PRICEVILLE

Congratulations to Miss A. C. Macphail on her victory at the polls on Thursday last.

The public were indebted to Messrs Fred Karstedt and Ray McLean for splendid election returns Thursday evening...

Mrs Rev. S. G. McCormack is visiting her parents at Mitchell.

Mrs J. Watson is visiting her son Ed. in Durham.

Messrs F. G. Karstedt and Ray McLean motored to Thornbury Saturday on business and report it is like another world down there...

Miss M. Smellie gave a Halloween party to a number of her friends last Friday evening, and was much enjoyed.

A number from here attended Miss Nichol's school Halloween masquerade social on Friday evening and report a splendid time.

Miss Marion, teacher of the O. D. R. school, invited the parents of the section to spend a social hour with Mollie in guid braid Scots.

Mrs Alex. Whyte, Toronto, is visiting his sons, John and Garfield, on the O. D. R.

Muir Bros. are loading oats and potatoes at the C. P. R. station here, which is a convenience to the farmers.

Anniversary services will be held in the United Church here on Sunday next, Nov. 8th, followed on Monday evening by a fowl supper and entertainment which promises to be good.

Mr E. D. Hogg has treated himself to a radio set, purchased from Mr Ray McLean, who is agent for the De Forrest Crossley.

A splendid meeting of the Young People's Society was held in St. Columba United Church Tuesday evening of this week.

After opening with devotional exercises, led by Mr Allan McGinnis, Vice President, the business of the Society was transacted.

A fine talk on "Robert Burns" and his works, was given by Mrs Fred Karstedt, President. She spoke fluently for half an hour, dealing with his early school life, his struggles on the farm, his trials and temptations, his successes and failures, his loves and his sorrows, etc.

A fine address, well prepared and attentively listened to, was given by Mrs. J. E. Peters, who gave a reading "The Ding words of paur Mille" in guid braid Scotch.

Miss Margaret Turner contributed a solo, "To Mary in Heaven." A paper was prepared by Mr Willie McKennie on "Burns", and dealt with his finer and tenderer feelings, instancing Cottars Saturday Night, "To the Mouse," "To a Mountain Daisy", "O a' the Airts the wind can blow"—the poet's finest and tenderest love song, was sung by W. W. Ramage.

Heartly appreciation was shown by the audience in the vote of thanks that followed to the performers. Meeting closed with hymn and prayer. A splendid meeting—61 in attendance by Sec'y Mary Muir's roll, and free of all frivolity.

PRICEVILLE & GLENELG

This Monday morning, Nov. 2nd, has a springlike appearance, and hopes are that in a few days those who were unfortunate in not getting their potatoes up, will get them out of the ground this week.

As for apples, they are past redemption for they are all frozen in the trees and fallen ones are not of much account now. The roads are cut up badly on some lines. Up the 4th con. Glenelg where newly gravelled, the roads are cut down over a foot deep by the car traffic.

A law should be passed prohibiting car owners to run their cars when snow is some inches deep, but when the new government will make a change.

Miss Macphail did not fail to head the poll again, but we see she has only one chum in Ontario. An old highland man was asked how old his father was. "Well, I think he is more than a thousand" meaning 100.

So Miss Agnes was the recipient of a few hundreds over the thousand. Miss Macphail is Scotch, partly lowland and partly highland. We remember her grandfather Mr MacPhail, who held the office of reeve in Proton, speaking the ancient language, the Gaelic, and if his granddaughter would learn that language of her predecessor in the highlands of Cotland and the French language, then when amongst all classes of the people assembled there, she could hold her own by addressing the House in Gaelic and French. But she can hold her own well in the ruling language, the English.

A large congregation assembled at the Town Hall, Durham yesterday to hear the Rev. Mr. Tolmie who gave a good sound sermon with good delivery. Mr. Tolmie was told, served in Parliament also some time ago, but that did not interfere with his manner of delivery in the pulpit. He congratulated the old Presbyterians in securing Rev. Mr. Armstrong as their pastor. Mr. Armstrong served 4 years as missionary in China and Mr. Tolmie says he is a good preacher.

Thrashing is about done on Edge Hill line, Arch. McDonald and Reeve Weir being the last to the north of the Saugeen bridge. Mr. Weir is thrashing to-day and if the weather suits, Councillor Allan has a field of sweet clover in the field yet if fit for thrashing.

Sleighting was good for a few days last week. Very little fall plowing done yet but hope that November will be favorable for the work yet.

The funeral of the late Mr. Allen was largely attended last Friday. Mr. Allen was one of the pioneers of Glenelg and his remains were laid to rest in the Trinity cemetery. Rev. Peters officiating at the home of his son on the 4th con. and at the grave.

Owing to circumstances we were not able to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. John McMillan last week, but we were told it was largely attended. In the years of her activity, Mrs. McMillan could not be surpassed by many of her younger sex in walking to the old Presbyterian church, Priceville, where she was a faithful member. Rev. Mr. Sutherland officiated at the home of her daughter and at the graveside. Colin McMillan was undertaker.

We were pleased to hear that the McArthur family on the North Line, who were all ailing were some better.

Mrs. Margaret McLean of Lambton St. spent last week with her friends, the McDonalds of Edge Hill.

Mrs. Staples of Markdale (mother of Fred at Edge Hill) is not much better, though holding her own fairly well.

The two oldest voters in Glenelg, are Mrs. Scott at the townline south, and Mr. Konold. Mrs. Scott is in her 94th year and Mr. Konold in his 92nd year. Both voted at the Glen last Thursday.

Mrs. Campbell of the North line, Arcometa, is in her 90th year and is quite smart yet. We don't know if she went out to vote or not.

We extend good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Black on their recent reunion. We know both. Mrs. Black is a daughter of our old school chum, John A. McMillan, now over 70 years ago, when four of us attended the opening of the first school in the old section, No. 2, Glenelg, on the 16th March, 1853. The others were the late Norman McIntyre, Arch. Butters and Jno. McMillan and we are left to tell the story. Mr. Black's father, Mr. J. S. Black with Mrs. Black, were amongst our best friends while on duty in Glenelg and their kindness to us is not forgotten.

ZION

There passed away last Tuesday, Oct. 27th, another of the pioneer fathers of Glenelg in the person of Mr. Robt. Allen of Glenelg in his 87th year. He had been ill for only ten days previous from pneumonia.

He was born in Ireland and when about 3 years of age came to Canada with his parents, the late James and Mrs. Allen. Nearly 53 years ago he married Miss Elizabeth Brandon, who predeceased him nine years ago last May.

To them were born a family of seven sons and three daughters, viz: (Robt., Thos. and Lizzie dying in childhood from black diphtheria); James, (who died 11 years ago); Jos., near Gull Lake, Sask.; John is Minnedosa, Man.; Nina, Mrs. H. Dean, Durham; Herbert and Geo., at whose latter home he died; and Belle (Mrs. Hawley Haws, Meaford).

His brothers and sisters surviving are: John in California; Jas. in Toronto; Jos. in Brandon, Man.; David and Hamilton in Durham; (Maria Ann) Mrs. M. J. Davis, Zion; (Margaret Jane) Mrs. Hannah, Mount Forest; (Sarah) Mrs. Will J. McFarlane, Glenelg. Another brother and sister, Samuel and Matilda, died some years ago.

The funeral, which was held last Friday afternoon, was largely attended, Rev. J. E. Peters conducting service at both house and grave. Much sympathy is extended to the sorrowing friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lawrence spent Sunday at the Davis home.

Mrs. Chas. McClocklin spent a few days last week with her daughter, Mrs. Will Campbell, Bentinck.

Mr. Oren Peart is finishing up the thrashing for this year after a good season.

Zion Sunday School closed last Sunday for the winter months.

TOLD ABOUT UNITED CHURCH

Rev. S. G. McCormack gave a fine discourse on Sunday last on the motives and aims and accomplishments of the Great United Church, an organization of 800,000. With the object of deepening and broadening our fellowship, it has sprung out of three churches, hoping that other churches may ultimately unite. To extend the Kingdom of Christ at home among our 55 nationalities and abroad as well, where many English speaking communities are without a church, one for 15 years, is surely a worthy object. The motto "The whole wide world for Jesus" summed up the fine service.

HOPEVILLE

Mrs. Marshall, Vancouver, spent a week recently with Mrs. H. D. Scott. Mrs. John Campbell of O. Soond, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Dingwall's lately, visitors at Mr. Jas. Dingwall's lately.

Mrs. Jake Schmidt and son Lorne left last week to spend the winter with her husband, who is engaged in a lumber camp in Parry Sound district.

Miss Berta Webster has been visiting her uncle, Mr. Sam McDonald, of Dundalk.

A number of young folk attended a party Monday evening given by Miss Peg. Ferguson ere her departure for Toronto on Saturday.

Mrs. John Mills and babe are in Toronto this week, her little daughter receiving medical treatment in the hospital, which all hope will prove successful.

We don't know as everyone was elated over the results of the election but everyone is very much pleased over the fine weather we are having since. For real benefit to farmers, the election should have been a month earlier in the season. Good weather is more important than the tariff.

Our sick folk—Mrs. G. B. Smith, Mr. Jas. Dingwall, Mr. John Plester, Mrs. McPhail Sr. and Mr. Werry are not making any satisfactory improvement in health.

Messrs Will Fettes and W. Featherston motored from Toronto and spent over last week end at the former's home.

SWINTON PARK

During the past week considerable hunting has been done. Wilfred Black succeeded in running down 2 foxes last Friday. Wilfred retains his old-time speed as a runner, and supplements it by the use of an auto in fox hunting.

The election was a very quiet affair in the Park, and as the returns came in, it reminded one of the burial of Sir John Moore, not a word being said. Tom Binnie, our old-time friend will now no doubt qualify for chore boy in any company, but we hope however, that the Government may be able to carry on under one or other of the leaders. We believe all are anxious to do well for the country, although they hold different views as to how it should be done. Often if we give a little here and there, we find our opponents not such bad fellows after all.

This fine morning Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Lane and children are moving out of the Park, where they have lived through the summer. They will reside in the Andrew Black house on con. 15. We wish them good luck in their new home. Mr. and Mrs. George Morton will occupy the house which Lane's are leaving, they wishing to be nearer the church and other conveniences for the winter.

Feathers are flying these days in preparation for Thanksgiving. J. H. Richardson will dispose of his large flock by shooting match one of these days.

Only one of our native sons threatened to leave the country if Miss Macphail was elected, but he hasn't started to pack up yet. Mr. Campbell, we imagine, will feel like a hen-pecked husband, he being the only man in the Dominion beaten by a woman.

SHOOTING MATCH

On Oct. 1, con. 18, Proton, there will be held a shooting match at 2 p.m. on Monday, 9th Nov. Men with guns invited.
