PRICEVILLE & VICINITY

PRICEVILLE & GLENELG

This Monday, the 28th Sept. has the smell of an approaching winter. We saw some with caps pulled over their ears this morning and some were calling for mitts. However the coolness of the north wind will help to dry up the grain standing in the stook yet, as there are hundreds of acres to be garnered in, all over the Co. of Grey.

Mrs McPherson who spent a month with her sisters, Mrs McCannel and Miss McLean of Lambton St., leaves this afternoon for her home in Toronto, carrying with her the best wishes of her many friends in Durham and vicinity.

Mr and Mrs Gordon Geddes of Lambton St., entertained a number of friends on Sunday, on their return from church, by giving them a real good dinner, of which we were one of the number. Mrs Geddes is a talented musician and entertained the company with some fine music for some time.

As we didn't get this paper out last week, we send it this week. The weather is taking a change again and is somewhat warmer. September is drawing to a close and in another month we may look for November's wintry blasts.

The Campbell's are coming, the Tories are running. Whether losing or winning they are trying to get there. Miss McPhail is sure she'll not fall to get a big vote, but there is many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip, so all voters be sure to be out.

If the harvesters who didn't finish hauling in their grain, they could not break the Sabbath last Sunday, on account of the rain.

It rained yesterday (Sunday) the most of the day, testing the faithfulness of church goers. We had a call from Mr Walter Hastie of Holstein and Mr Herman McLean of Priceville. Mr Hastie is out on business entrusted to him. He is one of those faithful residents who served in many capacities in municipal matters, both in County Council and Tp. of Egrement. He is now Treasurer of the Township of Egrement. We were pleased to have a small talk from Mr Herman McLean in the good old language, the Gaelic. Herman must be thinking we are forgetting that good language since coming to Edge Hill. Going back to Priceville some 60 or 70 years ago, the old language had the majority, but only memories are left of those old residents and the old language is in a measure buried with them in the different cemeteries in the vicinity of Priceville.

We had the privilege of hearing Rev James Binnie Sunday evening in Knox United Church, Durham. Mr Binnie has a good manner of delivery. He is an old Glenelg boy and got his first lesson in No. 1, Glenelg.

It would be well for the United Church to go to Priceville and take a sample of the sheds there by pulling down the old and rickety shed which they have at Durham. A person with a fine pair of shoes going for his vehicle, would have them all covered with mud and slush.

The good old Presbyterians of Priceville had similar ones years ago but pulled them down and put up one of the best cement sheds to be found in Ontario. Now to use the phrase, "What's mine is mine." Methodists all united should share by replacing combed buildings for the animals of the lower race.

The school fair held Monday, the 28th inst., at S. S. No. 3, was quite a success. As the Editor was there we will not say much. Both our candidates were also there. Miss McPhail gave a short but pointed address. She made herself one of the common girls in the large assembly. But we are going to avoid flattery as she doesn't entertain anything of such a nature. Mr Campbell, the Conservative candidate, didn't speak. He is a stranger to many in this locality but his friends will support him all the same.

We had the pleasure of a number of old friends and neighbors of East Glenelg at our home, who gave us a call when attending the Fair.

SWINTON PARK

Well Mr Editor, news is scarce but water is very abundant, as it only stops raining long enough to get a fresh start. But as the harvest is pretty well over, it is not felt so much. A few stooks are still in the fields though most of the threshing is done, some of it very tough, but all claim a good yield. There have been four threshing outfits on the line, two of steam and two of gas power. They all have the blower equipment on them and we think in some cases they have a second blower walking around, so the grain ought to be

Glenelg School Fair

competely later and the victor will get a gold wrist watch, or a free trip to Ottawa. She could assure the first now, but could not definitely promise the second now.

In girls' public speaking contest, first prize went to Anna McEachern, No. 10, second to Marguerite Corlett, Se. No. 3 and third to Armonell Glenecross No. 3. There were no boys ambitious for platform work.

Races for all ages from 5 up drew many contestants for each event, the winners up to 5th and 8th place all receiving ribbons. Seven teachers ran a close race, Miss Armetta McKechnie sprinting in ahead, Miss Moffat Park 2nd, and Mr A. Melnis, who was handicapped 3rd. Victor Williams won the Trustees' race, Mrs Arthur Edge the married women's and John McGillir the married men's. In the couple race Miss Mina Edwards and Clifford Cook rushed in ahead of Miss Margaret Greenwood and Jim Peart in a close finish.

The races over, the big crowd present thronged the school to view the numerous exhibits. The baking was plentiful and excellent and many other classes were keenly contested. If any increase in exhibits next year, it looks as if they will have to enlarge the school or allow the crowd in in turns, as there was a great jam on Monday.

Mr Cooper and his staff are to be congratulated on their efficient and successful management of the Fair, and the interest stirred up, both with the scholars and parents. The prize list follows:
