Monthly Meeting of Knox W. M. S.
The monthly meeting of Knox United Church W. M. S. which was postponed till Friday, owing to the incessant of an esteemed member, Mrs. D.
Hamilton, was held at the home of Mrs. Arnold Noble, after the usual opening exercises, several ladies led in prayer. Mrs. Wm. Derby's paper on the union of the Presbyterian Churches in Canada in 1875 was read by Miss Margaret McGillivray. Mrs. Derby being unavoidably absent. This very carefully prepared paper dealt with the early history of the many branches of the Presbyterian church in Canada, particularly in Nova Scotia and the nearby provinces. These places were compared to a river with many streams, which joined the larger stream at different points, the larger stream in 1875. All the eight branches of the Presbyterian Church united—the important commemoration taking place with fitting ceremonies in Victoria Hall, Montreal. Time does not permit a further report on this very excellent paper. Mrs. Jno. Bell, President, then read the inspiring address of Mrs. Lavelle of Kingston. The roll call was answered by a verse on 'Prayer' and the meeting closed by singing and the Lord's Prayer in un-ison.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss J. E. Davidson spent the week end with Mr and Mrs Arthur Robinson of Guelph.

Mr Roy McLean was in Oshawa over the week end.

Mr Wm. Rice and son of Ridgetown are visiting with Mr and Mrs J. Rice.

Mr and Mrs Wm. Brown are this week moving in to their house lately vacated by Mr and Mrs Mowbray. We welcome them to the village.

Mr Arthur Abbs motored to Toronto on Saturday and spent a few days in the city.

Mr and Mrs Herb. Lamont were in Hanover the first of the week to visit Dr. Mair. We understand the Dr. has sold out his practice and intends in the near future moving to Rose City, Michigan.

At a meeting held in Yeovil last week, it was decided to abandon the annual ploughing match for this year. Weather conditions have been most unfavorable this season.

The deer hunters are expected home at the end of the week. The wet weather has been a drawback even in this line.

Mr Gordon Koch spent the week end with his parents in Stratford.

The well at the Parsonage has been repaired and is now in a safe condition.

At a business meeting of the United Church Sunday School on Tuesday evening, arrangements were made to hold the annual Christmas entertainment on Tuesday, Dec. 22nd.

The young people of the Presbyterian church will hold a crokinole social in the basement of the church on Friday, November 20th. There will be a programme after which lunch will be served.

Last Sunday proved an inspirational day in the United Church, being one of the special missionary Sundays in connection with the simultaneous programme being carried on throughout the country. A large attendance is reported for the morning service, especially as the day proved a stormy one. In the evening, a goodly number assembled, considering the condition of the roads, and were well rewarded by the splendid address given by Miss Mitchell, travelling Secretary for the W. M. Society. Swiftly she brought before her audience, glimpses of the work in India, China, Korea and Africa, showing how lives are brightened by the entrance of the gospel through the faithful work of our missionaries.

Then passing to our own land, very vividly she told of conditions in our prairie provinces, where she found many of our own people, and those have come to us from other lands, far from churches, schools, doctors or hospitals, and where the W. M. S. has built schools and hospitals, the boys and girls are making good, and the sick ones are full of gratitude for the comforts of the hospitals. An exceptionally large offering was presented in aid of the work.

The Community Circle met again on Tuesday evening at eight o'clock, with about thirty present. After the usual opening exercises, Miss Christie gave a very stirring appeal to the young people. In an able address, which was listened to with rapt attention, she emphasized the blessings of God, over against the curses pronounced, showing how little we appreciate the mountains of grace, and how prone we are to stay back on the borderlands, while afraid to launch out into the deep. One thing that keeps us from enjoying the fullness and sweetness of the Divine blessing is in allowing our troubles which all too often are only superficial, add perhaps sometimes imaginary, to crowd out the things that are sweetly worth while. Space forbids a more complete report of this address. The Circle would welcome the usual time spent in community singing and games. We had the pleasure of seeing some old friends at the meeting, and hope they will repeat the compliment. The Circle would welcome the presence of more young people from any part of the community. Don't miss next week.

BLYTH'S CORNERS

Not in a long number of years have we seen the land so wet and at the same time so cold as now. It is falling. Will it stay with us this time or not? We hope not.

The annual S. S. entertainment held in Knox Church, Normanby, on Wednesday evening last, Nov. 11th, was a fine success. A fairly large crowd was present and the receipts amounted to about $33. In the absence of a stationed minister, Rev. W. Johnston, Moderator, Holstein, occupied the chair acceptably. The program consisted largely of dialogues, recitations, songs and instrumental music. The recitation by Mrs. Spears of Brussels, relatives of the popular teacher of S. S. No. 1, Miss Annie Thuell, under whose supervision most of the dialogues were arranged with the exception of the two given by the young people of S. S. No. 14, under the supervision of Miss Florence Melville. All the young people in the dialogues acquitted themselves creditably and were quite amusing, while the little tots also had their recitations well under command. After a couple of hours entertainment the program came to an end. Supt. Jas. M. Marshall made a few brief remarks and words of appreciation were tendered the various ones helping in the program. The National Anthem was sung, after which a bounteous lunch was served.

The Empire Festival and Fowl Supper given by the Ladies of Knox United Church, Durham, last week, was a royal treat, both inwardly and outwardly and much praise was due them for the methodical way the whole affair was carried out. To all the anti- Presbyterian minister inducted in a Baptist church, a very encouraging sign of their belief and faith in unity.

NORTH EGREMONT

Mr John Small arrived home from the West last week.

Mr Thos. Hargrave is visiting his sister, Mrs. Jas. Allan at present.

Mr Irvine Geddes attended the Fat Stock Show at Guelph last week.

School has reopened again after a week's delay by installing sanitary closets, the work being done by Dr. W. P. Ellis of Holstein. We would like the trustees to be more progressive by having the jobs all done in one holiday.

Mr Major Eccles was in Toronto over the week end.

Mr Geo. Hooper is able to be out again, after being on the sick list for a week or so.

We are having all kinds of weather—or something to suit all from sixteen to fifty three. Mr Bowes' predictions are slightly off.

Amos church Anniversary services and fowl supper were successful, notwithstanding the stormy weather. Proceeds over $90.

We extend sincere sympathy to Mr David Hamilton and family, formerly of this vicinity, in the loss they have sustained by death of wife and mother.

YEOVIL

We extend sympathy to Mrs. Jas. Henderson, after a lingering illness, her mother, Mrs. MacPhail passed away last Tuesday at her home in Proton and on Thursday was buried in the Mt. Forest cemetery. One word of the dear, brave, old people gone.

Mrs V. Alles is enjoying a holiday in Toronto with her daughters and son David.

Miss Margaret Aberdell, who has spent the past 11 weeks in our vicinity, returned to her home yesterday.

Miss Irene West spent the week end with Miss Ella Ellis.

Mrs Norman Drimmie has been suffering the past few days with diphtheria.

Mrs J. Nelson has also been ill with the flu but is feeling some better.

Mrs Rogers is in Arthur Tp. with her daughter, Mrs. Fred McCaw. A fine little girl arrived there last Wednesday night.

Miss Ruby Philp left yesterday for Geneva, Illinois, (a suburb of Chicago) where she has taken the position of night supervisor in the hospital.

Several from our locality attended the Anniversary services at Dromore and considering the weather, report good attendance and an enjoyable time.

Howard Carter, the archeologist, has gone to the pure gold coffin of King Tut. He opened it and is proving the most wonderful Pandora box that ever was opened in several thousand years. A golden crown, ornament of gold, jewels, etc., of exquisite workmanship, in profusion, point to the wealth of the pharaoh and the popularity of the boy prince, for it is alleged he could not have been more than 16. While it does seem too good to be true, such a gold mine of a tomb should be there unopened and useless, the details of the picking off of the shrouds and packing (not being well embalmed) revealing an emaciated body, sounds a little gruesome. With such wealth revealed, no wonder that platoons of soldiers are required to protect from modern bandits.

Foul Weather for Amos Anniversary

It was unfortunate that the dates selected for the Anniversary Services of Amos Church, Dromore—Nov. 15 and 16th, should run up against such miserable weather. A soft, slushy snow fell most of Sunday and Monday and some came to the Monday evening function in cutters. Despite weather conditions however, a warm spirit permeated those who did attend, to listen to excellent gospel discourses from Rev. Mr. Collins, of Toronto. The church on both occasions was about filled and at the evening service, a choir voluntarily was given and a quartette rendered as a special musical feature. The quartette were Mr and Mrs J. D. Drimmie and Miss Grace and Mr Reggie Ramage.

Monday evening the fowl supper attracted another fair crowd considering road and weather conditions. The word "fowl" carries a magic appeal and in this case it lived true to the appeal and didn't disappoint the numbers who came to dispose of themselves. Mr. W. Johnston, Holstein, was chairman of the evening and his manner of handling the program was satisfactory to all. Mr Walter Hastie, now of Holstein, might now be called one of the pioneers of Amos church, as his speech was of a reminiscent nature.

The committee in preparation of this function were fortunate in securing three artists from Durham for the program: Mr. E. D. McCloekin and Messrs. E. L. Poindrel and W. Benson of Queen St. United Church Choir. The dramatic numbers of the former are always appreciated at Dromore, as also are the monologues and songs of the other two gentlemen. The latter two also contributed a duet.

$90 were the door receipts of the evening.

National Festival at Knox

was the banner province. They had vision, perseverance, energy, courage and imagination. One can talk to Scotsmen without offence, when fibed at for penuriousness: you could not do so to Irish or English men. They were the most generous people in the world, no matter where living, and the kirk was their backbone. The audience as a finale sang one verse of "Scots Wha Hae," and was followed by Mrs. Porter in a typical Scotch song, "Callie Horrie" and in response to a rousing encore "There grows a bonnie brier bush in our kail yard."

"Canada" was taken by Rev. J. H. Whelan, who entered on his topic calmly and after he had had a fling at some points made by the other speakers. Mr. Peters had admitted the Scots came from Ireland, so whatever green the Scots financiers had proved rogues in the "South Sea Bubble."

He made no apology to speak for Canada, best thought last. He sketched early explorers, Cabot, Jacques Cartier, Richelieu and the habits of Frenchmen. They were not good colonists. The coming of Wolfe was a bright spot, American revolutionists counted on the French, but they were wrong. He made a fine patriotic close showing how "Canada" had made a name for herself in peace and war. There were troubles facing Canada but they could be surmounted.

Mr. Peter Ramage gave a recitation "This Canada of Mine," and Mrs. C. C. Middlebrooke read a patriotic number and was encored. The audience sang a verse of "The Maple Leaf Forever" and God Save the King closed the meeting.

Over $200.00 was realized. The Ladies' Aid of the church are to be congratulated on their success and President, Miss Margaret Hunter, who was the chief organizer, and her workers are wreathed in smiles.

Maintenance and Extension Fund

Rev. W. H. Smith Clearly Sets Forth Aims and Objects of United Church

Those who worshipped in Knox United Church on Sunday morning, listened to a vigorous setting forth of what is meant by the caption in the heading. The United Church has decided to raise $4,000,000 for maintenance and extension of its work in both home and foreign fields. The pastor, Rev. W. H. Smith, emphasized strongly that this meant neither tax nor assessment, but a member of the church was compelled to give one cent, except as prompted by their own desire to aid in a great work. Members were being appealed to, not taxed, in spite of stories to the contrary. The work was one work of unity.
