

Better baking with less fuel

It is not remarkable that more than 300,000 Canadian women praise the Happy Thought for its exceptional ability to heat, cook and bake. The firebox is adequate to the size of the oven and the scientifically constructed flue carries a steady, uniform heat to all parts of the oven and cooking surface. Through a perfected system of drafts regulated at will, this heat is always under your control. Naturally with a Happy Thought, good cooking and baking is inevitable.

Additional worthwhile features you will appreciate are the "Duplex" grates, broiling and toasting front, ample reservoir and ventilated oven.

Happy Thought Pipe, Pipeless and Combination Warm Air and Hot Water Furnaces serve every type of home.

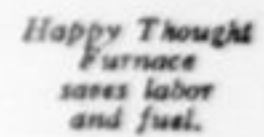

Happy Thought Gas Range is beautiful, economical, efficient.

SWINTON PARK

Mr Robt. Knox visited last week with his brother, Wm. in O. Sound, and listened in at the sitting of Com. on church union.

Mr and Mrs Nell McLeod and Mr and Mrs Nell Clark attended the funeral of their brother-in-law, Hugh McIntyre, of Glade, last week, who died after a few days illness from pneumonia.

A number from here attended the funeral of another of the pioneers of Proton, in the person of Mrs McPhail, Sr., grandmother of Miss Agnes C. McPhail, M.P.

Our local gunmen spent Monday in the bush trying to raise a lynx or wild cat of some species, which has been seen on several occasions, but failed in getting a sight of the cat.

Some of our young folk attended a fowl supper at Amos church last night and enjoyed themselves.

On account of the snow storm Sunday night, Rev. Mr McCormack failed to get to the Salem appointment.

Swinton Park Presbyterians intend having Anniversary services, Sunday, Dec. 6th, this being the date of the church opening 12 years ago. Also a fowl supper the Monday following. Further particulars later.

The sleigh is the main conveyance in use here at present and we do not hope for any more car rides this fall. Seymour Heard, Toronto, is expected home to-day for a holiday on account of his health.

ROCKY SAUGEEN

The U.F.W. O. met at the home of Mrs Geo. Noble on Friday. There was a good attendance. As this was the annual meeting the election of officers took place, as follows: Pres., Mrs. Nell McLean; 1st Vice Pres., Mrs. Jas. Ewen; Sec'y Treas., Mrs. D. Lamb. Mrs. J. W. McKechnie gave a splendid paper on "Education." At the close of the meeting Mrs Noble served lunch. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs Robt. Lawson.

Mrs Hill is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs Geo. Turnbull.

Misses Kathleen Firth and Ethel Young and Mr Harold McKechnie, representing the Young Peoples' Club attended a meeting in Fiesherston on Saturday, regarding the organization of the debating league.

Much sympathy is felt for Mrs. Murray Ritchie and other members of the family in the loss of a loving mother.

Messrs L. A. McLean, Jack Lawson and Joe Davidson arrived home from the West Friday.

A number of the children in this neighborhood are suffering from colds. A good crowd from the Rocky attended the induction in Durham this week.

Mr Joe Crutchey is spending a few days helping his brother Jim who is under the Dr's care at present.

Miss Reta Braun returned home after spending a few months with her grandmother, Mrs Baxter.

Mr Allister Lawrence is suffering from an attack of pneumonia. Pleasured to hear latest reports find him improving.

HYMENEAL

THOMPSON — MONTGOMERY

A pretty wedding took place on Thanksgiving Day at the home of Mr and Mrs Jno. Montgomery, Dundalk, when his youngest daughter, Lillian Audrey, became the bride of Wilfrid J. Thompson, son of Mr and Mrs G. A. Thompson of Durham. Rev. Jas. Taylor of the Baptist Church, Durham, tied the nuptial knot.

Promptly at 5 p.m. to the strains of the wedding march, played by the bride's niece, little Miss Margaret Montgomery, the bride entered the parlor on her father's arm. She was attired in golden pheasant satin faced crepe, with stockings and shoes to match and carried Ophelia roses.

Following the ceremony the guests sat down to a tasty wedding breakfast. The bride and groom left on the evening train for their new home at Durham, the bride wearing a suit of grey tweed and silver brocade hat. Best wishes follow the young couple in their new home.

The bride received a large number of gifts, among which were two or three handsome cheques.

EDGE HILL

Thanksgiving visitors were Mr and Mrs Lawrence McFadden and family, and Mr and Mrs Allen Brown and little son, with their parents, Mr and Mrs S. J. McNally; the McGuire, Lee and Brown families, of Egremont, at the Ritchie home.

Clarence Robinson was in Guelph the first of last week attending a class who were being coached for stock judging at the O. A. C. Wednesday afternoon with two other young men he went to Toronto where they judged live stock at the opening of the winter fair.

Last Friday night the young people of Edge Hill were hosts and hostesses to the young people from the Rocky at the schoolhouse. On account of the wet night the crowd was small, but nevertheless all enjoyed themselves. There was candy in abundance. Games were played after which there were contests and an arithmetic match, in which Miss Ethel Young of the Rocky was the winner. God Save the King brought the fun to a close, and all went home, happy though it was raining.

The annual meeting of the beef ring was held at Mr Robt. Ector's on Friday night. Mr David Robinson was appointed President for the following year, Mr E. Greenwood, Sec'y Treasurer and Messrs J. McFadden and W. Weir, inspectors.

Mr and Mrs Victor Williams and family, also Mr and Mrs E. Greenwood and family, visited recently with their parents, Mr and Mrs C. Mortley, Dornoch.

Mr and Mrs Fred Rutherford, O. Sound, spent Sunday with the McFadden family.
