

4.4 BEER MAY NOT BE SOLD IN PARRY SOUND

Before the 4.4 beer can be sold in Parry Sound, it will be necessary to establish the fact that the new beverage is non-intoxicating as claimed by Premier Ferguson. It appears that with the exception of one lot the whole town site was sold with a clause in the deed forever prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquor on the land so deeded. This case will afford a good opportunity to test the opposition contentions concerning the amount of "kick" contained in this much-discussed beverage.

PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

Death of Mrs T.A.M. Ferguson

On Saturday night last, Mrs Ferguson, wife of the well known T. A. Ferguson, of Priceville, breathed her last, the cause being heart trouble. She has not been well for some time, though so sudden a taking off was not looked for, but "here we have no abiding city," and husband, son and daughter sadly mourn, but not as those without hope.

Deceased was in her 75th year and before marriage was Miss Ruby Watson, a daughter of Wm Watson, a wagon maker in early Priceville days. She was an aunt of Undertaker Watson, Priceville, and of Mr Ed. Watson, Durham.

Of the four children born to Mr. and Mrs Ferguson, one son and one daughter are deceased, the daughter being Mrs Dan McInnes of Toronto. The survivors are Stanley, Principal of a school in Toronto and Miss Edna at home. A sister of deceased lives in Cheyboygan, Mich.; three brothers also survive; Robt. and Alfred Watson, Toronto; George Watson, harness maker at Walter's Falls. Interment took place Tuesday to McNeill's cemetery, many friends paying the last tribute.

Does Advertising Pay

"O Yes, sir," said the barber, "my poor brother Jim has been sent to an asylum. He got to broodin' over the hard times and it finally drove him crazy. He and I worked side by side and we both brooded a great deal. No money in this business now you know. Prices too low. Unless a customer has a shampoo, it doesn't pay to shave or hair-cut. I caught Jim trying to cut a chap's throat because he declined a shampoo, so I had to have the poor fellow locked up. Makes me sad. Sometimes I feel sorry I didn't let him slash. It would have been our revenge. Shampoo, Sir?"—Sydney Sun.

PRICEVILLE & GLENELG

We are having some winter weather again. Saturday night we had thunder, rain and some snow and high winds on Sunday which ended in some snow furries in the evening.

Quite a number of the farmers took the advantage of sowing grain during the past week. The ground will take some time before fit to work again but plowing can be continued.

Death harvests at all seasons, be it April or August. This week we have no less than three deaths to report. On Friday, the 17th April, the remains of Angus Graham, who was away from Glenelg for over 10 years, was laid to rest beside his father and mother in the old cemetery, Priceville. Rev. Mr Sutherland officiated at the funeral. Service was held at the home of Mrs Donald Graham, of Priceville. Quite a number attended the funeral.

A message came to Mr Angus Hooper, South Line, Glenelg, that his sister, Mrs Burnett of Engadine, Mich., near the Soo, had died, and her body will or is expected to arrive Tuesday to the home of her brother Angus and the funeral will be held at her old home. Many of her chums will remember 'May' when going to school at Top Cliff. She had a cheerful disposition which made her a favorite with all her schoolmates. We have no particulars as to cause of death.

On Saturday night last the sudden call came to Mrs Thos. Ferguson, Priceville. So we are reminded that in the prime of life we are in death, for we often see the aged, the middle aged and the youth called away.

We were pleased to have a friendly letter from the late pastor of Priceville Presbyterian church, Rev. C. S. Jones. Mr and Mrs Jones purpose taking a drive to Priceville and vicinity the coming summer and intend to visit as many as possible of his old friends. We assure the Rev. gentleman and Mrs. that they will receive a kind reception from their many old friends.

We are pleased to hear that Wrayford McLean who is laid up with pneumonia, is getting better again.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs Jno. McKechnie (councillor) had an operation at Durham Hospital. She is doing as well as can be expected. Mrs McMillan is getting along slowly but holding her own fairly well.

Mr Henry Williams of Edge Hill is not very well at present, but we hope to hear of an improvement soon.

We read so much about union in all the papers generally. It makes us feel somewhat like the old Yorkshire man when asked what side of politics he voted on. "Well," he said, "I go for the strongest party." So personally we feel like the old Englishman, "go for the strongest number" who preferred to stay in the old Presbyterian church, be they unionists or non-unionists.

Last night (Sunday) we see the anti-held their first meeting in the Town Hall, Durham, conducted by the Dromore pastor, Rev. Mr Burnett. The faithful Rev. Mr Smith preached at the same time in his own church, and the same messages were delivered by both pastors, irrespective of the different feeling existing between the two. How would this text suit the non-unionists "Hold fast to that thou hast, lest any one take thy crown." Yet hold fast to the old Presbyterian church and faith, and let no one persuade you to deviate from the faith of your forefathers of centuries gone past.

A family consisting of father, wife and daughter, rode together in the same carriage, going to their different churches in Priceville scores of years ago. The good old father went to the Catholic, the wife and mother went to the Free Church and the good daughter went to the old kirk. The trio is pleasantly together on their way to and fro, and no hard feeling existed between them. The trio have passed away many years ago and they like Saul and Jonathan in a manner rode pleasantly together, and in death they did not expect to be separated for each was aiming to reach that happy home where church differences were not taken into consideration. Take two young people who stand at the altar to be made man and wife. A few minutes previous they were two different persons, but as soon as the officiating clergyman pronounced them man and wife, they are by union made one.

We take the great city of Toronto with its scores of different denominations. Every road leads to the great city, affording those who have business to transact to get there. So all these different denominations are aiming to reach the city whose builder and maker is the Creator of the universe. We all feel backward in abandoning our old church of our forefathers, who faithfully worshipped under the preaching of its faithful servants since the days of our youth. But those that were in the prime of life worshipping some 60 or more years ago, are few and far between. So none are left to greet us now of those who worshipped in the old kirk 60 or more years ago.

The old kirk of that far away date is no more, only the ground where it stood on is there, but the worshippers in numbers are calm sleeping in the acre surrounding the abandoned old kirk. Union between those two bodies in Priceville took place in the year 1878 and has worked harmoniously ever since. So in like manner the disputed union at present would prove to be a blessing to the future generation as well as to those holding fast to the church of their forefathers.

An old highlander, "Old Jim," who was against union of the two old Presbyterian churches, said in his native language "tha sin mairh ue leor mar tha sin" or "we are good enough as we are without going into union."

We thank Miss Annie Graham of Durham for coming to our residence with her car to bring us to Mr Graham's funeral, Priceville, and leaving us home again, which meant ten extra miles for her to drive. An act of this manner is highly appreciated by the recipient and pronounced the parties good Samaritans in putting themselves out to oblige the aged.

A meeting is to be held for the old Grange Hall this evening for the purpose of starting Sunday School in the near future. Mr W. J. Ritchie takes great interest in the Sabbath School and has been the faithful Supt. for 20 years. Mr R. as Township Treas. is also a faithful servant.

This Monday morning, 20th April we have had hard frost and plowing could not be done till near noon. There was about an inch of ice on water standing in tubs. But the day has a beautiful appearance.

Mr Donald Graham of Toronto attended the funeral of the late Angus Graham at Priceville Friday of last week.

Mr and Mrs Alex. Darroch, with the former's parents and brother, all of Harriston, motored to the home of Mrs Darroch's parents, Mr and Mrs Wm. Ramage, Priceville, the first of the week, to see her mother, who is still quite ill.

A meeting was held Monday night when our Sunday school was re-organized for another year with W. J. Ritchie as superintendent and the following staff of teachers: Bible Class, Mr Ritchie Intermediate class, Mr Archie McDonald Girls' Class, Mrs Arthur Edge Primer Class, Mrs W. G. Firth

ZION

Mr and Mrs Jas Crutchley of Doroch, visited the first of the week with Mr and Mrs Hugh McArthur. Mr Willie Edwards returned to Toronto Saturday after spending the holiday with his parents here.

Mr and Mrs W. R. Jack while in Markdale, called to see Mrs Jas. Staples and found her much improved after her recent illness, though still confined to bed.

Miss Elizabeth Allan has returned to her duties at teacher of S.S. No 5 after spending the holidays at the parental home, near Chesley.

Miss Hazel Firth is spending a couple of weeks at the home of her aunt, Mrs Robt Webber, South Dent. Mr Hermie Burnett received the sad news last week of the death of his sister-in-law, Mrs Wm. Burnett, who died at her home in Engadine, Mich. Mrs Burnett's maiden name was Mae Hooper, daughter of the late Mr and Mrs Jos Hooper of Top Cliff. We extend sincerest sympathy to the sorrowing friends.

Last Sunday afternoon after the regular service the re-organization of the Sunday School and the Epworth League took place. Officers elected for the Sunday School are as follows: Superintendent, R. T. Edwards; Supt. of Home Dept., Katie Cook; Supt. of Missionary Dept., Mary Glencross; Temperance, Emerson and Oren Peart; Librarian, Miss Jennie Davis; Organist, Misses Myrtle McClocklin and Margaret Greenwood; Sec'y Treasurer, Miss Hazel Firth; Bible Classes Teacher, R. T. Edwards. Teacher of Boys' Bible Class, Mrs Jno. Greenwood. Teacher of Girls' Bible Class—Mrs. W. J. Greenwood; Intermediate class—Miss Myrtle McClocklin; Infant Classes—Mrs W. R. Jack and Miss Elizabeth Allan.

Officers for Epworth League are: President, Miss Mina Edwards; 1st Vice President, Miss Katie May Firth; 2nd Vice Pres., Mr Basil Davis; 3rd Vice Pres., Mr Joe Edwards; 4th Vice Pres., Miss Hazel Firth; Sec'y Treasurer, Emerson Peart; Organist, Misses Elizabeth Allan and Margaret Greenwood. Both organizations are in good financial circumstances.

HOPEVILLE

Mr Jake Schmidt was home for two weeks from a Northern Ontario Lumber camp where he is engaged as teamster.

Mr Will Pettis came up from Dolton to spend over Easter at his parental home.

Mr Wallace Riddell is engaged for the summer with a farmer in East Luthar.

Messrs Henry and Fred Christie have rented Mr Alex. Fallister's farm for the coming year. Misses Jean, Bernice and Isabel McTaggart spent the Easter holidays with their grandmother, Mrs George Shand.

Mr and Mrs Jim Shand and son, Fairbairn, visited the first of the week at the parental home.

There is not much done on the land yet in this locality. A pheonemion in the weather line came Saturday night, when a heavy shower of snow fell during a rather severe thunder storm. Sunday it really felt colder than mid-winter.

Owing to the very inclement weather on Sunday, our church services were rather slimly attended. At Espin Rev. Geo. Kendall preached in his usual earnest thoughtful manner, taking his text from Rom. 8:1.

Mr Robt. Patton does not expect to take charge of the work again until May 17th, his time being occupied with his examinations. In the meantime the pulpit will be supplied each Sunday. On Sunday, 26th, Mr. John Gregg, a relative of the McEachnie family is expected to preach.

PRESS COMMENT

Kingston Whig: We Canadians are not the most courteous people in the world, and we might as well confess it. Many a humbler people have much to teach us in the grace of urbanity and the fine art of gentle manners. We are a young nation, and in spots at least raw and a little crude. We have not yet learned that conduct is nine-tenths of life. But if we are wise we will improve our manners and form the habit of courtesy in all the contacts of life. Courteous people carry with them an indefinable charm. To meet with them and know them is to experience something akin to looking upon a fine picture or hearing a particularly fine piece of music.

Border Cities Star: There are few things more important to this country than the maintenance of the happiest and most cordial relations between the two great races. To this end every possible source of friction should be eliminated, every obstacle to understanding and good-will removed. Let us build for a strong united Canada, with all racial feeling forgotten and everyone working toward the great goal of progress, prosperity and kindly feeling. Bitterness and strife cannot reign where there is understanding and sympathetic appreciation.

BOBS AND TEMPERS

(A man stated in court that his wife's temper had much improved since her hair was bobbed.) Whenever I quarried with Janet in the days when the hair was worn long,

'Twas always herself that began it, And I who would be in the wrong; In short, the more placid and pleasant I grew

The more she developed the airs of a shrew! But now that she's cut off her tresses A very great change has occurred, To me she now seldom addresses 'A single (or double) cross word, While, alas, I go stamping and raging about, Because there's no hairpin my pipe to clean out!

FAULTY NUTRITION

Many of the ailments of grown people may be traced to faulty nutrition. Well-fed children or adults withstand weakness better than those who are indifferently nourished.

Scott's Emulsion

supplies the weakened child or adult with food-factors that other foods often fail to furnish in needful volume. Not a great deal of Scott's Emulsion is needed—but a little regularly often means restored vigor and strength to those who are rundown in vitality or who are weak.
