Passing of John Fairbairn

We are again reminded of the changing scenes of human life by the demise of one of Egremont's stalwarts in the person of Mr John Fairbairn, who departed this life, Sunday, the 15th day of January, 1925.

The deceased gentleman was born in Wideopen, in the parish of Perth, Ontario, in 1840, and came with his parents to Peterboro, Upper Canada, in 1858, being then 18 years of age. In 1861 the family came here and settled on lot 20, con. 12, Egremont, and built a small log house and began pioneer life in the woods, remaining on the same farm ever since.

On Feb. 28th, 1864, he married Miss Margaret Morrison, also of Egremont who is still active at the ripe age of 83 years.

Being a man of more than average strength and courage (to his honor be it said) he devoted his whole time and talent to the well being of his home and neighborhood. Mr Fairbairn was a farmer in the true sense of the word. He interested himself in the breed of Shorthorn cattle and was an exhibitor at the C. N. E., Toronto. The Fairbairn family manifested a great interest in the welfare of the Presbyterian church and in the early days of the missionary of the cross, held services in their home, until about the year 1866, when a log church was built on their farm and named Fairbairn Presbyterian Church.

In the year 1881 a substantial brick church was built on the adjoining corner and still retains the family name.

The deceased was elected to the office of Deacon at the first election of church officers in 1871, his fellow deacons having passed away many years ago. His home provided food and shelter for the missionary and the minister's horse was fed and cared for in his stable. He gave without charge the section of land on which the church sheds are built.

On Saturday, Nov. 22nd, he went to the stable to do some work. When he returned he was suffering from a bruise on the back of his head. He was not able to tell clearly how he was injured, but the doctor was unable to do much for him and although able to be out of bed nearly every day, he gradually became weaker and passed peacefully away as already stated.

The family consists of three sons and six daughters. William, on a farm near by; John C. on the home- stead, and Robert, druggist at Orangeville, Ont., (Annie, Mrs. John Caulfield, Egremont, (Isabella, deceased) Mrs. John Main, Waterloo, (Jessie) Mrs. Eby, Guelph, (Margaret, deceased) Mrs. Robt. Caulfield, Woodhouse, (Mary, deceased) Mrs. Fred Dillon, Mount Forest, and (Jemima) Mrs W. J. Lilwall, of Loveland, Iowa.

Rev. Robert Fairbairn, of Stonewall Man., only brother of deceased, is still active at the advanced age of 87 years. There are seventeen grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Mr and Mrs Fairbairn were blessed with a long and happy life and celebrated in health and strength their golden and diamond wedding days, surrounded by their children, grandchildren, friends and neighbors to whom they were affectionately attached.

To his esteemed partner in life, now in her eightieth year, and to the members of his family who tenderly nursed him during his eight weeks of illness, the sympathy of friends and neighbors is lovingly extended. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. W. J. Burnett, Dromore. His address was based on scripture from John 14: 1, etc. The service was held in the home. The pallbearers were his neighbors, Peter McEachern, Joseph Switzer, Robt. T. Dodds, Jas. Hamilton, John McArthur, and Alex. Callaghan. The casket was made in the family plot at Woodland cemetery, where his parents and two sisters were laid to rest years ago.

In the words of the poet, on sabbath evening we may repeat "Our sun went down in cloudy sky, His rose to endless light."

West, and Mrs. Tuck, Mrs. Arnill, Mrs. Irvin, Mrs. Hostetter and the Misses Davidson, Edwards and Dinshaw.

ORCHARD

On account of the cloudy day we had last Saturday we failed to see the splendors of the eclipse which the scientists warned us. However it became quite dark and the lamps were lit—an unusual occurrence at that time of day.

Messrs Adam Kellar and Jacob Stewart are in Toronto at present.

Miss Lillian Smith who has been in Mt. Forest, has returned home.

Mr and Mrs John Johns spent Sunday with friends near Durham.

Mr P. Cornish is out again after being a sufferer from a severe cold.

Mr E. Brown, Pike Lake, is visiting with his aunt, Mrs A. Kellar here.

Messrs Robt. Robertson and Wm. Dickson attended the funeral of the former's brother, John Robertson, at Ripley. We extend our sympathies.

The various large piles of poles have been reduced by Mr Chas. Lewis' buzz saw.

Mrs Wm. Dickson was in Mt Forest attending the funeral of Mrs. Smith of Chicago, formerly of Mount Forest.

Mr and Mrs Robt. Carmount and family, visited recently at Allen Halliday's, near Letter Breen.

We are sorry to hear Kenneth Kirby is under the Dr's care but hope he will soon be well again.

We are sorry to learn of the death of Rev. Geo. King, a former esteemed pastor here.

Miss A. A. McKinnon was a week end visitor at the Parsonage, Holstein.

Miss Beatrice Pinder, Holstein, spent Sunday with her friend, Lillian Smith.

RYLTH'S CORNERS

It was with feelings of doom and sadness when the news was passed around of the sudden removal by death of the late Edward Hoy. 'Ned' as he was more familiarly known, was a great horse fancier and possibly no man did more to improve the standard of the horse than he.

The deceased was widely known through Normanby Township and highly respected and his familiar face will be greatly missed. We presume some of your correspondents will give a more comprehensive write up of his obituary.

While the conditions could not possibly be worse to view the much advertised eclipse, it was easy on the eyes and the passing of the two great heavenly bodies could as eas-

THE LATE EDWARD HOY

This week we are called upon to chronicle the death of Mr Edward Hoy, whose death took place Saturday evening at the age of 79 years. We understand heart failure was the cause of his death.

He was a life long resident of the Township of Egremont. He appeared to be in his usual health, although on Saturday he was somewhat indisposed. However that evening he suddenly became worse and the doctor was summoned about 6.30. He did his best but could not aid him in any way and he passed away about 8 p.m. He leaves his widow, two sons and four daughters to mourn his loss. The funeral took place Tuesday from the Methodist Church, Rev. L. E. West having charge. The remains were laid to rest in Maplewood cemetery, the pallbearers being Messrs J. D. Roberts, Bert Dyer, Geo. Fenton, Nelson McGuire, Chas Drimmlie, Jno. Orchard. Two daughters, Mrs McLean of Durham and Mrs Thompson of Detroit, and Mrs Geo. Schram of Goderich, attended the funeral.

ly be told by the sudden darkening and re-lighting again, and insignificant little man, standing gazing into the heavens, could truthfully say, could truthfully say "Great and marvelous are thy works Lord God Almighty."

Knox Church, Normanby, purpose having their annual congregational meeting Friday evening, Feb. 6th. Arrangements will be made at this meeting for taking the pulse of the congregation on Union. We will be badly fooled if it is not very strong.

Mr David Marshall of Knox Corners, has been somewhat ill the past few days. A younger member of the family was also ill with symptoms of scarlet fever.

With wheat $1.80 per bushel and other grains worth not much prices, it looks as if the heavy up grade the farmers have been up against the past three years is easing off somewhat. Guess it's the outcome of Ferguson's Agricultural Enquiry Committee's report.

Mr Wm Carson made a very creditable job of plowing the County road from Barber's Corner to Knox last week. The roads have become very high and narrow and Wm. has given a splendid object lesson how to remedy the grievance with the plow.

ALLAN'S CORNERS

Mrs Geo. Pollock, Sr. is spending a couple of weeks with her son and daughters in Toronto.

Mr and Mrs James Barbour, with son James and daughter Helen, formerly of Moose Jaw, are at present the guests of the former's uncle, Mr Robt. Barbour.

Mr and Mrs Jas. Johnson and family, visited at the home of Mrs. Douglas of Orchard Sunday.

Mr John Wells and daughter Myrtle, accompanied by Mr Percy Harrison of North Egremont, visited the first of the week at the home of J. C. Queen.

Mr and Mrs Austin Hann of North Egremont, visited Sunday with Mr and Mrs Wm. Gordon.

Mrs James Kerr is rather indisposed at present but hope soon to hear of her recovery.

Mr Robt. Mighton is engaged around this vicinity buzzing wood at the present.

Much sympathy is extended to the relatives of the late Mr Edward Hoy, Holstein, who so suddenly passed away on Saturday last, as the deceased was a well known resident of the neighboring community.

SOUTH BEND

Mr and Mrs John Eurig visited the former's brother, Mr Adam Eurig in Normanby, the first of the week.

Mr and Mrs Stewart Stevenson and little daughter, Mt Forest, spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs Will Stewart, son who is able to be up again after being confined to her room for several weeks with inflammatory rheumatism.

Mr and Mrs Everette Hunt and child, O. S. R., spent part of Sunday with friends here.

Mrs Wm Tyndall, Holstein, visited her brothers, Geo. and Orme Hunt, last week.

Mr and Mrs N. Klopfer, Mt Forest, were recent guests at J. P. Ravey.

Although the roads have been bad and the weather cold and stormy, the school attendance has kept up to the average. The hot lunch is fine and the children certainly enjoy it, also the teacher.

There are a great many suffering from severe colds which we hope will clear up when the weather moderates a little.

There were many disappointed folks on Saturday morning after having smoked glasses and everything ready for a good view of the eclipse. It will be a long, weary wait for the next one, but it will come right on the minute too as this one did if time is still unchanged. What a wonderful thing is astronomy.

Western Couple, Well known here, Celebrated Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. James Morrison, Grenfell, Sask., and formerly of South Grey, who on Jan. 13th, 1925, celebrated the 50th Anniversary of their Marriage.

ALLAN'S CORNERS

An interesting event took place at Grenfell, Sask., Tuesday, 13th Jan., 1925, when Mr. and Mrs. James Morrison, who reside with their daughter, Mrs. H. E. Hurst of that town, celebrated their 50th anniversary of their wedding day. Mr and Mrs Morrison are former Glenelg residents and have still brothers and sisters in this vicinity. Mr Morrison's brothers and sisters are Wm. of Grenfell; Geo. of Medicine Hat, Alta.; Richard of Durham; Mrs. Jane Hepburn and Mrs. Margaret Matthews, Durham; Mrs. Neal of Ogema, Sask.

Mrs. Morrison's brothers and sisters are: Rev. S. O. Irvine, Stonewall, Man.; Richard Irvine, Sinclair, Man.; Wm. Irvine, Broomhill, Man.; Fred Irvine, Dauphin, Man. and Mrs. Robt. Pettigrew, Regina, Sask.

From the Grenfell "Sun" we clip the following interesting write-up on the occasion, and many old South Grey friends will unite with the "Review" in wishing them yet many years of health and companionship together.

"The life story of this happy couple is full of interest. Mrs. Morrison, whose maiden name was Elizabeth Irvine, was born in Grey Co. Ont., in 1849. Mr. Morrison was born in Ireland in 1850, coming to this country at the age of 1 year. His parents settled in Grey Co. Mrs M's grandmother was one of the first settlers of Ontario where she farmed and kept a small wayside inn.

Mr and Mrs Morrison were married in 1875 by Rev. Jas. E. Perry at Hanover, Ont. For some time they farmed between Durham and Holstein. In 1883 they went west and settled on a homestead near Wolseley, built a house, and with a yoke of oxen, broke about 80 acres. These were the days of the Riel rebellion and Mrs Morrison recalls how the Indians who were not taking part would encamp outside their house. Besides their own children they had adopted a little girl, who was easily distinguished from their own by exceptionally dark eyes. The Indians would not believe that she was a white girl and pointing to the rest of the Morrison children, endeavored in their own way to convince their white neighbors that the little girl was one of their people. Indeed, so strong were their protests, that a very close watch had to be kept for fear that their ward would be carried away.

VITAMIN QUALITIES

Many people, young and old, get plenty of food but the vitamin qualities out of which come the powers of resistance, are minus, and malnutrition and weakness ensue.

Scott's Emulsion is indeed the plus-quality that so many children and adults need to help sustain the body in normal strength and vitality.

A very little Scott's after each meal helps, to vitalize the deficient diet. Scott's Emulsion promotes growth—builds strength.

DEATH OF MR. JAMES KERR

The community lost a good citizen and the home a loving husband and father, when death called James Kerr of Varney. Early Monday morning, 2nd February, 1925, the end came and the announcement of his death came as a shock to many who had been hearing of his illness, but not expecting a fatal termination. Since last fall he has not been well, a kidney trouble being the cause, and though his lungs were somewhat kindly cared and medical skill proved unavailing to save the precious life.

Deceased was born on the well known "Kerr farm" on the 18th con. Normanby, now occupied by Mr Samuel Koenig in 1862 and all his life until moving to Varney was spent there. He proved a successful farmer and seven years ago came to Varney, where he assisted his son Norman in his milling operations. Some thirty seven years ago he received the title of miller from the Presbyterian Church, whose services he valued and was rarely absent when in health. The funeral service on Wednesday was conducted by his pastor, Rev. W. H. Smith, assisted by Rev. L. E. West, the Varney pastor. Interment took place in Maplewood cemetery. Beautiful floral tokens of love and respect from many relatives and from Durham Presbyterian choir rested on the casket.

The pall bearers were Dr. G. M. Leeson, Messrs Wm. Caldwell, Wm. McNaughton, Albert Mearns, Andrew Derby, Hanover and Andrew Derby Durham.

YEOVIL

With deep regret Yeoவில்s be- hold of the demise of their former beloved pastor, Rev. Geo. A. King, in Burlington Parsonage, on the 29th inst. A severe cold aggravating an old trouble caused his death at the early age of 48. Interment on Friday in Tara cemetery. Many pleasant memories are associated with his successful and harmonious pastorate here. He is gone but his works do follow him. Requiescat in pace!

Miss Tough resumed her teaching yesterday after a week's rest prescribed by the physician. We congratulate Miss Roberta Philp on being a graduate nurse. After three days' visit at home she went to her first case Saturday—to Traverston. We wish her success and happiness in the noble work of helping to alleviate pain and distress.

Nurse Fettes, Durham, spent last Wednesday with her sister, Mrs A. Henderson.

Mrs T. Ellis has recently received news from her sister Mrs Weidmann, who has been strenuously at work nursing six of their family. They had scarlet fever, but all are recovering.

Mr Robt. Baird of Dakota has been renewing acquaintances around here. It is over 40 years since he moved away.

Mr Norman Drimmlie, after spending the summer near Tottenham, returned home last week. Mrs D. is visiting her parents, Mr and Mrs. Corley, Mt. Forest.

Mr and Mrs J. McLean have been spending the past few weeks with his parents.

Many were disappointed last Saturday on failing to see the eclipse. Man has not yet learned to control the sun and the clouds.
