HYMENEAL

ROBINSON — ALLINGHAM

A pretty wedding took place Wednesday, Oct. 15th, at high noon at Chalmers United Church, Guelph, when Rev. J. A. McKenzie, assisted by Rev. J. H. Heslop, officiated at the marriage of Jessie Gertrude, only daughter of Mr and Mrs F. E. Allingham of 11 Waterloo St. E. to Arthur C. Robinson, son of Mr and Mrs E. L. Robinson, 149 Yorkshire St.

Ferns, autumn leaves, roses and asters were tastefully arranged in the church for decoration. Roses were on the altar and sprays of autumn leaves and white asters marked the pews reserved for the 50 or 60 guests, all relatives or intimate friends of the bride and groom.

The bridal music was played by the organist of the church, Prof. H. Holgate and at the signing of the register, Rev. N. A. Hurlburt of Milton sang "My World." The bride was given away by her father and was charming in her gown of white silk georgette over white satin; her bridal veil was caught with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of pink Ophelia roses.

Miss Phyllis Hartley of Oil Springs cousin of the bride, made a charming bridesmaid, in a frock of old rose crepe de chene, trimmed with gold lace and black hat and a shower of Ophelia roses in two shades was fastened with an Ophelia bow. RYLTH'S CORNERS

The rough stormy weather on Monday, followed by a heavy fall of snow, is cause for concern with not a few of our farmers with a lot of buckwheat, potatoes and roots still unharvested.

Miss Gardiner of Mt. Forest and Miss Taylor of Aylton, spent the week end over with Miss Florence Melville on their return from the Teachers' Convention in Dundalk, which they all enjoyed to the full with pleasure and profit.

Miss Dinah Thompson left last week for Toronto, where she intends to remain for some time.

The removal by death of the late Mrs. Wm. Grant cast a gloom of sadness over the entire community, where she was well and favorably known, previous to her removal to reside in Mt. Forest. We extend to the grief stricken husband and family our heartfelt sympathy.

The suggestion made in the Review a week or so ago re the abolishing of the Senate, was well worthy of adoption. We are almost sure if the people could express their feeling in the simple way outlined, they would make short work of it. The election is decidedly quiet and as far as we can see and hear, everything looks rosy for the re-election of Miss MacPhail. Her firmness, both in the House and out for progressive ideas, has won the admiration of the best class of electors and her election is almost a foregone conclusion with a possible majority of 2598. Few may hesitate Mr. Editor, to accept this as the official count, but we fancy it will border closely to it.
