Lays Charges Against License Insp. Beckett

Mayor Cooper, Meaford, Alleges that Report of Evidence was Tampered With

On Friday, March 25th, Angus Tuohy, who up to within a short time of that date had been the proprietor of the Queen's Hotel in Meaford, was convicted before Magistrate Cressor in Owen Sound Police Court of illegally selling liquor in his hotel at Meaford, fined $200 and costs and sent to jail for a period of three months.

The evidence on which Tuohy was convicted was given principally by two special detectives in the employ of the License Department at Toronto, Bradbury and Coughlan; who told of going into the hotel on a certain date with Robert Clark of Meaford, and of purchasing two drinks of whiskey.

The defence was that it was the ordinary two and a half per cent beer that was sold on this occasion, but a bottle was produced by the detectives which they swore Tuohy filled up from the same bottle from which he had served them, and it contained whiskey.

When Tuohy went to jail for this offense against the O. T. A., it was thought that it would be the end of the case, but it appears there is an aftermath, and before the matter is finally disposed of, there may be an interesting court action.

It is alleged that Mayor T. N. Cooper of Meaford, took up the cudgels on behalf of Tuohy, and wrote a letter to the License Department at Toronto in which it is alleged that he makes some very serious charges against Magistrate Cressor and License Inspector Matt C. Beckett, in which it is intimated that their methods of administering justice are not all that they should be, and makes some specific statements regarding both officials, and also involves the stenographer, who took down the evidence in the case.

In conversation with the Sun-Times today, Inspector Beckett stated that he was determined to exhaust all legal means to obtain a certified copy of the letter sent to the Department by Mayor Cooper. "You can say for me that Matt Beckett has not the slightest intention of allowing the matter to drop. If the statements which Mr. Cooper is credited with making in his letter to the License Department are true, then Matt Beckett has no right to be serving the public in any capacity, and I think I have a right to know what that letter contains" said the Inspector.

It is understood that one of the allegations made against the Inspector is that he (Inspector Beckett) bribed the stenographer to tamper with the evidence when transcribing the evidence being transcribed as it was given. Mr. Beckett not only considers this a serious charge against himself, but that it is also a serious charge against the young lady, who took down the evidence, and it is his intention to go the limit in order to secure a copy of the letter. All that he has at the present time is some extracts from the letter, but these are very unsatisfactory. A week ago Inspector Beckett wrote to Chairman Hales of the License Board, requesting that he be sent a certified copy of the letter, but up to the present he has received no reply, although he has received replies to other letters sent to the Board, and he forwarded another letter making a further request for a certified copy of the letter.

Should the request of the Inspector for a copy of the letter be denied him by Chairman Hales, he stated that it was his intention to place the matter at once in the hands of his solicitor, and take the necessary legal action to force the issue. "I am going to make Mayor Cooper of Meaford prove the statements he makes in the letter which I understand he wrote to the License Board and I will put him in the witness box in order to do it" said Inspector Beckett, who is very much wrought up over the matter, and some interesting developments may be expected.—Sun Times.

MAY WORK IN THE APIARY During the month of May, carefully watch the growth of each colony. Hives smaller than, the ten-frame Jumbo or twelve-frame Langstroth hives are not large enough for really good queens. As soon as the bees are filling all the spaces between the frames and are between the outer frames and the hive walls, another chamber should be given without a queen excluder; this not only enlarges the brood chamber, but is an aid in the prevention of swarming. The colonies are usually ready for this manipulation just prior to the early flow from dandelion and fruit bloom. During this early flow, it may be necessary to supply an extra super for the storage of nectar; do not force the bees to store any surplus in the brood chamber, as this reduces the space available for the queen, and is likely to excite the swarming impulse. It is also advisable, at this time, to clip the wings of all mated queens, as this will help to prevent the escape of swarms later. In localities where there is little or no nectar available between first and main flows, strong colonies must be watched for starvation, especially if the period of dearth is a long one. Do not examine colonies on cold days. Avoid keeping colony open too long for fear of chilling brood or encouraging robbing. Do not practise spreading the brood nest, as this may result in dead brood. Only examine colonies when there is some definite manipulation to perform.

Under 18, Must Have Consent For some years the Ontario Marriage Act has provided that a person under 18 must have the consent of his parent or guardian before being married. In all cases before the Act was held ultra vires, as beyond the power of the province and encroaching on the jurisdiction of the Federal Government. As the jurisdiction of the province, the Legislature in 1919 amended the act to make the consent a necessary part of the ceremony, and declaring that in the absence of such consent the marriage was null and void. Under this amendment two marriages have already been annulled and a third case pending.

A World-wide System Of Financial Service

By telephone you can talk with your neighbour or with an individual thousands of miles away. By telegraph you can span the continent; by cable your message can girdle the earth.

In like manner you can use the service of the Bank of Montreal in little or large measure as the occasion demands.

You can transact business of a purely local nature or enter into financial dealings with people in any part of the world.

Like the telephone, telegraph or cable, our system of financial service is as extensive as are the needs of our customers.

"As indispensable as the Telephone"

"As indispensable as the Telephone" is now a favourite slogan used by many large manufacturers in their advertising, when describing their goods.

A frank recognition that speed of communication is the most vital factor in expanding business and social life.

Indeed, a firm's position in the business world may be fairly judged by the extent to which it uses the telephone—and especially Long Distance.

We now handle an average of over 41,000 Long Distance calls a day.

Costs a family less than 2% of its annual outlay

TOWN TOPICS

The June wedding season will soon be here. Let the Review print your wedding stationery.

Flesherton High School ball teams, both boys and girls, will play Durham on H.S. grounds this Thursday afternoon.

Mr Homer Jukes, Hanover's well known baritone, is now singing and teaching in Hollywood, California, the home of the movie stars.

The Ladies of Trinity Church Guild will hold their 25c tea in aid of the Red Cross Hospital in the A. V. P. A. Rooms, Friday, May 29th. Tea served from 4 to 6 p.m.

The Ladies' Guild of Trinity Ch. were unfortunate in running against a bad day last Saturday for their Spring sewing sale. Despite this fact however the articles were well disposed of, homemade baking also being sold and afternoon tea enjoyed. $65 was realized.

Fertilizer. We have a stock of Fertilizer arriving this week. Call or phone your order. Phone 114. J. W. Ewen & Son, McKechnie Mills.

Again Changed Hands. After being in possession of the bus and dray business, which was purchased from "Riley" McKeekin, for about a month only, Albert Laytonstone sold it out last week to Bob Campbell who took possession on Monday. Bob has been in the business for five or six years as an employee, so is well qualified to assume the management.

Swinton Park Voted Anti-Union. St. Andrew's Church, Swinton Park was the last in this locality to vote on church union, the voting closing last Thursday night. There were 16 in favor, 39 against, a non-concurring majority of 23. As Pricewell voted a tie, 60-60, and thus enters union, it may result in a re-grouping of the charges.

Auxiliary Entertained at Manse. The Young Ladies' Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church, with some friends, numbering thirty, were entertained pleasantly at the Manse on Monday evening. Needlework, games and music, not to mention the music of the organ, were instrumental in making the function a success. At the close of the evening a dainty lunch was served.

Holds the Fishing Championship. All the one and a half and two lb. trout being pulled out of the Saugeen this week were completely overshadowed by Dr. Brad Jamieson's record catch last week. Along with Manager P. Gagnon of the Furniture Co. he was on a business and fishing trip to the Co's timber limits in Hastings County, and while there the Dr. landed a mammoth grey trout weighing 15 lbs. They motored home, arriving shortly after six Friday morning, and soon quite a number of the neighbors and angling enthusiasts surrounded them to view the magnificent finny specimens.

Bought Drug Business in Walkerton. Mr Melvin Greig of town, for some time back connected with Tamblin's chain drug stores in Toronto, has purchased the drug business of Mr. H. A. Zilliox, of Walkerton and is already in possession. Melvin graduated from the Ontario College of Pharmacy in 1922, and since that time has had much practical experience. Mr Zilliox, his predecessor, enjoyed a large trade, and friends in Durham know that Melvin's happy and jovial personality will retain same. Mr Zilliox's decision to sell out in Walkerton was prompted by ill health and will recuperate for a time with Mrs Zilliox, at his early home in Listowel. Walkerton musical circles regret the departure of Mrs Zilliox from their midst, as she was a talented contralto singer, and previous to her marriage, toured Canada and the States with a troupe and of which five members are still doing vaudeville work on one of the leading stages in New York.

Buried Amid Much Respect. All that was mortal of the late Geo. K. Morton, was laid away last Thursday afternoon in Durham cemetery beside his wife, who predeceased him some years before. The services which were conducted by Rev. W. H. Smith, at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs Thos. Morton, and at the graveside were largely attended by many old friends and neighbors. Mr Smith took for his text Genesis 25: 8, "Then Abraham gave up the ghost, and died in a good old age, an old man and full of years and was gathered to his people." The pall bearers were Dan McArthur, Duncan McLean, Jas. P. Hunter, John Mills, Thos. Torry, Dan McLean. A beautiful wreath lay on the casket, a tribute from the Morton family at Aberdeen. Deceased's nephews, George and Alex. Morton, leave again this week end for Innisfail, Alta., to wind up the estate of their late uncle.
