In commemoration of the founding of Grey Lodge, No. 169, I. O. O. F., on June 28th, 1875, just fifty years ago, the brethren have arranged to hold a picnic on July 9th, at E. D. McClocklin's grounds at the Rocky. A good program of sports is planned, and all brethren with their wives and lady friends will be present.

Fox Breeders have Fair Success
Fox breeders in Dundalk and vicinity have had fair success this year. Jas. Mitchell, con. S. Proton, has 20 silver black pups from 9 pairs; only two pairs of eleven failed to raise pups. Ross Mitchell got 18 cross for pups from 5 pairs; Douglas Mitchell got six crosses from 2 pairs; Wilfrid Lockhart of Killarney ranch, got 21 pups from 7 pairs; Bert Oswald has 4 pups from two pairs. The Porter and Gorman ranches in Proton Township had small increases.

Buggy over Embankment
On Monday last while Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Vollert were returning home from town, they met with an accident, which might easily have ended disastrously. On what is still known as Burt's hill they met an approaching truck, and for which the chauffeur found it necessary to go into low gear. This sudden noise frightened Mr. Vollert's horse, causing it to jump forward, turning the buggy over the embankment on the side of the hill. Mr. Vollert received a bad shaking up, while Mrs. Vollert has a small ankle bone broken.

Presbyterian W. M. S.
The June meeting of the W. M. S. of the Presbyterian Church was held at the home of Mrs. Ino. Morrison, on Thursday, June 18th. A good attendance was present. Devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. A. Derby. Mrs. J. H. McFadyen took the Bible reading, and the report of the Presbyterian Congress and W. M. S. Convention in Toronto was given by the President, Mrs. A. Derby, which was very interesting, and showed the great enthusiasm and fellowship which existed among the people. The meeting closed by all repeating the Lord's Prayer.—Com.

Hospital Patients
Miss Madge Holmes, the young daughter of Mr. Harry Holmes was operated upon Monday at the Red Cross Hospital for appendicitis. Dr. D. B. Jamieson was the surgeon. Mr. Holmes anxiety for his daughter's recovery will be deepened by the fact of the loss of his wife, a month ago following a severe operation. She is we are glad to say making favorable progress. Mrs. Allan McKinnon was removed to the Hospital on Wednesday, having suffered a stroke of paralysis at her home in Upper Town. It is thought that the stroke is slight one and that she will regain her speech and use of limbs. Mr. Albert Noble after several weeks in the Hospital, returned to his home Sunday, still a sick man, but slowly on the mend. Mr. Leo Burke, Glenelg, is in the Hospital, a sufferer from rheumatism, and it is hoped that the patient will show improvement in a short time. Mrs. Will Clark and Mrs. Allan Brown are now making good progress from their operations referred to last week.

June Weddings

LLOYD—MILLER

In Toronto, at high noon, Monday, June 29th, the marriage was solemnized of Mr. James Lloyd, proprietor of the Veteran Star Theatre, to Miss Chrissie Miller of Toronto. After a brief honeymoon they will return to Durham Friday, and take up residence in the home on Albert Street South, recently vacated by his brother Anson. Along with many Durham friends, the Review wishes the young couple much happiness, and welcomes the bride to our citizenship.

POOLE—SMITH

At the Lambton Street Parsonage, Durham, on Saturday evening, June 27th, 1925, the first wedding in Durham, under United Church pastorate, was consummated by Rev. J. E. Peters, when Mr. Arthur Poole, Egremont, and Miss Lillian Roberta Smith, daughter of Mr. Jacob Smith, also of Egremont, were made man and wife. The wedding was of the quietest nature possible and the couple were unattended. The groom is of English birth and has made his home with the Smith family for the past eight years.

MEKELVIE—LUDGE

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lodge, Seymour Ave., Toronto, when their only daughter, Margaret Ross, became the bride of George Alexander McKelvie, son of Mr. David McKelvie, Durham, Ont. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. A. Bracken, rector of St. David's church. The bride entered on the arm of her father, to the strains of the wedding march, played by her cousin, Miss Louise Cox. Her dress was of white crepe, heavily beaded and trimmed with silver lace and orange blossoms. A coronet of the latter flowers held the veil in place and she carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses. She was attended by Miss Dorothy Cox, also a cousin, who was crowned in canary yellow satin, with a white tulle hat and carried Ophelia roses. The groom was attended by his brother-in-law, J. C. Harrison of Egremont. The flower girl, little Miss Alma Old, looked sweet in a pale blue silk frock and a white bonnet to match, carrying a basket of white carnations.

The happy couple left for their future home in Egremont amid a shower of confetti and the good wishes of their friends, the bride travelling in a navy blue and sand suit with hat to match.

WEHENKEL—WALSH

At St. Paul's R. C. Church, Dorncrook on June 23rd, a very pretty wedding took place, when Lolita, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Walsh, became the bride of Mr. Wm. Wehenkel, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Wehenkel of Walkerton. Rev. Father N. Roahe, Toronto, performed the ceremony. The church was most attractively decorated by the girl friends of the bride, with clusters of June flowers and ferns. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked very winsome in a gown of crabsapple crepe with white fur trimming, wearing a large picture hat and carried a white prayer book. She was attended by her sister, Miss Marie, who was becomingly attired in a frock of powder blue georgette and wore a leghorn hat. Mr. Frank Wehenkel, brother of the groom, acted as best man. Miss Mayme Sullivan, cousin of the bride, played the wedding music. During the signing of the register, the choir, of which the bride was a member, sang 'O Bond of Love'. The groom's gift to the bride was a silver tea service, to the bridesmaid and organist, pearl chokers, and the groomsmen, a tie pin. After the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, only near relatives being present.

The happy couple then left on the afternoon train for a trip to Toronto, Buffalo, Niagara, Detroit and Chicago. The bride travelled in an ensemble costume of sand and lipstick red with hat and shoes to match. On their return, they will reside on the groom's farm north of Walkerton.

PHILLIPS—MEAGHER

St. Joseph's Church, Markdale, was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding on June 30th, when Alma C. youngest daughter of Mrs. Meagher and the late Thomas Meagher, was united in marriage to Stanley C. Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Phillips of Caistorville. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Father McGoey. The bride who was given away by her brother Frank, wore a pretty dress of bisque crepe robe with leghorn hat and blonde satin shoes. She carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley and was attended by Miss Rose Chesque, of Ayton, wearing apricot georgette with leghorn hat to match. Her bouquet was of sweetheart roses. The groom was supported by Mr. Rich. Hannah of Guelph, a cousin of the bride. The groom's gift to the bride took the form of a substantial cheque. To the bridesmaid, he gave a pearl choker and to the best man, a pearl tie pin.

Breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother, only the immediate relatives being present. After breakfast the happy couple left by motor for the Muskoka District. The bride travelled in an ensemble suit of choker brown tricotine and synora crepe, with sand felt hat. On their return they will reside at Grimsby.

GUN—POLLOCK

The wedding was solemnized in Toronto on Saturday, June 20th, of Mr. Arthur Russell Dunbar Gun, youngest son of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Gun of Weston, to Miss May Pollock, only child of Mr. and Mrs. Pollock of Drayton, Ont. The young couple, immediately after the ceremony, left for a honeymoon trip to Chicago and other points.

The groom is well and favorably known in Durham, his school days having been spent here, while the bride is a recent graduate of Toronto Normal School. The groom is at present connected with the Toronto Daily Star.

The Review joins the many well wishers in extending to the young couple good wishes for many years of happiness together.

Durham Juveniles Won Easily

Durham 16 Walkerton 2, was the score of the first lacrosse game here last Friday—the first in several years. Although only two of the Durham lads had had previous experience, they exhibited some pretty team play for beginners and there are several coming stars in the bunch. They played with superior system and confidence than their western opponents, who though trying valiantly, were unable to hold their own. Alvin Snell was the most effective man on the field, while McClyment and Lauder were also strong on the attack. The defence was well balanced and checked close. Score by periods: 5-0, 8-1, 13-1, 16-2.

Prohibition Convention

Political Action Committee Formed—Live Active by Rev. Dr. Oaten

As announced this Convention was held on Friday last in the Town Hall when about fifty representatives were present. President J. W. Blyth presided, and there were present Rev. Dr. J. F. Oaten, an organizer for the Prohibition Union, and Mr. Geo. Neil, Scottish tenor, who in the course of the afternoon sang several fine songs. Mrs. J. H. Harding accompanied Mr. Neil acceptably.

After prayer by Rev. W. H. Smith, on suggestion of Mr. Oaten, a nominating committee was formed composed of Jno. Milligan, Bentinck; Mrs. Rogers, Egremont; Mr. Lee, of Holland; J. W. Blyth, Normandy; Thos. Allan, Durham; W. J. Armstrong, Dundalk; Mrs. J. Burgess, Durham; Mrs. West, Holstein.

Dr. Oaten said the most important thing to do at this meeting was to create a "Political Action Committee" composed of President and Sec'y elect, a representative from each municipality, and three others, the two Vice Presidents elect, the other chosen by the Convention, Mr. Lee, of Holland.

Rev. Mr. Spencer, Dundalk, moved, seconded by R. H. Moore, that above be the "Political Action Com." of S. Grey and was carried.

Rev. Mr. Peters and Mrs. Rogers moved that the Riding accept the $1000 objective placed on Grey, and that we request Central Office to name a Field Day for this Riding, that an appeal be made for funds at services held and this is cordially commended to the pastors of the Riding. Carried.

The Nom. Committee presented its report which was adopted on motion of Mrs. Rogers, Thos. Allan, and was as follows: Pres., J. W. Blyth; 1st Vice Pres., Mrs. Rogers, Holstein; Sec'y, C. Ramage; Treasurer, Thos. Allan; Municipality Representatives—Artemesia, T. R. McKenzie, he to choose others; Bentinck, A. C. McDonald, John Milligan; Chateworth, Mrs. S. Breeze, Thos. Bell, Miss Winnie Binnie; Holland, G. Stoddart, Mrs. R. Minch; Normandy, John Cooper, Mrs. John Marshall; Osprey, Louis Moore, he to choose others; Proton, E. Hockridge, Mrs. W. Dingwall; Sullivan, G. Cook, Mrs. R. L. Aitchison; Hanover, Dr. Staples, Mrs. Seely; Flesherton, Mrs. Downs, she to choose others; Neustadt, Henry Ford and the minister; Markdale, Edward Colgan, Mrs. J. Sutherland, and that all clergymen be members ex-officio.

It was moved, seconded and carried the 3rd Sunday in August be chosen as Field Day.

Rev. Dr. Oaten Speaks

Rev. Dr. Oaten then made reference in opening, to the check the temperance forces had met with in recent months. He thought we had been fundamentally wrong somewhere, and gave much altruistic advice. He stressed one point—"Keep out of politics"; Hearst and Rowell lifted the question out of politics, Mr. Drury also kept it out; Mr. Ferguson came along and lifted it right in. This moral issue must be kept out of the hands of party leaders, or we are back in 1874 when groceries and liquor were first separated in their sale. Mr. Ferguson has re-married them.

"When we got the O. T. A. there were 1400 licenses, now 5000 and more to come. He had scorn for Nickle's statements that 44 beer could be won from strong drinks and that it was not intoxicating. "We are now training to sit at tables, really training them for the bootleggers."

We must, he said, begin again at bed rock and build up, though it might cause a revolution. He then introduced the card system being adopted in the expressed, the needs and success that had been achieved in the U. S. by its use, the success there being no pipe dream but a reality. After a meeting of members of com. present, the meeting adjourned.

Royal Arch Masons

Entertain Bountifully

Large Gathering Attend Second Convocation of Chapter

"Nor did sun or wind from any quarter, ever come But as a blessing to this calm recess, This glade of water and this one green field. The spot was made by Nature for herself; The travellers know it not, and 'twill remain unknown to them."—Wordsworth

Thursday afternoon last, June 25th, was a big day in Royal Arch Mason Circles in Durham. The second annual Convocation or picnic of the Chapter was scheduled to take place at the McClocklin Camping Grounds, at the Rocky, and while Old Sol was sparing of his genial rays, it did not dent the rays of human sunshine from over two hundred faces assembled on this afternoon and on these grounds. The committee in charge had made preparations for between three and four hundred and it was unfortunate that due to weather conditions, many from a distance were prevented from being present.

This Rocky Camp is a beautiful sylvan retreat where "The budding groves seemed eager to urge on the steps of June; As if their various hues were only hindrances that stood between them and their object."

Nature has endowed this section of the Rocky with much natural beauty and its rock formations would be a delightful study for any ardent geologist. The winding brook running its course through trees, has been artificially banked up by stones and nearby is the commodious bunk and cook houses. A short distance away is the large concrete dam, built by the Durham Furniture Co. to generate power for their plant in town.

Hither the Masonic brethren and their friends came, and early in the afternoon some international softball was played. The batting was heavy, the runs numerous and errors morose. In fact so numerous were the runs that each side stopped short on the counting. The game served to emphasize the fact that to be a competent softball player is not a necessary requirement of any Masonic lodge. Several members of the Royal Arch from Hanover were also on the line-up and the batting average of our sister town players were well to the front.

Naturally at 6 p.m., the inner man called and on retreating to the open sward, tables were arranged for a late portion of the crowd, the Royal Arch brethren doing the honors. The service and cuisine were excellent, and when it is known that one hundred pounds of fresh whitefish were procured, an idea will be formed of the extent of culinary preparations. The host, Comp. McClocklin and Bro. Bert Willis were the chefs for the party, and this is sufficient guarantee as to the cuisine end of the affair. Ice cream, lemonade and peanuts by the bushel, were later "eats", and the gathering found capacity for them all.

Durham Band were on the grounds and during the supper hour and program furnished delightful music under the baton of Mr. Harry Huggill.

A social hour followed and as the shadows darkened, a huge bonfire heightened the camp aspect of affairs and served to radiate warmth as well for the night air grew chill.

A program was also arranged for with Excellent Companion S. B. Croft as chairman of Wellington Dist., in the chair. He welcomed all present on behalf of the Chapter and said it was his pleasure to be "At Home" to their friends in such a beautiful spot. He called upon Comp. E. D. McClocklin, who extended to the gathering his personal welcome to the grounds. This was followed by a preliminary talk by Mr. McClocklin on the art of boxing, which led up to an exhibition of such by two such many exponents of the art as John J. Sullivan (E. A. Hay) and "Slippery Slattery" (Dr. J. F. Graun). "Slattery" was keenly (2) contested and the blows that didn't come were conspicuous by their absence. They dipped and dived and sparred to gain the vantage point of each other, and the close of the struggle saw John J. Sullivan vanquished and "Slippery Slattery" the winner. The vigilant trainers of each, Comp. D. C. Town and McLachlan, with their necessary first aid appliances were on hand and freely used. Most of the audience, if they only realized it, were as near as they ever will be to a high class boxing tournament.

Rev. J. E. Peters was present with Mrs. J. E. Peters as a guest, and briefly added his felicitations on the day.

The address of the night was delivered by Very Excellent Comp. Sidney Forbes of Hamilton, who cited the wonderful progress made by the world in the past hundred years, and told of three great inventions which have contributed materially to man's advancement and knowledge—the Telescope, Microscope and Telephone.

A ladies' trio, comprising Mrs. D. Town, Mrs. M. McFadden and Miss Alice Bamage contributed a number, and there were also two other musical numbers by a group of ladies—parodies and take-offs on the Royal Arch members and their Chapter, which were enjoyed by the audience.

The activities of Mr. Ab. Noble in last year's picnic made his absence this year through illness, quite noticeable.

At ten o'clock the second annual Convocation was over and only memories survive of a pleasant and happy day.
