PRICEVILLE

Rev. Mr. Curran is in Toronto this week and amongst other business is attending the Agricultural Fairs Association meetings in the interests of Priceville Ag. Society.

SWINTON PARK

We are still enjoying the cold weather and looking forward with a longing sigh for that thaw of Mr. Bowes. We hope he at least may see his prophecies fulfilled in part. Too bad for everyone to be disappointed. Mr. and Mrs. John Corbett are rejoicing over the birth of a young son which was born Thursday, Jan. 29. All are well.

Mr. Patterson of Killarney, Man., is visiting his sisters, Mrs. Neil D. Clark and Mrs. Neil McLeod here. Mr. Patterson says it is perhaps not so cold here as in the west but you feel it worse.

Roginald Campbell of Gleichen, Alta., has spent the last ten days with his many friends around the Park. He has now gone to Guelph for a visit.

The Orange Brethren here are holding their annual At Home Friday evening of this week and a good program is in preparation. It is keeping the young people busy practising these cold nights, but a pleasant evening is assured Friday.

Mr. H. Hamilton of Jessopville, made his weekly visit to the Park on Sunday last. Cold or roads has no effect on Hank.

One of our young men has a horae that if hitched up on Sunday evening, is apt to go any place, as one hand will not drive him direct.

The scarlet fever is coming near us again as it is in the home of Jos. White, com. 19. We hope it will not spread throughout the school section and that none may be seriously ill this cold weather.

Phillip and Clarence Harrison have a contract drawing logs in Egremont to McWilliams siding at present. You can't keep good men down.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Atchison of Durham Hospital staff, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Kinnell here. Miss Ruth Richardson from Victoria Corners spent Sunday at the home of J. H. Ferguson here. Willie Ferguson who has been up north of Lindsay, in the woods for a time, is back and intends leaving the end of this month for Saskatchewan for the summer.

Mr. Gordon McCannell is helping Wesley Heard in the bush at present.

Mr. Noble Wilson is enjoying his new radio sets these cold nights, also calling up his neighbors by phone and having them also "listening in" to concerts and all forms of entertainment from the radio which can be heard quite distinctly over the phones in several homes at once.

The people of Swinton Park while deeply interested in the Church Union question, have decided to take no action before May, thereby getting all information before voting.

An enjoyable time was spent at the home of Mr. John Milligan, Bentinck, on the 18th ult., when about 60 from Hampden congregation were present to present him with fur coat and mitts in recognition of his faithful services as precursor in Hampden church for some 15 years past.

Mr. Wm. Laidlaw has sold out his business to Mr. Jas. Ireland, a merchant from Blyth, who takes possession Feb. 1st.

Miss Frankie Black left Monday for New Orleans where she will make a lengthened stay with relatives, having at the same time special opportunities of voice culture and musical training.

By the efforts of County Coun. McKinnon, and his conferees in the south, the June meeting of the Co. Council is to be held in Durham. Having once gone over to Meaford for their summer outing, it was only fair that Durham should have a peep at them in session. The vote stood 8 to 7.

Rocky Saugeen Corr.: The debate for next Thursday at the schoolhouse is "Resolved that fire is more destructive than water." Captains Messrs. John McKinnon, and Hector McKechnie.

IN MEMORIAM RITCHIE—In loving remembrance of my dear father, Andrew Ritchie, who entered into rest, Feb. 5, 1924. Every day my thoughts do wander To grave so far away Where was laid to rest dear father, Just one sad year ago to-day. Oh, dear father, how I miss you, Wish you once more I could see, But God knows best, He took you home. With Him to dwell eternally. Daughter Annie (Mrs W. J. Vessie)

In loving memory of dear husband and father, who died Feb. 5th, 1924, Durham. A precious one from us has gone. A voice we loved is stilled; And a place is vacant in our home That never can be filled. Days of sadness still come o'er us, Tears of sorrow often flow; But memory keeps him near us Who God called one year ago. God knows how much we miss him, God knows the tears we shed; And whispers, hush! he only sleeps. Your loved one is not dead. We loved him, we loved him, But Jesus loves him more; And He has taken him to rest To His heavenly home above. Wife, Mrs. Andrew Ritchie and family

IN DAYS OF YORE

15 YEARS AGO

From Review file of Feb. 3rd, 1910 Changes in Farms and Real Estate Mr. Alex Smith, Jr. of Normanby, has recently sold his farm to Wm. Backus, of Bentinck. Mr. Smith has purchased the Thos. Gadd farm on the 2nd con. and the lot adjoining, known as the Bowles farm and will thus have a square compact place.

Mr. Jas. Heislup of Durham has purchased through W. F. Dunn, the J. V. Smith farm, Bentinck, of 250 acres, the price being in the neighborhood of $5000. Mr. Dunn also reports the sale to Mr. Wm. Bailey of the Geo. Hendry farm, near Mulock.

Mr. Jas. Burt, south of town, has sold his farm to his neighbor, Thos. Russell and is retiring from farm life.

Mr. Thos. McComb has bought the A. S. Hunter farm, formerly the Watson farm, south of the Durham Road and is moving implements, etc. there at present.

Mr. Jas. R. Gun is this week removing to Dr. Gun's residence on the hill, while the Dr. is moving to the Gun homestead which James is vacating.

That noted horseman Wm. Black of Durham, purchased that noble animal which was seen on Fair Day in Durham streets, owned by Alex. Stewart, North Line, Artermesia. In Durham, Mr. Black offered Mr. Stewart $245 while Mr. Stewart wanted $250 and took the horse home but Mr. Black who has a good eye in his head and a keen one to business, drove out to Priceville next day, offering Mr. S. his price of $250, but Mr. S. changed his mind and set up the price to $255 but finally agreed to split the difference so Mr. Black got the fine animal for $252.50 and we hope he made a good day's pay out of the deal in disposing of the horse again.

From Review file of Feb. 1st, 1900

Papers this week contain names of those patriots who in an hour of danger in 1866 went to the front to defend our country from Fenian marauders. From our town and district there were a few, and we have pleasure in publishing a list as a memento of the loyalty of 34 years ago:

R. Allan, Edge Hill; W. A. Anderson, R. B. Bull, C. L. Grant, John Jack S. McCracken, J. McGirr, all of Durham; Jas. Andrews, M. J. Davis of Glenelg; Geo. Ryan, Rob Roy; A. J. Robson, Traverston; M. Scott, Priceville. Where the men are dead the medals are being presented to the next of kin.

County Council Strikes New Assessment

The Friday afternoon Session of the County Council last week was by far the most busy of the week and the members were in a very harmonious mood or proceedings would not have been run off as smoothly as they were. All the members were present for the session.

Mr. John Parker, Treasurer for the Co. of Grey, was present and he was invited by Council to give a report of the Finances for the past year. Mr. Parker had his statements clearly marked out and they were very satisfactory to the members.

The financial standing of the County is not as good as it was a year ago, and Mr. Parker suggested that interest money should be raised in some manner. He thought issuing debentures would be probably the best way. Last year approximately $80,000 was saved from which several other amounts will be subtracted.

The County Clerk read the report which he had received from Mr. Samuel Huff of Meaford, school Inspector of East Grey. The report was given over to the Educational Com. This was the only communication received.

The reports of several Committees were read by the chairmen. The Finance Com., with Reeve Wm. Calder as chairman, turned in a very important report. The Hospitals of Owen Sound, Hanover and Durham, were given a grant of $500 each and the Salvation Army in London $100.

The feature of their report was the suggested equalized assessment on each Township in the Co. of Grey. Reeve Geo. Bothwell gave a report of the Co Property Committee which included the payment of a number of small bills and several other unimportant features. Reports were read also of the Printing Com. Communications and the Memorial Committee, House of Refuge Com. and Warden's Committee.

The council went into committee of the whole to discuss the equalized assessment placed by the Finance Com. before passing it. By a few preliminary speeches it was quite evident there was going to be some trouble regarding the much increased assessment which amounted to 20 per cent. The Reeve of each Township was given a hearing as to his opinion of the assessment placed on his township and although each Reeve firmly believed the assessment much too heavy, they were willing to bear the burden without a murmur if the other townships would do the same. Others simply objected to the assessment as too high and considered that they had been treated very unfairly.

After all the Reeves of the Townships had been heard, the representatives from the towns in the County were heard and as their assessments were not increased as in the County, they did not kick so hard, and were rather inclined to accept their burden. Reeve Bothwell of Sydenham, Reeve Smith of Shallow Lake and Lembe of Sullivan were particularly strong against their assessment and they all wanted large reductions. They were shown that equalization would never come if they continued to object. Mr. Bothwell was defeated easily and the report of the Finance Com. was adopted in all its clauses.

All the other reports were adopted before adjournment was made. Following are the figures contained in the report of the special committee on equalized assessment:—

Artemesia $1,790,000
Bentinck 1,960,000
Collingwood 2,250,000

X. "THE FRIENDLY ROAD," By David Grayson.

Who is there that does not at times get tired of the usual daily round of care and work? Even David Grayson, that master of optimism, grew weary and took to the road with only a few articles of wearing apparel, very little money, a tin whistle, and his thoughts, and he had a wonderful time. He had learned to see the beauty in all around him, to enjoy not only the sense of sight and sound but also that of feeling, smelling and tasting. He had discovered that happiness is not to be had for the seeking, but comes quietly to him who pauses at his difficult task and looks upward.

He had learned the lesson of being quiet, had learned something of pure contentment, and also that friendship is very simple. Finding a couple of men busy in the field, he gave a helping hand, and this was the beginning of a two days' sojourn, filled with numerous tasks, interchange of thoughts and stories, so that when he started on the road again, he was full of cheerfulness, and he said to himself "No country, after all, produces anything better than its inhabitants."

What a delightful time he had with the elderly couple in the cottage by the side of the road. They were owners of a big estate but they had found so many unnecessary things to see and care for in the big house, that they were losing touch with each other, and getting a long, long way from God, so they escaped from too many possessions, too much property, to the peace and quiet of a garden, where they could be lovers again.

His adventures with the road-mender, the brush agent, the socialist, the jolly rover, and the problem he faced as to how to get in step with the man who was not stepping, are all chapters of unusual interest. He was just three weeks away from home and in that time he had seen so many beautiful and wonderful things in the world around him, that he had sufficient material to write a book. He considered it had been a great experience, felt he had a firmer grip on life, and a firmer trust in that Power which orders the ages.
