Death of Sir Adam Beck

The Great Hydro Enthusiast Passes On.

No death in Ontario in recent years has called forth more regretful comment than that of the great apostle of Hydro, Sir Adam Beck.

Deceased was born at Baden, Ont., 68 years ago, received his education in Ontario, and began humbly in his father's milling business at the age of 19.

But it was as the "apostle of Hydro" he became distinguished, and the Provincial hydro system will be his monument. He was often thwarted in his fight for public ownership of public utilities, but he struggled on and lived to see it thoroughly established, and on his death bed was making plans for further progress.

He was distinguished also as a philanthropist, and to him and his wife who predeceased him by a few years, London owes a noble sanitarium. For the last twenty years he and his wife battled for sufferers from tuberculosis.

A great man has gone and from the province comes a mighty chorus of regrets and appreciation. Today Tuesday, he is being interred beside his wife in Hamilton, and for few public men will there be as sincere mourning.

READY FOR PROMOTION

There's going to be a vacancy above you later on, Some day you'll find the foreman or the superintendent gone, And are you growing big enough, when this shall be the case, To quit the post you're holding now and step into his place?

You do the work you have to do with ease from day to day, But are you getting ready to deserve the larger pay?

If there should come a vacancy with bigger tasks to do, Could you step in and fill the place if it were offered you?

To-morrow's not so far away, nor is the goal you seek, To-day you should be training for the work you'll do next week.

The bigger job is just ahead, each day some new change brings— Suppose that post were vacant now, to you take charge of things? It's not enough to know enough to hold your place today, It's not enough to do enough to earn your weekly pay ;

Some day there'll be a vacancy with greater tasks to do,— Will you be ready for the place when it shall fall to you? —Edgar A. Guest

IN MEMORIAM

GLIDDON—In sad but ever loving memory of our dear little Clara, beloved daughter of George and Nettie Gliddon, who passed away in Durham Memorial Hospital, Aug. 22 1924, aged 12 years.

We grieve for thee, dear Clara, But not without show, For hearts that mourn sincerely, Mourn silently and low. No one knows the bitter pangs, No one knows the silent heartaches, We have suffered since you left us, Life will never be the same. —Sadly missed by mother, da,ddy, Clarence and Earl

Kerr -- Ritchie

On Wednesday morning, Aug. 12th at 10 o'clock, the Presbyterian church Orilla, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when Alexandria Laella, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Ritchie, Orilla, was united in marriage to Mr John Campbell Kerr of Detroit, son of Mrs. James Kerr, of Varney, Rev. N. H. McGillivray officiated in the presence of a large gathering of guests and other friends of the bride.

Mr. Ritchie gave his daughter in marriage, her dress being of pencil blue georgette with hat to match and grey shoes and stockings, and her bouquet was roses and lily-of-the-valley. She was unattended. The ushers were Messrs. Melville McLeod Orilla, and Kenneth Kerr, Toronto. Professor Hopson played the wedding music, and during the signing of the register, Miss Clark, of London, sang "My World." The church was beautifully decorated with summer flowers. After the ceremony a reception and luncheon was held at the bride's home, Nottawasaga street. The young couple proceeded by motor to Toronto, whence they will leave by boat for a trip down the St. Lawrence. They will reside in Detroit.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. Jas. Kerr, of Varney, and two sons and daughter, Walter, Kenneth, and Janet; Mrs. Lillian of Alexandria, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Flakie, Detroit; Mr and Mrs John Ritchie and Miss McLean, Beaverton, and Miss Clark of London.

During the past week Miss Ritchie was entertained at a number of functions in anticipation of her wedding, her Sunday School class giving her a shower at Mrs T. H. Grant's home; the Public School teachers held a picnic at Couchiching Beach, presenting her with a silver cake basket; the Presbyterian choir also held a picnic at the park at which they presented the bride-to-be with a silver entree dish, and Mrs. Stanley Sajeant gave a china shower. Miss Ritchie's many friends wish her a very happy married life. In Orilla she was a member of the Public School staff for several years and had also been a very faithful member of the Presbyterian Choir.

The Review reproduces the foregoing from the Orilla Packet; on behalf of the groom's many South Grey friends, we extend hearty congratulations.

Runciman -- Miller

A very quiet wedding was solemnized at St. Ann's Anglican Church, Toronto, when Marguerite, youngest daughter of Mr. Miller, and the late Mrs. Miller, became the bride of Mr. Eldon A. Runciman, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Runciman, 61 Shannon St., Toronto. Rev. Mr. Marsh officiated. The bride wore a gown of white crepe georgette with a veil of white embroidered tulle caught with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. Miss Nellie MacLean attended the bride, wearing a powder blue georgette dress with hat to match and a bouquet of sweetheart roses. The groom was attended by Mr. George Brown.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the bride's home, the bride and groom leaving later for a short honeymoon to Buffalo and other points. On their return they will reside in Toronto.

On behalf of many friends of the young groom in Durham and East Egremont, where his boyhood days were spent, the Review extends hearty congratulations.

GLENELG

Ho! reapers of the grain harvest, don't stand idle here, for the fields are white and ready to use your might to keep in touch with the great demand for harvesters.

An old farmer's son from near Toronto, who is on a visit in this part, said that the crops in Glenelg are far superior to those in the old settlement. So that's a good report from an old settler down in the County of York. Some of these old York Co. farmers sixty or seventy years ago, used to call Glenelg "stony Glenelg" or as an old Highlander asked a young lad who was looking for work, "what did he come from Glenelg, County of Grey, said "Arus an ne sin Glenelg nan clach", or "Is that stony Glenelg" As we said before and say it again, although Glenelg in olden times had a quantity of stones, its people are not like the old farmer referred to, for he didn't ask the poor boy looking for work to come in to dinner, as it was that time of day, for a hungry traveller never went hungry while duty called him to be there at meal time in Glenelg's farm homes.
