LOW-COST TRIP TO PACIFIC COAST

A captivating four-week tour of Western Canada and the Pacific Coast, with a trip through the United States on the return journey, is being planned for Canadian teachers and their friends this summer.

Those who take advantage of this trip will see the greatest scenery on the continent—the Buffalo herd at Wainwright, Jasper National Park with its unsurpassed mountain scenery; Mount Robson, the highest peak in the Canadian Rockies; the tatern poles of Kitwanga and the mystic beauty of the Skeena river.

At Prince Rupert the party transfers from train to boat for the glorious water trip of 750 miles through the sheltered Scenic Seas of the North Pacific coast to Vancouver, Victoria and Seattle.

On the return trip five wonderful days will be spent touring Yellowstone National Park by motor, with a trip to Salt Lake City and three days at Rocky Mountain National Park, Colorado. Then it's Denver, Clear Creek Canyon, Idaho Springs, and Lookout Mountain before heading for Chicago and Toronto.

The tour leaves Toronto July 9th, and you cannot afford to miss it. Full Roy information, fares, etc., can be secured with illustrated booklet from A.

Methodist Missionary Society Thankoffering

On Sunday, April 5th, the Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church, held their annual service. At the morning service, Rev. L. E. West took as his subject 'Dorcas', from Acts 9, dwelling upon the nobility of women's creation, the finer qualities of women being necessary as a counterpart in making the strength of character in woman in time of stress and strain more than made up for any timidity and weakness she might show in her natural make-up.

The evening service saw the church filled with a splendid audience. The Presbyterian friends kindly withdrew their service and co-operated in the making of a successful conclusion to a happy day.

The choir was composed of members of the W. M. S., Rev. Smith of Knox College, Toronto, also taking part in the service being presided over by the pastor, Mrs (Rev.) J. E. Mockett, of Toronto, was the special speaker for this occasion. She gave an interesting and thrilling message on the great work in China and China's great 'worth-whileness', as a part of the Kingdom of God. Mrs. Mockett was formerly a mistress of an Ontario Parsonage, and since her husband's decease 5 years ago, gave 3 years of her time to China, going as the first grandmother to West China, where she labored with Mrs. Brown and Mrs. (Rev.) J. E. Mockett.

Mr D. P. Coleridge has been confined to his room for a few days but is some better at time of writing.

Mrs D. P. Coleridge left Friday last for Hubert, Mich., to visit her sister, Mrs Geo. Deford, who is quite ill at present.

Miss McKinnon, teacher of Orchard school, was the guest of the West family over Sunday.

Mrs Lige Smith had her face and right eye badly burned Tuesday from a solution of Gillet's Lye while making soap.

A DOMESTIC TANGLE
Cases in which a young lady discovers that she is her own grandmother may be rare, but a lively Ohio poet seems to have discovered one. There are other complications also, as he metrically relates:
The widow McCann had a daughter named Ann,
And the widower Smith had a son,
A curly-haired boy whose cognomen was Roy,
Full of pep and ambition and 'un,
Roy met Ann one night and 'twas love at first sight,
For Ann was by no means a fright
And he started to woo as a young man should do,
And called at her home every night.
Of course 'twas not long till he sang the old song
Fair Ann colored red and then bashfully said,
"You will have to ask mother's consent."
And Roy, being game, went right in to the dame,
And that's where the trouble began,
For as soon as Roy saw his prospective "in-law"
He believed she was fairer than Ann.
He was dazed by her smile and he could not beguile
His lips their true errand to state.
So he talked for a bit and made quite a hit,
And succeeded in making a date.
Ann could never abide such a blow
To her pride and self-esteem,
Ann deemed it decidedly raw,
That her lover had left her entirely bereft
And proceeded to flirt with her maid,
So she went to his dad with a countenance sad,
And a wistful and sorrowful air;
And she said to Roy's pop that she wished him to stop
So crude and banal an affair.
The old gent was impressed with Elma's plea,
And the lovable look in her eyes,
So he gallantly took what his offspring forsook
And felt he had landed a prize.
The two couples were wed and by this time 'tis said,
Of the tangle they're starting to tire,
For Ann is the ma of her father-in-law,
And Roy is the pa of his mother-in-law

An Onion Curiosity
Mr. George Shier the other day showed us a freak of nature. Last fall he lifted a moderate sized onion which had clinging in order around the root 8 small onions with the roots fastened to the parent root. He laid it away and looking it up this spring found the eight little fellows sprouting beautifully downward, but a gentle curve on one showed that they were preparing to follow nature's law of growth upward like any other decent bulb.

268 at Communion Table
The Communion Service in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday was the last that will be held under the old order. The new order of service Pastor Smith made reference to the fact that this year completes 50 years of the "Presbyterian church in Canada," and thus is a Jubilee year. The change for Union was accepted in 1875 and though at the meeting with opposition, tremendous strides have been made in 50 years. A similar challenge for a broader union was being accepted now, though as in 1875, best meeting with unanimous support.
