of as "having a home of her own." Of this desire she has no need to be ashamed as it was given her, together with her many charms by the Giver of all Good. It requires the united wish of one man and one woman to accomplish this object. This done the happy wishes to make her home the happiest place on earth, the most comfortable, the sort of home that will give them both an inspiration to live the best lives, both for themselves and others.

Being a young woman she recognises she has much to learn, and she becomes a member of the Women's Institute, if she has not already been a member, for in the Institute we study the construction of homes, that they may be sanitary, also labor saving, that they may be beautiful within and without.

We also study what are the best wall finishes to use, and how to treat the floors that they may be nice and easily cleaned; the convenience of cupboards and clothes presses, how to wash dishes, pots and pans, lamps, utensils; what system is best for heating, what for ventilation, as well as a system of water throughout the house, also drainage for same.

The building arrived at the outside of the house, we consider its position in regard to other buildings that it may be sanitary. We plan too, what amount of ground may be allowed for a suitable setting for this gem in the plan of things, and what trees and shrubs may be planted, what flowers are desirable, how much ground is to be cultivated for a vegetable garden, for this woman must have a forward look as well as a happy smile for the past.

It is desirable too that she is capable of setting before her husband a tasty well cooked meal. And here the Women's Institute is her co-worker for by the aid and through the help of the Agricultural Dept. of our Government, she may study under a competent and kind teacher a cooking course. The teacher will also give her instruction how to serve it that it may appeal to the eye, even before it is eaten. These aids she will make the effort to obtain because they fill her need. The Agricultural Dept. also furnish bulletins on canning meat, fruit, vegetables, also how to dry them. They teach as well how long to cook fruits, how much sugar to use to a pound of fruit and how to sterilize the cans to preserve the fruit. And happy is the girl who has lived in a neighborhood where there is a good live Institute.

The woman of whom we have been speaking all need to know how to dress for there are always house dresses and aprons to make and in this respect too, the Women's Institute will be her helper as the Department will send out a competent teacher to the Institute wherever a class of 15 may be obtained. For the social hour of the Institute meeting she may ask questions of any member or even get the help of a pattern. "If you know a good thing pass it on." A goodly thing it is to meet, in friendships circle bright.

Where nothing stains the pleasure sweet, Or dims the radiant light. No unkind words our lips shall pass. No envy sooth the mind. But each shall seek the common weal. The good of all mankind.

Having had a glimpse of all the useful knowledge with what a young wife needs to be equipped and where she may get the instruction, what she needs it, let us turn our thoughts now to the home and the wife in relation to herself.

First then she needs "The Book of Books" which is a guide, a comforter, a source of joy; secondly, the daily or weekly paper for what women does not feel the need of being in touch with the world around her. She also should have magazines if the income will afford it, the pleasure of some musical instrument, even although it cost some great effort to obtain it, a few works of art, the best the allotment can afford, for a wise woman will plan to divide her income as it is made; to cover first, necessary expenses, food, clothing, a little furni-

Many of John Philp's old friends and neighbors from this vicinity, attended his funeral yesterday. He was much respected in this neighborhood where he spent practically all his life until his marriage. Our sincerest sympathy goes out to the sorely bereaved ones.

Miss Gladys Rice returned from Oshawa where she had been enjoying a week's vacation. Her sister, Miss Anna accompanied her home.

Mr and Mrs Jones, their son and daughter, and also Mr and Mrs Cann of Toronto, spent the Civic holiday week with Mrs Philp.

Miss Elmer Parrish, Lucknow, is spending the week with her mother and brother.

Miss Roberta Philp, Durham, is home for a fortnight's rest.

Miss Alma and Master Carman Bunston, Toronto, are visiting friends around here.

The Misses Agnes, Mabel and Edith Orchard, Mt. Forest, were recent guests of their aunt, Mrs Mutch.

Miss Stella Hattie, Woodland, has been visiting her sisters, Mesdames A. Eccles and J. Nicholson.

Mr and Mrs Arch. Ivie, Miss Lizzie Walker, Mr Thos Walker and Mr Jno McEachern of Minto, recently visited at R. A. Nicholson's and Jas Bunston's.

We are pleased to hear that Mrs. Hugh Sinclair is able to be out among her neighbors again, after her long confinement to the house.

SOUTH BEND

Mrs (Rev.) West and little daughter, Holstein, were guests at G. D. Hunt's for several days last week, all calling on several other families here.

Mr and Mrs H. Cowan and family, motored to Milton and spent a day with friends there recently.

Mrs Ira Rawn left the beginning of the week to visit her sons in Detroit. Mr and Mrs Geo. McParlane, Toronto, are visitors at R. P. Sharp's this week. Mrs Sharp is suffering from a very severe attack of hay fever.

Mr Alex. Rawn is spending a few days at his home here this week. We hope the little change will do him good.

We noticed Mr and Mrs H. Cochran of Salem at church on Sunday. They were the guests of Mr and Mrs Melville Halliday.

Miss Maggie Halliday, Normanby, is visiting her cousin, Miss Jessie Stevenson this week.

The lawn social at Mrs Wright's last Tuesday was fine. There must have been nearly a hundred there. With games, and a short but good program, everybody enjoyed the social evening. After lunch they no more than reached home when the big thunder storm came on. Mrs Wright and family were taken to a lot of trouble to make everybody feel at home and were accorded a hearty vote of thanks in a neat little speech by Mr R. S. Ginn.

Miss Ruth Eurig has as her guest this month, Miss Marie Schoeppl, a talented young lady from Zurich, Switzerland, who came to Canada last December to study the English language. She can speak French and German fluently and also some Italian, and is progressively very well in our language. We believe she is fitting herself for a government position in her native land after she has mastered the English. We wish her success.

We join with others in welcoming Mr. Wright of Mt Forest home again and hope this delightful trip will renew his youth as it has filled him with gratitude to the world in general. We have been in touch with him through the interesting letters he has sent right along, the writing of which must have taken considerable time from sleep.

THE LATE JOHN R. PHILP

the office ever since in both Fairbairn and Holstein. His pastor, Rev. G. S. Scott, his colleagues in the Session, the congregation at large deeply mourn the loss of a cheery friend and counsellor.

John Philp was a public spirited citizen, eminently fitted for public life. He was elected to the council of his township in 1906 and served as councillor for that and three following years. He was made Deputy Reeve in 1911, and Reeve in 1912 and 1913, and on his retiring was made Township Treasurer, which office he held till his death.

The Public Library, of which he has been four years chairman, will miss him. For two or three years he was Sec'y Treas. of the Egremont Creamery Co., he has been for 9 years Sec'y Treas. of Egremont Agricultural Society; he took an active part in the meetings of the Community Circle, and was for two or three years, until his illness last year, Holstein editor of the Review-Leader.

The passing of such a man who touched life at many points, has of course, affected the whole community, but in the home circle his loss is most keenly felt. He leaves as chief mourners, his wife, his mother, Mrs. John Philp (who resides with her daughter, Mrs Mather), an only brother Wm. on the 16th con, and two sisters, Nellie (Mrs Jno. Mather) two nieces east of Holstein and Maria, (Mrs. J. E. Greaves) of Madoc. Another sister died about 25 years ago. Mr. Chas. Legge, now of Vinny Ridge, near Guelph, was also present, a grief-stricken mourner. He was adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Philp when a little lad, and grew up to young manhood with them, subsequently serving overseas, where his health was impaired.

The funeral on Monday last was a great demonstration of sorrow and respect. After a brief service in the home, the remains were taken to the Presbyterian church, which proved quite inadequate to hold the great crowd present. His pastor, Rev. G. S. Scott, who presided, feels the loss keenly and with him on the platform was a former pastor, Rev. John Little, under whose ministry deceased was made elder. Also there was Rev. Jos. Philp, an uncle of deceased. These spoke comforting words befitting the occasion, Mr Little of course recalling early days with the deceased, whose death had caused him sorrow.

The pall bearers were members of the Session of two congregations; he had served: Messrs W. H. Rogers, Robt. Christie, Robt Aitken, Andrew Hunter, R. T. Dadds, Wm Fairbairn. Interment took place to Mt. Forest cemetery.

The floral tributes were most beautiful, bespeaking the highest esteem and sympathy, and included wreaths, gates ajar, pillows and sprays. These were given by wife, mother, brothers and sisters in the West. Miss Ruby Philp (a niece), the Mather children, Session of Holstein, Flower and Social Committee of Presbyterian church, the Adult Bible Class of Pres. church, the Methodist church, the Library Board, Egremont Council, Egremont Agricultural Society, Women's Institute.
