PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

Sudden was the call to Mr Geo. A. Watson, a respected citizen of this village, who passed away on Sunday morning at 3 a.m. at Dromore. He had driven there Saturday to visit some relatives, feeling as well as usual and suddenly at 3.30 o'clock that afternoon he was stricken with paralysis, remaining unconscious to the last. Mr Watson was well and widely known, being one of the well-known family of Egremont Tp., being born on the 21st con. of that Tp. 57 years ago. As a young man he learned the trade of blacksmithing, serving his apprenticeship with Mr. John Renton of Dromore. Later he followed carpentering as the family were all expert carpenters. For quite a period of years he has been engaged in the sawmilling business. About 10 years ago he bought the Priceville mill and he and his sons, Elmer and Wilfrid carried on a saw-mill and chopping business, later adding a planer and shingle mill. Mr. Watson was a real mechanic and whatever he did was well done.

About two years ago he had an attack of the same trouble but recovered nicely and was able to look after the business. His wife died during the flu epidemic six years ago. His passing is a distinct loss to the village and community and the sympathy of all go out to the family which have been so suddenly bereaved. The family consists of three sons, Elmer, Wilfrid and Murray, and two daughters, Violet and Ethel, also two brothers—Chas. of Saugeen Junction and Wm. of Egremont. The sisters are Mrs Hooper and Mrs. Long, Toronto; Mrs Thos Tucker, S. Glenelg; Mrs Amos Chislett, California. The funeral on Tuesday to McNeil's cemetery will be conducted under Masonic auspices, the deceased being a member and P.M. of Prince Arthur Lodge, Flesherton. Rev. A. Sutherland will preach the sermon. Thus we are by this sudden calling reminded of those words, "Be ye also ready, for ye know not the day nor the hour when the Son of Man cometh."

A regrettable accident happened to Mrs Colin McLean of the village Monday morning when she slipped on the kitchen floor, breaking her leg above the ankle. Dr Carr was called and decided to take her to Durham Hospital for an X ray examination to ascertain the extent of the fracture.

Miss Sadie McKinnon was able to return home from Durham hospital Saturday. She has recovered nicely from her operation.

Miss McFarlane, principal of the school, is back on duty this week.

Miss Delia McPhail has returned to Toronto.

Mr and Mrs Donald McMillan and three children of Portage la Prairie, are visiting their former homes at Messrs Donald McMillan's and John Burnett's S. Line.

Miss Beatrice Bushell of Holland Centre spent the week end with Miss Doris McLean.

The Presbyterian congregation will hold their annual meeting Friday of this week. The result of the vote on Church Union will be announced at the close of the meeting, as the poll closes at 4 p.m. that day.

Mr Allie McInnis made a business trip to Toronto Saturday last. An enjoyable evening was spent on Friday last at the home of Mr Alex. McDonald, S.L., when the D. R. Young People's Club met and spent the evening in music and dancing.

PRICEVILLE & GLENELG

The election excitement is over for another year. Those elected to stay at home in some instances are more possessed with the necessary qualifications to fill the office than those elected, but in all cases the majority rules.

The winter is passing. We will soon be in the middle of January. We hope the storms of December will not be repeated during the latter part of January and February. Bows says we are to have some mild weather in February. We hope he may prove correct.

Entertainments in general are a thing of the past but the youth of Edge Hill are keeping up in a manner the pleasure of assembling at No. 3 school for the purpose of a good debate, so the old version "let the young people mind what the old ones say" may be reversed by "the old folks mind what their youngsters do". If the older people of some 50 or 60 years ago had indulged in the practice of debating, there would not be so many old heads afraid to stand on a platform to do as much as second a motion. As an old councillor at nomination used to say "Gentlemen, I have a lot to say down my throat, but cannot get it out", but for all that, this poor old councillor served faithfully for 20 years irrespective of his platform ability. Thus the old copy lines of the days of our youth may be repeated, that "a man of words and not of deeds, is like a garden full of weeds". However all our gardens at present are full of snow, and no one can see where the weeds are.

There is great excitement at present about church union, some as it were, saying 'we are of Paul' and others may say 'we are of Apollis'. We are Presbyterians and we don't want to give up the good old name of the church of our forefathers. In the church where we spent our youthful days in the town of Priceville, there were two Presbyterian churches fifty years ago, the old Established church of Scotland, and the Free Church. When the vote was taken on Union in 1878 between the two bodies. Two old heads, one named "Rory" and the other "Jim" got together and Rory said if he never heard a sermon he would not go inside the old church to hear one but would walk 3 miles from the East and go another 3 miles to the west to the Free Church like as there was a different God to worship in the Free Church.

But after poor old Rory departed this life many years ago, his remains were laid to rest in the old kirk cemetery, so if he had his wishes fulfilled he would be laid to rest in the stony graveyard on Smellie's place. On the other hand old Jim of the old kirk repeatedly said we are good enough, without united with the free church and he didn't want to forsake the good old church of Scotland by being united with the Free Church. So these two old veterans of long ago have passed, no doubt, to the church above and they find that there is no difference there, no matter what church they belong to while here below.

So it will be with those churches that are making so much ado about Union. When all shall pass away the question will not be which church you belong to but were you a Christian? Whether you were a Catholic or Protestant it matters not.

But those two Presbyterian churches at Priceville were united and pastorate of the united body in the person of the late Rev. Don McLeod. Some of the inquisitive old heads often would ask him what college he was educated in. He simply answered them by telling them they could ask him questions that would be more profitable to them than to find out what college he was educated in so he didn't make them any the wiser. Mr McLeod labored faithfully in the United Church for 19 years and his remains are laid to rest in the old graveyard at the old kirk.

Mr Colin McArthur of the 10th con., Glenelg, is at present doing some work for his son-in-law, Mr. Arthur Edge of Edge Hill. Colin gave us a pleasant call when delivering his ballot box. He can converse in the language of his forefathers very good. (the Gaelic.)

Mr and Mrs Geo. Ritchie entertained a few the other evening and we beg to be excused if not complying with the invitation of being there on account of not feeling too good.

Mr John Firth's hand is mending well but will take him some time before he can use it.

Mrs McPherson and Miss Ada McLean, Toronto, and Mrs McCannell and Miss Margaret McLean of Durham, were guests of the McDonalds, Edge Hill, one afternoon last week.

Mr Hermie Burnett of con 4, Glenelg, has a sick horse which puzzled the Vets to know what was the matter with it.

The veteran late clerk of Glenelg cast his first vote in 40 years last Monday, Jan. 6th. We hope the good aged pioneer will be yet permitted to cast many votes.

A township clerk is prohibited from voting in case of two candidates being ties they are required to give the Glenelg Council many years ago we had the only experience in Glenelg of being ties, as we and the late Jas. Lauder received the same number of votes. The good old clerk Mr James Briwn had to give the preference to the late member by giving him the casting vote as he thought we were too young to knock out an old officer.

We are again reminded of the uncertainty of life. The aged pioneers are passing away fast on the North Line, Glenelg, as was seen in last week's paper, in the passing away of Donald McGillivray and Norman McMillan. A few months ago Duncan McArthur passed away. These were some of the first to come to the N. Line when very young about 75 yrs ago. During 1924 there passed away in Glenelg Donald McArthur and sister, Mrs Alex Livingstone, Miss M. McDougall, Mr Patrick Haley, Mr D. McKechnie, Sr.; Mrs Nell Black; Mr Neil McGillivray; Mrs Jno. McArthur con 4, Glenelg; Arch McMillan, con 2, NDR.; Mrs Thos McKeown, Durham Rd.; John McColl; Hector Campbell, 107 years old; Miss Beaton, daughter of Mr and Mrs Arch Beaton.

Mr Henry Williams of Edge Hill is laid up for the past 3 weeks with a complication of ailments but is getting better again.

The mercury went down to 10 below zero Sunday night. We hear that Mrs Jno McMillan, S. Line, Artemesia, has come to reside with Mr and Mrs Arch McKinnon for the winter months. We are assured that Mrs McMillan will be well cared for by her dutiful daughter and we are pleased to hear she is getting better.

SWINTON PARK

Again we have to chronicle the death of one of the pioneers of this locality, Mr Richard Heard, one well known in the Township. He was very suddenly called on Sunday morning last, which was a shock, not only to the family but to the neighbors as well, as few knew that he was ailing. Mr Heard had a cold and for a few days was in bed, but was again able to be up and around the house. On Sunday morning, getting up at the usual time, and while in the act of dressing, he collapsed, sank down on the floor and was dead without a struggle. Mrs Heard who was in an adjoining room, heard him make a slight noise and rushed in to find the spirit had fled.

Mr Heard was in his 81st year, had always been active and healthy and had evidently finished his earthly work and his Lord called him up higher. Quietly and conscientiously he lived his life and quietly he was called away. All who knew Mr. Heard will mourn his sudden death, but all are the better who have noticed his quiet and consistent life for they must have benefited thereby. For 55 years he has lived in our midst and was always industrious and diligent in business and was a kind, obliging neighbor and friend. He leaves as chief mourners his wife who will greatly miss him, as since the family grew up they have especially enjoyed life together in their retirement, as three daughters, viz: Mrs Hutton, Toronto; Edith, Mrs. Scott, Proton; Sarah, Mrs Thos. Weir, N. Egremont. Also seven sons, viz: John and Wm. in Saskatchewan, George and Seymour in Toronto; Dick in Fordwich; Wesley on the farm abutting on Ed. on the home farm. All are married, excepting Seymour, the youngest, who is studying for a druggist in Toronto. They will all miss their father very much. But they can think of the exemplary life which they have seen lived and think of the lessons they have been taught with gladness. There are also two aged sisters in Proton, Mrs. Kinsman and Mrs Scott, along with other members of the family in Durham County. One son Howard died 4 years ago in young manhood.

The funeral will be Wednesday at 1 p.m. to Salem Methodist church and interment in the cemetery on their farm. Rev. Mr Curran, their pastor will be the officiating clergyman and Mr. Watson, undertaker of Priceville, in charge.

Mrs Watson, Sr. at present is very low. Her son Leslie and wife of Dundalk, are at present waiting upon her and Dr Carter is in charge.

Misses Ruby and Nellie Haw have gone to the city for a visit.

Donald McMillan con 14, has gone to the city where he has found employment.

GREEN GROVE

Mr Robt. Baird of North Dakota, is spending a few days with his brother-in-law Mr David Hamilton.

Mr Ranald Martin of Toronto, is spending a few days with his sister, Mrs Robt. McFadden.

Mrs McPherson and Miss Ada McLean, Toronto, have returned after spending a week with the former's sister, Mrs Neil McCannell.

At the annual meeting of the ratepayers of S.S. No. 9, Glenelg, on Wed., Dec. 31st, Mr Wes. Arnett was elected trustee for the third term. The contract of putting in the wood was let to Mr C. Dunsmoor at $3.70 per cord. The caretaking was given to Mr Wm. Hargrave at $80.

Mr C. Dunsmoor with his sawing outfit on Friday last, cut a pile of wood for Mr E. Lindsay and on Saturday for Mr Geo. Hopkins.

Mrs H. Vaughan, Glenoraed, is assisting her daughter, Mrs Campbell Dunsmoor at present.

Wm. Weir, reeve and Alex Aljoe, councillor, attended Monday the first council meeting of the year in the Township Hall. Messrs John McGillivray and Henry Beaton of Glenelg Centre, were appointed auditors to go over last year's accounts.

On Friday evening last friends and neighbors of Mr and Mrs John McGillivray met at the home of the bride's parents, Mr and Mrs Thos. Davis. Reeve Wm Weir acted as Chairman and called Mr and Mrs. McGillivray to come forward. A neatly prepared address was read by Miss Eliza Patterson, and Misses M. McGillivray and M. Newell presented them with a cabinet of silver and a mantle clock. Mr. McGillivray on behalf of himself and wife, thanked the friends and neighbors for their kindness. Short addresses were given by Wm Edge, Jno. McPayden and others. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing till the wee sma' hours.

Mr Wm French, of Elora, spent a few days with his aunt and uncle, Mr and Mrs D. Hamilton.

Mr Alfred Noble has returned home after spending a couple of months with his brother-in-law, Jno. McGillivray.

HOPEVILLE

Mrs. Frank Gow and children, Ferguson, are visiting her mother, Mrs Jas Riddell. Mr and Mrs Albert Riddell, Luther, were also recent visitors at the parental home.

Misses Edna and Berta Webster have gone to Toronto.

Mr and Mrs Thos. Stewart have gone to Galt where Mr Thomas is principal of one of the Public schools for this year.

Mr and Mrs John Sinclair spent the first of the week with their aunt Mrs Hugh Sinclair, Yeovil.

Mr Alex Stewart has left to attend Normal School at North Bay. Misses Ellie Sturrock and Gladys Ferguson, were recent holiday visitors at their respective homes.

There was no service at Esplan on Sunday, Mr Robt. Patton being unable to be present owing to his mother's severe illness.

Owing to continued poor health, Mr Alex McPhail is having an enforced rest from his school duties. We hope he will soon recover.

Miss Beulah Burnett has been quite ill the past two weeks but we are pleased to hear she is recovering nicely.

The sudden death of Mr Richard Heard came as a shock to this community where he was so well known for years and our sympathy goes out to the bereaved family and friends.

Mr Jas. Dingwall is not in his usual health this winter and has been enforced to give up all farm activities.

U. F. O. Shareholders Get Dividend Checks

Shareholders of the United Farmers' Co-operative Company, Limited, have been made happy by the receipt of their checks for the dividend recently declared.

"While this is only a 3 per cent dividend, it must be remembered that it is equal to bank interest and few farmers have made a profit on their operations equal to bank interest during recent years," said George W. Bothwell, President, and J. J. Morrison, Sec'y Treas. "Equally true is it that a large percentage of business concerns have not paid dividends for a long time.

It is then with a degree of pride that we resume payment of a dividend after a lapse of three years. Dividends of 7 per cent were paid regularly for 6 years prior to 1921, and it is hoped that the company is again on a permanent dividend paying basis."

Such was in part the nature of the letter enclosed with the dividend.

PREMIER KING ACTUALLY PROPOSED MARRIAGE

Right Hon. Lyon McKenzie King, Premier of Canada, it has just leaked out, all but took a reckless plunge into the sea of matrimony during his tour of Western Canada. When he visited the Comax-Alberni district, A. W. Neill, the independent member of that constituency, was on his platform, and as the premier had much to say on his cabinet and how it represented every portion of Canada, Mr Neill took up the same subject. "It lacked only one thing," he said: "the finishing touch of a lady's hand." He proceeded to chide the bachelor premier and Mr King, when he rose to speak, also rose to the occasion.

He admitted the truth of the remarks of the member for Comax-Alberni, "and I agree with him that nothing could be more desirable than that I should take back a lady from the West. I would be pleased to take one back, and if there is any lady in the audience who will come with me will she kindly step forward to the platform?" On two occasions the Premier took this desperate chance. Twice there was no response. This may be no compliment to the Premier. Again, it may be due to bashfulness, and hundreds of ladies of the north end of Vancouver Island may in years to come tell of how they once received a proposal from the Prime Minister of Canada, omitting the little detail that it was a collective proposal.
