

PRICEVILLE (This Week's Budget)

Owing to the bad condition of the roads, our clergymen, Rev's Sutherland and Curran did not get to their out side appointments Sunday.

The Presbyterian church, Rev. Sutherland gave a splendid explanation of the Basis of Union. Owing to the stormy day and bad roads there was not a large number out. The explanation was very timely, as voting on the question begins to-day, Tuesday. The hours that the poll will be open will be decided at a congregational meeting being held to-day. So little has been said here on this question, that we cannot venture a guess as to the result of the vote. There has been so many contradictory statements on the subject made through the press, that it is hard for people to know which to believe. But it is a safe guess the trouble will not be over after the vote is counted, no matter how it goes.

The men looped alright, but the high-spirited, high acting 'Cob' went right ahead straight for home. Out of the motto "Do it now," the men remained to pray. We are told that H. prayed in French while J. dropped naturally into the Gaelic.

SWINTON PARK

Well this is the day after the storm which has lasted for almost two continuous weeks. But there is one good thing about a storm—we appreciate good weather when it does come. There is no severe sickness in this locality for which all are thankful. Some are suffering from colds but by making good use of their Christmas handkerchiefs all will be well.

Yesterday being Nomination Day, several of our citizens broke the road to Hopeville and three are in the field at present for candidates for a seat on the Council Board, viz: Jos. Black, Howard Watson and Robt. Knox, any one of them qualified to represent this division. Reeve Jas. A. Fraser is again elected. Seven, we believe are out for the Council. The abolition of Statute Labor was the main topic of discussion at the nomination and both sides were strongly advocated.

Jr. I—Mary Mather, Johnny McVicar, Kathleen Burnett, Wilfrid Flook, Cameron McLean, Lloyd Bender. Sr Pr—Wallace McDermid, Donald Aldcorn, J. D. Teeter, Catherine McVicar, Norman Barker. ZION A happy New Year to the Review staff, correspondents and readers. Mr and Mrs Geo. Furneaux, Durham, are spending the Christmas vacation with Mrs F's brothers, Messrs Geo. and J. J. Peart.

Mr and Mrs Geo. Haw and daughters entertained the young people in this locality to a dance Monday night. Miss Marjorie Kinnell has gone to Toronto to spend some time with her sister, Mrs Phillips. Wallace Kinnell is spending a week's holidays at his home here and will then return to his position at the Ford works in Detroit.

Mr Robt. Black arrived home yesterday from the West. Bob has been over 2 years in the West, spending one winter in Vancouver and one in Southern Saskatchewan. Wesley Heard is around among the farmers these days crushing grain, thereby saving many trips to the mills.

Mrs Hardy and sons are entertaining friends to-day, the Williams of Durham Road, also the Parolow's, thus prolonging the Xmas season.

Mr Neil McMillan is at present staying for a week with his brother John at Ceylon. The family connection was to have met at John's for Christmas dinner but on that morning a son Clark was stricken with appendicitis and was rushed to Owen Sound for an operation. Father and mother are with him. Much sympathy is felt for Clark, he going to the war a young robust boy and coming back in poor health. He has spent the greater part of his time in military hospitals but being somewhat better has been home all summer. We sincerely hope that a full recovery is in store for him, he having risked his life for his country.

Mr Albert Teeter brought his new sawing outfit home last Saturday. Zion Women's Institute meet Thursday, Jan. 8th, at the home of Mrs W. J. Greenwood when a paper will be given by Mrs W. J. Cook on "Good form in Public Places." Roll call—a beautiful thought in prose or poetry.

Zion's annual Christmas concert held last Tuesday was quite a success, there being a splendid crowd, though it was not the best of weather. A splendid program was given. Recitations were given by a number of No. 5 school children, Isabel Mays, Clara Jack, Mary Anderson and Wainetta Noble; a monologue by Charlie Timmins; solos by Mrs J. O. Greenwood, Misses Violet Fallaise, Frederica Staples and Armonell Glenocross; violin music by Messrs Arthur McNally and Jim Peart, accompanied on the organ by Mrs A. McNally. A pantomime in which the motions were performed by 4 girls, which Mrs J. O. Greenwood sang "Silent Night." A star drill was given by 9 girls, a stocking drill by the school children and a fire fly drill by six little girls. Gordon Noble was the little fire fly. Choruses were given by the school children and a couple by the young people and held dialogues, entitled "Jack Hay seed's first visit to the city," "Married in haste" and "A Siberian Inquest." Rev. Mr Peters was chairman for the evening. Over $40 was taken in at the door.

Miss J. O. Greenwood and family, spent Christmas with Mr and Mrs Arch. Beaton, Bunnison. Mr and Mrs W. J. Cook and family ate Christmas dinner with Mr and Mrs W. J. McFadden, Orange Valley.

Mrs Will Campbell and little son Charlie of Wellbeck, spent a few days last week with her parents, Mr and Mrs Chas. McChalkin.

Miss Rebecca Banks, Toronto spent over Christmas with her sister, Mrs. M. Smith.

Miss Reta Glenocross spent the latter part of last week with Miss Clara Greenwood.

Sorry to report that Mr Robt. Timmins is not as well as his many friends would wish.

The regular monthly meeting of Hopeville W. Institute will be held on Jan. 14th, at the home of Mrs Wm. McEachnie when a good program will be given.

Nomination to-day in our village with the usual stir. The tea meeting at Esplan last Monday was very well attended and what the weather lacked was made up by the warmth of heart and good cheer of the good people of Esplan, with abundance to fill the inner man and a good program to delight everyone. Rev. Stern and Mr Robt Patton were two speakers.

The weather these times can speak for itself.

HOPEVILLE

Mr and Mrs Ham Allan, Durham, are holiday visitors at Wm McEachnie's.

Mr and Mrs Robt. Stewart have the sympathy of the community in the loss of their infant son, aged 1 week.

Mr Will Feltis was up from Bolton for a few days visit with his parents, Mr and Mrs Jas. Feltis.

Many Hopeville friends are sorry to hear of the illness of Mr Arch. Burnett, Sr., Durham, but who spent a good many years blacksmithing in our village. We hope a speedy recovery for him.

PRICEVILLE & GLENELG

We are always remembered at this season of the year from friends near or far by a Christmas greeting. We highly appreciate the spirit in which it is sent by all who remember us in this manner.

This is Nomination Day and many will be seeking office who may be favored by being left at home. Glenelg was always in times past to the front by having more aspirants for office than required, but some may be lucky enough to stay at home.

Visiting friends have not had much pleasure on account of the severity of the weather, the cold and stormy days are hard on aged people. Those ailing in the vicinity of Edge Hill are somewhat better and we hope to hear a similar account of those ailing at Priceville and that they all will enjoy a New Year dinner and supper.

VII. "WILLOW THE WISP" Archie P. McKishnie

"Willow" was a wilderness maiden in Northern Ontario. She had spent all her childhood days in the woods, and the lives of the wild wood folk were familiar to her. She knew the bypaths, the varied calls of bird and beast and whether these meant happiness or danger. She understood the language of the leaves as they swayed in the wind and could tell when a storm was coming. Her acquaintance, then friendship and intimacy with the owner of the wood sanctuary, who had once been a drug addict, who had fled to these Northern woods and regained his manhood in close touch with nature, makes an interesting and wholesome story.

GREEN GROVE Mr Walter Ball of Windsor is spending a few days in this neighborhood. Mr Ball has leased the Davis place to Jno. Newell for the coming year.

Mr Jno. Bell, divinity student, Winnipeg, was home with his mother and sisters and brothers for over Christmas and returned this morning. We are pleased to see John looking so well. His brother Oscar of Toronto, also spent the day at home.

Mrs John McGirr left on Saturday morning to spend a week with her sister, Mrs Thos Johnston, Detroit.

Dr Joseph and Annie Patterson of Listowel, spent Christmas at the home of his parents, Mr and Mrs S. Patterson.

Mr and Mrs Harper McGirr of Detroit, are spending a few days with his parents, Mr and Mrs Thos McGirr.

On account of the bad roads and weather a very small crowd attended the Nomination held in the Township Hall Monday. Mr W. Weir, Reeve for the past year, gave a satisfactory account of the money spent in the township. Mr Weir is again seeking re-election. Mr A. Aljoe, councillor and commissioner for Ward 1, also gave a satisfactory report of money spent in Ward 1 and is again seeking re-election. We hope to see both of them at the Council table in 1925.

A farmer near Orangeville was offered $21,000 for 2000 pounds of ginger which he has ready for sale. Several other farmers in that vicinity have ginger under cultivation and it is expected two tons will be sold. The high price is due to the war in China.

New Pipe Organ in Walkerton The installation of the magnificent new organ at Sacred Heart Roman Catholic Church, Walkerton, is now practically completed and the new instrument will be used for the first time at midnight mass on Christmas eve. The tone of the new organ is reported to be particularly fine. The Warren Co. of Barrie are the contractors.
