Send Neckties on Approval. An enterprising Toronto men's wear firm sent out packages of neckties on approval to Durham citizens last week. We live in days of keen competition and local merchants who do not look alive and adopt modern methods may expect to find themselves in the discard a few years hence.

18 Tubercular Cows Killed. W. T. H. Copland, whose farm adjoins the town of Harrison and who conducts to a certain extent a dairy farm, had his cattle inspected by a Government inspector a short time ago and 16 animals were rejected as tubercular and ordered to be destroyed.

Eight of these animals were milk cows, while the other eight were younger cattle. As the other animals were not pure bred registered stock, a compensation of only $10 a head was allowed for condemned animals, so the loss is a severe one for the owner of the animals.

When Two Cars Met. While returning from the station on Friday night last, Mr. David Leith was driving his Ford south on main street and was passing in front of McCabe & McLaughlin's garage, when he collided with another car driven by Mr. Will Bryan, who was leaving the garage. The latter bus had sides on, and the driver failed to notice the Leith car coming down the highway, which struck the side of Bryan's auto, smashing the front wheel and fender. Leith's machine was but little damaged. Bryan claims he used the horn and extended his arm previous to driving out onto the highway, but this Mr. Leith denies.

3 Grey Boys on Judging Team. A judging team from the County has been sent to compete in the Inter County Judging Competition which will be held at the Winter Provincial Fair at Guelph. The winning team last season it was difficult to get the boys to spend the time on training. The following is the personnel of the team: Messrs Aubrey Foster and Ernest Bradley, Markdale and Geo. Wilson, Heathcote. They will spend a couple of days at the O. A. C. practicing before the final contest. It is expected there will be 29 or 32 teams in the competition from as many counties in Western Ontario.

Resting in Durham Cemetery. The funeral of the late George Meikle on Friday last was fittingly observed by a large attendance of friends and neighbors who had learned of value deceased's kindly qualities of heart. Durham Masonic Brethren marched in a body to the Presbyterian church where their brother Mason, Rev. W. H. Smith conducted the funeral services and took occasion to bring home the fact of the uncertainty of life, seeing that deceased had worshipped in this church the Sunday previous. Eight brothers Masons served in a last capacity to a brother member, viz: Messrs Ed. Hay, Robt. Burnett, John Murdoch, R. H. Richardson, Jas. Burt, E. D. McClocklin, Chas. Moffat, Geo. Kress. Visitors from a distance at the funeral were: Mrs. R. Robertson, Chicago, (cousin); Mr. and Mrs. Murphy and son, Mr. and Mrs. S. Allan, Chesley; Mr. A. McKinnon, Alberta (brother of Mrs. Meikle); Mr. and Mrs. Petrie, Paisley, (niece); Mr. Grier, Paisley, (brother-in-law); Floral tributes consisted of a spray from Mrs. Robertson; Masonic Order; Jack Griff, and also one from a daughter of Mrs. Murphy in Winnipeg.

Trinity Church A.Y.P.A. hope to present their new play "The Adventure of Grandpa" on Thursday, Nov. 20th, in Town Hall. Remember the date.

All ladies who have work out for the Red Cross bazaar kindly return before Friday, Nov. 21st, to Mrs. Juckach, convenor.

FOR SALE: Seven head of young cattle, four yearlings and three two year olds. Apply to Fred Huff, Lot 32, con 2, W. G. R., Bentinck.

On Sunday last in the Presbyterian Church, a special appeal was received on behalf of the Budget, to assist in wiping out the deficit of the missionary schemes of the church throughout Canada. The sum of $310.00 was taken in and likely more to follow.

Another newspaper for merger was formed recently when the Toronto Star took over the Toronto Sunday World which will be merged with the Star Weekly at once. No other business has been as hard hit as the newspaper, there being scarcely a week but some paper is either changing hands or going out of business.

Mr. J. Levine, formerly of Durham, has moved to Mt. Forest, and has purchased part of the building known as the Queen's Hotel, facing the main business street. He has opened a store, third door south of Scott's and carries a full line of ladies' and men's ready-to-wear, which is now on display. This stock is direct from factory and prices most up-to-date styles at very reasonable prices.

The "Review" has on hand a large and attractive assortment of Christmas Personal Greeting Cards to select from and at very moderate prices. These cards come no more expensive than the ordinary greeting folder one buys and in the Personal card one has the advantage of message and name printed thereon as well. Prices range from $1.75 per dozen up. Ask to see them at the Review Office.

The Home Stretch on Durham Road. On Tuesday morning Contractor Thos. Nichol and his gang commenced work on the last stretch of the Durham Road to be undertaken this year—a fill at foot, and cutting down and widening Bueessan hill. This will make it a long, gradual up-grade from old Bueessan Post Office to the top of the first hill on old road straight through. The old road, with its steep hills now eliminated, is now used as frequently by cars as the Glen road it is displacing.

Poppies Sold Well. Saturday last members of the local I. O. E. were out with the "Poppy" and it is to the credit of citizens of town and country that refusals were few and far between. Canadian Greys had contracted for 800 poppies for their drive and with the exception of about 100, they changed hands. The monument and Honor Rolls of the various churches Sunday, also displayed poppy wreaths and altogether this little flower has become synonymous with valor and sacrifice.

New Horticultural Treasurer. At the November Horticultural meeting held Tuesday evening, Mrs. Thos. E. Brown, Treasurer, who is leaving for Florida shortly, gave a full report of the finances of the society, which showed a small balance on the right side. Mrs. Sam Ritchie was elected to fill out the year's term as Treasurer. It was also decided to have an illustrated lecture by some prominent horticulturist in the near future.—J. Lockie Wilson having promised to send one, giving the Society the choice of a subject, which will be announced later.

NOV. 25th BRINGS THE KENMORE GIRLS, THE 2nd NUMBER OF THE LYCEUM COURSE

Under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Church. Because of the many attractive and varied talents enjoyed by these attractive young ladies, an exceptionally interesting program is promised. The Kenmore Girls have been together five years and have toured extensively not only in this country but in Western Canada. They are called the "Joy Bringers" because of the fine impression they have made wherever they have appeared. They are vivacious and enthusiastic, they like to entertain. Peculiarly all three are readers, they introduce violin, Irish harp and piano solos, ensemble numbers, musical readings and costume sketches—a most satisfying program.

ANNUAL MEETING OF DURHAM AMUSEMENT COMPANY

Thanksgiving Day Quietly Observed

Union Service held in Baptist Church Was Not Largely Attended.

In common with most urban municipalities, Durham observed the day with a religious service, which was held this year in the Baptist Church, the fourth in the past years, Rev. S. Peters, Wheeler, Taylor and Smith, being all on the platform, Rev. Mr. Taylor presided, Rev. Mr. Wheeler read scripture, Rev. Mr. Smith led in prayer, while Rev. Mr. Peters gave a discourse appropriate to the day and much appreciated by the audience.

This audience unfortunately was not large and perhaps in numbers represented the one leper in the Saviour's parable who returned to give thanks, while the other nine who had been cleansed went their several ways. One cannot help hoping that the spirit of thankfulness of this community is greater than the attendance at this service showed. The choir which was also poorly representative of a union choir, rendered fine aid.

The weather was beautiful, roads good, and much out-of-town visiting was done. As usual there were many family reunions over the week end and on the holiday, the last before Christmas.

Thanksgiving Day, likely for generations to come, will be associated with Armistice Day, Nov 11th, when the great throeb of relief was felt in 1918, that the long bloody war had come to an end. Many places remembered the Day by celebrations and addresses and music, and the depositing of flowers at and near the memorials erected in memory of the fallen. Perhaps it is well that Thanksgiving for the great victory should be associated with Thanksgiving to Almighty God for a bountiful harvest as well as for daily blessings. Well also could the spirit of thankfulness be cultivated every day of the year. "Oh that men would praise the Lord for His goodness," reiterated the Psalmist of old.

Several Cases Heard in Division Court

There was more liveliness than usual observable in Division Court on Tuesday last, Judge Sutherland presiding.

Certain suits by Robert Trafford, Geo. Burnet, Smith Bros., against one Geo. Trafford were disposed of in a short time by His Honor. The amount of the claims having been paid into Court, required only the order of the Judge to dispose of them.

Robt. Smith vs. Wm. R. Morrison, was a disputed account for work and material, the defendant admitting only $6.90 of a claim of $90.00. The case was adjourned to the May, 1925 Court on the plaintiff paying Defendant's costs of the day.

Hutton Estate vs. Arch. McArthur, was a claim for medical services by the late Dr. Hutton. This was transferred to next Court unless parties can come to an agreement in the meantime.

Lynn & Wilson vs. Wm. Wiggins, an account and counter claim. Account admitted by Defendant except for a claim of $10 for wood supplied. Plaintiff's not appearing. Defendant's claim was admitted. Defendant's costs of the day also to be paid out of money in court.

McCartney Milking Machine Co. Limited, Brockville, vs. Geo. T. Calder, Holstein. This suit was brought for payment of a note for which Defendant disclaimed liability. Much correspondence had taken place, twice the trial had been postponed at request of the Plaintiff, Mr. C. S. Cameron, Owen Sound, appeared for the Plaintiff, Mr. C. C. Middlebro' for the Defendant. Both made an able summing up of the evidence and His Honor gave judgment in favor of the Plaintiffs, allowing their claim and costs, allowing them also counsel fees of $20.00 and $10.00, the latter offset by a counsel fee of $10.00, allowed the Defendant.

Bowling Euchre a Success

The Ladies' Bowling Club Euchre last Thursday night in the Town Hall, went 'over the top' as far as attendance is concerned at a function of this nature. The auditorium of the building presented an animated appearance as 42 tables which mean one hundred and sixty eight people) was given over to this—which was self-evident—popular pastime. The ladies of the Bowling Club had spared no efforts in making the Hall as attractive as could be made, and the decorations were carried out in orange and black. The platform was the luncheon room for the occasion and from here a bevy of lady bowlers served delectable sandwich, cake and coffee.

The former is in the employ of the Hydro Electric in the city and personally knows the now famous Chas. Settell, and while at the commencement of his trial, he had the sympathy of his fellow employees, he has now lost it, due in great measure to the jealous spirit he is showing in seeking to implicate others, and feel that any punishment that will be meted to him will not be too severe.

DURHAM'S OLDEST CITIZEN BREAKS ANKLE BONES

While at Mr Geo. Moore's last Friday night, Mr John Lawrence stepped off the verandah on the ground, and it being a considerable height he fell, going over on the ankle of his left foot. One bone was broken and another splintered in the fall. To a younger person, it would not have been a serious mishap, but Mr Lawrence is Durham's oldest living resident, now in his 92nd year and is quite fleshy. At his age it will take the bones quite a while to knit again.

He was conveyed to the Red Cross Memorial Hospital, where he will be forced to lie for some weeks and is recuperating slowly. He resided with his son Philip here, and many friends will sympathize with the old gentleman in his mishap, who was quite active for his years.
