Rev. C. Sinclair Jones Now in Cochrane

The editor was pleased last week to receive a renewal sub. from Rev. C. Sinclair Jones, formerly of Priceville, now pastor of the United Church in Cochrane, New Ontario. Along with an interesting letter, part of which reads: "I arrived here last July. We have a nice town of nearly four thousand people, a goodly number of French, although the British speaking people are in the majority. We have no mining, Cochrane being a railroad town. There are quite a number of foreigners, fifteen different languages being spoken on our streets. Besides the R.C. Church, we have Anglican and Baptist churches. There are Presbyterian and Methodist Churches before the union, and as there is no Continuing Presbyterian cause, we have about as many as the other two protestant churches together."

WANT TO FREE PETER SMITH?

Influence is being brought to bear on the Minister of Justice to remit the fine of $100,000 placed on Peter Smith and not only that but to liberate him from Portsmouth Penitentiary, where it seems he is in ill health. There is no denying that since Peppal got scot free, the public mind feels there is an injustice somewhere in keeping one of the trio involved in the scandals in Duranville. He may have been the chief sinner but there is an anomaly in the safety of Jarvis and Peppal and the heavy hand of the law resting on the Ex-Treasurer of Ontario. Mr. W. E. Raney, a former colleague, is the leading spirit in the effort to secure his freedom, not, we are sure, from any purpose of condoning crime, but from a humanitarian spirit and a desire to see equal justice done. To a man of Peter Smith's temperament, his punishment is already severe. We believe the quality of mercy might well be exercised in his case.

PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

Concert at Top Cliff Had Good Audience

The concert in Topcliffe school on Friday last was favored with an ideal night, resulting in a packed house. Rev. A. Sutherland very ably acted as chairman. The large and varied three-hour program consisted of choruses, action songs, a duet, a trio, recitations, monologues, "Britannia", a pantomime "O come all ye faithful" and two plays, namely "The Sewing Society", and "The coming of Santa Claus", closing with a Christmas Tree by the children, and Nationalization Court. "Pais' Matrimonial Venture", and when "Women Have Their Rights."

Play at Edge Hill Well Received

On Friday evening last a play entitled "The Path Across the Hill" was given by local talent in connection with a box social in Edge Hill School. At 8.30, Mr. J. G. Firth who ably acted chairman, introduced the Edge Hill orchestra. This consisted of Messrs Geo. Ritchie, Howard Ritchie, John Teeter on violins, Bryson Morlock on guitar and Mrs. Allan Brown, accompanist. After this the play commenced. This consisted of three acts and the following characters: Samuel Crawford, Clarence Robinson His Grandchildren: Ruth Conrad, (Armetta McKechnie); Walter Conrad, (Wilbur Greenwood); Mrs. Davis—Mylene Robinson Her granddaughter—Lutie — Glenn Firth Dr. Jimmie Reid—Arthur Robinson Flo Gray—Frederica Staples Robt Post—Howard Ritchie Zuzu and Salamander (colored servants)—Cecil Moffat

The story opens in Ruth Conrad's home. Zuzu is leaving for a short holiday to visit Salamander. Later they return married. Robt Post comes to board at Crawford's and recognizes Samuel Crawford as an old bank employee of his father's. He recalls a bank embezzlement and thinks Crawford the guilty man. Ruth's father had shielded him. After a confession he is freed, Grandma Davis, although it is not long, proposes, and she and Grandpa were married. Flo Gray came to visit her cousin Ruth, but stole Dr. Reid's heart while here. She returns home with her new husband but her mother doesn't take kindly to the idea and they return shortly after, of the opinion that they married too hastily. Ruth doesn't lament Dr. Reid's departure, as she has fallen in love with Post. Lutie and Walter, tho' still young, show their fondness for one another and very comical results followed. The orchestra also played after the first and second act and the young people gave a chorus after the third act. Then Mr. John Neil took charge of the remainder of the program and auctioned off about 40 boxes of various shapes and colors, but each very pretty. The proceeds amounted to $67.00.

HOPEVILLE

Miss Doreen Scott returned home, after spending a few weeks with friends in Toronto. Mrs. Frank Gow is visiting her parents, Mr and Mrs Jas. Riddell. Miss Tena Christie left a couple of weeks ago to take a position in Toronto. Mr. Alex. Stewart has arrived home for the holiday season. Rev. Mr. McCormack, Priceville, had charge of the services of United congregation last Sabbath, preaching a splendid sermon from Eph. 5: 27. At this service four elders were ordained in charge of the spiritual welfare of this congregation. The annual thank-offering of W. M. S. Auxiliary of United congregation, will be taken Sunday, Dec. 20, when Miss Mitchell, Field Sec'y, will be present and give an address on the work. We are sorry to hear that Mr. Jno. McPhail is still in poor health, an X-ray at O. Sound Hospital last week not giving much encouragement. The residents of this section are going to be well entertained this Christmas season. Bethany Chapel are having a Christmas Tree on Thursday evening, Dec. 24th. A Christmas Tree and entertainment will be held in Hall in connection with United S. School on Wednesday evening, Dec. 23rd. These entertainments are especially to give the children a happy time and we hope the grown ups will feel a little younger after enjoying the good programs that are being prepared. Silver collection. A meeting to wind up the business of Threshing Machine Co. was held on Wednesday at Mr. G. H. Gilke's. Mrs. Kinsman is spending a while with her niece, Mrs. E. Clarke.

PRICEVILLE

The official opening of McKinnon Hall by the Presbyterian congregation as a temporary place of worship, took place Sunday morning, when Rev. Mr. Konkle of Toronto preached an inspiring and encouraging sermon, based on Psalm 91: 4. The large congregation present were much pleased and turned out again in large numbers for the evening service, when Rev. Mr. Konkle, who is Sec'y of the Mission to Lepers, preached a sermon from Matt. 8: 23, and made an appeal for aid for that worthy cause in which he is so intensely interested. A choir of 16 voices led the service of praise and rendered appropriate selections at both services. After this service, Mr. Konkle gave an illustrated lecture in the interest of the lepers of the world in the United Church to a good-sized crowd, considering the inclement weather prevailing. Mr. Konkle also addressed both Sabbath Schools in the morning. On Monday evening a delightful social gathering under the auspices of the Presbyterian Women's Willing Helpers was held in McKinnon Hall. A splendid programme was put on with the pastor in the chair. The South Line orchestra of two violins, piccolo guitar and organ put up good music for the occasion. Readings, recitations, monologues, chorus, drill (Britannia) and a good humorous play entitled "That awful letter", put on by four young ladies, made a very interesting programme. The seating capacity of the hall has already been doubled since it a few weeks ago, but proved to be still too small both on Sunday and Monday. The presence of such a large number of young people at those services, augurs well for the future of Presbyterianism in this place. This coupled with the harmony and good feeling existing in the congregation, gives assurance that they will carry on in the work successfully in spite of adverse opinion.

Good Bye and Presentation

Tuesday night the members of the 'Ever Ready' Class of the Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. Donald Campbell, to have a parting word with her grand daughter, Miss Lulu Mills. The evening was pleasantly spent with crokinole and other games. Little addresses were given by Mr. W. Moffat, Supt., Margaret McDonald and Miss Moffat. The feature of the evening, the presentation of a fine book and a folder of fancy writing paper and envelopes from the class, by Misses Violet McLean and Gertrude Harrison, while Miss Merida Havens read the following address: Miss Lulu Mills: The members and teachers of the 'Ever Ready' class have met here tonight to spend a pleasant hour and to say good-bye, before you leave for your new home. We are very sorry you are leaving us. As treasurer of the class you have been faithful in your duties and ever ready to do what was right. We shall miss you, not only in the class, but in school and church, and trust that when you leave here you will find a class in Sunday School and kind friends to love you as we do. We could not let you go without showing in some way our appreciation and kind wishes and in saying, we ask you to accept this book and folder as a little token of appreciation and kind wishes and that God's choicest blessing may be ever with you. Signed on behalf of the 'Ever Ready' Class of the Durham Baptist Sunday School, Alice B. Nicholson, Sec'y E. Moffat, Teacher

Lulu, who was Treasurer of the class, made a nice reply and invited all to visit her at any time at her new home in Goderich. A dainty lunch was served at the close. Will Petty 'Bagged' on Leaving Streetsville Mr. Will Petty, son of Mr and Mrs. Thos. Petty of town, and who has been night operator at Streetsville Junction for about six years, has gone to Brighton, where he has been promoted. Recently a number of Masons met in their lodge room at Streetsville for a social evening. The Streetsville Review comments on it as follows: "Wor. Bro. Atkinson was master of ceremonies. Speeches were made by Rev. Frank Vipond and A. B. Bruce, Wor. Bro. Wm. Souze, in a few well chosen words, presented Bro. Petty with a handsome club bag in rich brown leather, with monogram in gold, as a token of the esteem in which he was held by his Masonic brethren. Bro. Petty in a neat little speech, thanked the brethren for their kindness to him. He said it was a complete surprise, and he appreciated it very much. Bro. Petty has been a valued officer of River Park Lodge and at last meeting was elected Senior Steward. While the brethren regret to lose "Bill" from the lodge, they know he will be a great help to some other lodge and that he has the ability to fill any position with which he may be entrusted."

Death of Archibald Campbell, Invermay, Sask.

There passed away on Saturday, Nov. 21st, one of the pioneers of this district, in the person of the late Archibald Campbell of Invermay, Sask., who has been a resident of this district for over 29 years. He was born about three miles east of Durham on the Gravel Road in the year 1875 and received his education in Blain's school house, S.S. No. 1. Prior to his arrival here, he had been employed in railroad construction and had built some of the first bridges over the lines of the C.N. and G.N. Railways. A number of years ago while engaged in that work, he met with an accident, breaking both legs, which left him lame for the rest of his life. On his arrival at Invermay he and the late Walter Tulloch formed a partnership in the mercantile business. He also homesteaded land adjoining the town, where he spent

Knox United Church W. M. S. Meets

The above Society met in the schoolroom of the church Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 9th, for the December meeting, with the President, Mrs. J. Bell, in the chair. The bible reading was given by Miss Margaret McGirr. Rev. Mr. Smith then addressed the ladies on "Women's work in the church, and in the foreign mission fields for women and children." On women is to fall the burden of solving the problems for women. No society rises above the women of that society. Man will not rise higher in the standards of life than the womanhood. In all heathen countries women are discriminated against. Only in Protestant countries have they ever been revered or given any real rights. In Japan one-third of the people are tubercular, but there are not enough doctors to look after them, all, also in India and China, where there is only one medical doctor for a million people. The home of the missionary is a continual sermop to the native people, whose dark and miserable lives should stir the womanhood of the church to tell the story of Jesus Christ and share good gifts with those who have so little. Before the meeting closed the officers were all re-elected for the next three months, owing to the business year of the church now ending in March instead of December.
