Scouts Lost To Mt. Forest
Durham Boy Scouts lost a hard fought hockey game in Mt Forest on Saturday afternoon by 7 to 5 in overtime. Full time count was 6-2. The Durham lads had hard luck in shooting, many shots hitting the post or being a trifle wide. The line up was: goal, Geo. Lavelle; defence, Edgar Clark, Leonard Vollett; centre, Oscar Moon; wings, Fred Vollett, Bill Wilson. Subs, Connor, Moon.

Another Auto Crash
No, dear reader, not a collision this time, please to say, but a new form of auto disaster. Mr. Wilfrid McDonnell, the barber, kept his runabout in Miss L. McKenzie's barn facing Countess St., formerly leased by Mr. John H. Hunter for his race horse. One night last week the roof caved in with weight of snow, smashing in the top and windshield of the car. It will take about $75 to put it in running order again.

Hanover Furniture Show Held
The second annual Furniture Show of the Hanover Manufacturers is now completed and the attendance and general success attending same, was most satisfactory and gratifying. Buyers were present from St. John, N.B.; Summerside, P.E.I.; Quebec City; Trois Rivières, Sherbrooke, Montreal, Belleville, Hespeler, St. Marys, Hamilton and Sarnia. It is safe to say that the Furniture Show will be a permanent annual event in Hanover.

Ceylon Club remember Miss Macphail
At the monthly meeting of the U. F. W. O. Club held at the home of Mr and Mrs Geo. Cairns, Ceylon, a pleasing feature was the presentation to Miss Agnes Macphail, M.P., who was presented with a pair of handsome book ends and a pretty Dutch silver vase accompanied by appropriate address, all in token of appreciation of Miss Macphail's services to the Club which she assisted in organizing and served as Secy Treas. Miss Macphail was deeply touched with the kindness shown and expressed her high appreciation of it in very fitting terms.

District L.O.L. Meeting Held
The annual meeting of Durham District, L.O.L. was held in the L.O.O.F. Hall Tuesday last week. A large representation was present and much business accomplished. At this meeting the annual report was received which disclosed the fact that all lodges in the district were strong, both numerically and financially. The following District Officers were elected for 1925: W. Erwin, Master; Donald McDonald, deputy master; W.R. Watson, chaplain; W.J. Ritchie, recording Secy; Thos. Whitmore, Financial Secy and Treasurer; J. McGill, lecturer.

Five Sheep Killed
Coun. Alex. Aljoe of the 2nd con., Glenelg, lost five sheep on Monday night through being worried by hounds belonging to town parties. As he knew the owners, he was endeavoring to arrange private settlement.

Ronald Giles Passed Away after Brave Battle for Life

The whole town was deeply anxious for the restoration to health of James Ronald Giles, one of Durham's most public-spirited young men, who has spent nearly five months in a serious struggle for life at the Red Cross Hospital. During the last month, it was realized it was a losing fight and he succumbed Saturday morning last, in a very emaciated condition, at the age of 28 years. Last Aug. Ronald took ill at his newly-made home here, and a few weeks later was taken to hospital. He suffered greatly and medical aid could not definitely diagnose his ailment, until about three weeks ago when performing an operation upon him at the painful spot in his back, Drs. Jamieson and Groves discovered two diseased ribs which were causing the trouble and which were removed. It is thought possibly they were injured in a fall a few years ago. During the last month especially he has suffered excruciating pain, and while he was usually hopeful of recovery, death came as a happy release.

Ronald was born in Durban, Natal, South Africa, where his mother died when he was two years of age. Six months later his father took him back to Cornwall, England, where his boyhood was spent. His father, Mr. J. F. Giles was again wedded, and the family emigrated to Canada when Ronald was 16 years old, coming almost directly to Durham and until his illness he was employed at the Furniture Factory here. In 1916 he enlisted in the 24th battalion, and spent two years in the army. He served some time in England but did not reach France. Only on June 25th last, he was united in marriage to Miss Lella Pedlar, daughter of Mr and Mrs Geo. Pedlar of town, who with his mother, tenderly cared for him when out of the hospital. Besides his sorrowing wife and parents, two sisters, Mrs. Rose Warne in England and Mrs. Coulls of London, Ontario, also mourn. The latter and her husband were present for the funeral Monday.

For several years Ronald has been a valued member of Durham Band, playing slide trombone and latterly has been chairman among the boys. He was an active worker among the young people of the Baptist church, a good vocalist and was a member of the I. O. O. F. and Orange lodges. One of Durham's most popular young men he was ever ready to do a good turn. Whether at the church, factory, band room, lodge or on the street, his cheery disposition and winning smile made him hosts of friends. At local concerts or plays he was a born actor and invariably a star.

A military funeral was accorded his remains by his War Veteran comrades, as well as the Oddfellows last rites by his lodge brethren, and it was a remarkable tribute of respect. Preceded by the band, about twenty war veterans under Lieut. M. Saunders, and a firing squad of six under Sergt. J. Stedman, all in uniform, also the brethren of the I. O. O. F., marched with the funeral cortege from his parents' home to the Methodist church where the service was held. While filing into the church, the band played a funeral dirge. The building was much too small to accommodate all who desired to attend, Rev. J. E. Peters, assisted by Rev. Jas. Taylor, conducting the service. During the service, the male quartette appropriately rendered "Soldier, rest in peace," and Mr. Bert Saunders a solo, "Thy will be done."

The pall bearers were six I.O.O.F. brethren, also war veterans: Wm. McGillivray, James Lloyd, Dan. McCallum, Calvin Kinnee, Ezra Schenk and Douglas Ewen.

At the grave, after Rev. Mr. Peters had concluded the service, the I.O.O.F. burial service was taken by N. G. Robt. Whitmore and P. G. Chas. Ritchie. The military service followed. Rev. J. H. Whelan offering prayer, the firing squad firing three rounds over the remains, and a bugler who came up specially from Listowel, Mr. Dempsey, sounded "the last post."

Many beautiful floral tokens surrounded the casket: pillows from parents and wife, and I.O.O.F. lodge; wreaths from the Band, Orange lodge, Furniture Co., G. W. V. A. comrades, Baptist church, Mr and Mrs W. McGillivray, Mr and Mrs T. Daniel; sprays from Mr and Mrs G. Coulls (sister) and daughter Eva, St. George's Church, London, Mrs. Elliott, Markdale; young people of Methodist church, Mr and Mrs G. A. Thompson, Mr and Mrs J. N. Murdoch, Mr and Mrs Chas. Lawrence.

His sorrowing young widow and parents have wide-spread sympathy in their bereavement.

Council Sells the Jackson Factory

At a special meeting of the Town Council Tuesday night, the sale of the Jackson Factory, now almost two years idle, was made to local man Mr Wm McGowan of the Rob Roy Mills Ltd. The purchase price was $5000; $1000 down and $1000 every 6 per cent. Mr McGowan intends having it in operation in the wood-working line very shortly. While the town will lose several thousand dollars on the transaction, all rate-payers will be pleased that a local man who can be depended upon to make it go, has received the benefit, and that again the wheels of industry will be humming, employing ten to fifteen hands.

Three Ribs Broken
While at work in the Furniture Factory Monday, Mr John C. Adams met with an unusual accident. A stake broke on a truck at which he was working, letting him fall against the end of some boards, which resulted in three broken ribs. He is laid off work and is walking around, but they will be more painful in a few days when knitting takes place.

Durham Presbyterians Now Voting on Union

The congregational meeting of Durham Presbyterian Church on Monday last was well attended showing the keen interest being taken in the question of Union. Pastor Smith presided and opened and closed with devotional exercises.

While a spirit of good feeling prevailed, there were sharp differences of opinion. A motion by J. J. Smith and J. S. McIlraith was presented, asking that in view of the assurances of Moderator McKinnon the day previous that no change locally would be observable, and in the interest of peace, harmony and progress that no vote be taken at all, but that the congregation should go into Union as the Church has done.

An amendment by S. D. Croft and Wm. Firth presented another view, and asked that a vote be taken by ballot to ascertain the feeling of the congregation. After considerable discussion, a standing vote was taken: for the motion 72. However in spite of this vote, an agreement was come to to have a vote and Thos. Allan, Clerk of Session, was appointed Returning Officer. It was decided to commence voting forthwith, and ballots and ballot box being on hand, quite a number voted at the close of the meeting. Three scrutineers for each side had been appointed, one of whom is supposed to be on duty at hour of voting daily.

From 3 to 4 o'clock every afternoon this week and from 7 to 8 p.m. every day next week, and from 4 to 5 p.m. on Monday, Feb. 2nd, Mr. Thos. Allan will be at the church with the ballot box. After 5 p.m., Feb. 2nd, the scrutineers will count the ballots and at 8 p.m. same night a meeting of congregation will be held to hear the results.

Fine Address by Moderator, Rev. Clarence McKinnon

Chief Characteristic of Dr. McKinnon's Discourse his Fair-mindedness

A good congregation greeted the Moderator of the General Assembly on Sunday last. There were a few notable absentees, supposedly anti-unionists, who presumably did not want to expose themselves to a Unionist discourse by so prominent a speaker. If such was their motive, they were woefully mistaken, for the reverend gentleman seemed to have captured all hearts by his kindly manner and touching discourse. Nothing offensive to any anti-unionist was uttered.

He read from Paul's letter to the Ephesians (and he is a delightful reader) and introduced his discourse by extending congratulations to the congregation on having such a pastor to guide and lead them and promised them that not one word would be said in harshness to those who might disagree with the action of the Presbyterian church.

The gospel, he said, was first preached to the Jews, but meant for both Jew and Gentile. There was difficulty in getting them together, but it was accomplished and "those at one time far off were brought nigh"; formerly strangers and foreigners but now beneficiaries of the Covenant of Grace. He pictured the contrast here and now: they were all living in one town and community doing business together, having social intercourse one with another and in every way enjoying the blessings of a united life.

He paid tribute to Scotland for its progress and fine national character, and for many distinguished sons. The characteristics that made Scotland famous were largely the work of John Knox. He strove for unity of worship and with the help of the founders he tried to have a school. He drew a powerful picture of what Scotland might have been had John Knox lived the Anglicans in Inver-

PERSONAL MENTION

Miss J. Floyd, teacher of Holstein, while one of the casts of the Holstein Dramatic Club in town for the production of their play, Friday night, remained over the week end as a guest of Mrs Nell McCannel.

Mrs W. C. Pickering was in Toronto for a few days last week end.

Miss Elizabeth Graham of Montreal, came Saturday last to the home of her brother-in-law, Mr Wm Calder, and where she will visit for a few weeks. Mr Melvin Greig, druggist, of Toronto, was also a week end visitor at his home here.

Mr. H. H. Miller, Hanover, was a passenger on the C. P. R. Empress of France, sailing from New York this week, on a cruise around the world.

Mr and Mrs G. Haddon are in Palmerston today taking in the Listowel-Palmerston O. H. A. Intermediate game.

Messrs A. H. Jackson and John H. Hunter are in Owen Sound this week attending a Carriers' bonspiel.

Mrs Chas. Ferguson, Proton, was a guest with Mrs Nell McCannel Friday last.

Mr Thos. Scarf went to Toronto Tuesday, where he will visit with his brother Will for a time.

Messrs Arch. and Andrew Clements of Toronto, were week end visitors at the home of Mr and Mrs Geo. Haddon.

Mr David Smith who since Nov. 19th, has been a patient at the Hospital, for treatment of his injuries received at the railway crossing of that date, was removed to his home Saturday last. There is every reason to hope that he will have use of his limbs again.

Mrs Thos. Harris, Hamilton, but formerly of Durham, will have the sympathy of old friends here, in the loss she sustained in the death of her sister, Lady Willison of Toronto which took place this week.

Mrs H. W. Wilson and brother, Mr Andrew Voinis of this town, attended a family reunion at Park Head on Christmas, when all of the family—10 in number, met for the first time in 22 years. The parents received some fine mementoes of the occasion from the children. A group photograph was taken before the family separated with best wishes to meet again soon.

Startlingly Sudden Death

Mrs. Angus McLachlan, a Pricewille Lady, Passes away in Arthur

Mr Angus McLachlan and the family of Mr Hugh McKinnon, South Glenelg, were plunged into the deepest gloom on Sunday last when word was sent to Pricewille, that Mrs McLachlan had died that morning suddenly. She and her husband were visiting at Dr. McFarlane's in Arthur village, an old time Pricewille friend. She had retired well as usual but during the night she woke her husband and asked him to get her a cup of tea without disturbing the house. As she was not feeling well, he did so twice, and later she asked him again and he noticed her eyes rolling and almost immediately she passed away before him. The family were roused and Dr. McFarlane worked over her for an hour, but death was in the cup and all efforts failed.

Mr. McLachlan, it may be remembered, met with a severe accident last fall while at work in a Markdale elevator from which he had just recovered and was intending to commence work again after this visit. They were married in September, 1919 and one daughter Marie, aged 4 years, will never know a mother's care.

Mrs McLachlan was a daughter, (Julia) of Mr Hugh McKinnon, born in Glenelg 34 years ago, and besides her husband and aged father, brothers and sisters will mourn the sudden taking of her. These are Donald and Archie in Sask.; Malcolm in Regina; Charles and Lachlan at home, Sarah (Mrs John Jones), of Sask. and Bella, (Mrs Hector McLean, near Pricewille are the sisters. Another sister deceased was Hannah, Mrs John Scott.

Interment takes place to-day, Wednesday in McNeill's cemetery. Rev. A. Sutherland conducting mortuary services, being assisted in the church service by Rev. Dr. Gray of Markdale, pastor of deceased and her husband, while resident there.

A great display of beautiful flowers banked and surrounded the coffin.

The Review extends condolences to the mourners in their severe affliction.

Passing of George Woodland

The Globe of Saturday last contained a notice of the death of a one-time well known resident here, George Wilson Woodland, son of Joshua Woodland, who founded a business which commenced business here in 1856. Besides his widow he is survived by two sons and one daughter, Mrs. Marjorie Woodland. The Globe, which gives his age as 63, has the following sketch:

"Born in Ireland, Mr Woodland came to Canada with his parents while still an infant. His father, a merchant, opened a store in Durham, Ont., and after completing his education the late Mr Woodland joined his father in the business here. Some 25 years ago he came to Toronto and became associated with the stationery business. For many years he was a commercial traveller. He was a Methodist and a Conservative and was a member of St. Andrew's Lodge A. F. & A. M."

The Owen Sound Agricultural Society's financial report showed a loss of $800 on the operations for the year, due to wet and cold weather on days of the Show.

Snoe Shoe Tramp Proved Popular

The Young Ladies' Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church arranged for a snoeshoe tramp Monday night last and were not disappointed in their expectations as to a crowd. The roads leading out of town were all sampled and judging from the appearance of some of the tracks the next day, even telephone poles were attempted and the snake dance also proved to be a popular movement indulged in. About 10 o'clock the snoe shoe people wended their way back to the church where a bountiful lunch was served by the Auxiliary. The Society realized over $15 from this party.

BORN

MIGHTON—In Bentinck, on Friday, Jan. 16th, to Mr and Mrs Robt. Mighton, a son.

TURNBULL—In Durham, Jan. 20th, to Mr and Mrs Walter Turnbull, a daughter.

David Nichol: I. G. Reany Snell: O. G.—Thos. Bell.

Following the installation, Rev. W. H. Smith, Noble Grand elect, gave an inspiring and much appreciated address, the key note of which was loyalty to the lodge and to brother members. D. D. G. M. Perry Fair and Mr. J. A. Graham also contributed addresses and Messrs Carswell of the visiting lodge a recitation and a story, after which all enjoyed a social hour over an oyster supper.

Factory on Overtime
In an endeavor to keep pace with the orders, the Durham Furniture Co. are working the ten hour day, one hour overtime, for at least this week and next. It is a reassuring sign of healthy conditions in the furniture trade when such is necessary.

Trinity Church Vestry Meeting
The annual vestry meeting of Trinity Church was held Monday evening when the following officials were elected: Rector's Warden, Jos. Crutchley; People's Warden, Herb. Cross; Vestry Clerk, Geo. Jucksch; Select Vestry, Ed. Kress, J. Schutz, John Stedman, Geo. Whitmore, Sidesmen, Harry Kress, Philip Lawrence, T. G. Hutton, Sid. Standing. Delegate to Synod, Ed. Kress. The church has had a satisfactory year, and expects to have the new organ clear of debt during the present year.

Premier of Older Boys' Parliament to Visit Durham, FEBRUARY 5th.

Gordon Lapp, Premier and Minister of Finance of the 4th Older Boys' Parliament, will speak in the Baptist Church, Feb. 5th, in the interests of the C.S.E.T. work and the Parliament's bond selling campaign. The boys in electing Lapp did themselves a real honor, for Lapp is an all round, level headed, clear thinking leader and has won the little town of Brighton. Do not think for a minute that this Parliament is a mock Parliament. The older Boys' Parliament legislates for the 100,000 teen age boys of Ontario in the same way that the Provincial Parliament legislates for the adults of the province. The fourth O.O.B. held their sessions in the Legislative chambers at Toronto, on Dec. 26, 27, 29, 30 and 31.

The Granites Tuxis Square will hold a Father and Son Banquet the same evening in the schoolroom of the Baptist church. All fathers and sons invited. If you haven't a son adopt one for the occasion. Fathers, come and be a boy again for the occasion. We promise you a good time and a real good supper.

Durham's Fast Hockeyists Won in Chesley, 6 to 3

Chesley's hockey teams and fans received a rude surprise Wednesday night when the Durham octette breezed over and doubled the score against them on their own ice, 6-3, in the second league game. Chesley imagined they had the district contended, but they now have barely a look in. Chesley has a faster team than Hanover, but the locale all played tip-top hockey from the start—they had to gain the verdict. Score by periods was 2-0, 3-1, and 6-3 in Durham's favor. Elvidge scored 3 of the goals, Vollet 2 and Schutz 1. Allan Ashley, Wharton, was referee and made a poor job of it. Durham's team was Ernie McDonald, goal; Eben Schutz and Clar. McGill, def.; Bill Vollett, Erben Elvidge and Cliff Buschlen, forwards. Harry Kress, Graydon Moorhead, subs.
